TO: 4TH DISTRICT COURT
Provo, Utah County, Utah

ATTN: Judge Samuel McVey

FROM: Provo A.P.& P.

REGARDING: GLOVER, Leah Nichole

CASE NO.: 011404466

OFFENSE: Poss/Use Controlled Substance, Third Degree Felony
Use Or Possession Of Drug Paraphernalia, Class A Misdemeanor

DATE: 01/10/2005

PROBATION DATE: 12/19/2001

LEGISLATIVE DATE: 12/18/2004

DEFENSE ATTY: Richard P. Gale

OFFENDER #: 148036

ADDRESS: 4807 HALL, AMARILLO TX 79109

EMPLOYMENT: Home Maker

COMMENTS:

On 12/19/2001, Leah Nichole GLOVER was placed on probation with the following conditions:

1. I will not frequent places where drugs are used or sold, nor will I associate with persons known to use or sell non-prescribed controlled substances, and I will not obtain prescriptions for controlled substances without the prior knowledge of my probation agent.
2. I may have my probation compacted to Texas is accepted by said state.
3. I will successfully complete any and all counseling as directed by my probation agent.
4. I will pay a fine of $500, plus interest, or complete 100 hours of community service work in lieu of the fine.
5. Serve 90 days in the Utah County Jail, with credit for 11 served. Further the remaining 79 days of my jail term will be stayed upon successful completion of an inpatient substance abuse program.
6. I will pay a recoupment fee of $750, plus interest.
7. I will pay a surcharge of $425, plus interest.
8. I will obtain a substance abuse evaluation and participate in counseling as recommended by my probation agent.

Ms. Glover has been on probation for just over 34 months. Shortly after being sentenced she divorced her husband, co-defendant, and moved to Texas with her three small children. Her probation was compacted to said state. She enrolled in and successfully completed substance abuse therapy at the Haven in Amarillo. She did complete 11 hours of community service but needed to complete 100 hours to satisfy her fine. She is currently self-employed as a babysitter. She has not been arrested or had any problems regarding her probation while in Texas. This agent sent a Waiver of Personal Appearance to the subject's Texas Probation agent on November 5, 2004, which she voluntarily signed on November 29, 2004, agreeing to an unsuccessful termination of her probation agreement with a Civil Judgment regarding the balance of her Court ordered financial obligations.

ACTION TAKEN BY AGENT: NOTIFY SUPERVISOR AND THE COURT.

RECOMMENDATION: It is respectfully recommended by the Staff of Adult Probation and Parole that Ms. Glover' probation be unsuccessfully terminated and the balance of her Court ordered financial obligations be turned over to the Utah Office of Debt Collections. Please see attached Civil Judgment form and Waiver of Personal Appearance.

WAIVER OF PERSONAL APPEARANCE
BEFORE THE FOURTH DISTRICT COURT

Date: 11/29/2004

I Leah Nichole Glover, Court Case# 011404466 do hereby voluntarily request that my personal appearance before the Fourth District Court, Provo Department be waived and that my probation supervision be extended, unsuccessfully terminated, or that the conditions of my probation be amended as follows:

1) I agree that my probation will be unsuccessfully terminated and that the balance of my court ordered financial obligations will be turned over to the Utah Office of Debt Collections. Said action is being taken because I have been unable to pay said obligations during my probation period.

I realize that by signing this waiver I will not be able to represent myself or have an attorney represent me before the Court; however, I am willing to accept the extension of my probation, unsuccessful termination, or the above-noted amendment to the conditions of my probation, as stipulated to the Court and voluntarily waive my right of personal appearance before the Court in this matter.
