IN THE FOURTH DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR WASATCH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: ANDREW CARTER SHELTON, Petitioner, and MARIE YEH SHELTON Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264500128 Judge: Jennifer A. Mabey

In accordance with Utah Code 81-4-406, the above-captioned matter came before the court for consideration absent a hearing. Pursuant to the Stipulated Petition for Divorce ("Agreement"), a judgment for a divorce can be entered. The court, having reviewed the pleadings on file herein, and having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, does now ORDER, ADJUDGE, and DECREE as follows:

Petitioner, Andrew Carter Shelton ("Andrew" or "Petitioner") is awarded a Decree of Divorce from Respondent, Marie Yeh Shelton ("Marie" or "Respondent"), on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, the same to become final upon entry by the court clerk.

JURISDICTION AND GROUNDS

1. Andrew Carter Shelton and Marie Yeh Shelton were residents of Wasatch County, State of Utah, on the date this case was filed and were residents of Wasatch County for at least 90 days immediately before the filing of this action.

2. During the marital relationship, the parties have resided in the State of Utah, and this Court has jurisdiction over the parties pursuant to Utah Code 81-4-405.

3. Andrew Carter Shelton and Marie Yeh Shelton were married on May 27, 2000, in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, Utah. The parties separated on or about April 27, 2026, and do not currently reside together.

4. The parties have two minor children born as issue of their marriage, to wit: Cora Ruth Shelton, born March 2, 2011; and Carter Percy Shelton, born February 4, 2013.

5. Utah is the home state of the parties' minor children and has jurisdiction to make an initial custody determination because the children have lived in Utah with a parent for at least six consecutive months immediately before commencement of this action. During the last five years, the children have lived at 2945 Wild Mare Way, Heber City, Utah 84032, with Andrew Shelton and Marie Shelton.

6. During the course of the marriage, the parties have experienced irreconcilable differences that have prevented the parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship.

7. This Petition is being filed as a Tier 4 case because it is a domestic matter.

MINOR CHILDREN

8. Neither party has received or is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah for the benefit of the dependent children.

9. Pursuant to Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 100(a), Andrew Carter Shelton states upon information and belief that there are no proceedings for custody, child support, or parent-time; a protective order; or a criminal or delinquency case regarding the above-named minor children filed or pending in the Juvenile Court of this or any other state.

10. Custody: It is in the children's best interest that the parties be awarded joint legal custody and that Andrew Carter Shelton be awarded sole physical custody of the minor children. The children will live full time with Andrew at his residence.

11. Parent time. The parties will exercise a custom parent time and holiday schedule. Marie shall have up to six weeks of parent time per year and one evening visit with the children per week. Marie's parent time will be exercised with reasonable flexibility and, to a significant degree, by agreement between Marie, and the children, with appropriate consideration given to Marie's schedule and to the children's wishes, schedule, activities and circumstances as they arise.

12. Transportation: Parent-time transfers will occur at a location(s) mutually agreed to by the parties. If parent-time transfers occur at a residence, to respect each other's privacy, neither parent will enter the residence of the other without express permission on each visit.

13. If either party is unavailable to personally transport the children for a parent-time exchange, that party may designate an appropriate and responsible person to provide transportation.

14. Child Care: A child-care provider for the children must be a relative, friend, or neighbor unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

15. Communication with the Children: The parents will provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent and will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent. Parents and children may communicate by any method whenever the children choose.

16. Address and Phone Number: The parties should keep each other informed of their current address and telephone number at all times.

CHILD-RELATED FINANCES

17. Child Support: Andrew Carter Shelton is employed full-time and earns gross monthly income of $19,196.75 for purposes of calculating child support. Marie Yeh Shelton earns gross monthly income of $30,918.00 for purposes of calculating child support. The sole custody worksheet was used to calculate child support. Marie Yeh Shelton should be ordered to pay Andrew Carter Shelton $3,395.00 per month in base child support, which complies with the Utah Child Support Act.

a. The child support will be paid until (1) a minor child reaches the age of majority or graduate High School in the expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Utah Code 80-7-105.

b. This child support may be submitted to and administered by the Office of Recovery Services (ORS).

c. The person entitled to receive child support will be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code 26B-9-104. Any Federal and State tax refunds or rebates due to the non-custodial parent may be intercepted by the State of Utah and applied to existing child support arrearages. This income withholding procedure will apply to existing and future payers.

d. Child support will be paid in two increments each month; half on the 5th and half on the 20th of each month.

e. Pursuant to Utah Code 81-6-211, the child support award shall be subject to statutory reductions for extended parent-time when applicable by court order or written agreement of the parties.

i. reduced by 50% for each child for time periods during which the child is with the noncustodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent-time; or

ii. 25% for each child for time periods during which the child is with the noncustodial parent by order of the court, or by written agreement of the parties for at least 12 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent-time.

18. Medical Insurance Coverage: Andrew Carter Shelton should maintain medical, hospital, and dental insurance for the dependent children if available at reasonable cost. If the children are covered by both parents' insurance plans, Andrew Carter Shelton's insurance should be primary coverage and Marie Yeh Shelton's insurance should be secondary coverage.

19. If a parent remarries and their dependent child is not covered by their insurance, but is covered by the step-parent's plan, the step-parent's plan should be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and should retain the same designation for primary or secondary insurance as described above.

20. If the court or an administrative agency must determine which parent should be ordered to maintain insurance for medical expenses, the court or administrative agency may consider the:

a. Reasonableness of the cost;

b. Availability of a group insurance policy;

c. Coverage of the policy; and

d. Preference of the custodial parent.

21. The party who carries the insurance on the children should provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 601 et seq., upon initial enrollment of the dependent children, and after initial enrollment on or before January 2 of each calendar year. That party should notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42

U.S.C. Sec. 601 et seq., of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date the parent first knew or should have known of the change.

22. Medical Insurance Premiums: In accordance with Utah Code 81-6-208(3)(d), both parties should share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of the insurance. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid for the family and is calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children of the parties. The insurance premium should be automatically added to or subtracted from the child support obligation above.

23. Out-of-Pocket Medical Expenses: Each party should pay one-half of all reasonable and necessary health, optical, hospital, dental, orthodontic, psychological, and other medical expenses of the parties' minor children including, but not limited to: out-of-pocket costs actually paid by either parent for the minor children's portion of health, optical, hospital, dental, orthodontic, psychological, and other medical insurance coverage and all reasonable and necessary uninsured health, optical, hospital, dental, orthodontic, psychological, and other medical expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by either parent.

24. Either parent who incurs health, optical, hospital, dental, orthodontic, psychological, and other medical expenses for the parties' minor children should provide written verification of the costs and payment for the expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment. The other parent should reimburse them within thirty (30) days of receiving verification of payment.

In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expense or to recover the other party's share of the expenses if that party fails to comply with this provision.

25. Notice to Medical/Dental Expense Creditors: Pursuant to Utah Code 15-4-6.7, Utah Code 81-3-105, and Utah Code 81-4-501(2)-(4), when a court order has been entered providing for the payment of medical expenses of a minor child pursuant to Utah Code Utah Code 81-4-501(2)-(4), 81-4-204, or 81-6-208, or an administrative order under 62A-11-326, a creditor who has been provided a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order, nor may the creditor make a negative credit report under Utah Code 70C-7-107, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order.

a. Each party should send a copy of the Decree of Divorce to the creditor of the particular medical or dental expense of the minor children;

b. Notify the particular creditor of that party's current address; and

c. Inform the particular creditor that it may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against that party if that party has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order and also inform the particular creditor that it may not make a negative credit report under Utah Code 70C-7-107 or a report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order.

26. Childcare: Each party should be responsible and liable for one-half of the reasonable childcare costs actually incurred each month as a result of parties' work. Both parties' portions of these childcare costs should be paid directly to the childcare provider in a timely manner. Utah Code 81-6-209. If a family member is providing childcare, then it should be presumed that those services are being provided free of charge. The parties should provide written verification of the cost and identity of the childcare provider to the other party, and should promptly notify the other party of any changes.

27. Taxes: Andrew Carter Shelton may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes.

28. Upon reasonable advance notice and request, each party should provide the other party a signed Internal Revenue Service 8332 form for any year where the other party is awarded the child for tax purposes.

29. The parties acknowledge that the children are currently participating in certain extracurricular activities and/or have traditionally participated in certain extracurricular activities, including but not limited to those listed in Exhibit A attached hereto. The parties agree that all such current and traditional activities are approved and shall be "grandfathered" under this Parenting Plan.

30. Neither parent shall interfere with the children's continued participation in any grandfathered activities.

31. If the parties have agreed in writing to the children's participation in an extracurricular activity, then they should equally share the costs associated therewith. Neither party is obligated to facilitate the children's participation in an extracurricular activity during their parent-time if they did not agree to the children's involvement.

32. Education-Related Expenses: The parties should be equally responsible for any and all of the children's educational-related expenses. 34. The parties are permanently restrained from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, and/or harming the other party at any time or in any place.

35. Communication: The parents will communicate with each other by any method and will exchange child-related information in good faith. Each parent will make day-to-day decisions for the children during the time they are caring for the children. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children and must share any emergency decision with the other parent as soon as reasonably possible.

36. Child Rearing: The parties shall focus their attention on conversations about the children rather than each other. The parties shall encourage the children to understand that differences in parenting styles and households occur, and attempt to adapt to those differences without suggesting that the other parent is better or worse. The parties shall respect the other parent's right to establish an independent life with the children so long as it is not detrimental to the children's development.

37. In an effort to maintain some consistency and standards for discipline, the parties shall attempt to adopt behavior rules that will apply in both homes. This shall include: bedtime, homework, types of movies and video games the children are allowed to watch/play, and frequency of television and computer time. Should the children complain about a particular parent's rules for them, the explanation shall be that it must be resolved with the other parent so that the parents do not become an ally with the children in that regard. If it is perceived by one party that the discipline of the other is inappropriate, the discussion shall be had in a private and appropriate setting with the other parent, without going through the children.

38. Medical Information: Both parties have the right to obtain medical information on the minor children from healthcare providers directly without the necessity of going through the other party or getting their permission. Each party will be listed as a parent for all medical and dental provider contact.

39. Education: The children's school will be based on Andrew Carter Shelton's home residence. Both parties may check the children out of school and access school information. If the parties cannot agree, education decisions will be made by Andrew Carter Shelton.

b. Develop possible solutions

c. Choose the most sensible solution that considers the needs and interests of everyone involved

42. Tie-Breaking Procedure: Under the terms of the above paragraph, the parties will discuss major decisions together, focusing on objective criteria and facts, and involving any professional who may be of assistance. Major decisions include where a child attends school, elective medical, and changing a child's religion. If they are unable to reach an agreement, the parties will attend mediation prior to bringing the matter before the court.

43. Emergency Medical Decisions: The parent who has the child at the time he/she suffers a medical emergency has the authority to make any initial decision regarding emergency medical care. That parent will immediately notify the other parent of the emergency.

44. Day-to-Day Decisions: Whichever parent has the children in his or her physical custody may make minor, day-to-day decisions regarding them and their care.

45. Implementation of Treatment: Each of the parties will facilitate, help, and promote administration of medication or other regimens of therapy for the children as prescribed by a doctor.

46. Religion: The parties acknowledge that the minor children have been raised as members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and have historically participated in the Church's meetings, programs, activities, ordinances, youth programs, and religious instruction. The parties agree that the children's participation in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is the established religious status quo and shall be grandfathered and preserved until each child reaches eighteen years of age.

47. Out-of-State Travel: Any parent intending to take a child out of state will provide a brief itinerary to the other parent at least a week prior to travel, including a telephone number for emergency communication. The parties will comply with the provisions of Utah Code 81-9-202(19).

50. Corporal Punishment: The parties will refrain from using corporal punishment with the minor children and shall keep third parties from doing so.

51. Romantic Partners: The parties shall not have romantic or unrelated opposite sex guests spend the night while the children are present unless they are in a serious relationship (dating for more than six months), engaged, or married.
