IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
PROVO COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: RYAN MICHAEL CHATTERTON, Petitioner, and OLIVIA JANE CHATTERTON, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264401479 Judge Howell Commissioner Snow

WHEREFORE the Court has reviewed the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, Stipulation on Divorce and Custody, and previous pleadings submitted to the Court. Based thereon, it is hereby ordered, adjudged, and decreed as follows:

1) JURISDICTION: That Ryan was for more than three (3) months prior to filing this action an actual and bona fide resident of Utah County, State of Utah.

2) Ryan and Olivia were married on the 11th day of June, 2016, in Salt Lake City, Utah.

3) GROUNDS: During the course of the marriage, the parties have experienced differences which cannot be reconciled that make continuation of the marriage impossible. The parties are granted a divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences to become final and absolute upon signature and entry by the Court.

4) The parties separated December 28, 2025.

5) CUSTODY & SUPPORT: There are three (3) children born as issue of this marriage to wit; A.J.C. dob 02/25/2018; B.W.C. dob 08/25/2020 and C.P.C. dob 10/02/2023.

6) Ryan and Olivia are fit and proper to be awarded joint legal custody of the minor children. The parties shall discuss all major issues regarding the children with one another. If there is no agreement after discussion, the parties shall look to a professional in the field (i.e. child's doctor on medical issue) and discuss again strongly favoring the professional's opinion. If there is still no agreement, the parties may elect to mediate. If no agreement after mediation, either party may bring the issue back before the Court.

7) Ryan and Olivia shall be awarded joint physical custody of the minor children. Ryan shall have each Thursday overnight and alternating weekends Thursday until Monday. Exchange shall take place curbside or at school with U.C.A.§81-9-303 guiding exchanges. If there is a dispute at to exchange time, 8:30 a.m. shall be the exchange time.

8) The children shall continue at their current school and feeder schools. If there is a need for change of school, the parties shall agree in writing or there shall be further order of the Court.

9) The parties shall exercise holidays in conjunction with U.C.A.§81-9-303 with Olivia designated as the custodial parent for this purpose only.

10) The parties shall each be awarded two weeks of uninterrupted summer parent-time each year with Ryan receiving preference on weeks in odd numbered years and Olivia preference in even numbered years with Ryan receiving the additional summer-time, two weeks of interrupted parent-time, awarded per U.C.A.§81-9-303. The preference shall apply if the weeks are designated by May 1 of each year. The other party shall designate by May 15 of each year.

11) The parties shall incorporate the following parenting plan:

PARENTING PLAN

A. The parties believe they are both dedicated parents who desire to create a structured parenting relationship for the benefit of their children and that their focus is the needs and interests of the children.

B. The parties realize that both of them are important to the children; that the children need their active support, and the parents agree to respect each other's role as a parent and their decisions with regards to the children.

C. The parties agree that to have a successful parenting relationship they will need to be flexible with the other parent. The parties shall incorporate U.C.A.§81-9-202 in giving special consideration to make the children available for funerals, weddings, or significant events.

D. As such, the parents understand and agree to develop and maintain good communication with each other and to establish a cooperative working relationship based upon trust, compromise, the sharing of information and open, honest and frequent communication between them.

E. The parents understand that the communication between them shall be civil and shall be regarding the health, welfare, education and all other interests of the children.

F. The parents understand that a conflict between them causes emotional trauma and pain to their children and this conflict shall be avoided.

G. The parents understand that consistency between the households is important regarding the children's schooling, discipline, etc.

TIME SHARING AND RESIDENTIAL PLAN

H. The parties shall use Our Family Wizard for communication and calendaring. A parent who makes an appointment or receives information for the children of an event shall have an affirmative obligation to add this to the calendar within 24 hours.

I. The parent with the children during their parent time will ensure that the children arrive to school on time, is picked up on time and that they complete any and all assigned homework. The parents will discuss the children's homework and school activities so that they are both aware of assignments, projects and other homework that may be due. Both parents, if possible, will attend the parent-teacher conferences.

J. While the children are with a parent, that parent shall provide the children with: (1) regular and nutritious food; (2) clean and appropriate clothing; (3) sanitary and reasonable living and sleeping quarters; (4) appropriate medical examinations and treatment; and (5) supervision and guidance as appropriate for the age of the children. That parent will also ensure that they will not engage in, nor permit the presence of any excessive alcohol consumption, unlawful drug use, sexually explicit activities, violence, or disrespect for law and order.

K. The parties will not expose the children to behavior or engage in behavior they would not want the other parent engaging in while caring for the children.

L. Neither parent shall drink alcohol to impairment or use non-prescribed drugs while caring for the children or allow third parties to do the same.

M. Neither parent will have a romantic interest spend the night while the children are present until they have been in an open and committed relationship for more than six months.

N. Each parent may make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of the children while the children is in the physical custody of that parent.

O. If either parent is going out of state with the children, that parent shall provide to the other the travel arrangements, address, and telephone number of where the children will be prior to travel taking place.

P. The children shall be allowed reasonable telephone contact at reasonable times as initiated by the children.

Q. The parties shall provide 60 days' notice prior to any move more than 15 miles of current residences.

SHARING OF INFORMATION

R. The parents will use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other on a frequent basis regarding the children's development, school work, medical and dental treatment, therapy, and regarding other information appropriate to share with the other parent.

S. The parents will notify the other parent of all school programs, church events, extracurricular activities, and sporting events that involve the children.

T. The parents will notify the other parent of illnesses the children may have when they are at the individual homes.

U. The parents will discuss any problems either one of them is experiencing with disciplining the children and they will work together to enforce similar discipline plans/goals at each home.

V. The parents agree to communicate with each other any concerns regarding the wishes of the children in regards to parent-time and work together to do what is in the best interest of the children, in order to minimize any undue stress on the children.

W. The parents agree to immediately advise the other parent of any changes in the address, telephone number, or other information pertinent to their communication and the communication they have with the children.

X. The parents agree not to place the children in the middle of their communications or conflicts that may arise, if any. They will not probe or question the children regarding the other parent, send messages to the other parent through the children disparage or degrade the other parent in the presence of the children or allow third parties to do so.

Y. Neither parent will disparage the other or allow a third party to do the same.

MAJOR DECISIONS AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Z. The parents agree that all major decisions concerning the children including health, education, religion, day care and general welfare will be discussed, and that they will both have input as to what is in their children ‘s best interests following the legal custody provision.

AA. This plan shall be made an Order of the Court and shall be in effect until modified through petition and an establishment of a substantial change in circumstances. Any changes to the Plan shall be made in writing, date, and signed by both parents. Until such Order from the Court, or written change is made, or this Plan and its terms shall remain enforceable and shall govern any dispute.

END OF PARENT PLAN

12) CHILD SUPPORT: Olivia is currently employed and earns $6,919 gross per month from her full-time position.

13) Ryan is currently employed and earns $5,304 gross per month from his full-time position.

14) Child support should be established in accordance with the minimum support guidelines using the allowable gross incomes of the parties in an amount as provided for by Utah Code Ann. §81-6-301 et. seq. for the minor children of the parties based upon a 220/145 parent-time split. The amount of child support provided per Code is $554 per month owed by Ryan to Olivia. Neither party shall have any claim to back owed support with support beginning October 1, 2026.

15) Child support shall terminate upon a child graduating with their expected high school class or reaching the age 18, whichever is later.

16) The parties shall jointly and equally be responsible for any extra-curricular activities for the children which are first agreed upon in writing. If a parent enrolls the child in an activity without consent, they shall pay the full cost and such activity shall not interfere with the others parent-time.

17) The parties shall equally split the costs of school fees, school lunches, and other mandatory expenses. The parties will discuss the costs of cell phones, vehicle insurance, etc. upon the children reaching the age of having those additional expenses. Both parents shall always have access to electronic devices of the children.

18) CHILDCARE: The parties shall equally split any daycare expenses incurred for children care for work related care if obtained from an agreed upon provider. If family is providing care, that care shall be presumed free. The parties will notify the other and offer the first right of refusal if they will be away from the children for an overnight or longer.

19) MEDICAL: The minor children are currently covered on Olivia's insurance and she shall maintain that insurance for the children at her expense. In the event both parties have medical coverage for the children, the children shall be double covered and the parties shall each pay their own medical premiums costs for the children with Olivia's insurance as primary and Ryan's as secondary.

20) Each parent is to pay for one-half (½) of any deductible or non-covered amounts for such essential medical or dental services or prescriptions related thereto that are not paid by the insurance provider. The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon enrollment or change of cost and will make best efforts to provide that information within 60 days of any change.

21) A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment. The other parent is ordered to make their portion of those payments or make arrangement to do so within thirty (30) days of receipt of the documentation supporting required participation.

22) Neither parent shall contract for or incur any obligation for elective surgery for the children, or any type of psychological counseling or evaluation for a child, anticipating co-payment from the other parent without the prior agreement or consent of that parent in writing.

23) If an agreement cannot be reached, then before any (other than emergency) medical, or psychological counseling be done as a co-obligation, the matter shall be brought back before the court.

24) TAXES: For purpose of taxes, the parties shall alternate claiming the children. Ryan shall claim two children or the only child in even numbered tax years and Olivia shall claim two children or the only child in odd numbered tax years. Ryan's right to claim the children is dependent upon being current on child support by December 31 of the claiming year. If Olivia believes Ryan is behind in child support, she shall notify him by December 15 of the year so Ryan can come current.

25) REAL PROPERTY: The parties have real property located at 75 S. 100 E. in Springville, Utah. The property shall be resolved as follows:

a. Ryan shall be awarded the home free and clear of claims of Olivia. Ryan shall have 90 days from entry of Divorce to assume the loan or refinance and pay Olivia the sum of $85,000 as her complete and total share of equity in the home.

b. In the event Ryan is unable to refinance/assume the loan within 90 days and pay Olivia her share of equity, the home shall be listed for sale with the parties equally splitting the net proceeds from the sale of the home with the parties equally sharing the costs of repairs, realtor fees, closing costs, etc.

c. Oliva shall cooperate in signing necessary documents to effectuate the refinance/assumption or sale of the home.

d. Ryan shall pay the mortgage and maintain the home until the home is sold or refinanced.

26) RETIREMENT: The parties shall each be awarded their own retirement free and clear of claims of the other party.

27) PERSONAL PROPERTY: The parties have acquired personal property during the course of the marriage which shall be awarded to the party who has possession of the property. Olivia shall be awarded her piano which she shall move from the home within 90 days of entry of divorce. Ryan is awarded the trailers. The parties will each take the vehicle in their own possession along with any associated debt.

28) All further property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar source should be awarded to the party from whose family it came.

29) DEBTS: During the course of the marriage the parties incurred very little martial debt. Other than the mortgage, each party shall take the debt that is in their own name and hold the other harmless. Specifically, each party will take their own vehicle payment and pay their own subscriptions, auto insurance, and phone bills as of October 1, 2026.

30) Any debts incurred after the date of separation shall be the responsibility of the party incurring the debt.

31) ALIMONY: No alimony shall be awarded past, present, or future.

32) OTHER: Olivia shall have her maiden name of Ward restored should she choose.

33) The parties shall be civil in all communications.

34) The parties shall not disparage the other party in the presence of the minor children or allow a third party to do the same.

35) Each party shall be ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

36) The parties shall each pay their own attorney fees.
