IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, IN AND FOR PROVO DIVISION, UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
137 N. Freedom Blvd., Suite 100, Provo, Utah 84601

In the matter of the marriage of: CHRISTOPHER DEHONEY, Petitioner, and DOROTHY-ANNE JOHNSON, Respondent,	DECREE OF DIVORCE AND JUDGMENT Civil No. 264400265 Judge Denise M. Porter Commissioner Hardy

This matter comes before the Court based on the entry of Petitioner's default and the hearing to determine the best interests of the parties' child on August 17, 2026. The Court having received Respondent's Motion for Entry of Default Judgment, entered Petitioner's default, having heard and received evidence regarding the best interest of the minor child, being fully advised in the premises, having made and entered her Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and for good cause appearing therefor, hereby;

ORDERS, ADJUDGES AND DECREES:

Jurisdiction and Grounds

1. Respondent is a resident of Nevada, having relocated to Nevada on December 13, 2025, however, Petitioner remained in Utah and had been an actual and bona fide resident of Utah County, State of Utah, for at least three months immediately prior to his filing of this divorce action.

2. Petitioner and Respondent were married on April 28, 2024, and are husband and wife.

3. Petitioner and Respondent have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making continuation of their marriage impossible.

4. Petitioner and Respondent have been living separate and apart since December 13,

5. Respondent is hereby granted a divorce from Petitioner on the grounds of irreconcilable differences and the parties marriage is hereby dissolved.

Minor Children

6. The parties have one minor child: D.E.D, born November, 2024.

7. Home State and Jurisdiction over Custody and Parent-Time Issues.

a. Utah is the home state of the child pursuant to Utah Code § 81-11-101 whereas the minor child is six months old or older and Utah is the state where the minor child lived with a parent or a person acting as a parent for at least six consecutive months immediately before the commencement of a child custody proceeding, including any period of temporary absence of the child with the Respondent beginning on December 13, 2025 for approximately six (6) weeks. During this time, Petitioner continued to reside in Utah.

8. Pursuant to Rule 100 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, The Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, Utah Code § 81-11-101 et seq. and the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, Utah Code § 81-8-101 et seq., Petitioner is not aware of:

a. a case in which a party or the party's child is a party to or the subject of a petition or order involving child support, parent time, or child custody, including minor guardianship, adoption, or any similar child custody case;

b. a criminal or delinquency case in which a party or the party's child is a defendant or respondent; or

c. a protective order case involving a party regardless whether a child of the party is involved.

9. Since the time of the parties' separation, the child has lived both parties. Both parties are capable of providing day-to-day care for the child.

10. Respondent has been the primary caretaker of the minor child and has been responsible for the day to day care of the child, since temporary orders were entered in this matter.

Custody and Parent-Time (Parenting Plan)

11. Legal Custody: The parties are awarded the joint legal custody of the minor child.

12. Physical Custody: It is in the best interest of the child that Respondent be awarded the permanent, physical care and custody of the child, subject to Petitioner’s right to parent-time as follows:

13. It is in the best interest of the child that Petitioner have parent-time with the minor child as the parties may agree. If the parties can not agree, Petitioner's parent-time shall be pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-209(9), except as otherwise set forth herein, specifically:

a. the second and fourth weekends of each month beginning with the month of August, 2026 from 8:00 a.m. on Thursday, or as soon thereafter as Petitioner is available, to 8:00 p.m. on Sunday;

b. If Petitioner is unable to exercise all the weekend time awarded him (8 days and 6 overnights per month), due to work related scheduling issues, up to 10 days may be added to Petitioner's extended parent-time each year;

c. Until the minor child reaches 5 years old, Petitioner's extended parent-time shall be no less than 30 days of uninterrupted time and may include up to 10 days of missed monthly parent-time;

d. When the child is 5 years old and thereafter, extended parent-time will be pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-209;

e. Holiday parent-time shall be in accordance with that set forth at Utah Code

§ 81-9-209(9), except Petitioner is awarded every Father's Day and Respondent is awarded every Mother's Day, at times set forth at Utah Code § 81-9-304 until the child is 5 years of age and Utah Code § 81-9-302, thereafter;

f. For purposes of determining holiday time, Respondent is deemed the relocating parent;

g. The parties should arrange for time for extended family members (including grandparents) to visit the minor child by mutual agreement.

14. The parties' minor child will continue to reside with the Respondent in the state of Nevada.

15. Petitioner is responsible for transportation related to parent-time.

16. Petitioner is responsible for all costs associated with the first monthly, weekend visit and the Respondent should reimburse Petitioner for one-half of the fuel costs for the second monthly visit. Petitioner will provide fuel receipts to Respondent and the parties will arrange reimbursement by mutual agreement.

17. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-4-104 and § 81-4-105, as amended, and Rule 4-907, Utah Code of Judicial Administration, each party to a divorce action who has a child or children under the age of 18 or dependent adult is required to attend the Divorce Education Course and the Divorce Orientation Course.

18. Relocation: Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-209, if a party intends to relocate (move 150 miles or more from their current residence), then the relocating parent shall provide written notice to the other parent at least 60 days before the day on which the relocating parent intends to relocate. The written notice of relocation should contain statements affirming:

a. the parent-time provisions in Utah Code § 81-9-209(9) or a parent-time schedule approved by both parties will be followed; and

b. that the parent will not interfere with the other's parental rights pursuant to court ordered parent-time arrangements or the parent-time schedule approved by both parties.

c. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-209(16)(a), the relocating party shall be responsible for all the minor Child's travel expenses relating to Utah Code § 81-9-209(9)(a) and (b) and 1/2 of the minor Child's travel expenses relating to Utah Code § 81-9-209(9)(c), provided Petitioner is current on all support obligations. If Petitioner has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, Petitioner should be responsible for all of the minor Child's travel expenses under § 81-9-209(9), unless the court rules otherwise. The party responsible for travel expenses should be ordered to make a reimbursement to the other parent for the minor Child's travel expenses within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

d. As the parents are currently residing more than 149 miles apart, Respondent is deemed the relocating parent/party pursuant to the Decree.

19. Travel by the Child:

a. For emergency purposes, whenever the child travels with either parent out of state, to a foreign country or more than 150 miles from either parents' home, the traveling parent shall notify the other parent at least 14 days in advance, and shall provide to the other parent at least 7 days in advance:

i. an itinerary of travel dates;

ii. destinations;

iii. how to contact the children or traveling party; and

iv. the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the itinerary and the child's location.

b. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the child to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others.

20. Virtual Contact and /or Telephone Contact: Unless the parties agree otherwise, telephone/virtual contact should be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. With respect to virtual parent-time currently, the parent without actual, physical custody of the child, shall currently be allowed a virtual visit of at least 10 minutes, but less than 15 minutes each day.

21. Advisory Guidelines: To provide general concepts of good co-parenting skills, the following specific provisions from the advisory guidelines set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-202 apply:

a. A parent-time schedule mutually agreed upon by both parents is preferable to a court-imposed solution.

b. Each parent shall give special consideration to make the minor child available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the minor child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

c. Neither parent may interrupt regular school hours for the exercise of parent-time.

d. Neither parent-time nor child support is to be withheld due to either parent's failure to comply with a court-ordered parent-time schedule.

e. Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

f. Each parent shall provide all surrogate care providers with the name, current address, and telephone number of the other parent, unless the child care is being provided by a member of Respondent's family, then Petitioner's information will not be provided (at Petitioner's request) and the child care provider shall not be obligated to contact Petitioner. Each parent shall provide the other parent with the name, current address, and telephone number of all surrogate care providers.

g. Neither parent will interfere with the other's parental rights pursuant to court ordered parent-time arrangements, or the schedule approved by both parties.

h. A parent shall immediately notify the other parent if:

i. the parent resides with an individual or provides an individual with access to the minor child; and

ii. the parent knows that the individual:

A. is required to register as a sex offender, a kidnap offender, or a child abuse offender for an offense committed against a minor child under Title 53, Chapter 29, Sex, Kidnap, and Child Abuse Offender Registry; or

B. has been convicted of (A) a child abuse offense under Section 76-5-109, 76-5-109.2, 76-5-109.3, 76-5-109.4, 76-5-114, or 76-5-208; (B) a sexual offense against a minor child under Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses, other than an offense under Section 76-5-417, 76-5-418, or 76-5-419; (C) an offense for kidnapping or human trafficking of a minor child under Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 3, Kidnapping, Trafficking, and Smuggling; (D) a sexual exploitation offense against a minor child under Title 76, Chapter 5b, Sexual Exploitation Act; or (E) an offense that is substantially similar to an offense under Subsections (18)(b)(ii)(A) through (D).

22. Education Plan: As the parties' minor child is currently under 2 years of age, the parties will formulate an education in the future. Such plan shall be in place prior to the child reaching school age (5 years old).

23. Access to Records and Information: The parties shall have equal access to all records and information pertaining to the child, including, but not limited to all preschool, school, child care, and medical records and reports.

24. Decision Making Process:

a. Day to day decisions involving the child will be made by the parent where the child is located.

b. Emergency decisions affecting health or safety will be made by the parent who is with the child at that time, with that parent to notify the other parent of the emergency immediately, or as soon as reasonably practical.

c. All major decisions concerning the child, including the health, education, and general welfare of the child, will be discussed, using the following decision-making procedure:

i. identify the issue;

ii. brainstorm possible solutions;

iii. choose the most sensible solution that considers the needs and interests of everyone involved.

25. Tie-Breaking Procedure. In implementing the decision making procedure set forth above, the parties will focus on objective criteria and facts, and involve any professionals who may be of assistance, including a mediator or other dispute resolution professional. If an agreement is not reached, then the primary physical custodian will make the decision(s). Either party may bring the issue before the Court, subsequent to following the process set forth above.

26. Communication With Each Other/Exchange of Information:

a. The child shall not be requested to carry or exchange information for the parents. Both parents will communicate with each other concerning the child as frequently as necessary and all communication concerning the child's parent-time shall occur via text messaging or a mutually agreed upon parenting communication app, so that there is a written record of the correspondence. If the parties choose to use a parenting communication app, any and all costs therefor will be equally shared.

b. Responses to all messaging will be made within one (1) hour, absent a party being engaged in work or school activity and/or an emergency; this will require both parties to check their messages frequently.

c. In emergency situations or where messaging is not available, the parties should exchange information by phone and then send a written message confirming the conversation when time allows.

d. Each party shall share information about the child with the other, including, but not limited to, special events, parent-teacher meetings, report cards, illnesses, medical events, medical and dental treatment, prescriptions, therapy, sports, extra curricular activities and events, church events, and all other types of information which are appropriate to share with the other parent.

e. If a party would like more specific information than what is provided in the above paragraphs, then such party is free to request said information from the appropriate source of information and the other party will cooperate in this regard.

27. Communication With the Child: The parties agree they will:

a. provide age-appropriate help to the child to communicate with the other parent;

b. give the child privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parties shall not interfere with or monitor communication between the child and the other parent; and

c. the parties and child may communicate with each other whenever the child chooses. The parties shall maintain voice mail and text messaging, so the child may leave and receive messages.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Income of the Parties

28. The parties have not received public assistance for the parties' minor child from the State of Utah.

29. Petitioner is employed full-time and earns $30.00 per hour, which is $62,400.00 each year or $5,200.00 each month; is not under court order to pay child support outside of this matter; does not pay alimony to any ex-spouse; contributes $204.00 toward monthly premiums for health, hospital, and dental care insurance on the parties' minor child; and pays no monthly work-related child care costs.

30. Respondent is not employed, therefore, income is imputed to Respondent at full-time employment and minimum wage, or 1,257.00; is not under court order to pay child support; does not pay alimony to any ex-spouse; contributes $0.00 toward monthly premiums for health, hospital, and dental care insurance on the parties' minor children; and pays no monthly work-related child care costs.

Child Support

31. Petitioner is ordered to pay Respondent the sum of $624.00 each month as and for BASE child support, pursuant to the "Uniform Civil Liability for Support Act", Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-107 et seq, beginning August, 2026. During periods of time when Petitioner is carrying health insurance for the parties' minor child, one-half of the child's portion of the health insurance premium will be deducted from Petitioner's base child support each month. During periods of time when Respondent is carrying health insurance for the parties' minor child, one-half of the child's portion of the health insurance premium will be added to Petitioner's base child support each month.

a. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-213, the base child support award is automatically adjusted to the base child support award for the remaining number of children due child support, without the need to modify the most recent child support order by a court, when a child (i) becomes 18 years old or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later; (ii) dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States; (iii) is emancipated in accordance with Title 80, Chapter 7, Emancipation, unless otherwise provided by the order.

b. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-211, Petitioner may be entitled to a reduction in child support during periods of extended parent-time as follows:

i. a reduction by 50% for each child for time periods during which the child is with the noncustodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent-time; or

ii. a reduction by 25% for each child for time periods during which the noncustodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 12 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent-time; and

iii. if the Child is a client of cash assistance provided under Title 35A, Chapter 3, Part 3, Family Employment Program, the administrative agency shall approve any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent-time.

32. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 26B-9-403, Petitioner's income shall be subject to immediate and automatic income withholding as of the effective date of the order, regardless of whether a delinquency exists.

a. Each party shall keep the Office of Recovery Service informed of changes in their address, employment, income, or medical insurance coverage.

b. Pursuant to Utah Code § 26B-9-220, if a child support order has not been issued, modified, or reviewed within the previous three years, a party may request the Office of Recovery Services to review the Court’s child support order, taking into account the best interests of the child involved, if a) requested by a parent or legal guardian involved in a case receiving IV-D services; or b) there has been an assignment under § 35A-3-108 and the office determines that a review is appropriate.

c. Pursuant to Utah Code § 62A-11-320.6 § 26B-9-221, a parent or legal guardian involved in a case receiving IV-D services or the office, if there has been an assignment under § 35A-3-108, may at any time request the office to review a child support order if there has been a substantial change in circumstances.

33. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-212(3)(a), a parent, legal guardian, or the office may, at any time, petition the court to adjust the amount of a child support order if there has been a substantial change in circumstances. A change in the child support tables is not a substantial change in circumstances for the purposes of Subsection (3)(a). For purposes of Subsection (3)(a), a substantial change in circumstances may include: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others. Upon receiving a petition under Subsection (3)(a), the court shall, taking into account the best interests of the child: (a) determine whether a substantial change has occurred; (b) if a substantial change has occurred, determine whether the change results in a difference of 15% or more between the obligor's ordered support amount and the obligor's support amount that would be required under the child support guidelines; and (c) adjust the obligor's ordered support amount to that which is provided for in the child support guidelines if: (i) there is a difference of 15% or more; and (ii) the difference is not of a temporary nature.

34. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-212(5)(a), if a child support order has not been issued or modified within the previous three years, a parent, legal guardian, or the office may move the court to adjust the amount of a child support order. Upon receiving a motion under Subsection (5)(a), the court shall, taking into account the best interests of the child and: (i) determine whether there is a difference between the obligor's ordered support amount and the obligor's support amount that would be required under the child support guidelines; and (ii) if there is a difference as described in Subsection (5)(b)(i), adjust the obligor's ordered support amount to the obligor's support amount provided in the child support guidelines if: (A) the difference is 10% or more; (B) the difference is not of a temporary nature; and (C) the order adjusting the obligor's ordered support amount does not deviate from the child support guidelines. A showing of a substantial change in circumstances is not necessary for an adjustment under this Subsection (5).

Child Support Arrears

35. Petitioner was current in his temporary child support obligation as of July, 2026.

Health Insurance and Medical Expenses

36. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208 both parents are ordered to provide health insurance coverage for the medical expenses of the minor child if it is available or becomes available at a reasonable cost and is accessible to their dependent child. Each party is ordered to share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of the insurance.[1]

37. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or 1The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for the children should be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case.

dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the Respondent shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of the Petitioner shall secondary coverage for the dependent child.

38. The parent who provides the insurance coverage may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium. In cases in which the parent does not have insurance but another member of the parent's household provides insurance coverage for the child, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the children's portion of the premium.

39. Each party is ordered to share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for the parties' minor child including, but not limited to, deductibles and co-payments. The parent ordered to maintain insurance is ordered to provide verification of the coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. section 601 et seq., upon initial enrollment of the dependent children, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services under IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 601 et seq., of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date the parent first knew or should have known the change.

a. A parent who incurs medical expenses shall be ordered to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

b. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply Utah Code § 81-6-208(10).

c. The parent responsible for reimbursing the other parent for medical expenses incurred, is ordered to reimburse the other parent his or her share of the expenses within 30 days of receipt of the verification of cost and payment of medical expenses.

Child Care

40. A child care provider for the child must be either a licensed child care provider, relative or trusted friend.

41. Each party is responsible for any and all child care incurred while the child is in their physical custody and will not share the expense, as contemplated at Utah Code § 81-6-209.

Life Insurance

42. So long as Petitioner owes child support, Petitioner is ordered to maintain life insurance on his life for the benefit of the parties' minor child and to irrevocably name the parties' child as the sole beneficiary on said life insurance policy. The face amount of said policy should be in an amount no less than $180,000.00.

Income Tax Exemptions

43. Respondent is entitled to claim the parties' minor child as a dependent for tax purposes.

Alimony

44. Each party is capable of self support, therefore, neither party is awarded alimony.

Debts and Obligations

45. Petitioner is ordered to pay and assume the following debts incurred during the marriage of the parties: Any and all indebtedness incurred during the marriage, except as otherwise set forth herein, including but not limited to, the debt owing Snap-On, in the approximate amount of $6,391.00 and the debt owing , which may have been charged off, but if there are future collection efforts, Petitioner should be solely responsible for this debt. Petitioner shall hold Respondent harmless from any liability on these debts.

46. Respondent is ordered to pay and assume the following debts incurred during the marriage of the parties: any debt incurred by the Respondent in her name solely. Respondent shall hold Petitioner harmless from any liability on these debts.

47. Each party is ordered to pay and assume their own debts incurred after the parties' separation on or about December 13, 2025. Each party shall hold the other party harmless from any liability on these debts.

48. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §15-4-6.5, upon entry of the Decree of Divorce Petitioner and Respondent are ordered to notify respective creditors or obligees regarding the court’s division of debts, obligations or liabilities and regarding the parties’ separate, current addresses by providing the creditors with a copy of the court order.

Personal Property

49. The parties acquired personal property during their marriage and it will be equitably divided and awarded, specifically, Respondent is awarded her premarital property; her clothes and accessories, jewelry and personal effects; and one-half of the amount in the parties' America First Credit Union account ($5,300.00, total or $2,650 each), as set forth herein.

50. Petitioner is awarded the 2014 Audi Q7; his premarital property; his clothes and accessories, jewelry and personal effects; and one-half of the amount in the parties' America First Credit Union account ($5,300.00, total or $2,650 each), as set forth herein.

Income Tax Returns, Obligations, Refunds

51. Any income tax refund for tax year 2025 shall be divided equally between the parties.

Retirement and Other Financial Accounts and Assets

52. Neither Petitioner or Respondent have 401(k), pension, profit sharing, I.R.A., or any other retirement benefits which were accrued during the parties' marriage.

53. The following financial accounts shall be divided equally, as of the date of the filing of the Petition in this matter, January 27, 2026: America First Credit Union account (4377) in the approximate amount of $5,300.00 or $2,650 00 each.

Real Property

54. The parties presently do not own an interest in any real property.

Costs and Attorney's Fees

55. Petitioner shall be responsible for his own costs and attorney's fees and that portion of Respondent's reasonable costs and attorney's fees, which relate to Petitioner's default or were "extra" or frivolous, as set forth by affidavit of Respondent's counsel.

Miscellaneous Provisions

56. Mental Health Counseling Both parties can benefit from mental health counseling.

57. Each party will obtain a mental health evaluation, which must be filed with the Court as a private document, within six (6) months of the entry of the Decree of Divorce in this matter.

58. Each party shall complete counseling as outlined in the mental health evaluation.

59. Parenting Classes These are young parents and both can benefit from completing parenting courses.

60. Each party shall complete a Basic Love & Logic parenting course and file proof of attendance with the Court within six (6) moths of the entry of the Decree of Divorce in this matter.

Implementation of Decree of Divorce

61. Each party is ordered to execute and deliver to the other party any documents necessary to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.
