Attorneys for Jay Grace Slavens

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
137 N. Freedom Blvd., Provo, Utah 84601

In the matter of the marriage of: JUSTIN CONNOR SLAVENS, Petitioner and JESSICA GRACE SLAVENS, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 254401062 Judge Shawn R. Howell Commissioner Marla Snow

The Court, having received the Stipulation of the parties, entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for good cause and consideration, hereby enters the following DECREE OF DIVORCE:

1. The Court hereby divorces the parties, which is done on the basis of irreconcilable differences, which make continuation of the marriage impossible.

2. Children. The parties have minor children of the marriage, to wit:

Child	Birthday
J.D.S.	November 2016

B.G.S.	January 2019
E.R.S.	August 2022

CUSTODY

3. Legal Custody. The parties shall have joint legal custody of the minor children. The parameters of this legal custody are identified in the Parenting Plan below.

4. Physical Custody. 1The parties are awarded joint custody of their minor children with Jay designated as the residential parent for school purposes. Parent-time with the child shall be at reasonable times and places as the parties may agree.

a. From April 7, 2026 until October 7, 2026: If the parties cannot agree, the parties should be awarded 60/40 joint physical custody of the minor child/children in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-303, with Jay as the custodial parent. The following table indicates the parent time to occur on a bi-weekly basis:

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat	Sun
Week 1	Mom	Mom	Mom	Dad	Mom	Mom	Mom
Week 2	Mom	Mom	Mom	Dad	Dad	Dad	Dad

b. From October 8, 2026 forward: If the parties cannot agree, the parties should be awarded 50/50 joint physical custody of the minor child/children in accordance with Utah

Code Ann. § 81-9-305. The following table indicates the parent time to occur on a bi-weekly basis:

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat	Sun
Week 1	Mom	Mom	Dad	Dad	Mom	Mom	Mom
Week 2	Mom	Mom	Dad	Dad	Dad	Dad	Dad

c. The parent time shall be effective upon signing this Agreement.

d. The holidays shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree the holidays will be according to Utah Code § 81-9-303.

e. Extended Parent Time. For the summer of 2026, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-303, the parties shall have extended summer parent time in accordance with the statute. For the remaining summers, the parties shall have extended parent time in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-305.

f. Notification of Extended Time. Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time or vacation weeks with the child/ren by May 1 each year with Justin having first choice of extended time in odd-numbered years and Jay having first choice of extended time in even-numbered years. If notification is not provided timely, the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent-time for the non-complying parent. Extended parent time may not be used to go over the other parent's holiday parent time.

PARENTING PLAN

5. Relocation. If either party moves more than 50 miles from the residence of the other, the parties will be governed by the notice, custody and other provisions as contained in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209 and Utah law.

6. Transportation. That transportation for parent-time exchanges shall be as the parties may agree, or in the event they cannot agree, then the receiving party shall pick up the minor child/ren for the commencement of his/her parent-time. All parent-time exchanges shall occur curbside if not at school. If there is school, the party with the overnight before school shall drop the child off at school and the party to exercise their parent time on a particular day shall pick the child up from school.

7. Communication. Petitioner and Respondent will only communicate via a co-parenting app in OurFamilyWizard, unless there is an emergency relating to the health of a child. Otherwise all communications shall be in writing, and the parties shall respond within 48 hours of a communication.

8. Access to Records. The parties shall both have access to medical records, school records, court records, and any other information or records concerning their child/children.

9. Day-to-Day Decisions. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the child/children's day-to-day activities when the child are in his or her care. If there is an emergency, the party shall immediately inform the other party about the situation, and shall take immediate measures to protect and care for the minor child/children.

10. Education. The children shall continue to attend the schools they are enrolled in, as well as the feeder/matriculating schools for these elementary/middle/high school. Currently at Wasatch Waldorf Charter School, then they will go to Waldorf High School.

11. Elective Medical. Regarding vaccines, the parties agree that the children will not be vaccinated until the children are 18 and can make their own decisions.

12. Major Decisions. The major decisions concerning their child/children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be discussed by the parties in good faith. In the event the parties do not mutually agree to a major decision regarding the child/children, they will attend mediation, and if not resolved, go to Court. The other major issues are addressed herein.

13. Safety Precautions with Grandparents. For one year, Justin's father shall not be permitted to be alone with the minor children. At the one-year mark, this will be evaluated. If there have been issues raised with DCFS or the Court, then this precaution may be extended. If there are no issues, then the precaution shall be removed. Regarding Jay's parents, the children shall not be left alone with Jay's parents without Jay's written permission.

Failure to comply with this provision may result in a reduction of parent time.

14. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Child. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the child/children, in the form of texting and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The child/children shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

15. Travel. When the child/children travel with either parent overnight, all of the following will be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure: (a) an itinerary of travel dates; (b) destination; (c) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; (d) and, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child(ren)'s location.

16. Religion. The minor children will not be baptized or receive ordinances or other church-related rites without written permission of both parties.

17. Right of First Refusal. There shall be a right of refusal that shall work as follows: If a party is unable to provide care for 8 hours or more for work-related reasons (including remote work, which is considered unavailable), then the other party has the right to provide care for the minor child/children. The party invoking the right and providing substitute care shall be responsible for all transportation for the child during the exercise of this right (both back and forth). The party invoking this right shall make the child/children immediately available upon the ability of the parent to whom the right of refusal is invoked upon.

18. Mutual Restraining Orders. The following mutual restraining orders shall be ordered:

a. The parties shall be mutually restrained from making demeaning and degrading remarks about the other party in the presence of the minor children, and shall refrain from allowing third parties to do so.

b. All communication between the parties shall be civil and courteous.

c. There shall be no negative or harmful remarks made by a parent about the other parent in the presence of the minor children or the parent will remove the minor children. The parties will not allow third parties to do what they cannot, and shall remove third parties if they are speaking derogatorily about the other parent.

d. Petitioner and Respondent shall be mutually restrained from discussing the case in the presence of the minor children, leaving papers out in the presence of the minor children, etc. The parties shall be ordered to isolate the minor children from the legal process as much as possible.

e. Petitioner and Respondent shall be mutually restrained from entering the home of the other parent without written permission.

f. The parties shall not harass, threaten, stalk, harm, injure or abuse the other party.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR THE CHILD/REN

19. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-201 et seq. Child support shall be ordered as follows:

a. Justin's gross monthly income is $10,329 per month.

b. Jay's imputed gross monthly income is $1,800 per month.

c. Child support shall be as follows:

i. During physical custody consistent with Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-303 (April 7-October 7, 2026): Jay shall be designated as having 220 overnights. Justin shall be designated as having 145 overnights. Justin shall pay to Jay $1458 per month in child support.

ii. During physical custody consistent with Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-305 (October 8, 2026 forward): Jay shall be designated as having 183 overnights. Justin shall be designated as having 182 overnights. Justin shall pay to Jay $784 per month in child support.

d. Child support shall be effective May 1, 2026.

e. Child support shall be due and payable as follows: ½ due by the 5th of the month and ½ due by the 20th of the month.

f. Except as otherwise provided in the child support order, the base child support award is automatically adjusted to the base child support award for the remaining number of children due child support, without the need to modify the most recent child support order by a court, when a child: (a) becomes 18 years old or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later; (b) dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States; or (c) is emancipated in accordance with Title 80, Chapter 7, Emancipation.

20. Child support is modifiable in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-212.

21. 2Medical/Dental Expenses and Insurance. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor child in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208.

a. 3Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child/children's portion of insurance. The child/children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child/children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of child/children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. 4Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child/children and actually paid by the parents. If both parties are covering the minor child/children, then they shall be responsible for their own insurance premiums.

c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party should be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child/children as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be primary coverage for the dependent child/children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child/children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child/children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child/children.

e. If the parties have double coverage for insurance for the child/children, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium.

22. Childcare Expenses. The parties shall adopt Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-209, and each parent shall equally share the reasonable work-related childcare expenses for the minor child/children. Each party will be given the opportunity to provide childcare before they have to pay for a child care expense on the other parent's time for work-related childcare. Care by family and friends presumed to be free, and should be used first.

23. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor child/children may be involved in. The party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child/children's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a party does not agree to an activity, the other parent cannot schedule an activity that conflicts with parent time.

24. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, tuition, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The parties agree that this does not include private school tuition. The party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

TAX CREDITS

25. Dependency Exemption/Tax Credit. The parties will share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children as follows:

a. When there are three children, in even-numbered tax years, Jay shall be entitled to claim the two youngest children and Justin shall claim the oldest child. In odd-numbered tax years, Justin shall be entitled to claim the two youngest children and Jay shall be entitled to claim the oldest child.

b. When there are two children, Jay shall claim the youngest child and Justin shall claim the oldest child.

c. When there is one child, Jay shall be entitled to claim the child in odd-numbered tax years and Justin shall be entitled to claim the child in even-numbered tax years.

d. The party obligated to pay child support can claim the child if that party is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of any tax year.

e. Any future stimulus payments shall be equally divided between the parties, assuming the supporting party is current on support obligations. If the supporting party is not current on support obligations by the end of the month when the stimulus payment is issued, then the party will forfeit their share of the stimulus payment to the other party, which will be used to satisfy the deficiency in the support obligation. Any excess shall be awarded to the party paying support obligations.

ALIMONY

26. Jay shall be awarded alimony in the amount of $2,042 for the next 6 months and then $2,716 for the next 48 months. This shall last for the duration of 54 months from Justin. Alimony shall be due effective May 1, 2026, and payments shall be paid ½ by the 5th of the month and ½ by the 20th of the month. Alimony shall be automatically terminated by any of the following: the cohabitation of Jay with another (as defined by Utah law), Jay's remarriage to another, or the expiration of the term of months, which shall take place after 54 months (or until November 30, 2030).

27. Any payment Justin makes toward Mortgage and Utilities until the home is sold, shall be reduced from his alimony and support obligations for that month. Justin shall maintain the status quo payments for the month of April 2026.

DIVISION OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

28. 2025 Tax Returns. The parties will equally share the 2025 tax returns, which shall be provided within 7 days of receiving the return. The parties shall be entitled to full access to all documents relating to the tax returns.

29. Real Property. During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired a home and real property located at 4082 N. Poplar Dr., Eagle Mountain, Utah. The home shall be equally divided as follows:

a. The home shall be immediately listed and sold. The parties shall use a mutually agreed upon realtor. The parties will follow the reasonable recommendations of the realtor, and the parties will be entitled to access to all information and documents related to the sale of the home. The parties shall act in good faith to sell the home quickly and for maximum value.

b. First, the proceeds of the sale shall first be used to pay off the first mortgage and closing costs and realtor fees.

c. Second, the parties shall pay off the Goodleap Loan (relating to the landscape), if possible. If it's not possible, then this will not be done. The parties shall then equally divide the proceeds of the remaining proceeds.

d. Personal Property. The parties have accumulated personal property (including personal effects, vehicles and other tangible property) during the marriage. The parties' personal property shall be divided as follows:

Personal Property	Awarded To
2016 Dodge Durango	Jay
2018 Ford Edge	Justin
Possessions in the home	Jay, except the exceptions designated herein
Vinyl record player and vinyl records	Justin Justin's personal effects, including his clothes and personal items	Justin
Jay's high school yearbook	Jay
Jay's green Savage X cargo pants	Jay

30. The party awarded with the vehicle shall be responsible for the debt on the vehicle. The party awarded with the vehicle, as stated above, shall indemnify the other party and hold the other party harmless for any debts and/or obligations for the vehicle. The party awarded with their respective vehicle(s) shall remove the other party from all obligations within 120 days of the date of this Agreement.

31. Financial Accounts. The parties have accumulated financial accounts (including banking, checking, investment and other accounts) during the marriage. The parties' financial accounts shall be divided as follows:

Financial Account	Awarded To
SoFi Bank 0715	½ each effective execution date
MACU 5416	½ each effective execution date
SoFi Bank 6324	½ each effective execution date
Cyprus CU 8148	½ each effective execution date
AFCU 1033	½ each effective execution date
Stocks (including all stocks, vested, unvested, etc.)	½ each, 3 years of disclosure of stock accounts (and subject to discovery to have full disclosure), share ½ of the net of the stocks; paid out within 14 days of stocks being paid out

32. Any undisclosed accounts should be awarded to the other party with the amount effective April 7, 2026.

33. Debts. The parties accumulated debt during the marriage. The parties' debts shall be divided as follows:

Debt	Awarded/Assigned To
Goodleap Loans (landscaping)	Equally split; dealt with in Real Property
Mercury CC	Justin
Greensky Financial	Jay
Capitol One CC	Justin
Chase Freedom CC	Jay
Amex CC	Justin
Chase Sapphire CC	Justin
MACU loans	Jay
Mortgage	Equally split; dealt with in Real Property
Durango	Jay
Ford Edge	Justin
Student Loans	Justin
Goodleap Loans (Water Heater)	Equally split

34. The parties shall be awarded and assigned the debts in the table above. Additionally, if they are any undisclosed debts, the party who failed to disclose the debt shall be fully responsible for the debt. Any other debts not listed above shall be assigned to the party whose name is associated with the debt.

35. The parties shall not incur any other joint debts with the other party. If there are any joint debts that are not addressed above, the parties shall be equally responsible for equal payments for such debts.

36. Retirement. Justin and Jay shall be awarded one-half of any and all individual retirement accounts, pension plans, savings plans, profit sharing plans, 401(k) accounts, IRA's, etc., which either party has acquired at his or her place of employment or otherwise during the marriage pursuant to the Woodward v. Woodward formula. The parties shall equally share the costs of any QDROs to effectuate this process.

37. Business Interests. The parties have no business interests to divide.

MISCELLANEOUS

38. Deeds and Other Documents. Each party shall execute and deliver to the other party such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Agreement, and the forthcoming Decree of Divorce to be entered by the Court, including but not limited to titles and deeds, and addressing debt obligations.

39. Default. That in the event either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in the Decree of Divorce, the party in default shall be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of the Decree of Divorce.

40. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Up through the entry of the Decree of Divorce, each party should be ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.

41. Waiver of Claims. The parties shall waive any and all claims that either party can assert against one another.

42. Name Change. Jay shall be entitled to change her name to Benson, if she so chooses.

43. Notice to Creditors.

a. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§15-4-6.5, 30-2-5 and 30-3-5(1)(c), as amended, the parties are required to provide a copy of their final Decree of Divorce to all joint creditors for any outstanding obligations that are included in their Decree of Divorce.

b. Therefore, the party not obligated to pay a joint obligation shall:

i. Send a copy of the Decree of Divorce to each joint creditor he/she is not required to pay as soon as possible.

ii. Notify that joint creditor of the current address for each party.

iii. Inform that joint creditor that each party is entitled to receive individual statements, notices and correspondence required by law or by the terms of the contract, and also inform the creditor that no negative credit report or other exchange of credit history or repayment practices may be made regarding the joint obligation because of non-payment by the party required to pay the debt unless the creditor has first made a demand for payment on the party who was not required to pay the debt.

44. Notice to Medical Expense Creditors.

a. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§15-4-6.7, 30-2-5 and 30-3-5(1)(c), as amended, when a court order has been entered providing for the payment of medical expenses of a minor child pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§30-3- 5, 30-4-3, or 78-45-7.15, as amended, or an administrative order under Utah Code Ann. §62A-11-326, a creditor who has been provided a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order.

b. Therefore, each party shall:

i. Send a copy of the court order referenced above to the creditor of the particular medical expense of the particular minor child.

ii. Notify the particular creditor of the party's current address.

Inform the particular creditor that it may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against that party if that party has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order, and also inform the particular creditor that it may not make a negative report under Utah Code Ann. §70C-7-107, or report of the debtors repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order.
