IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH
FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT | UTAH COUNTY
137 N Freedom Blvd, Provo, UT 84601

In the Matter of the Marriage of KIM GOATES, Petitioner, and JEFFREY GOATES, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264402679 DA Judge Tony F. Graf, Jr. Commissioner Marian Ito

THIS MATTER came before the court pursuant to Petitioner's Request to Submit for Entry of Decree of Divorce. The parties have entered into a written Stipulation and Settlement Agreement, which has been filed with the court. The Court reviewed Petitioner's Request to Submit, her Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds, the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement, and the court papers submitted in support of entry of the Decree, and thereafter made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. Based thereon, and for good cause appearing, now, therefore, it is hereby

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

Dissolution of Marriage

1. The parties are awarded a decree of divorce, one from the other, on grounds of irreconcilable differences of the marriage, to become final upon entry.

Consent to Entry of Decree of Divorce

2. Respondent has consented to the entry of a decree of divorce upon the terms set forth in the written Stipulation filed herein September 30, 2026, said decree to be submitted to the Court upon affidavit and motion for entry conforming with Rule 104 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure and to become final upon entry.

Children

3. The parties are the parents of four children born during their marriage, none of whom remain minors. There are no issues of custody, parent-time or child support to be determined in this case.

Real Property

4. The parties acquired a home during their marriage, located in Lehi, Utah, with the street address of 2340 N 1000 E, Lehi, UT 84043, hereafter designated the Marital Home. The Marital Home is hereby awarded to Petitioner, free and clear of any interest therein of Respondent, and subject to the mortgage obligation and HELOC, both of which Petitioner shall be responsible to pay and maintain, without contribution from Respondent.

5. The parties acquired a Worldmark by Wyndham timeshare during their marriage. This timeshare is hereby awarded to Petitioner subject to Respondent's right to use any bonus time associated therewith. Petitioner shall be solely and separately responsible to pay the monthly maintenance fee and all other costs associated with the timeshare. Petitioner shall have the sole and separate right to sell the timeshare at her discretion and to use the timeshare credits as she chooses.

Business Interests

6. Petitioner established a business during the marriage, namely: Thrive Family Academy LLC. This business is hereby awarded to Petitioner, free and clear of any interest therein of Respondent's, together with all tangible and intangible assets and liabilities of the business, including without limitation, going concern value, goodwill, financial accounts, accounts receivable, equipment, inventory and supplies.

Financial Assets

7. The parties acquired certain checking, savings and money market accounts during their marriage, namely: MACU savings x1250; MACU savings x5895; MACU checking/savings x7947; and Key Bank checking x6643. The MACU x1250 and x5895 accounts are hereby awarded to Petitioner, together with the funds held therein, free and clear of any interest of Respondent's. The MACU x7947 and the Key Bank x6643 accounts are hereby awarded to Respondent, together with the funds held therein, free and clear of any interest of Petitioner's.

8. Petitioner acquired a 401K account during her marriage, more particularly designated as the Utah Association of Public Charter Schools Retirement Plan. This account is hereby awarded to Petitioner, free and clear of any interest therein of Respondent.

9. All other financial assets of whatever nature in which either party has any interest, or which exists in the name of either party, is hereby awarded to the party in whose name the asset exists, free and clear of any right, claim, or interest therein of the other party.

Life Insurance

10. The parties acquired a term life insurance policy with Lincoln Life Insurance during their marriage. This policy is hereby awarded to Petitioner, free and clear of any interest therein of Respondent.

Personal Property

11. The parties acquired certain automobiles during their marriage, namely: a 2011 Kia Sorento, a 2023 Kia Sorento, and a 2016 Toyota Tundra. The 2011 Kia Sorento and the 2023 Kia Sorento are hereby awarded to Petitioner, free and clear of any interest therein of Respondent and subject to the loan obligation encumbering the 2023 Kia Sorento, which Petitioner shall be solely and separately responsible to pay and maintain. The 2016 Toyota Tundra is hereby awarded to Respondent, free and clear of any interest therein of Petitioner.

12. The parties have divided their household furnishings and personal effects to their satisfaction. Each party is hereby awarded all such items currently in his or her possession.

Cash Payout

13. Petitioner shall pay the sum of $100,000 to Respondent on or before November 1, 2026. Said payment shall be made by direct deposit into an account of Respondent’s choosing.

Alimony

14. Petitioner shall pay alimony to Respondent in the amount of $3,000 per month, commencing the first day of October, 2026, and continuing each month thereafter until such time as either party dies or Respondent marries or cohabitates in a marriage-like relationship, in which event alimony shall automatically terminate. If none of the foregoing events occurs first, then alimony shall continue through and include payment in the month of July 2030, whereupon alimony shall terminate. Alimony payments shall be made by direct deposit on the first day of the month into an account of Respondent’s choosing.

15. The parties acknowledge that Respondent has not been employed for a lengthy period of time and that he has had health problems. The parties' stipulated alimony agreement, as well as their stipulated property settlement, takes these factors into consideration, and are intended to fully compensate Respondent for his marital contributions as well as to provide for him in a manner that will allow him to be self-sufficient through retirement and thereafter. Respondent, by his signature of the parties' Stipulation and Settlement Agreement, has acknowledged his participation in and consent to the foregoing terms and has waived any right he may have to hereafter request that alimony be increased either in amount or duration.

Debts and Liabilities

16. There are no debts or liabilities existing in either party's name, with the exception of the mortgage obligation and the automobile loan referenced above. Should a debt or liability currently unknown to the parties be discovered in the future, the party incurring the debt or liability shall be solely and separately responsible to pay it and shall hold harmless and indemnify the other party from any damage to credit or other harm arising therefrom, which indemnification shall include the payment of attorney fees and costs.

Attorney Fees

17. The parties shall each be responsible to pay his or her own attorney fees incurred through entry of the Decree of Divorce herein.

Performance

18. The parties shall execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of their Stipulation and this Decree of Divorce when entered by the court.

Entire Agreement / Complete Settlement

19. The parties have fully settled all issues, claims or causes of action that either party may have against the other related to or arising out of their marriage.

20. The parties' Stipulation contains their entire understanding. There are no representations, warranties, or covenants by or between the parties other than those expressly set forth in their Stipulation.

Voluntary Agreement

21. The parties entered into their Stipulation voluntarily. They read, understood, and approved it after receiving the advice of separate counsel, or having had the opportunity to receive the advice of separate counsel, and they consider it to be fair and equitable.
