Counsel for Respondent

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
137 N Freedom Blvd, Ste 100, Provo, UT 84601

In the Matter of the Marriage of ALICIA AHLFORS, Petitioner, and JARL AHLFORS, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE AND JUDGMENT Case No.: 264400074 Judge: Christine Johnson Commissioner: Marla Snow

THIS MATTER having come before the Court by Petitioner's Complaint/Petition for Divorce, Respondent's Counterpetition for Divorce, and the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement of the parties, the Court, having made and entered its findings of fact and conclusions of law, and having determined that the Court has jurisdiction to enter a final Decree of Divorce and Judgment and that the parties meet the criteria for a divorce, being otherwise fully advised in the premises, HEREBY ORDERS, ADJUDGES, AND DECREES:

1. Divorce: The bonds of matrimony and the marriage contract heretofore existing by and between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved. Based on Petitioner's Complaint/Petition for Divorce, Respondent's Counterpetition for Divorce, and the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement, the parties are hereby granted a Decree of Divorce, to become final upon entry, on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

2. Children: The parties have three minor children in common. There are no other children expected as issue of this marriage. Petitioner is not currently pregnant. The parties' minor children in common are:

a. A.A.A., born December 2008

b. I.M.A., born June 2011

c. C.M.A., born July 2013

3. Legal Custody: The parties are hereby awarded joint legal custody of the parties' minor children.

4. Major Decisions: The parties shall make all major decisions regarding the children's medical care, education, religious upbringing, and personal care together. The parties shall strive to make joint decisions that serve the children's best interests.

5. Conflict Resolution: In the event that the parties are unable to come to an agreement on a major decision regarding the children, they shall take the following actions to resolve the conflict:

a. The parties shall engage in a good-faith discussion of the issues, seeking to understand the point of view of the other party and to see whether an agreement or compromise can be reached.

b. If an agreement cannot be reached, and to the extent that it is practical/possible, the parties shall each individually consult with an expert in the field most relevant to the decision the parties need to make to gain additional perspective and knowledge about the issues.

c. If the issue remains unresolved after each party has consulted with an expert, the parties shall engage in a second good-faith discussion of the issues, sharing and considering whatever additional information and perspective was received through their consultations with experts.

d. Petitioner is hereby awarded the presumptive decision-making authority on the issue if the parties are unable to resolve the disputed joint legal custody issue following their second good-faith discussion on the matter. Petitioner shall communicate to Respondent her intent to exercise her final say in writing. Any time in writing is used herein email or text message shall be sufficient. This notice shall include the details of the decision she intends to make.

i. Petitioner shall wait at least 24 hours after providing her written notice before taking any of the actions contemplated in her notice.

ii. If Respondent still disagrees with Petitioner's decision, he shall have the right to submit the matter to the Court for adjudication. Respondent must communicate his intent to submit the matter to the Court within 24 hours of receiving Petitioner's notice.

iii. If Respondent still disagrees with Petitioner's decision, he shall provide an explanation as to why and the decision he would make, in writing. Respondent shall not use this provision to object to every decision put forth by Petitioner and to intentionally cause Petitioner to incur attorneys' fees the same way Petitioner shall not use her presumptive authority to overrule Respondent on every decision. If Respondent does submit a dispute to the Court for consideration, the Court may evaluate the frequency and reasons for his objections in its considerations.

iv. If Respondent does not communicate his intent to Petitioner within 24 hours of receiving written notice of her final say decision, his objection to Petitioner's decision shall be deemed waived, and Petitioner shall be free to move forward and take action consistent with her decision.

v. Respondent shall file a motion with the Court on the issue within seven days of communicating his intent to do so to Petitioner.

vi. If Respondent does not file the required motion with the Court within seven days of communicating his intent to do so to the Petitioner, his objection to Petitioner's decision shall be deemed waived, and Petitioner shall be free to move forward and take action consistent with her decision.

6. Medical Decisions: Each party shall have the right to consult with medical practitioners and physicians regarding the minor children and to authorize emergency medical treatment, if needed, for the minor children. A party who takes the minor children to a routine medical appointment and/or appointment for illness shall inform the other party of any findings/recommended treatments within 24 hours. Both parties are hereby granted the authority to incur expenses for emergency care for the minor children. The party authorizing the emergency care shall make every effort to contact the other party before operating procedures are carried out and shall inform the other party of any findings/recommended treatments within 24 hours. The parties agree to cooperate on medical matters involving the minor children, including, without limitation, keeping each other reasonably informed with names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all medical, dental, and vision providers for the minor children.

7. Educational Decisions: The parties' children shall continue in their current school and school districts and, to the extent possible, shall remain in their current school placement until they graduate from high school. To the extent that Petitioner's address permits the children to continue in their current enrollment, her address shall be used as the children's residential address for purposes of school enrollment. If her address does not permit the children's continued enrollment, Respondent's address shall be used as the children's residential address for purposes of school enrollment. Each party shall have the right to consult with educational professionals and teachers regarding the minor children. Each party shall have access to the minor children during school; shall have the right to attend/participate in all school-related activities in which the minor children are involved, including, but not limited to, parent/teacher conferences; and shall have the right to check the minor children out of school during their parent-time or when agreed upon.

8. Religious Decisions: To the extent the parties' religions differ, each shall be entitled to expose the minor children to their respective cultural nuances and religions during their parent-time. Neither party shall allow the minor children to participate in any religious ceremony or training that would result in the minor children's confirmation or commitment to that religion without the other party's consent. The parties shall seek input from their children when considering major religious decisions and shall agree to defer to the children's desires if the parties reach an impasse.

9. Personal Care Decisions: Each party shall be permitted to make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of the minor children while the minor children are residing with that party. Permanent body modifications, such as tattoos and piercings, shall not be considered day-to-day decisions.

10. Additional Parenting Plan Provisions: The parties are hereby bound by the following additional parenting plan provisions:

a. Both parties shall have direct access to all medical records and school reports regarding the minor children. Unless otherwise provided by court order or law, on reasonable request, both parties are entitled to have equal access to documents and other information concerning the minor children's education and physical, mental, moral, and emotional health, including medical, school, police, court, and other records of any kind or nature whatsoever, without limitation, directly from the custodian of records. A party who does not comply with a reasonable request for these records shall reimburse the requesting party for court costs and attorney fees incurred to make the other parent obey this request. A parent who attempts to restrict the release of documents or information to a parent by the custodian of records without a prior Court order may be subject to further legal sanctions (Utah Code Ann. §81-9-202).

b. Both parties shall be listed as a primary contact for the children and shall have access to the children during school and have the authority to check the children out of school during their respective parent-time.

c. The parties shall both list each parent as emergency contacts for their children whenever such a designation is requested or required from either party.

d. All direct communication between the parties shall be limited to coparenting issues only and shall be in writing. The parties shall discuss all parenting concerns by text or e-mail. The parties shall use the phone for emergencies or urgent matters only. The parties' communications shall be respectful in tone/tenor and shall not use any profanities or expletives. The parties shall not use any substitutes for profanities, such as random keystrokes, and shall not use any changes in font or emphasis to show anger or dissatisfaction.

e. Communication regarding the minor children shall be directly between the parties and shall not involve third parties. The parties shall not use any of their children or other third parties to deliver messages.

f. The parties shall not put the minor children in the middle of any disputes between the parties.

g. The parties shall not discuss adult issues, including the parties' legal proceedings, financial issues of the parties, major co-parenting decisions, parenting issues, or other adult topics, with any of the minor children or in any of the minor children's presences.

h. The parties shall not discuss any of the children's relationship with the other party in front of any of the children. The parties shall not question, interrogate, or otherwise "pump" any of their children for information regarding what occurs during the other party's parent-time, including but not limited to the other party's activities, personal relationships, or how the other party spends his or her time or money.

i. Neither party shall disparage or make derogatory remarks about the other party.

j. The parties shall especially not make disparaging or derogatory remarks to one another or to the children about the other party, either verbally, in writing, or some other medium that may be reasonably accessed by a child (such as social media), regardless of whether the party believes the statement to be true.

k. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither party shall attempt to alienate the children from the other party. Both parties shall have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes their best interest.

l. Both parties are hereby restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish any of the minor children's love and affection for the other party. This includes any comments about the other party's actions that may be construed as having a negative impact on the other party's relationship with the minor children.

m. The parties shall make best efforts not to jump to negative conclusions about the other party or what is occurring during the other party's parent-time.

n. Each party shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communication with the children, in the form of phone and/or video calls, if the equipment is reasonably available. Such contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The parties may initiate communication with the children at their sole discretion. The children shall be able to contact either party at any time.

o. Petitioner currently provides cell phones for the minor children. Petitioner shall continue to pay for such phones. Petitioner shall have full parental control over each phone, including, but not limited to, which applications are installed. To facilitate this, Respondent shall work with Petitioner to transfer the minor children's Apple IDs, or provide her with the log in, or whatever other action is necessary to make the ID appear in her account and so that she can control them by no later than submission of this Decree of Divorce and Judgment to the court. However, the cell phones shall be able to transfer between the parties' residences with the minor children, and the minor children shall be able to use the cell phones to call either parent at their discretion.

p. Each party shall give special consideration to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either party which may inadvertently conflict with the schedule herein.

q. The parties shall provide each other their current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

r. The parties shall notify the other party of injury or illness involving the minor children as soon as reasonably possible.

s. The parents shall each have the responsibility to obtain information directly from schools, medical providers, or other activity or event providers. However, if one parent's contact information is the only source of contact for the provider or a parent has reason to know the other parent has not obtained certain information, that parent shall make a good faith effort to keep the other parent informed. This includes information concerning report cards, progress reports, school photos, school programs, parent-related activities, school calendars and schedules, as well as any details concerning extracurricular, religious, or community activities.

t. The parties shall provide each other with the names and telephone numbers of teachers and others who work with the parties' minor children at school, medically, or otherwise so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these professionals.

u. The parties shall share information relating to doctor or dentist appointments, sports, special lessons, new skills, new language development, discipline challenges, etc., regarding their minor children.

v. Neither party shall enroll or unenroll a child from school without notifying and consulting with the other party in advance and following the dispute resolution process outlined herein if the parties are not in agreement on the issue.

w. Neither party shall initiate or discontinue ongoing treatment for the children without notifying and consulting with the other party in advance and following the dispute resolution process outlined herein if the parties are not in agreement on the issue.

x. If a child is prescribed medication, both parties shall ensure the child takes the medication as prescribed when the child is in his or her care. If there is a dispute over whether a child shall be prescribed medication, the parties shall follow the dispute resolution process outlined herein.

y. The parties shall work together in a reasonable manner to accommodate each other and to provide the minor children consistency and stability.

z. The parties shall work together to set similar boundaries, expectations, and disciplinary measures that are more consistent between the two households. Both parties shall be responsible for the minor children's completion of homework during their parent-time. Both parties shall encourage the minor children to get 8 hours of sleep a night and shall attempt to enforce a consistent bedtime of 10 p.m.

aa. Neither party shall introduce the minor children to their significant others until the relationship has lasted a minimum of 6 months. Both parties shall inform the other if their significant other is going to be spending overnights, shared time, or alone time with the children. If so, the significant other's full name and phone number shall be provided.

bb. Neither party shall use corporal punishment or withholding food as a form of punishment.

cc. Both parties shall ensure the children have adequate supervision based on their age, maturity level, and other relevant considerations.

dd. Both parties shall maintain appropriate accommodations for each child for overnight parent-time (adequate housing, a separate bed for the child, etc.).

ee. Both parties shall keep any firearms, ammunition, and other weapons stored in a locked case that the children cannot access without a party being present. Older children shall not be allowed to supervise younger children in using any weapon unless both children are age 18 or above.

ff. Neither party is awarded a right of first refusal.

gg. Each party shall provide all surrogate care providers with the name, current address, and telephone number of the other party.

hh. Each party shall provide the other party with the name, current address, and telephone number of all surrogate care providers who will be providing care for their children. However, neither party shall be permitted to object to the other parent's choice of caregiver unless that parent believes they pose a danger to the minor children's physical, mental, emotional, or moral well-being.

ii. A party shall immediately notify the other parent if the party resides with an individual, or provides an individual with access to at least one of the parties' minor children, and the parent knows that the individual is required to register as a sex offender, a kidnap offender, or a child abuse offender for an offense committed against a minor child under Title 53, Chapter 29, Sex, Kidnap, and Child Abuse Offender Registry; or has been convicted of a child abuse offense under Section 76-5-109, 76-5-109.2, 76-5-109.3, 76-5-109.4, 76-5-114, or 76-5-208; a sexual offense against a minor child under Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses, other than an offense under Section 76-5-417, 76-5-418, or 76-5-419; an offense for kidnapping or human trafficking of a minor child under Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 3, Kidnapping, Trafficking, and Smuggling; a sexual exploitation offense against a minor child under Title 76, Chapter 5b, Sexual Exploitation Act; or an offense that is substantially similar to the offenses listed herein.

jj. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and each shall have an affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor children from such circumstances.

11. Physical Custody: The parties are hereby awarded joint physical custody of the parties' minor children.

12. Parent-time: The parties shall exercise parent-time as they agree. If the parties do not otherwise agree, they shall exercise parent-time on a week-on, week-off schedule. The default parent-time week shall begin on Mondays. On Respondent's weeks, he shall drop the minor children off at school on Mondays and Petitioner shall pick the minor children up from school on Mondays. On Petitioner's weeks, she shall drop the minor children off at school on Mondays and Respondent shall pick the minor children up from school on Mondays. Alternatively, both parties can elect to have the minor children take the bus to/from school. If there is no school, the receiving parent shall pick up from the other party's home curbside. Neither party shall enter the other's residence. The children shall walk to the curb. If there is no school, exchanges shall take place at 3 p.m. The parties shall not rely on their adult children to conduct exchanges for them.

13. Appropriate Living Accommodations: The week-on, week-off parenting schedule is predicated on both parties having appropriate living accommodations for the children. Appropriate living accommodations include sufficient space/bedrooms for the children to have their own comfortable space and their own beds. Given the parties' schedule at the time of the execution of their agreement, Petitioner shall have parent-time from June 24-29 at 3 p.m. and Respondent shall have parent-time June 29 at 3 p.m. to July 6 at 3 p.m. Respondent shall provide proof of his new living arrangement to Petitioner through counsel no later than July 1, 2026, including a copy of his lease agreement, proof of the address at which he intends to reside with the minor children, the number of bedrooms in the residence, and photographs of the bedrooms in the residence. Petitioner shall have parent-time from July 6 at 3 p.m. to July 13 at 3 p.m. Respondent shall further provide proof of his individual beds for the minor children through counsel prior to the start of his parent-time on July 13, 2026, at 3 p.m. If Respondent fails to provide the July 1 and July 13 proof, he shall only be entitled to parent-time every other weekend until such proof is provided. If Respondent provides the July 1 and July 13 proof, he shall continue having parent-time on a week-on, week-off basis.

14. Holiday Parent-time: The parties agree that they shall share and exercise holiday parent-time as they agree. If the parties do not agree otherwise, they shall exercise holiday parent-time pursuant to the statutory holiday parent-time schedule included in Utah Code Ann. §81-9-303. Respondent shall be the custodial parent for purposes of interpreting the statutory holiday parent-time schedule only.

c. Because C.M.A.'s birthday falls on July 25, the party entitled to holiday parent-time "the day before or after the child's birthday" shall always exercise that holiday parent-time on July 26 and never on July 24.

15. Summer Parent-time: For 2026, the parties shall determine if either wants to take an uninterrupted 2-week block and, if so, mutually agree upon dates for each party to do so. Starting in 2027, the parties agree that each party shall be entitled to two weeks of uninterrupted parent-time each summer as follows:

a. Each party shall make a designation at least 30 days before the day on which their designated two-week period begins.

b. For their uninterrupted parent-time in odd-numbered years:

i. Petitioner shall provide notice of the dates she elects to exercise her uninterrupted parent-time to Respondent by May 1st; and

ii. Respondent shall provide notice of the dates he elects to exercise his uninterrupted parent-time to Petitioner after receiving Petitioner's notice of election or after May 1st, whichever is earlier; and

c. In even-numbered years:

i. Respondent shall provide notice of the dates he elects to exercise his uninterrupted parent-time to Petitioner by May 1st; and

ii. Petitioner shall provide notice of the dates she elects to exercise her uninterrupted parent-time to Respondent after receiving Respondent's notice of election or after May 1st, whichever is earlier; and

d. The parties shall not designate their extended summer parent-time in such a way that it interferes with the other party's holiday parent-time or any other already designated parent-time.

e. Failure to designate summer parent-time by the deadlines described herein shall not automatically forfeit a party's right to extended summer parent-time. The parties shall do their best to accommodate each other's schedules, even when requests are late. Neither party shall be required to accommodate a request that is made unreasonably late or made without reasonable notice, but the parties shall be as flexible and accommodating as they can in ensuring that the children are able to spend meaningful time with each party during their summer vacations.

16. Travel: Both parties shall be allowed to travel with the minor children, including out of the country, during their parent-time. Both parties shall provide notice of any domestic travel to the other as soon as possible, but no later than 2 days prior to departure. Both parties shall provide notice of any international travel to the other as soon as possible, but no later than one week prior to departure.

a. For emergency purposes, when the children travel with either party, all of the following shall be provided to the other party at least 24 hours prior to departure:

i. an itinerary of travel dates;

ii. destinations;

iii. places where the children or traveling party can be reached; and

iv. the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location, if applicable.

17. Parent-time Conflict Resolution: When there is a conflict regarding the parent-time schedule, the parties shall use the following list as a rule of thumb for which parent-time takes priority, listed from highest priority to least priority:

a. Holiday parent-time.

b. Travel time.

c. Regular parent-time.

18. Relocation: If either party moves more than 150 miles away from the other party, that party shall comply with Utah Code Ann. §81-9-209.

19. Passports: Should either party request it, the parties shall cooperate in obtaining and renewing passports for their minor children. The party who most recently traveled out of the country with the minor children shall hold the children's passports until the other party shows proof that they have taken a substantial step toward booking travel that will require the children's passports. The parties shall then exchange the children's passports at the next parent-time exchange or make other arrangements if timing or other considerations make waiting for the next parent-time exchange impracticable.

20. Child Support: Petitioner is currently employed. Petitioner is hereby imputed with a gross monthly income of $5,307 and 183 overnights for child support purposes. Respondent is currently employed. Respondent is hereby imputed with a gross monthly income of $6,973 and 182 overnights for child support purposes. Pursuant to Utah Code and the Joint Physical Custody Child Support Worksheet, Respondent shall pay Petitioner

a. Child support shall commence on July 1, 2026.

b. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child shall terminate and shall automatically adjust at the time: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated.

c. Child support shall be payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month via automatic bank transfer to an account that Petitioner designates, Deseret First checking account x8171. If Respondent becomes delinquent on payments, Petitioner shall have the option to request payments be made by wage garnishment and to enforce this provision with the court and request her fees in having to do so.

d. Child support is modifiable in accordance with Utah Code Ann. §81-6-212.

21. Child Support Arrears: Neither party owes child support arrears to the other party. Both parties are enjoined from seeking a judgment for child support arrears against the other party for any period of time prior to July 1, 2026.

22. Health Insurance: The parties shall provide health insurance for their dependent children as follows:

a. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall obtain insurance for the medical, dental, orthodontic, eye care, mental health, and counseling expenses of the dependent children in accordance with Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

b. If the parties both have access to good coverage at a reasonable cost, the parties shall share and compare their respective insurance coverage options and discuss which policy the parties shall obtain or whether they shall obtain both.

c. If both parties provide insurance policies that cover their children, the children shall be double-covered, and the parties shall each be responsible for paying their own insurance policies. Neither party shall have any duty to reimburse the other party. It shall be the parties' responsibility to determine which policy will be the children's primary policy and which policy will be the children's secondary policy. The parties shall seek to designate the policies in such a way that the children receive the best and cheapest coverage possible.

d. If the parties agree to only obtain one insurance policy for the children, each party shall equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a party for the dependent children's portion of insurance. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the dependent children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. Provided that this amount is properly verified, as described herein, this amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

e. If a party remarries and the dependent children are not covered by their health, hospital, or dental insurance plan, but are covered by a stepparent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the stepparent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried party and shall retain the same primary or secondary designation.

f. Whenever a party maintains a health insurance policy for their dependent children, that party shall provide verification of coverage to the other party upon initial enrollment of the dependent children, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year. That party shall notify the other party of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) calendar days of the date the party first knew or shall have known of the change.

23. Medical/Dental Expenses: The parties are hereby ordered to pay for the medical and dental expenses of their children as follows:

a. The parties shall each be responsible for 50% of the out-of-pocket cost of unreimbursed medical, dental, vision, prescription, orthodontics, deductibles, etc. expenses for their minor children. Reasonable and necessary medical expenses include, among other things, expenses related to their minor children's mental health. Reasonable and necessary dental expenses include, among other things, expenses for orthodontia, endodontia, and oral surgery.

b. The parties shall each be separately and directly billed by the minor children's providers for 50% of the out-of-pocket expenses for the minor children's expenses, including deductibles, copays, and prescriptions to the extent possible. Both parties have an affirmative duty to request separate billing from any provider who renders medical or dental services to the parties' minor children at or before the time the provider renders any such service. If necessary, the party seeking the medical or dental service on behalf of the parties' minor children shall provide a copy of this Decree of Divorce and Judgment to the medical or dental services provider.

c. In the event that, notwithstanding the separate billing provisions above, one party pays for 100% of an out-of-pocket medical or dental expense, the party incurring that expense shall provide verification they submitted it to insurance and of the expense, preferably in the form of an invoice, and proof of payment of the expense, preferably in the form of a receipt, within 30 days of having paid the expense. The other party shall reimburse the paying party within 30 days of receiving the verification via Venmo.

d. Unless the parties agree otherwise, if a party fails to provide verification of the expense having been submitted to insurance and proof of payment to the other party within 30 days of having paid the expense, that party’s right to reimbursement shall be deemed waived and that party shall bear the sole responsibility for that expense.

e. Notice to creditors. Pursuant to UCA 15-4-6.7, UCA 81-3-105, and UCA 81-4-501 (2)-(4), when a court order has been entered providing for the payment of medical expenses of a minor children pursuant to UCA 81-4-501 (2)-(4), 81-4-204, or 81-6-208, or an administrative order under 62A-11-326, a creditor who has been provided a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order, nor may the creditor make a negative credit report under UCA 70C-7-107, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order.

24. Notice to Providers: Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §15-4-6.7, notice is hereby provided to medical and dental providers that the parties shall be separately billed for their medical and dental expenses, according to the following provisions:

a. When a court or an administrative agency enters an order that provides for the payment of medical and dental expenses of a child as described in Utah Code Ann. §26B-9-224 or §81-6-202, a provider who receives a copy of the order:

i. At or before the time the provider renders medical or dental services to the child, and upon request from a parent, shall separately bill each parent for the share of the medical and dental expenses that the parent is required to pay under the order; or

ii. Within 30 days after the day on which the provider renders the medical or dental service to the child, shall not: (a) make a claim for unpaid medical and dental expenses against a parent who has paid in full the share of the medical and dental expenses that the parent is required to pay under the order; or (b) make a negative credit report under Utah Code Ann. §70C-7-107, or a report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full the share of the medical and dental expenses that the parent is required to pay under the order.

25. School Fees: The parties are hereby ordered to pay school fees for their children as follows:

a. The parties shall each be responsible for 50% of any required school fees, defined as a charge, deposit, rent, or other mandatory payment imposed by the minor children's school. School fees may include, among other things, an admission fee, a transportation charge, or a charge, deposit, rent, or other mandatory payment imposed by a third party in connection with an activity or function sponsored by the minor children's school.

b. The parties shall each be separately and directly billed by the minor children's school for 50% of the school fees imposed by the minor children's school to the extent possible. Both parties have an affirmative duty to request separate billing from the minor children's school and any third-party provider who issues a bill for a school fee for the minor children. If necessary to establish separate billing, the parent requesting separate billing shall provide a copy of this Decree of Divorce and Judgment to the minor children's school or the appropriate third-party provider.

c. In the event that, notwithstanding the separate billing provisions above, one party pays for 100% of a school fee for the minor children, the party incurring that expense shall provide verification of the expense, preferably in the form of an invoice, and proof of payment of the expense, preferably in the form of a receipt, within 30 days of having paid the expense. The other party shall reimburse the paying party within 30 days of receiving the verification via Venmo.

d. Unless the parties agree otherwise, if a party fails to provide verification of the expense and proof of payment to the other party within 30 days of having paid the expense, that party's right to reimbursement shall be deemed waived and that party shall bear the sole responsibility for that expense.

26. Notice to School and Third-Party Providers: You are hereby notified of your duties and obligations under Utah Code Ann. §15-4-6.7. This is a court order that provides for the payment of school fees for a minor child. It is entered pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-4-406. This order has assigned each party the responsibility for paying 50% of their children's school fees, including admission fees, transportation charges, and charges, deposits, rents, and other mandatory payments imposed by a third party in connection with an activity or function sponsored by the minor children's school.

a. If you are shown this notice before the day on which you issue a bill for a school fee, you are required by law to separately bill each party for their share of the out-of-pocket costs associated with the service you will or have provided. At or before the time the provider renders medical or dental services to the child, and upon request from a parent, shall separately bill each parent for the share of the medical and dental expenses that the parent is required to pay under the order; or

b. If you are shown this notice, regardless of whether you have already issued a bill or not:

i. You are prohibited from making a claim for unpaid school fees against a party who has paid their share of the expense in full.

ii. You are prohibited from making a negative credit report under Utah Code Ann. §70C-7-107 regarding a party who has paid in full the share of the school fees that they are required to pay under this order.

iii. You are prohibited from making a report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full the share of the school fees that they are required to pay under this order.

27. Childcare Expenses: The parties are hereby ordered to be solely responsible for their own childcare expenses.

28. Extracurricular Activities: The parties shall discuss their children's involvement in any extracurricular activity prior to enrolling any of their children in such an activity. The parties shall divide the minor children's agreed-upon extracurricular activities, including saxophone, equally (50/50), subject to a 30-day reimbursement schedule, starting July 1, 2026. Either party shall be permitted to attend the minor children's activities, in an observer role only, even if the activity occurs during the other party's parent-time. The paying party shall submit a receipt/proof of payment to the reimbursing party within 30 days of incurring the expense. If the paying party fails to submit said proof within 30 days, that party's right to reimbursement shall be deemed waived and that party shall bear the sole responsibility for that expense. The reimbursing party shall reimburse the provider directly when possible. If reimbursing the provider directly is not possible, the reimbursing party shall reimburse the paying party their 50% portion of said expense within 30 days of receiving said receipt/proof of payment via Venmo. If either party signs the minor children up for an activity that is not agreed upon, that party shall be responsible for 100% of the expenses associated with that activity and the other party shall not be obligated to take the minor children to that activity during their parent-time.

29. Taxes: The parties shall file their taxes jointly for the 2025 tax year by no later than July 11, 2026. The parties shall divide any resulting benefit equally and shall owe any resulting liability from the return equally. However, to the extent there are penalties or late fees, Respondent shall be 100% responsible and shall indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless.

a. The parties shall file their taxes separately for the 2026 tax year et sequentes. Each party is hereby awarded any resulting benefit, refund, or stimulus check, free and clear of any claim from the other, and each party shall be 100% responsible for any resulting liability and shall indemnify and hold the other harmless.

b. Filing jointly versus separately may have financial/tax consequences. Each party is responsible for such consequences, having avowed that their respective family law counsel did not advise them as to taxes, and having waived any claims related to filing this way.

c. The parties shall divide the minor children's tax dependency exemptions/credits equitably every year, starting in the first year they file tax returns separately, with Petitioner claiming all three minor children in 2026.

d. Beginning with the 2027 tax year and continuing for as long as the parties have two minor children, each party shall have the right to claim one child on their taxes each year. Petitioner shall claim I.M.A. and Respondent shall claim C.M.A.

e. When there is only one minor child, the parties shall alternate claiming the child.

i. Petitioner shall claim C.M.A. the first year that the parties have only one minor child.

ii. The next year, Respondent shall claim C.M.A.

iii. The parties shall continue to alternate claiming the remaining minor child until they have no minor children to claim.

f. If either party would not derive a tax benefit in any allocated year, they shall waive it that year and the other parent shall claim it that year. Each year, the party paying child support may claim their allocated tax dependency exemption/credit only if they have paid all arrears and child support for that year by December 31 of that year. The parties shall execute any necessary documentation, including, but not limited to, IRS Form 8332, to give effect to this provision.

g. In the event one party would receive greater advantage from claiming any or all of the parties' minor children for income tax purposes, that party may purchase the other party's right to claim the minor children for exemption purposes by paying the non-purchasing parent all sums which that party would lose in the form of income tax refund or the payment of additional taxes by not claiming the parties' children for income tax purposes. Either party shall have the option to purchase the other party's exemption as follows:

i. Commencing with taxes owed for the year 2026, by March 1st of 2027 and each year thereafter, the parties shall determine the amount of tax savings each would realize from claiming said exemptions;

ii. The party wishing to purchase the other's exemption shall then have the option to purchase the right to claim the exemptions for an amount equal to the other party's projected savings;

iii. If the purchasing party chooses to exercise this option, they shall tender payment, in full, to the other party by March 31st of that year;

iv. Upon said payment, the non-claiming party shall execute any necessary tax forms to enable the claiming party to claim said exemptions.

30. Real Property: During their marriage, the parties acquired a home located at 1303 Lakeview Drive, Provo, UT 84604. The parties agree to the following terms regarding the marital home:

a. Petitioner shall have exclusive use and possession of the home, pending sale. Respondent shall not enter the home without notice to and agreement by Petitioner. This shall include Respondent transferring control over any applications associated with the home, including those that control the HVAC, garage door, and biometric locks to Petitioner and ceasing use of them by July 1, 2026.

b. Respondent shall be 100% responsible for any place(s) he is renting.

c. Once Petitioner moves out of the marital home, she shall be 100% responsible for any place(s) she is renting.

d. If either party chooses to purchase property and it is still during the pendency of this marriage, the other shall cooperate in signing any deed(s) needed to relinquish any claim they may have.

e. Petitioner shall continue to be responsible for the monthly bills associated with the home, including, but not limited to, the mortgage and utility bills, pending sale and credit.

f. The home shall be listed for sale no later than September 22, 2026 (90 days after the effective date of the parties' Stipulation and Settlement Agreement.) Until the house is sold, the parties shall enlist the services of a mutually agreed upon realtor. Petitioner shall choose three acceptable realtors and provide their names to Respondent by no later than July 31, 2026, and Respondent shall select one of the three to list the home by no later than August 14, 2026. The house shall be sold as follows:

g. The realtor shall have full access to the home for taking pictures, listing, and showing the home after notice to and agreement by Petitioner.

h. The home shall remain in its current condition for any potential buyers.

i. The parties shall work with the realtor to complete necessary improvements on the home to make it sale ready, with the parties splitting the costs equally.

j. The marital home shall be listed at a mutually agreed upon price, and the sale thereof shall be an arms-length transaction.

k. If the parties cannot agree upon the price at which to list the marital home, the initial list price shall be set by the parties' realtor.

l. Once the marital home is listed for sale, the parties shall accept any offer if, after any buyer-requested concessions, the net value of the offer is no less than two percent (2%) below the asking price. The parties shall otherwise mutually agree in writing before accepting any other offer that is more than two percent (2%) below the then-existing asking price for the property. If the parties cannot agree on which offer to accept, they shall defer to their realtor.

m. From the date listed until sold, the parties shall decrease the marital home's list/asking price in accordance with the realtor's suggestions or if they do not agree, in increments of 5%, every 60 days the marital home remains on the market, until an offer is accepted, and the marital home is "under contract."

31. Division of Proceeds from Sale of Marital Home: The proceeds of the sale of the marital home shall be divided and disbursed as follows:

a. The mortgage on the home shall be paid off and retired.

b. Petitioner has paid $6,308.21 in principal payments toward the parties' mortgage from February 1, 2026, to August 7, 2026. Petitioner shall be reimbursed for any principal she has paid toward the parties' mortgage from February 2026 until the time the house is sold. Petitioner shall provide mortgage statements to Respondent and the parties' realtor verifying the principal she has paid before she receives any reimbursement. If Petitioner fails to verify the payments she has made, her right to reimbursement shall be forfeited.

c. In addition, Petitioner shall receive 50% of the net proceeds as her separate property.

d. Off the top of Respondent's portion of the net proceeds, the title company shall first pay, retire, and satisfy the parties' debt to their son, Kaleb Ahlfors (~$14,000) and the parties' Costco Citi Visa credit card account ending in X6237 (~$8,000; Respondent will provide the title company with a current statement at closing). Then, Respondent shall receive the remainder of his portion of the net proceeds as his separate property.

32. Vehicles: The parties' vehicles are hereby divided and awarded as follows:

a. Each party is hereby awarded the vehicles currently in their possession and control.

i. Petitioner is hereby awarded the 2021 Subaru Forester.

ii. Respondent is hereby awarded the 2016 Volvo XC60.

b. The parties shall cooperate, to the extent necessary, in removing themselves from titles(s) and leases on the vehicles the other party is awarded and exchange the title(s), lease agreement, and keys in their possession to the party awarded the vehicle(s) before submission of the proposed Decree of Divorce and Judgment to the Court.

c. Each party shall be responsible for the payments/debt, gas, maintenance, and insurance on the vehicles(s) they are awarded, holding the other harmless therefrom. This shall include Respondent starting to provide his own car insurance no later than July 1, 2026.

d. The parties agree that the Honda CRV shall be a vehicle available for the use of the parties' minor children. For as long as the parties have minor children, Petitioner shall be listed on the title of the vehicle, but the parties shall equally share the expense of insuring, registering, and maintaining the vehicle. While the parties shall not be prohibited from ever using the Honda CRV for personal use, the vehicle shall primarily exist for the use of the minor children. The vehicle shall be available to the minor children no matter which parent they are with and shall not exclusively stay at Petitioner's residence. Petitioner is currently covering this car's insurance on her insurance. Petitioner shall submit a receipt/proof of payment to Respondent for reimbursement within 30 days of receiving the insurance bill. If Petitioner fails to submit said proof within 30 days, her request for said reimbursement shall be deemed waived. Respondent shall reimburse the provider directly if possible. If reimbursing the provider directly is not possible, Respondent shall reimburse Petitioner his 50% portion of insurance within 30 days of receiving said receipt/proof of payment via Venmo.

e. Once the parties have no minor children, the Honda CRV shall be awarded to Petitioner free and clear of any claim from Respondent.

33. Bank and HSA: The parties' financial accounts are hereby divided and awarded as follows:

x2017 for the benefit of the children. Both parties are enjoined from withdrawing funds from these accounts unless the withdrawal is mutually agreed upon. Both parties shall be permitted to make deposits freely and as permitted by law. Once the children reach an agreed-upon and suitable age, the parties shall discuss transferring the oversight, management, and control of each child's account to that child. If the parties do not agree when to do this, they shall follow the decision-making procedure outlined herein.

e. To the extent necessary, the parties shall work together to remove their names from any accounts they are not awarded herein by submission of this decree to the Court.

34. Personal Property: The parties' personal property is hereby divided and awarded as follows:

35. Retirement Accounts: The parties' retirement accounts are hereby divided and awarded as follows:

a. Respondent is hereby awarded $40,000 from Petitioner's Deseret 401(k) plan managed by Empower as his separate property.

38. Debts: Responsibility for the parties' debts is hereby divided and assigned as follows:

40. Alimony: Neither party is awarded alimony from the other. Any claim either party had or may have had to alimony from the other party is permanently and irrevocably extinguished by the parties' explicit waiver.

41. Name Change: Should Petitioner desire, she shall be restored to her maiden name of Alicia Buss.
