Attorneys for Petitioner

IN THE FOURTH JUDICAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR WASATCH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of ISAAC SHAWN HILL, Petitioner, EMRI INEZ HILL, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No..264500088 Judge Jennifer Mabey Commissioner

The above-entitled matter having come before the court upon the Petitioner's Verified Complaint for Divorce, the Court having heretofore entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, it is hereby, ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. Residence . The parties are bona fide residents of Wasatch County, State of Utah and have been for three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of this action. The parties resided in the marital relationship in the State of Utah.

MARRIAGE and GROUNDS

2. Marriage Statistics. Petitioner and Respondent were married on June 26, 2025 in Charleston, Wasatch County, State of Utah and are presently married.

3. Grounds. Irreconcilable differences have arisen which constitute the grounds for this action.

CHILDREN

4. Children. There is one minor child born as issue of this marriage: FTH; 12/19/2025.

5. Jurisdiction. Utah has jurisdiction to make child custody and parent-time determinations pursuant to Utah Code Ann. S78B-12 et seq. (1953 as amended), in that:

a. Utah is the home state of the minor child at the time of commencement of this proceeding.

b. Said minor child currently resides in Wasatch County, State of Utah.

6. Neither party has any knowledge of any other custody matters pending in any other district court or juvenile court in any state.

7. Child Custody. The Parties should be awarded joint legal custody of the minor child and the Petitioner should be awarded physical custody of the parties' minor child. The Respondent should have parent time with the minor child as the parties may agree, and if the parties are unable to agree then pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-302. The parties shall adopt the advisory guidelines found in Utah Code § 81-9-202 as their parenting plan, so long as they do not conflict with the provisions herein. In the event that the guidelines in Utah Code § 81-9-202 conflict with the provisions herein, the provisions herein should govern.

a The parties should work together to make decisions regarding the child.

b Petitioner’s residence shall be the primary residence for the child.

c Holiday Parent Time. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing, the parties shall follow the holiday schedule as set forth in Utah Code § 81-9-302.

d Extended Summer Parent Time. The parties shall each be entitled to extended summer parent time as set forth in Utah Code § 81-9-302.

e Each party shall keep the other informed of current addresses and telephone numbers. Furthermore, each party shall immediately notify the other of any emergency circumstances or substantial change in the health of the child.

CHILD SUPPORT

8. Child Support. The Petitioner's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $4,167.00. The Respondent’s gross monthly income for child support purposes is unknown. Historically the Respondent’s gross monthly income has been approximately $2,059.00 per month. The Respondent should be required to provide her income verification or be imputed income at her historical wage of $2,059.00 per month. Therefore, the Respondent should be ordered to pay the Petitioner child support in the amount of $253.00 per month. Child support shall be paid for the benefit of the minor child named herein until the child become 18 years of age or graduates during their normal and expected year of graduation from high school, whichever occurs later.

Child support should be payable by direct deposit one half on the 5th and one half on the 20th day of each month.

9. Medical Expenses. It is reasonable that the party who can obtain medical and dental insurance for the minor child at the most reasonable cost should be required to do so, in accordance with the Utah Code.

a. Each parent should share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of the insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child should be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy.

b. Each parent should share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents.

c. The parent ordered to maintain insurance should provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2, of each calendar year, if there is a change in the previous coverage or provider. The parent should notify the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date he or she first knew or should have known of the change.

d. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses should provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party should be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child indicated.

10. Divorce Education. Each party should attend and complete the divorce education course and divorce orientation course as required by Utah Code Section 81-9-103. Information and course schedules may be obtained through the Clerk of the District Court, Wasatch County.

11. Childcare. The Court should enter orders requiring the parties to share equally all of the costs associated with childcare for the minor child in this matter. The party incurring such an expense should provide proof to the other party within thirty (30) days, and the other party shall refund their portion of the expense within the thirty (30) days of receipt of verification of the expense. Childcare provided by a family member shall be deemed to be provided without cost.

12. Transportation. The receiving party should be responsible for providing transportation associated with visiting the parties' minor child.

13. Relocation. If either party relocates, parent-time should be in accordance with the relocation statute, UCA §81-9-209. If the parties cannot reach an agreement as to transportation, should either party move out of state, they should return to mediation.

14. The personal property of the parties should be divided as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree the Court should enter orders regarding the parties' personal property.

a. The Petitioner should be awarded the Jeep Trail hawk, and should be responsible for any costs and fees associated with this vehicle.

15. Debts. The joint debts of the parties should be divided as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree the Court should enter orders regarding the parties' debts. The parties should be responsible for the debt incurred in their own names.

16. Accounts. The parties have separate financial accounts and should be awarded the financial accounts held in their own respective names.

17. Spousal Support. Both of the parties are capable of supporting themselves, and no spousal support should be awarded.

18. Marital Assets. Any other marital assets not specifically mentioned herein should be equitably divided by the parties.

19. Tax Exemptions. The parties should share the tax exemptions associated with the minor child. With the Petitioner having the right to claim the tax benefits associated with the minor child in even years and the Respondent having the right to claim the tax benefits associated with the minor child in odd years.

20. Maiden Name. Respondent should have the option of using her maiden name if she chooses.

21. Attorney's Fees and Costs. The parties should each be responsible for their own attorney's fees incurred in this action.

22. Disparaging Comments. Neither party should make disparaging remarks about the other party in front of the child or allow third parties to do the same.

23. Document Execution. Each party should be ordered to execute and deliver to the other party without cost any documents necessary to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

24. The Court should grant such other and further relief as it may deem just and appropriate in this matter.
