IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT – SPANISH FORK DEPARTMENT

OF UTAH COUNTY, UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of KARLEEN WING, Petitioner, and PAXTON WING, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case Number: 264300024 Judge Jared Eldridge Commissioner Marian Ito

BASED UPON the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law filed herewith, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

JURISDICTION & GROUNDS

1. Karleen has been an actual and bona fide resident of Utah County, State of Utah, for at least three months immediately prior to the filing of this divorce action.

2. Karleen and Respondent were married on January 10, 2014, in Provo, Utah and are husband and wife.

3. Karleen and Respondent maintained their marital domicile in Utah County, State of Utah.

4. Karleen and Paxton separated June 2025.

5. Karleen and Paxton have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making continuation of their marriage impossible.

6. The parties are granted a divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

MINOR CHILD CUSTODY, PARENT-TIME

7. The parties have four minor children: S.W., born March 2017; N.W. born May 2019; R.W., July 2021; A.W., born February 2023.

PARENTING PLAN

8. Custody/Parent time. The Parties are awarded joint custody of their minor children. Parent-time with the children shall be at reasonable times and places as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, the parties' reasonable rights of parent time shall be defined as follows:

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat	Sun
Week 1	Paxton	Paxton	Karleen	Karleen	Paxton	Paxton	Paxton
Week 2	Paxton	Paxton	Karleen	Karleen	Karleen	Karleen	Karleen

a. The parties shall have 50/50 custody such that Paxton exercises parent-time every Monday overnight and Tuesday overnight with the exchange at school on Wednesday morning or 9 a.m. when school is not in session. Karleen shall exercise parent-time every Wednesday overnight and Thursday overnight with the exchange at school on Friday morning or 9 a.m. when school is not in session. The weekends shall alternate between the parties with each party receiving every other Friday until Monday morning with the exchange at school or 9 a.m. when school is not in session.

b. Each party shall receive two-uninterrupted weeks in the summertime.

9. Notification of Extended Time. Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time or vacation weeks, with the children by May 1 each year for first option parent and May 15 for second option parent. Paxton shall have first choice of extended time in odd numbered years and Karleen shall have first choice of extended time in even numbered years. If notification is not provided timely the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent-time for the non-complying parent.

10. Holidays.

a. The holidays shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree the holidays will be according to Utah Code Annotated §81-9-303 as follows:

Mother	Mother	Mother's Day 9:00 a.m. on the holiday to the day after with the exchange at school

11. Legal Custody. The parties are awarded joint legal custody. Both parties shall have access to the children's school, medical, church, and other records and shall include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event, the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, the parties shall first seek the advice of an expert in the field. If they cannot come to an agreement, the parties shall mediate before court intervention. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the children's day-to-day activities when the children are in his or her care.

a. Medical. The parties shall follow the advice of medical professionals.

Emergency and sick care shall be attended to by the parent who is exercising the parent time. The parent shall notify the other parent within 30 minutes of scheduling for emergency or same day care. The parent shall notify the other parent within 24 hours of scheduling for any regular medical or dental appointment so that each party may be able to attend the appointment if possible.

b. Separate Accounts. According to Utah Code Annotated §15-4-6.7 each party shall elect for dental, medical and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.

c. Religion. The children can be baptized at the age of 8 into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and all other ordinances will be performed at the customary age. The ordinances shall be performed by Paxton, if he is deemed worthy by his ecclesiastical leader. Both parties shall be able to attend the ordinances. The parents shall give written consent for ordinances to the ecclesiastical leader within 7 days of request. The parties shall attend religious services with the children on their own respective parent-time as the parent chooses.

d. Therapy. The children shall attend therapy if recommended by their pediatrician or agreed by the parties. Each party shall ensure the children get to therapy on their respective parent-times. The parties shall participate in therapy as recommended by the therapist. Each party shall pay one- half of the therapy bill directly to the therapist. If payment to the provider is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. The parties shall follow the recommendations of the child's therapist. Any communication to or from the therapist shall be emailed to both parties. Any emails or parent communication that the therapist charges for shall be paid by the parent who initiates the contact.

e. Children's Records. Karleen's residence shall be listed as the primary residence church affiliation. Mother is currently under contract to purchase a condominium in Mapleton, less than 10 minutes from her current residence. The parties agree the children shall remain at their current elementary school until at least the end of the 2026-2027 school year. Beginning the 2027-2028 school year, the children will be enrolled in the elementary school in Mother's new boundaries so long as she remains in Mapleton. The children shall attend junior high school and high school for their "feeder" elementary.

f. Changing Parent-Time. There shall be no changes to the parent-time schedules as designated herein, unless the parent with the parent-time makes an agreement in writing through text. The parents shall not talk to the children about any change in parent-time prior to a written agreement between the parties of the change.

g. Relocation. If either party moves more than 40 miles from the other parent, the parties shall be bound by the 60-day notice requirements of Utah Code Annotated §81-9-209.

12. Calendaring. The parties shall utilize a shared calendar for the children's schedules and shall input the event in the calendar as soon as reasonably practicable.

13. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Children. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The children shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

14. Travel.

a. When the children travel with either parent out of State, all of the following shall be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure or 21 days for international travel:

i. An itinerary of travel dates;

ii. Destination;

iii. Places where the children or traveling parent can be reached;

iv. And, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

b. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the children's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed upon times. All out of country travel shall be to places fees from travel restrictions or warning from the US State Department unless otherwise agreed in writing.

15. Change of Information. Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

16. Notification of Children's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their children may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the calendar shall constitute notice.

17. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

18. Significant Others. The parties shall not introduce the children to romantic partners unless they have been in a serious relationship for at least six months. Prior to introduction, the party shall inform the other party that he/she intends to introduce them. There shall be no overnight stays during parent time with the romantic partner until he/she is legally married to the individual. If a romantic partner is with the party during parent time, he/she shall have no sexual displays of affection in front of the children or isolate the children in order to be intimate. A romantic partner cannot assume a parental role or discipline the children unless the parties have married.

19. Children's Personal Belongings. Neither parent shall intentionally retain or withhold clothing or personal belongings belonging to the child (toys, clothes, shoes, coats, books, etc.)

20. Mutual Restraining.

a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes their best interest.

b. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the children's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the children for information regarding what occurs when the children are with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

c. The parties shall not use their children to deliver messages. Thus, the parents shall not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the children or at any children's activity.

d. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another or in the children's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking or threatening the other party.

e. The parties shall not go to the other parties' place of employment or residence except for child exchanges without written permission from the other party.

f. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

g. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor children from such circumstances.

21. First Right of Refusal. Each parent shall have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available three hours or more during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation. However, the parties may still coordinate childcare for shorter periods of time if they so desire.

22. Limitations.

a. The people in the respective households and the parties shall not use illegal drugs, prescription drugs in a non-prescribed manner or alcohol in excess, while they are exercising parent-time.

23. Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their children generally or over the terms or implementation of this Decree, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. The parties both agree, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise, which would make formal negotiation not practical. This mediation requirement will not be required for enforcement matters.

24. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put the event on the shared Calendar within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change.

25. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, school lunches, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. This shall not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

26. Transportation for the Children. Transportation for the children shall be as the parties may agree. In the event they do not agree, the parties will utilize school-to-school exchanges when school is in session. If school to school exchanges are not possible because school is not in session, the receiving parent shall provide the transportation from the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.

27. Third Party Transportation. A stepparent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the children if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent will be with the children by overnight.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

28. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code Annotated §81-6-107 et seq. Karleen's gross monthly imputed income is $2,496 per month. Paxton's gross monthly income is $7,707 per month. Karleen has 183 overnights and Paxton has 182 overnights for the purpose of child support calculation on the Joint Physical Custody Worksheet. Paxton's child support obligation should be $575 per month. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one- half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month.

29. Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children in accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-208. Paxton is currently providing said insurance.

a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.

c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Paxton shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Karleen shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

e. Double coverage shall not be required. However, if the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium with no compensation from the other party.

f. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within 7 days of request. The parties shall notify the other in event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.

30. Childcare

a. Expenses. The parties shall each pay their own respective childcare costs on their own time. The parent with the overnight shall be responsible for the childcare that day unless otherwise mutually agreed upon writing.

b. List of Providers. The parties shall mutually agree on a list of providers (licensed providers or agreed upon family members or friends) that can care for the children with a list of at least 5 providers. The parties may add additional providers to the list through mutual agreement in writing.

31. The tax exemptions for the parties' minor children shall be divided and awarded so that so long as there are four minor children Paxton shall claim the younger two and Karleen shall claim the older two. When there are three minor children in even years Paxton shall claim the youngest two children and Karleen shall claim the oldest one; in odd years Karleen shall claim the older two and Paxton the youngest one. When there are two minor children, years Paxton shall claim the youngest child and Karleen shall claim the oldest child. When there is one minor child, Paxton shall claim for odd tax years and Karleen shall claim for even tax years. However, Paxton shall only be entitled to claim the child(ren) and/or receive the benefit of a tax credit related to the children if he is current on his child support obligations if he is current on his child support obligations by December 31st of the year he intends to claim the child(ren).

32. Real Property. The marital home located at 1164 N. Ponderosa Lane, Spanish Fork, Utah 84660 was sold. The proceeds from the sale have been divided equally. Each party is free to use his or her half of the proceeds as he or she sees fit and shall not make a claim for any increase resulting from the investment of the other party's half of the funds. The funds are now the separate funds of each party.

33. Paxton has used his funds to purchase a home located at 643 E. 400 N. Payson, Utah. This is his sole and separate property.

34. The parties acquired personal property during their marriage and it is divided and awarded as follows:

a. To Karleen: 2026 Toyota Grand Highlander, subject to any indebtedness, and all items in her possession.

b. To Paxton: 2026 Ford Expedition, subject to any indebtedness, and all items in your possession.

35. Debts. The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party shall pay and debts in his own her own name. If any joint debts are discovered they shall be paid by the party that incurred the debt. The parties have a shared debt to IHC with a remaining balance of $2,947.50. The parties shall share equally the debt, with each party paying their one-half portion within ninety days. Paxton has paid the Chevron Credit Card and the debt for the 3D printer.

36. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party shall incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.

37. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in this Decree and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt shall be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation. Paxton shall remove Karleen from the Chevron Credit Card within seven days.

38. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

39. Checking And Saving Accounts. Karleen and Paxton have individual and joint bank accounts. The joint account has not been closed. Paxton will pay the $107.02 in overdraft within seven days and remove Karleen from the account within seven days. Karleen is awarded any accounts in her name. Paxton is awarded any accounts in his name.

40. Retirement Accounts. The parties shall equally divide the marital portion of all retirement, 401k, and IRA, and will divide the amount with each receiving ½ of the marital portion with the division date as the entry of the Decree of Divorce. The parties shall equally split the cost associated with splitting the accounts or QDRO, if any. The parties agree to hire Rori Hendrix to draft the QDRO and will contact her and pay the retainer within thirty days after the date of divorce.

41. Life Insurance. Paxton shall carry life until such time as the parties' youngest minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18). During such period, Paxton shall name the children as beneficiaries and Karleen, as long as there is an alimony obligation, for the said life insurance policy. Paxton shall provide proof of the policy upon request from Karleen, but Karleen shall not request more than once per year.

42. Name. Karleen shall have the option of restoring her name to Karleen Mayre Peck.

43. Alimony. Paxton is ordered to pay Karleen $1,650 a month in alimony, beginning October 1, 2026. Paxton's alimony obligation shall terminate automatically upon the death of either party, or the remarriage or cohabitation of Karleen or the end of a five year period after October 1, 2026. The first half of the total support payment is due on the 5th day of the month and the second support payment is due on the 20th of the month.

44. Deeds and Titles. Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

45. Divorce Education. The parties shall take the Divorce Education Class and Divorce Orientation Class within 30 days of the date the Stipulation is signed.

46. Full Disclosure. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this Decree represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party, separately or by the parties jointly.

47. Attorney's Fees and Costs. Each party is ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.
