In calendar years ending in an odd number, Danica shall have the first choice of summer parent-time. In calendar years ending in an even number, Jantzen shall have the first choice. Unless the parties agree otherwise in writing, the two (2) weeks shall not be taken consecutively, but exercised in one-week blocks with at least fourteen days separating the one-week blocks. The parent with first choice shall provide the other parent with written notice of their selected summer parent-time by May 1st. The other parent shall provide written notice of their selected summer parent-time by May 15th. If the parent with first choice fails to provide notice by May 1st, the other parent shall be entitled to first choice for that year. Summer parent-time shall not interfere with the other parent's scheduled holiday parent-time.

8. Right of First Refusal: Each parent shall have the right of first refusal to provide care for the minor children in the event the parent with the children is unavailable to do so for a period of six (6) hours or longer during their scheduled parent-time, provided that the parent receiving notice is personally available and willing to provide the care and transportation.

9. Transportation: Transportation for parent-time exchanges shall be as the parties agree. If the parties are unable to agree, parent-time exchanges shall be as follows:

a. A party exercising the right of first refusal shall provide the transportation both directions.

b. Parent-time exchanges shall occur at the minor children's school when school is in session. The party ending parent-time shall ensure the minor children are delivered to school and the party beginning parent-time shall ensure the minor children are picked up from school.

c. When school is not in session, the party beginning parent-time shall provide the transportation for the parent-time exchange, which shall occur at the other parent's residence.

d. A third party who possesses a valid driver's license and is known to the minor children may facilitate transportation for parent-time exchanges.

10. Drugs and Alcohol: The parties shall be restrained from consuming illegal drugs or non-prescribed prescription drugs or abusing prescription drugs at any time. The parties shall be restrained from abusing alcohol while the minor children are in their care or immediately prior to parent-time.

a. If either parent suspects that the other parent is using illegal substances or non-prescribed prescription drugs, or abusing prescription drugs, they may request the other parent to submit to a drug test. Such testing shall include, at a minimum, an observed 7 panel drug test, or a hair follicle test if no tests within the last 12 months. Once requested, the drug test must be completed within 24 hours, if reasonably practical to do so. If the drug test is not completed within 24 hours, it will be considered positive for illegal drugs. Such tests shall initially be at the expense of the requesting parent, subject to reallocation of costs described below.

b. The parent who submits to an observed 7 panel drug test, or hair follicle test, shall instruct the testing facility to release copies of the results to the requesting parent, and shall execute any release forms required by the testing facility to effectuate this release of results.

c. If the drug test comes back positive for illegal drugs or any un-prescribed prescription drugs, or elevated levels of prescription drugs above that prescribed, then the parent who failed the test shall immediately reimburse the requesting parent for the cost of the test.

d. If a party tests positive for illegal drugs, or non-prescribed drugs, or non-prescribed prescription drugs, or elevated levels of prescription drugs above that prescribed, or if a party consumes alcohol during parent-time or immediately prior to parent-time, the parties will return to court to readdress custody and parent-time on an expedited hearing or through a Temporary Restraining Order.

11. Child Support: For purposes of calculating child support only, Petitioner's gross monthly income is imputed at $3,466, and Respondent's gross monthly income is $11,666. Based on the joint custody child support calculation worksheet for three (3) minor children, with Petitioner having the minor children 183 overnights each year, and Respondent having the minor children 182 overnights each year, Respondent's child support obligation to Petitioner will be $692 per month, commencing March 1, 2026. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for the child terminates at the time: (1) the child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month.

a. Reduction When Child Becomes 18. In accordance with statute, when a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the base child support award is automatically reduced to reflect the lower base combined child support obligation shown in the table in Utah Code §81-6-213 for the remaining number of minor children due child support. The award may not be reduced by a per child amount derived from the base child support award originally ordered.

b. Income Withholding. The party receiving child support is entitled to immediate and automatic withholding of income as a means of collecting child support, pursuant to Utah Code §26B-9-303.

c. Adjustment of Child Support. A child support order may be adjusted pursuant to Utah Code §26B-9-221.

12. Child Care Expenses: The parties shall utilize each other or family members who are willing to provide child care at no cost before engaging a paid third-party child care provider. In accordance with Utah Code §81-6-209, the child support order shall require that each parent share equally the reasonable work-related child care expenses of the parents.

a. If an actual expense for child care is incurred, a parent shall begin paying his/her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the child care expense, but if the child care expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred without obtaining a modification of the child support order.

b. In the absence of a court order, a parent who incurs child care expense shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a child care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent.

c. In the absence of a court order to the contrary, the parent shall notify the other parent of any change of child care provider or the monthly expense of child care within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the change.

d. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring child care expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with subsections ‘b’ and ‘c’.

13. Medical/Dental Expenses: In accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208, a parent shall provide and maintain medical and dental insurance for the minor children if it is available to them at reasonable cost and is accessible to the children. Currently Jantzen is providing the minor children’s medical insurance.

a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the minor children’s portion of insurance. The minor children’s portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the minor children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children in the instant case.

b. The parent who provides the insurance coverage may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the minor children’s portion of the premium. In cases in which the parent does not have insurance, but another member of the parent's household provides insurance coverage for the minor children, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the minor children’s portion of the premium.

c. Each parent shall equally share all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for the minor children, including but not limited to deductibles and copayments.

d. The parent who is maintaining insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the minor children, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) calendar days of the date the parent first knew or should have known of the change.

e. A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment with reimbursement to take place within the following thirty (30) days.

f. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with Subsections (d) and (e) of this paragraph.

g. If, at any point in time, the dependent minor children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, Jantzen's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan shall be primary coverage for the dependent minor children and Danica's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan shall be secondary coverage for the minor children. If a parent remarries and the minor children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the minor children.

14. Medical Billing for a Minor Child: Pursuant to Utah Code §15-4-6.7, the parties may elect that medical/dental expenses be divided by the service provider into two separate accounts for payment, one for each parent as long as the service provider receives a copy of the Decree of Divorce or other controlling court order at or before the day on which the service provider first renders medical/dental services. A creditor who has been provided a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order, nor may the creditor make a negative credit report under Utah Code §70C-7-107, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order.

15. School Registration and Fees: The parties will equally divide all reasonable and necessary school registration and school fees for the minor children. Proof of payment shall be provided by the party incurring the cost to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment with reimbursement to take place within the following thirty (30) days.

16. Payment of School Fees: When a court enters an order that provides for the payment of school fees of a child pursuant to Section 81-4-204 or Section 81-4-406, a provider who receives a copy of the order before the day on which the provider first issues a bill for a school fee and upon request of a parent, shall separately bill each parent for the share of the school fee that the parent is required to pay under the order. A provider may bill a parent for the parent's share of a child's school fee under an order regardless of whether the provider grants the other parent a waiver for all or a portion of the other parent's share of the child's school fee. A provider, who receives a copy of the order, regardless of whether the provider receives the copy before, on, or after the day on which the provider first issues a bill for the school fee, may not make a negative credit report under Section 70C-7-107, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full the share of the school fee that the parent is required to pay under the order. Each parent is liable only for the share of the school fee that the parent is required to pay under the order.

17. Extracurricular Activities: The parties will equally divide the cost of extracurricular activities for the minor children so long as the parties have mutually agreed to the activity in writing prior to the minor children being enrolled in the activity. If the parties have agreed to divide the cost of the activity in advance, proof of payment shall be provided by the party enrolling the minor children in the activity to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment with reimbursement to take place within the following thirty (30) days. Any party unilaterally enrolling the minor children in extracurricular activities will do so at their own expense and the activity will not interfere with the other party's parent-time.

18. Health Savings Account: The parties have a Health Equity health savings account (HSA) with a current balance of approximately $2,000. The parties agree that the current balance in the HSA shall be used to pay for the minor children's medical expenses.

19. 2025 Tax Return: The parties shall cooperate in filing a joint tax return for the 2025 tax year, with each party paying one-half of the cost of the tax preparation. The parties shall equally share any tax refund for the 2025 tax year or shall equally pay any taxes owed for the 2025 tax year.

20. Taxes: The parties shall each claim ½ of the total number of children available to be claimed each year as tax exemptions and be awarded any tax credits related to the children for the purpose of calculating his or her State and Federal income taxes. For years in which there are an odd number of children available to be claimed as dependents for the purposes of credits or exemptions, the parties shall alternate years wherein each may claim the extra child, with Petitioner claiming the extra child in odd years, and Respondent claiming the extra child in even years.

21. Respondent's ability to claim the exemption for the minor children shall be conditioned on his being current on December 31st of that tax year in his child support obligations to Petitioner. Upon reasonable advance notice and request, each party shall provide the other party a signed Internal Revenue Service 8332 form for any year where the other party is awarded the child for tax purposes.

25. The parties shall notify the other parent of injury or illness as soon as reasonably possible involving a minor child.

26. When a parent leaves the minor children in the care of a third-party caregiver, the name and contact information of the other parent will be provided to the caregiver. Additionally, the other parent shall be provided the name and contact information of the caregiver.

27. The parties shall notify the other parent of any change of address, email address, and/or telephone number within twenty-four (24) hours of the change.

28. The parent who has the minor children in his/her care may make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the minor children without having to consult with the other parent. For emergency purposes, whenever the minor children travel overnight or longer, the parent arranging the travel shall provide the other parent with an itinerary of travel dates, destinations, and places where the minor children can be reached.

29. The parties shall work together in a reasonable manner to accommodate each other and to provide the minor children consistency and stability.

30. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the minor children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the lives of the minor children, or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

This includes any comments about the other parent's actions that may be construed as having a negative impact on the other parent's relationship with the minor children.

41. The party with the minor children in his/her care shall be responsible for ensuring the minor children's homework is complete and transporting the minor children to and from school on time.

42. Communication regarding the minor children shall be directly between the parents and shall not involve third parties.

43. The parties shall not introduce the minor children to a significant other until they have been in a dating relationship with that individual for at least three (3) months. Additionally, neither party shall permit a significant other to stay overnight while the minor children are present unless the party has been in a dating relationship with that individual for at least six (6) months.

44. Unless the parties mutually agree otherwise in writing or Order of the Court, the minor children shall continue attending their current schools/feeder schools.

After discussing the issue and researching solutions, if the parties cannot reach an agreement on a major issue regarding the minor children, the parties shall attend mediation. Each party shall be responsible for one-half the cost of the mediation. If the parties do not reach an agreement in mediation, either party may take the issue before the court.

Respondent shall retain $310,000 of the home's equity as his premarital funds from selling his Springville home and shall retain $15,681 of the home's equity from the gift given to him by his parents and paid toward the home purchase. $15,681 of the home's equity is granted to Petitioner from the gift given from Respondent's parents toward the purchase of the home. The parties paid down the mortgage together by $94,934 with one half of this value awarded to each. The value of the home has increased by $252,166. Petitioner is assigned $126,083 of the appreciation value. Considering these amounts and assignments, Respondent shall pay Petitioner $189,231 for her share of the home's equity. This payment shall be achieved by the division of the parties' retirement and investment accounts as laid out previously in this Stipulation.

68. Petitioner shall quit claim said property to Respondent within 7 days of being bought out of the home. In the event that Petitioner fails to execute a Quit-Claim Deed in favor of Respondent, Respondent may seek an order of the court transferring title of the real property to Respondent. Upon quitclaim transfer, Respondent shall hold Petitioner harmless on any and all obligations associated with the home.

69. Alimony: Respondent has significantly greater earnings and earning capacity than does Petitioner. Petitioner has the need for alimony, and Respondent has the ability to pay. Respondent shall pay Petitioner alimony in the amount of $1,508.00 per month for 24 months, then $708.00 per month for 12 months. Retirement will not constitute a substantial and material change in circumstances to warrant modification of the alimony award. The alimony amount and term shall be non-modifiable, with the caveat that pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-208(10) and 81-4-502, alimony shall terminate earlier upon the remarriage or death of that former spouse, or upon the establishment by the party paying alimony that the former spouse is cohabitating with another person. However, if the remarriage is annulled and found to be void ab initio, payment of alimony shall resume if the party paying alimony is made a party to the action of annulment and the payor party's rights are determined.

70. Restoration of Maiden Name: Petitioner's name shall be restored to Danica Johnston, if she so chooses.

71. Attorney's Fees: Both parties shall be responsible for their own attorney's fees and costs.

72. Delivery of Documents and Duty to Sign Documents: Each party shall execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of their divorce decree, the other party may bring an Order to Show Cause at the expense of the disobedient party and ask that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

73. Disclosure: The parties acknowledge that each has fully and completely disclosed to the other all assets of every kind and nature known to him or her in which he or she may have any interest whatsoever, and that the Stipulation encompasses and deals with all such assets and that there are no assets or liabilities contingent or otherwise that have not been disclosed in connection with the final settlement of this matter through the financial declarations and as herein set forth and to be distributed between the parties. If it is later discovered that a party failed to disclose an asset, the other party may be awarded the entirety of that asset.

74. Drafting: The parties each had an opportunity to substantively review and make edits to the terms of the Stipulation. Accordingly, if there is any ambiguity or vagueness contained herein, this document shall not be construed against the interest of either party as the drafting party.
