The Order of the Court is stated below:
Dated: October 13, 2026 07:24:51 PM /s/ SEAN PETERSEN
District Court Judge

JACK M. MCINTYRE - 9347
LORI J. CAVE - 5598
McINTYRE & GOLDEN, P.C.
Attorneys for Petitioner
860 East 4500 South, Suite 310
Salt Lake City, Utah 84107
Telephone: (801) 266-3399
Email: jack@mcintyre-golden.com
Email: lori@mcintyre-golden.com

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, IN AND FOR UTAH, COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
Address: 137 N. Freedom Blvd., Suite 100, Provo, Utah 84601

In the Matter of the Marriage of	DECREE OF DIVORCE
Allyson Liesa Metcalf Olsen, Petitioner,
and	Discovery Tier IV Civil No. 264401890
Alex David Olsen, Respondent.	Judge Sean Petersen Commissioner Dustin Hardy

The above-captioned matter came regularly before this Court, before the Honorable Sean Petersen, District Judge presiding. The parties, having agreed to resolve all matters related to this action based on the default entered pursuant to those terms set forth. The Court having made and entered the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, ADJUDGES, DECREES and ORDERS as follows:

1. The bonds of matrimony and marriage contract between the parties are dissolved, and Petitioner is awarded a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences from Respondent, to become final upon entry by the Court.

Minor Children

2. The parties are hereby awarded custody and parent-time of A.M.O. (born Dec 2022) in accordance with the Parenting Plan below.

Parenting Plan

3. The parties' intent of this parenting plan to accomplish the following objectives:

a. provide for the child's physical care and emotional stability; and

b. provide for the child's changing needs in a way that minimizes the need to change the parenting plan; and

c. minimize the child's exposure to conflict between the parents; and

d. state the authority and responsibilities of each parent to the child;

e. encourage Petitioner ("Mom") and Respondent ("Dad") to meet their responsibilities to their child through agreement rather than judicial decision; and

f. protect the best interests of the child.

4. The minor child who is the subject of this Plan is:

Name	Birth Date
A.O.	December, 2022

5. Both parties will maintain a residence for the minor child, which will include a bed and the basic necessities.

6. Both parties are awarded joint legal custody of the parties' minor child.

7. It is in the best interest of the child and the parties shall share joint physical custody of the parties' minor child and have the following parent-time with the parties' minor child pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-305 and in accordance the terms described. below:

a. Respondent is the primary physical custodian for purposes of holiday parent-time only and the reason is so that A.O. can spend time with her half sister;

b. Because frequent contact with both parents is important, the parties are awarded parent time as they may agree. If they do not agree otherwise they are awarded parent-time according to the following two-week parent-time sharing (5-2-2-5) schedule:

i. In Week One, Respondent, Dad or "D" shall have the child on Monday and Tuesday and Friday through Sunday, including overnight, and Petitioner, Mom or "M" shall have the child on Wednesday and Thursday, including overnight; and

ii. In Week Two, Respondent (Dad or D) shall have the child on Monday and Tuesday, including overnight and Respondent (Mom or M) shall have the child on, Wednesday through Sunday, including overnight;

iii. This arrangement shall be repeated each two-week interval. This schedule is illustrated on the chart below.

Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat	Sun
D	D	M	M	D	D	D
D	D	M	M	M	M	M

Adopting Utah Code Annotated §81-9-301:

8. Upon at least 30 days written notice to the other, each party is awarded up to two (2) weeks each summer of uninterrupted parent-time for a family vacation.

9. The minor child shall have a passport and that Petitioner shall maintain possession of the passport. Petitioner will provide the passport to Respondent should the need arise.

10. The parties are ordered to comply with Utah Code Annotated § 81-9-302 when they are traveling with the child outside of a 150 mile radius and provide an itinerary of travel dates, destination, an address where the child of traveling parent can be reached, and the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

Relocation:

11. The provisions of Utah Code Annotated § 81-9-209 are applicable in the event of the relocation of either party.

12. The parties shall equally share the responsibility for the pick-up and drop-off of the parties' minor child for purposes of parent-time, with the parent receiving the child providing transportation. Transportation of the parties' minor child shall be shared equally.

13. All exchanges shall occur within 15 minutes of the scheduled time.

14. All exchanges will take place at the home of the parent relinquishing physical custody of the child, unless the parties otherwise agree.

15. Day to day decisions involving the parties' minor child shall be made by the parent where the minor child is located.

16. Emergency decisions affecting health or safety shall be made by the parent who is with the child at that time.

17. More significant decisions, especially involving education, health care and religious upbringing, shall be discussed in advance by the parents in an attempt to reach an agreement. If the parents are unable to reach an agreement then, at the request of either parent, they will participate in mediation, at a cost shared equally between the parties, to help resolve the issue. If mediation fails Petitioner will have the final say, in all non emergency matters including but not limited to education, healthcare and religious upbringing.

18. If the Respondent disagrees with the decision made by the Petitioner, then he may take judicial action to have the court determine what is in the best interest of the parties' child.

19. Petitioner's home is the home residence for purposes of identifying the appropriate school.

20. Petitioner and Respondent have the authority to check the child in or out of school. Both parents have access to the child during school.

21. The minor child shall not be requested to carry or exchange information for the parents. Both parents agree to communicate with each other concerning the child as frequently as necessary and all communication concerning the child's parent-time shall occur via email or text so that there is a written record of the correspondence. Responses to emails and texts will be made as soon as is practical; this will require both parties to check their email reasonably often.

22. In emergency situations or where email is not available, the parties shall exchange information by phone and then send a text or confirming the conversation when time allows.

23. Both parents shall share information about the child with each other, including, but not limited to, special events, school work and homework assignments, parent-teacher meetings, report cards, illnesses, medical events, medical and dental treatment, prescriptions, therapy, the child's development, after school activities, sports, extra curricular activities and events, church events, and all other types of information which are appropriate to share with the other parent.

24. If a party would like more specific information than what is provided concerning the child, then the party desiring more specific information is free to obtain said information from the appropriate source of information and the other parent will cooperate in this regard.

25. Each party will immediately advise the other parent of any changes in address, telephone number, email address, or other information pertinent to communication.

26. Each party will advise the other parent of all logistical details regarding vacation time with the child, as set forth above.

27. Child support will be set as described herein based on a joint custody worksheet.

28. Currently the Petitioner maintains the medical insurance for the minor child. The premiums, deductibles, co-payments and non-covered expenses shall be split evenly between the parties pursuant to statute and as set forth herein.

29. Cosmetic or non-required medical treatments excluding orthodontics shall be handled by paragraph 26 regarding major decisions.

30. In the event that medical insurance is no longer available to the Petitioner at a reasonable cost, whichever party can obtain the best medical insurance coverage at the best rate shall maintain such insurance. Again, the premiums, deductibles, co-payments and non-covered expenses shall be split evenly between the parties pursuant to statute.

31. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-209 each party shall be responsible for one-half of reasonable work-related child care expenses incurred for or on behalf of the minor child, except as otherwise agreed and as set forth more fully herein.

32. The minor child shall not be left home alone until the child reaches the age of 14. The minor child shall not be left home alone over night until the child reaches the age of 16.

33. Petitioner and Respondent are presumed the best care providers for the minor child; if the child is going to be in child care for longer than four hours, then the parent presently caring for the child is required to provide the other parent with the right of first refusal before incurring a daycare option at a cost. 7

34. If the Petitioner or Respondent decide to exercise their right-of-first-refusal with regard to day care the parent exercising that right will be responsible for all pick-up and drop-off of the minor child.

35. The right of first refusal is limited to the Petitioner and the Respondent and will not include family members.

36. Each party shall be responsible for one-half of the cost for the child's extra-curricular activities, provided that the child's participation in said activity has been discussed and agreed upon in writing by both parties.

37. It is understood that as the child get older, the child's needs will change. As changes occur that are not addressed by this parenting plan both parties agree to try and work together to meet those needs. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement then they will submit to the decision making process outlined herein.

38. All modifications to this parenting plan will be done in writing and signed and notarized by both parties.

39. To the extent possible each party shall be supportive of the other parent and the decisions that are made at their home. Each parent shall try and help the minor child to recognize differences and adapt to those differences with each parent.

40. If the minor child expresses concerns or frustrations about the other parent, each parent shall encourage the minor child to talk to the parent and express the frustrations or concerns.

41. Both parties shall be required to refrain from yelling at, speaking to or about the other in demeaning, disparaging or disrespectful terms.

42. The child shall be encouraged to maintain their relationship with grandparents and other relatives and each parent shall assist as may be necessary to permit those relationships to continue.

43. The child shall have reasonable contact with both parents.

44. Each parent will allow the minor child to contact the other parent at anytime the minor child desires to have telephone contact.

45. If either party violates any terms of the parenting plan, once approved and court action becomes necessary, then the violating party shall pay all attorney fees.

End of Parenting Plan

46. Petitioner has received public assistance for the parties' minor child from the State of Utah.

Child Support

47. Respondent is ordered to pay to Petitioner the sum of $180 per month as and for child support pursuant to the "Uniform Civil Liability for Support Act", Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-107 et seq. based on the joint physical custody child support worksheet filed herein. During periods of time when Petitioner is carrying health insurance for the parties' minor child, one-half of the child's portion of the health insurance premium shall be added to Respondent's base child support each month. During periods of time when Respondent is carrying health insurance for the parties' minor child, one-half of the child's portion of the health insurance premium shall be deducted from Respondent's base child support each month.

a. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-213, the base child support award is automatically adjusted to the base child support award for the remaining number of children due child support, without the need to modify the most recent child support order by a court, when a child (i) becomes 18 years old or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later; (ii) dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States; (iii) is emancipated in accordance with Title 80, Chapter 7, Emancipation, unless otherwise provided by the order.

48. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 26B-9-403 Respondent's income is subject to immediate and automatic income withholding as of the effective date of the order, regardless of whether a delinquency exists.

a. Each party is ordered to keep the Office of Recovery Service informed of changes in their address, employment, income, or medical insurance coverage.

b. Pursuant to Utah Code § 26B-9-220, if a child support order has not been issued, modified, or reviewed within the previous three years, the Office of Recovery Services shall review the Court’s child support order, taking into account the best interests of the child involved, if a) requested by a parent or legal guardian involved in a case receiving IV-D services; or b) there has been an assignment under § 35A-3-108 and the office determines that a review is appropriate.

c. Pursuant to Utah Code § 62A-11-320.6 § 26B-9-221, a parent or legal guardian involved in a case receiving IV-D services or the office, if there has been an assignment under § 35A-3-108, may at any time request the office to review a child support order if there has been a substantial change in circumstances.

49. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-212(5)(a), if a child support order has not been issued or modified within the previous three years, a parent, legal guardian, or the office may move the court to adjust the amount of a child support order. (b) Upon receiving a motion under Subsection (5)(a), the court shall, taking into account the best interests of the child: (i) determine whether there is a difference between the obligor's ordered support amount and the obligor's support amount that would be required under the child support guidelines; and (ii) if there is a difference as described in Subsection (5)(b)(i), adjust the obligor's ordered support amount to the obligor's support amount provided in the child support guidelines if: (A) the difference is 10% or more; (B) the difference is not of a temporary nature; and (C) the order adjusting the obligor's ordered support amount does not deviate from the child support guidelines. (c) A showing of a substantial change in circumstances is not necessary for an adjustment under this Subsection (5).

50. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-212(3)(a), a parent, legal guardian, or the office may, at any time, petition the court to adjust the amount of a child support order if there has been a substantial change in circumstances. A change in the child support tables is not a substantial change in circumstances for the purposes of Subsection (3)(a). (b) For purposes of this Subsection (3)(a), a substantial change in circumstances may include: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others. Utah Code § 81-6-212(3)(c). Upon receiving a petition under Subsection (3)(a), the court shall, taking into account the best interests of the child: (a) determine whether a substantial change has occurred; (b) if a substantial change has occurred, determine whether the change results in a difference of 15% or more between the obligor's ordered support amount and the obligor's support amount that would be required under the child support guidelines; and (c) adjust the obligor's ordered support amount to that which is provided for in the child support guidelines if: (i) there is a difference of 15% or more; and (ii) the difference is not of a temporary nature.

51. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208 both parents are ordered to provide health insurance coverage for the medical expenses of the minor child if it is available or becomes available at a reasonable cost and is accessible to their dependent child. Each party is ordered to share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of the insurance.[1]

52. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the Petitioner shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of the Respondent shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child.

53. The parent who provides the insurance coverage may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the children's portion of the premium. In cases in which the parent does not have insurance but another member of the parent's household provides insurance coverage for the children, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the children's portion of the premium.

---

1The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for the children should be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case.

54. Each party is ordered to share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for the parties' minor children including, but not limited to, deductibles and co-payments. The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall be ordered to provide verification of the coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. section 601 et seq., upon initial enrollment of the dependent children, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services under IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 601 et seq., of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date the parent first knew or should have known the change.

a. A parent who incurs medical expenses is ordered to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

b. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply Utah Code § 81-6-208(10).

c. The parent responsible for reimbursing the other parent for medical expenses incurred, is ordered to reimburse the other parent his or her share of the expenses within 30 days of receipt of the verification of cost and payment of medical expenses.

55. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-209 each party sshall be responsible for one-half of reasonable work-related child care expenses of the parents.

a. If an actual expense for child care is incurred, a parent shall begin paying his or her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the child care expense, but if the child care expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making a monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, without obtaining a modification of the Order;

b. A parent who incurs child care expense shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of the provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent.

i. The Court may deny a parent incurring child care expenses the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with subsection (b) above.

c. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of the child care provider or the monthly expense of child care within 30 calendar days of the date of the change.

i. The Court may deny a parent incurring child care expenses the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with subsection (c) above.

d. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-209(4)(a), the court or administrative agency shall presume that child care costs shall be included in a child support order if a parent, during extended parent-time, is working and actually incurring the child care costs.

i. The presumption under Utah Code § 81-6-209(4)(a) is rebutted if:

A. the obligor's base child support award, in combination with the award of medical expenses, exceeds 50% of the obligor's adjusted gross income; or

B. by adding the child care costs, the obligor's child support obligation would exceed 50% of the obligor's adjusted gross income.

56. Petitioner is entitled to claim the parties' minor child as a dependent for tax purposes.

57. Neither party is awarded alimony.

58. Petitioner and Respondent have no joint debts or obligations.

59. Each party is ordered to pay and assume their own debts incurred after the parties' separation on or about June 4, 2025. Each party shall hold the other party harmless from any liability on these debts.

60. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §15-4-6.5, upon entry of the Decree of Divorce Petitioner and Respondent are ordered to notify respective creditors or obligees regarding the court's division of debts, obligations or liabilities and regarding the parties' separate, current addresses by providing the creditors with a copy of the court order.

61. Each party is awarded the personal property now in his or her possession.

62. Neither Petitioner or Respondent have 401(k), pension, profit sharing, I.R.A., or any other retirement benefits which were accrued during the parties' marriage.

63. The parties presently do not own an interest in any real property.

64. Petitioner is restored to her former name of Metcalf if she so desires.

65. Each party is ordered to execute and deliver to the other party any documents necessary to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the court.

END OF ORDER

This Order is enforceable upon entry by the Court as indicated by the signature, date and seal located on page one in the top right hand corner.

NOTICE OF INTENT TO SUBMIT FOR SIGNATURE

Pursuant to Rule 7 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, you are hereby notified that the foregoing order will be submitted to the Court for signing upon the expiration of seven days from the date of this notice, unless a written objection is filed with the Court.

source6435875322030876462.rtf

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I hereby certify that I caused to be delivered, a true and correct copy of the foregoing DECREE OF DIVORCE to the following on the 8th day of October, 2026, by the method of service indicated:

Alex David Olsen 739 East 150 North Vineyard, UT 84059 Facsimile No.: _____ Email: _____	[ ] Hand Delivery [X] U.S. Mail [ ] Facsimile [X] Electronic Filing Account (eFiler) [ ] Email [ ] Rule 5(b)(A)(vi) [ ] Rule 5(b)(A)(vii)

/s/ Jack M. McIntyre