6. Parenting Plan. The parties will adopt the Advisory Guidelines pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-202 as the binding Parenting Plan. In addition, the parties will be bound by the following parenting plan which is filed in good faith:

a. The parents will equally share the transportation for parent-time. The parent who is the receiving parent will provide the transportation unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. A stepparent, grandparent, or other responsible adult designated by the noncustodial parent, may pick up the children for parent-time if the custodial parent is aware of the identity of the individual and the noncustodial parent will be with the children by 7 p.m.

b. The parent who has the children in his or her care may make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the children without having to consult with the other parent.

c. The parties will work together to provide a united front parenting style to provide a stable environment for the minor children which encourages communication regarding discipline and values in each other's homes.

d. In making major decisions regarding the children, the parties shall consult with each other in good faith. In the event the parties are unable to agree on a resolution, they will first request input from professionals in the field of disagreement and if they are still unable to agree on a resolution, they will attend mediation. If the parties still cannot agree on a resolution, either party may bring the issue before the court for determination. The parties will be responsible for their own costs and/or attorney fees incurred in having court intervention.

e. Educational Plan. The parties will work together to determine the appropriate school for where the children will attend school. In the event that the parties are unable to determine which school the children will attend, they will attend mediation prior to court involvement.

f. The parents will notify each other of any special events involving the children such as school activities, church events, sports events, graduations, etc., so that each party will have the option of attending the special event if possible. For any event that is not posted online, each party will notify one another within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the children are participating or being honored, and both parties will be entitled to attend and participate fully.

g. The parties will notify the other parent of major injury or illness as soon as reasonably possible involving the children.

h. The parties will notify the other parent of any change of address, email address, cell phone number and telephone number within 24 hours of the change.

i. The parents will inform the other parent regarding logistical details of extended vacations including itinerary and contact information. The vacations may not conflict with the other parent’s holiday parent-time.

j. Each parent will have first option to provide care for the children over any other third party if the parent responsible for the children are not available for a period of four hours or longer during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and transportation.

k. The parties will work together in a reasonable manner to accommodate each other and to provide the children consistency and stability.

l. Special consideration will be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

m. Communication. Each parent will permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communication with the children.

n. Each parent shall provide the other with the name, address and telephone number of all surrogate care providers.

7. When a child(ren) travels with either parent, all of the following will be provided to the non-traveling parent:

o. An itinerary of travel dates;

p. Destination;

q. Contact information for the traveling parent and the children during travel, including the name and telephone number of a third party who is familiar with the children's location and can be contacted if necessary.

8. Mutual Restraining Order. Mother and Father are restrained from speaking derogatorily about the other parent or speaking to the minor children about the issues in this case, or from attempting to influence a child's preference regarding custody or parent time which would tend to diminish the love and affection of the children for the other parent. Mother and Father will be mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and will have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violation or will remove the children from such circumstances.

9. Relocation. If either parent intends to relocate more than 60 miles from the other parent, the notice provisions of Utah Code 81-9-209 shall apply. The parties shall mediate prior to seeking court action if a relocation causes or would cause the parent time schedule to be impractical. Neither parent shall relocate a child further than 60 miles from the other parent without written agreement or court order.

10. Resolution. Except for exigent circumstances or enforcement, the parties will participate in mediation prior to initiating litigation in the court.

CHILD SUPPORT

11. Child Support. Father shall be imputed at a gross monthly income of $5,771.29, due to his ability to earn equal income to Mother. Mother's gross monthly income is approximately $5,771.29. Application of the Utah child support guidelines results in a nominal child support obligation. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-202, considering the circumstances of the parties including (a) the substantially equal incomes of the parties; (b) the joint legal and joint physical custody arrangement exercised by the parties; (c) the nearly equal division of parent-time; (d) the parties' agreement to equally share child-care expenses, uninsured medical expenses, health insurance costs, school expenses, and mutually agreed extracurricular expenses; and (e) the best interests of the minor children. Strict application of the child support guidelines would be unjust, inappropriate, and not in the best interests of the children under the circumstances of this case.

12. Accordingly, a deviated child support order shall be entered. Wherefore, neither party will pay monthly child support to the other. The monthly child support obligation of each parent is set at $0.00. This constitutes a deviation from the Utah child support guidelines. The parties will continue to share all child-related expenses as provided herein. This deviation is equitable and appropriate due to the parties' equal earning capacities, substantially equal custodial responsibilities and their agreement to equally share the financial expenses of the children.

13. Reduction When Child Becomes 18. In accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-213, when a child becomes 18 years of age or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or if the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forced of the United States or is emancipated, the base child support award is automatically adjusted to the base combined child support obligation for the remaining number of children due child support, shown in the table that was used to establish the most recent order, using the incomes of the parties as specified in that order or the worksheet, unless otherwise provided in the child support order.

CHILDCARE, EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES & SCHOOL FEES

14. Childcare Expenses. If family members provide childcare, there will be no charge for daycare to the other party. If family members are not providing the childcare, the parties will adopt U.C.A.§81-6-209 as follows:

r. Each parent will equally share the reasonable work-related childcare expenses for the minor children.

s. If an actual expense for child care is incurred, a parent will begin paying their share within thirty (30) days of proof of the child care expense, but if the child care expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred without obtaining a modification of the child support order.

t. A parent who incurs childcare expense will provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. The parties will pay their share of the childcare within 10 days of receipt of verification that expenses were incurred.

u. The parent will notify the other parent of any change of childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within 30 calendar days of the date of the change. A parent incurring childcare expenses will be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to notify the other parent within said 30 days.

v. Reduction for Extended Visitation. In accordance with statute, the base child support award will be reduced by 50% for each child for time periods during which the child is with the non-custodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days of extended visitation; or 25% for each child for time periods during which the child is with the non-custodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for of at least 12 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent time. Normal parent time and holiday visits to the custodial parent will not be considered extended parent time.

15. Activity Costs. Each party will be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon, in writing, extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as receipt of an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child’s extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense.

16. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. This does not include private school tuition. The party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

INSURANCE

17. Medical/Dental Expenses. In accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-208, the court will order that insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children be provided by a parent. Either parent shall provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of their minor children as defined by 78B-12-102. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children.

w. Each parent will share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child will be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. A parent may deduct the other parent’s health insurance premium share from the child support obligation if they are the child support obligor and are paying the health insurance premiums as indicated herein.

x. Each parent will share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents.

y. The parent ordered to maintain insurance will provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2, of each calendar year, if there is a change in the previous coverage or provider. The parent will notify the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date he or she first knew or will have known of the change.

z. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses will provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party will be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child as indicated.

aa. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with Subsection (d).

bb. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Ifan will be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Austin will be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent will be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and will retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

cc. Division of Accounts. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §15-4-6.7, the parties may elect that medical/dental or school expenses be divided by the service provider into two separate accounts for payment, one for each parent as long as the service provider receives a copy of the Decree of Divorce at or before the day on which the service provider first renders medical/dental services or issues a bill for school fees.

TAXES/TAX CREDITS

18. Child Tax Credits. The parents will equally divide the child tax credits for the parties' minor children as follows:

dd. When there are three minor children who qualify for child tax credits, Austin shall claim the two older children and Ifan shall claim the youngest child on even years, and Ifan shall claim the older two children and Austin shall claim the youngest child on odd years.

ee. When there are two minor children who qualify for child tax credits, each party will claim one minor child.

ff. When there is one minor child who qualifies as a child tax credit, the parties will alternate the child tax credit with Austin claiming the child in even numbered tax years and Ifan claiming the child in odd numbered tax years.

ALIMONY

19. Alimony. Husband and Wife are each capable of supporting himself and herself; and, therefore, neither will be awarded alimony. Both Husband and Wife waive and relinquish the right to receive alimony from the other both now and in the future.

PROPERTY

20. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired certain personal property. The parties are each awarded the personal property that is in his or her respective possession on the date of the Stipulation, or except where further specified as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:
His vehicle	Austin
Her vehicle	Ifan

gg. The parties will pick up personal property from the marital home within 30 days from the date the Stipulation is signed at a mutually agreed upon time. Both parties will cooperate with each other in distributing any remaining personal property.

hh. The parties will return any property in their possession awarded to the other party by June 1, 2026.

i. Bank/Financial Accounts. During the marriage the parties acquired various bank and financial accounts which will be awarded as follows:

Chase Account	2758	3,000.00	Ifan

ii. The parties will cooperate to sign any necessary documents to transfer accounts to the individuals awarded the account above (if applicable), by no later than 10 days from the signing of the Stipulation.

21. Real Property. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired real property located at 201 N. 410 E., Vineyard, Utah 84059. The parties have or will sell the marital home. Cindy Poulsen shall be awarded $100,000.00 from the sale of the marital home after encumbrances and closing costs are paid, and the remaining proceeds from the sale will be divided equally between the parties.

DEBTS

22. Debts. Husband and Wife acquired debts during the marriage. Each will assume and hold the other harmless from liability on debts in the other party's name.

ii. Ifan will pay $278 per month over the next three years amounting to a total of $10,000 toward credit card debt accrued on the Chase account ending in 5309 in Austin's name.

jj. Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards or any joint accounts.

kk. Other Debts. Each party will be responsible to pay any other debt he or she individually incurred. If any other joint debts are later discovered and not stated and divided herein, the person incurring the debt will be solely responsible for the payment thereof and will hold the other party harmless therefrom.

ll. Creditors. The parties understand that for joint debts upon the entering of the Decree of Divorce of joint debtors, the claim of a creditor remains unchanged unless otherwise provided by the contract, or until a new contract is entered into between the creditors and the debtors individually.

mm. Notification to Creditors. The parties may notify their respective creditors for joint debts regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

nn. Delinquency in Payments. If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

23. Retirement. Ifan has a retirement account she obtained through her employment with ABS Kids through Principal, plan id 631157. Austin will receive $5,337.93 of the 401(k). Ifan affirms that no withdrawals have been made from the retirement account for at least one year prior to the filing date of the Petition for Divorce. However, in the event any withdrawals were made during that period, the Husband shall be entitled to one-half of the total amount withdrawn. Ifan specifically warrants that she has no other such retirement plans.

24. Austin shall ensure that a Qualified Domestic Relations Order be prepared after the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Austin shall pay the total cost of preparation and all processing fees. The parties understand it is their responsibility to cause the appropriate Qualified Domestic Relations Order to be prepared. The parties understand that the cost must be paid prior to the preparation of the QDRO. Ifan is enjoined from withdrawing, transferring, pledging, or borrowing such benefits until an entry and acceptance of all appropriate QDROs by Plan Administrators. In the event that Ifan receives any of the benefits awarded to Austin from these accounts as indicated within this paragraph, Ifan will receive that benefit in the form of a constructive trust for Austin, and Ifan is ordered to pay the benefit directly to Austin within thirty days of its receipt.

MUTUAL RESTRAINT

25. Father and Mother are restrained from speaking derogatorily about the other parent or speaking to the child(ren) about the issues in this case, or from attempting to influence a child’s preference regarding custody or parent time which would tend to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent. Husband and Wife will be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party. Husband and Wife will be mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph, and will have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violation, or will remove the child(ren) from such circumstances.

26. Both parties will be restrained from making visitation arrangements through the children or from using a minor child as a messenger.

27. All contact and communication between the parties will be via email or text, except for medical emergencies; which may be and will be communicated via telephone immediately.

28. Neither party is allowed to use the other's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit for personal gain, such as obtaining credit, opening accounts, or acquiring services in order to prevent one party from exploiting the other's identity or financial standing post-divorce. The parties are restrained from making public comments, sharing posts, or posting photos about each other or the divorce proceedings on social media platforms such as Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat, etc. in order to protect the privacy of both parties and avoid any public airing of grievances or details about divorce,

29. Both parties are restrained from coming to the home, workplace, or places where the other party is known to be present without the other party's express permission. Prearranged parent-time exchanges will be an express exception to this restraint.
