IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
137 North Freedom Blvd. Ste. 100, Provo, Utah 84601

In the Matter of the Marriage of: MAKAELA BETH BRINKERHOFF, Petitioner, and CHARLES PAUL BRINKERHOFF, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case no: 264401314 Judge: Thomas Low Commissioner: Dustin Hardy

This matter came before the Court following the submission to the Court of a written stipulation. The Court received the Affidavit of Grounds and Jurisdiction, having issued Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, having examined the file and the contents therein and deeming itself to be fully informed in the premises, orders, and rules as follows:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

1. Residency. Petitioner (hereinafter "Makaela" and "Mother") and Respondent (hereinafter "Charlie" and "Father") have been residents of Utah County for at least three months prior to the filing of this action.

2. Marriage Statistics. Charlie and Makaela were married on June 20, 2020, in South Jordan, Utah.

3. Grounds. The parties have experienced significant disagreements regarding their marriage and future together. Despite various efforts to reconcile and address their differences, meaningful communication between the parties has ceased. These efforts have proven unsuccessful, and the parties' differences have reached a point of irreconcilability, making the continuation of the marriage untenable. In light of the circumstances, the court is requested to grant a decree of divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

CUSTODY/PARENTING PLAN

4. Child. The parties are the parents of one minor child:

Name	Month/Year of Birth
C.B.B.	October 2022

5. Child Custody Jurisdiction. Utah has jurisdiction to make the initial child custody determination pursuant to U.C.A. §81-11-201, et seq. The child has resided in Utah for at least six consecutive months immediately before the commencement of this proceeding, and Utah is the home state of the child. A court of another state does not have jurisdiction over the child, and the child and at least one parent have a significant connection with Utah, and substantial evidence is available in Utah concerning the child's care, protection, training, and personal relationships.

6. Custody. The parties shall share joint legal custody of the minor child. Physical custody of the minor child pursuant shall be pursuant to U.C.A. 81-9-304 and 81-9-209, subject to the modifications contained herein, with Makaela designated as the custodial parent.

Parent time shall be as the parties may mutually agree. If the parties are unable to agree, parent time shall be as follows:

a. Parent Time During Graduate School. Commencing in August 2026, Charlie will relocate from Utah to Georgia to attend graduate school for an anticipated period of approximately two years. During Charlie's enrollment in graduate school, Makaela shall have primary physical custody of the minor child, subject to Charlie's right to reasonable parent time. Charlie's reasonable parent time shall be governed by Utah Code § 81-9-209 and holiday parent time shall be governed by Utah Code § 81-9-304, unless otherwise agreed by the parties or except as modified herein.

b. The parties acknowledge that this parent-time arrangement is intended solely to accommodate Charlie's temporary educational program and is not intended to establish a permanent status quo or reflect the parties' respective parenting abilities or the parent-time schedule that may be appropriate following Charlie's completion of graduate school. This temporary arrangement shall be without prejudice to either party. Charlie’s relocation for graduate school, his temporary exercise of parent time under this provision, and the passage of time while he is enrolled in graduate school shall not be asserted by either party as evidence supporting or opposing any future determination of custody or parent time following his graduation.

c. The parties further expressly agree that Charlie’s completion of graduate school and his availability to resume residing less than 150 miles from the Mother's residence that materially increases his ability to exercise parent time, shall constitute a material and substantial change of circumstances sufficient to permit the court to reconsider and determine an appropriate custody and parent-time schedule based upon the child's best interests at that time.

d. Parent Time After Graduate School. After Charlie's graduation from graduate school, or written notice that he has completed or is no longer enrolled in his graduate program, the parties shall use their best efforts to participate in mediation to establish an ongoing parent-time schedule within 60 days of Charlie's request. If mediation is unsuccessful, either party may petition the court for a determination of custody and parent time. In any such proceeding, neither party shall be prejudiced by the temporary parent-time arrangement set forth in Paragraph 6(a), and the court shall determine custody and parent time based upon the circumstances then existing and the best interests of the minor child.

e. 2026 Holiday and 2027 Extended Parent-Time. The parties agree that, notwithstanding the regular parent-time schedule, Charlie shall exercise parent-time as follows:

f. Until Charlie graduates from business school, unless the parties agree otherwise, Boston will travel with the paternal grandparent(s) or the child's Aunt Lydia during Charlie's parent time if parent time occurs outside the state of Utah.

g. Charlie shall have his one weekend a month parent time at Charlie's option and expense with at least 14-days' advance notice. Charlie's weekend parent time shall not interfere with Makaela's holiday parent time.

h. October 2026 Visit. Charlie shall exercise parent-time from October 30, 2026 at 8 am until November 1, 2026 at 7 pm.

i. Until further agreement of the parties or court order, the parties will follow the UCA 81-9-209 relocation statute holiday schedule, with the exceptions as stated below:

i. The parties will switch the odd and even schedule so that Father has Fall and Christmas break in even years and has Spring Break and Thanksgiving in odd years.

ii. Christmas. The parties will follow the first half/second half Christmas holiday schedule pursuant to UCA 81-9-304 every year. The parent that receives Thanksgiving will receive the second half of Christmas.

iii. Extended Summer Parent Time. Charlie will be entitled to two (2) two-week extended summer parent time periods each summer break when the child is free from school according to the school calendar in the school district where Makaela resides (one period will be taken in May and one in August each summer). Charlie will exercise his extended parent time at his option within the months stated above and with at least 30 days' notice.

7. Parenting Plan. The parties shall abide by the following parenting plan, which shall be made a binding order of the Court:

a. The parents may alter their parent-time schedule as they agree, and such changes are preferable to seeking judicial resolution of issues. In developing and coordinating schedules, the parents shall be guided by the objectives of allowing each parent to develop and maintain a meaningful relationship with the child, providing the child with a safe and stable environment, accommodating the child's school and other schedules, and cooperating to accommodate the parents' employment schedules. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend special family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the regular parent-time schedule. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither party may schedule activities during the other parent's parent-time absent a written agreement.

b. The parties shall follow U.C.A. 81-9-209 for allocation of transportation costs.

c. The parents shall minimize disruption of the child's attendance at school and other activities, the child's daily routines, and the child's associations with friends. Regular school hours shall not be interrupted for parent-time, unless the parents agree otherwise.

d. Each parent shall promote a healthy and positive relationship between the child and the other parent. The parents shall minimize the child's exposure to parental conflict. Child exchange times shall be without tension or contention for the child's benefit. The parents shall be courteous and respectful when exchanging the child and shall defer discussing any disputes until a time and place outside of the child's presence.

e. For emergency purposes, whenever the child travels overnight with either parent, all of the following will be provided to the other parent within at least twenty-four (24) hours of making or changing travel arrangements: (a) an itinerary of travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

f. Each parent shall permit and encourage reasonable and uncensored communication between the child and the parent not exercising parent-time. At a minimum, the child shall participate in three (3) FaceTime or other mutually agreed-upon video calls per week with the parent not exercising parent-time. The parties shall schedule Facetime calls at least 24 hours in advance. The Facetime calls with the child shall conclude by at least 7 pm to accommodate the child’s bedtime. The child may request additional calls with a parent at any time and the parent exercising parent time will facilitate the call. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the calls shall occur at reasonable hours, shall be of reasonable duration and shall not be interfered with by the other parent, except as reasonably necessary due to the child's age or immediate needs. Neither party shall attempt to shame the child to stay on a call for longer than the child desires. If a party misses a scheduled call, that call is considered waived.

g. The parents shall be permanently restrained from making any derogatory remarks about the other parent to, or in the hearing of, the child. The parents shall also affirmatively restrain all third parties from making derogatory remarks regarding the other parent to, or in the hearing of, the child.

h. The parents shall cooperate with one another for the benefit of their child, be civil and polite with one another, and work together for the best interest of the child. The parents shall live by the Golden Rule—treat one another as they would like to be treated.

i. The parents shall be calm, civil, and polite in all of their communications with one another, and shall avoid profanity, rudeness, raising their voice, and name-calling. The parents' communications shall focus on the child, and avoid personal attacks or dredging up the past. The parents shall communicate with one another openly, honestly, and cooperatively to advance and promote the best interests of the child.

j. The parents shall be enjoined from directly or indirectly using the child as a means of communicating with each other or otherwise placing the child in the middle of any disputes between the parents.

k. The parents shall be enjoined from discussing this divorce matter, or other adult issues, with the child or in the child's presence. Because the child may have access to social media, each parent also shall not publish online negative comments about the other parent.

l. Neither parent shall question the minor child about the other parent’s activities, personal relationships or how the other parent spends his/her time or money. Each parent will be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor child.

m. Each parent shall have free and open access to all information regarding the child, including medical records, school records, ecclesiastical records, dental records, information relating to the child's extracurricular activities, etc. This means, among other things, that both parents shall be fully entitled to contact the child's schools, doctors, therapists, daycare providers, church leaders, etc. to obtain information about the child. Each parent shall execute any releases necessary to allow the other parent access to such records relating to their minor child.

n. Each parent shall be listed as the child's parent and emergency contact person on all school records, registration forms, medical records, and any other document with legal importance or other significance.

o. Each parent shall provide the other with his/her current address, telephone number, and email address, and also shall notify the other parent of any changes thereto within 24 hours.

p. Each parent shall provide all surrogate care providers with the name, current address, and telephone number of the other parent, and shall provide the other parent with the name, current address, and telephone number of all surrogate care providers.

q. Each parent shall notify the other parent within 72 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, community, extracurricular, and church functions in which the child is participating or being honored, and the other parent shall be entitled to attend and participate fully.

r. Each parent shall be entitled to make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of the child while that parent is exercising parent-time. If an emergency arises, the parent exercising parent-time shall have the authority to make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child. That said, the parent exercising parent-time during an emergency shall use his/her best efforts to inform the other parent of the emergency and to advise and consult with the other parent regarding emergency medical treatment of the child. Both parents shall administer medication to the minor child only as medically appropriate and shall not use medication for the minor child solely to induce sleep.

s. The parents shall advise and consult with one another in good faith regarding the child's emotional and physical health and wellbeing, and all non-emergency medical, dental, and psychological treatment for the child, including the selection of professionals, treatments, and procedures. The parents shall advise and consult with one another in good faith regarding the child on all other major decisions for the child, such as education, religion, and disciplinary issues. Both parties shall use their good faith best efforts to reach shared decisions for their child. If they reach an impasse, they shall mediate the issue with an agreed-upon neutral professional mediator and equally share the mediator's fees. Any agreements reached at mediation shall be reduced to writing, and a copy given to each parent. If a parent abuses or frustrates this dispute resolution process without good cause, the Court shall award reasonable attorney fees, costs, and other financial sanctions to the other parent.

t. Education Plan: The parties will mutually agree as to when the child will start preschool and/or kindergarten, as well as the choice of school. Neither parent may unilaterally disenroll or change a child’s school. Each parent shall have access to a child during school and authority to check a child out of school for healthcare or other reasonable circumstances on his or her parent time day.

u. Each parent shall have the first option to provide care for the child before any other third party if the parent exercising parent-time is unavailable during his or her custodial time for a period of at least overnight or longer, provided the other parent is personally available, willing to provide the care, and able to provide the necessary transportation. If Makaela is unavailable and her parents or Kathryn Smith are unavailable to provide care, Makaela will give Charlie's parents the option to provide care, provided they are available and can provide transportation and the care occurs in Utah County, before contacting other care providers.

v. The parties will maintain safe and appropriate sleeping and living accommodations for the child.

w. The parties will not consume alcohol immediately before or during their parent-time with the minor child and will remove the minor child from any situation where alcohol is being consumed.

x. Neither party will have the child present with persons with whom they are romantically involved unless it is a committed relationship.

y. Within 30 days of the date of this Stipulation, each party will participate in the Love and Logic parenting course and provide verification of completion to the other party.

z. Extra-curricular Activities. The parties will equally divide the cost of extra-curricular activities for the minor children so long as the parties have mutually agreed to the activity in writing prior to a child being enrolled in the activity. If the parties have agreed to divide the cost of the activity in advance, proof of payment shall be provided by the party enrolling the child in the activity to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment with reimbursement to take place within the following thirty (30) days. Any party unilaterally enrolling a child in extra-curricular activities will not interfere with the other party's parent-time unless the parties mutually agree.

8. Resolution. Except for exigent circumstances or enforcement, the parties will participate in mediation prior to initiating litigation in the court.

CHILD SUPPORT

9. Child Support. Father is employed part time as a graduate assistant. His gross monthly income will be imputed at $3,466. Mother is employed at Door Dash. Her gross monthly income will be imputed at $3,466. Father's child support obligation shall be $425 per month. The child support obligation of Father shall be effective October 1, 2026, and continue until the child becomes 18 years of age or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or if the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forced of the United States or is emancipated in accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-213.

a. Mother is entitled to immediate and automatic withholding of income as a means of collecting child support, pursuant to §81-6-202.

10. Reduction for Extended Visitation. In accordance with statute, the base child support award will be reduced by 50% for each child for time periods during which the child is with the non-custodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days of extended visitation; or 25% for each child for time periods during which the child is with the non-custodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for of at least 12 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent time.

Normal parent time and holiday visits to the custodial parent will not be considered extended parent time.

CHILDCARE

11. Childcare Expenses. If family members provide childcare, there will be no charge for daycare to the other party. If family members are not providing the childcare, the parents will adopt U.C.A. §81-6-209 as follows:

a. Each parent will equally share the reasonable work-related childcare expenses for the minor child.

b. If an actual expense for childcare is incurred, a parent will begin paying their share within thirty (30) days of proof of the childcare expense, but if the childcare expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred without obtaining a modification of the child support order.

c. A parent who incurs childcare expense will provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. Parents will pay their share of the childcare within 30 days of receipt of verification that expenses were incurred.

d. The parent will notify the other parent of any change of childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within 30 calendar days of the date of the change. A parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to notify the other parent within said 30 days.

INSURANCE

12. 1Medical/Dental Expenses. In accordance §81-6-208, the court will order that insurance for the medical expenses of the minor child be provided by a parent. Either parent shall provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of their minor child as defined by §81-6-208. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor child.

a. 2Each parent will share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child will be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. A parent may deduct the other parent’s health insurance premium share from the child support obligation if they are the child support obligor and are paying the health insurance premiums as indicated herein.

b. 3Each parent will share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents.

c. 4The parent ordered to maintain insurance will provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2, of each calendar year, if there is a change in the previous coverage or provider. The parent will notify the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date he or she first knew or should have known of the change.

d. 5The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses will provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child as indicated.

e. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with Subsection (d).

f. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Petitioner will be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Respondent will be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent will be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and will retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

g. Division of Accounts. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §15-4-6.7, the parties may elect that medical/dental or school expenses be divided by the service provider into two separate accounts for payment, one for each parent as long as the service provider receives a copy of the Decree of Divorce at or before the day on which the service provider first renders medical/dental services or issues a bill for school fees.

CHILD TAX CREDIT

13. Child Tax Credit. The parties shall alternate claiming the minor child for all child-related tax benefits. Charlie shall claim the child in even-numbered tax years, and Makaela shall claim the child in odd-numbered tax years. Charlie's right to claim the child is conditioned upon his being current on all child support obligations as of December 31 of the applicable tax year.

ALIMONY

14. Alimony. Charlie and Makaela are each capable of supporting himself and herself; and, therefore, neither shall be awarded alimony now or in the future.

PROPERTY

15. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired certain personal property. The parties are each awarded the personal property that is in his or her respective possession on the date of the Stipulation, or except where further specified as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:
2009 Hyundai Elantra	Charlie
2014 Ford Focus	Makaela

16. Bank/Financial/Retirement Accounts. During the marriage the parties acquired various bank and financial accounts which shall be awarded as follows:

Account Description:	Acct #	Approx. Balance	Awarded to:
Makaela's AFCU checking/savings/money market	x2807	$118.99	Makaela
Charlie MACU Checking/savings/money market	x3731	$503.57	Charlie
Vanguard Roth IRA	x9631	$479.46	1/2 to each

401k (Charlie)		$780.51	1/2 to each

a. Charlie shall provide verification of the amounts in the account as of September 16, 2026, and shall pay Makaela her one-half portion no later than October 16, 2026.

b. The parties shall cooperate to sign any necessary documents to transfer accounts to the individuals awarded the account above (if applicable), by no later than 10 days from the signing of the Stipulation.

17. Real Property. The parties acquired no real property during the course of this marriage, nor do they presently own an interest in real property.

DEBTS

18. Debts. Charlie and Makaela acquired debts during the marriage. Each will assume, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

Creditor	Approx. Balance	Obligation of:
MACU Visa x3949	$458.11	Charlie
Remaining student loans	Balance	Charlie

a. Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards or any joint accounts.

b. Other Debts. Each party will be responsible to pay any other debt he or she individually incurred. If any other joint debts are later discovered and not stated and divided herein, the person incurring the debt will be solely responsible for the payment thereof and shall hold the other party harmless therefrom.

c. Creditors. The parties understand that for joint debts upon the entering of the Decree of Divorce of joint debtors, the claim of a creditor remains unchanged unless otherwise provided by the contract, or until a new contract is entered into between the creditors and the debtors individually.

d. Notification to Creditors. The parties may notify their respective creditors for joint debts regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

e. Delinquency in Payments. If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

MUTUAL RESTRAINT

19. Father and Mother are restrained from speaking derogatorily about the other parent or speaking to the child about the issues in this case, or from attempting to influence a child's preference regarding custody or parent time which would tend to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent. Father and Mother shall be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party. Father and Mother shall be mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph, and will have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violation, or will remove the child from such circumstances.

20. Both parties shall be restrained from making visitation arrangements through the children or from using the minor child as a messenger.

21. Neither party is allowed to use the other's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit for personal gain, such as obtaining credit, opening accounts, or acquiring services in order to prevent one party from exploiting the other's identity or financial standing post-divorce. The parties are restrained from making public comments, sharing posts, or posting photos about each other or the divorce proceedings on social media platforms such as Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat, etc. in order to protect the privacy of both parties and avoid any public airing of grievances or details about divorce.

22. All contact, communication, and scheduling of parent time between the parties shall be via OurFamilyWizard. The parties shall be responsible for their own costs associated with OurFamilyWizard. The parties will sign up within 48 hours of the date of this Stipulation. The parties will not text or call each other, except for medical emergencies; which may be and shall be communicated via telephone immediately.

23. Both parties shall be restrained from coming to the home, work place, or places where the other party is known to be present without the other party's express permission. Prearranged parent-time exchanges shall be an express exception to this restraint.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

24. Attorney's Fees and Costs. Each of the parties shall assume and pay their own attorney fees and cost.

25. Each of the parties understands, acknowledges, and agrees that each of the parties hereto has contributed to the drafting of this Stipulation, and no provision will be construed against any party as being the draftsman thereof. This Stipulation will therefore be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing the Agreement to be drafted. The Parties specifically, intentionally, and knowingly waive any right to allege, assert, or claim the benefit of any rule requiring construction against the drafting party.

26. The parties understand that their attorneys do not offer legal advice as to the tax implications herein and are aware that they have the right to seek advice from a tax expert as to the specific tax consequences to them prior to signing the Stipulation.

27. Both parties will sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

28. Final Stipulation. The Stipulation is entire and complete and embodies all understandings and agreements between the parties. No prior or contemporaneous oral or written agreements or matters outside of the Stipulation will have any force or effect. Petitioner and Respondent are aware that they have a right to proceed to trial in this matter to present all of their evidence and witnesses but waive this right. The Petitioner and Respondent are satisfied that the Stipulation is fair and reasonable. There are no questions Petitioner and Respondent have to ask or unresolved issues that need to be addressed. All issues either party wishes to raise have been incorporated in the stipulation.

29. Resolution. Except for exigent circumstances or enforcement, the parties will participate in mediation prior to initiating litigation in the court.

30. Arrearages. This resolves all claims either party has against the other including but not limited to past alimony, child support, out-of-pocket medical expenses, out-of-pocket medical premiums, reimbursement for travel expenses and any other financial claims through the date of the signing of this Stipulation.

31. Full Disclosure. Each party warrants that they have provided a complete, accurate, and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. This means that both individuals are affirming they've fully disclosed all their financial matters, ensuring transparency in the division of assets and responsibilities.

a. Consequences of Non-Disclosure: Both parties acknowledge that any deliberate failure to disclose financial information fully could be considered perjury, a criminal offense. This highlights the seriousness of honest and complete disclosure during divorce proceedings.

b. Scope of Property: The property referred to in the stipulation includes all property to which either party has any legal or equitable interest, whether owned individually or jointly with the other party. This ensures that all assets, regardless of ownership type (joint or separate), are accounted for in the division.

c. In short, this provision seeks to ensure transparency, full financial disclosure, and accountability from both parties in the divorce process. It also establishes that any deliberate concealment or misrepresentation could have legal repercussions

32. The parties agree that the above-referenced court has jurisdiction to make a final determination in this action. The court has authority to enter final documents and a Decree based on the Stipulation of the parties.
