LPP for Ivory Rose Olsen

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT – STATE OF UTAH

IN AND FOR UTAH COUNTY – SPANISH FORK DEPARTMENT

[775 W Center St, Spanish Fork, Utah 84660]

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF:	DECREE OF DIVORCE
	Case No. 254300138
Ivory Rose Olsen,
Petitioner,	Judge Jared Eldridge
and	Commissioner Marian Ito
Lee Richard Olsen,

Respondent.

This matter is before the Court for entry of final orders based upon the parties' written Stipulated Agreement. The Court has entered separate Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, which are incorporated herein by reference. Having reviewed the Stipulated Agreement, the pleadings, and the record, and good cause appearing, the Court HEREBY ORDERS, ADJUDGES, AND DECREES as follows:

a. Divorce. The bonds of matrimony between Ivory Rose Olsen and Lee Richard Olsen are dissolved, and the parties are divorced.

b. Stipulated Agreement. The parties' Stipulated Agreement filed contemporaneously with this Decree is approved, incorporated herein by reference, and made an order of the Court. The specific provisions below restate the operative terms of that agreement.

c. Minor Child. The parties are the legal parents of one minor child, A.L.O., born January 2020.

d. Parenting Plan. The following provisions constitute the Parenting Plan ordered by the Court pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-202. The Court finds the plan to be in the best interests of the minor child and orders the parties to comply with it.

e. Legal Custody: Joint legal custody is in the Child(ren)'s best interest.

f. Physical Custody: Joint physical custody is in the Child(ren)'s best interest.

g. Parent Time: Parent time, including holidays, shall be arranged as the parents agree, or if they cannot agree, per Utah Code § 81-9-305 Equal parent-time. In that event, Petitioner shall be designated custodial parent and Respondent shall be designated as non-custodial parent for purposes of holiday parent time.

h. The parties shall maintain 50/50 parent-time with the intent of equalizing each parent's time with the minor child. If they are unable to reach agreement, Petitioner shall exercise Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday overnights; Respondent shall exercise Saturday, Sunday, and Monday overnights; and the parties shall alternate Friday overnights. The parties may be flexible in trading days and shall work together in A.L.O.'s best interests. Regardless of the number of overnights each parent actually exercises by agreement, the parties shall use the 50/50 child-support worksheet in accordance with this Decree.

i. The parties may deviate from the parent-time schedule by mutual written agreement.

j. Advisory Guidelines. The parties shall follow Utah Code § 81-9-202 (Advisory Guidelines for a Custody and Parent-time Arrangement), as amended.

k. Childcare Provider: Parents shall agree on a childcare provider for the Child(ren). The provider shall be a licensed childcare provider, a relative, or someone over 18 who has a significant relationship with the Child(ren).

l. Each party shall have the financial responsibility for any childcare required during their parent time.

m. Relocation: If either parent moves to a location more than one hundred and fifty (150) miles from the other, the parents shall follow all the provisions required by Utah Code § 81-9-209.

n. Day-to-Day Decisions: Each parent shall make day-to-day decisions for the Child(ren) during that parent's parent-time.

o. Emergency Decisions: The parents shall make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the Child(ren) and share them with the other parent as soon as possible.

p. Decision Making: The parents shall share responsibility for making significant decisions about the Child(ren). If there is a disagreement, the parents shall resolve the dispute as provided in the Dispute Resolution section of this Decree.

q. Final Decision Making: If the parents face an insurmountable disagreement on a significant issue, they are expected to sincerely adhere to the dispute resolution plan unless urgent or emergent circumstances render such efforts impractical.

r. Communication: The parents shall communicate directly with each other in writing (email, text, parenting app, etc.) regarding issues concerning the Child(ren).

s. Use of Parenting App: Either party may require a parenting app to improve and document communication. The parties shall each pay half of the cost of the app.

t. Civil Communication: All communication shall be civil in nature. Urgent communications shall be responded to as quickly as possible.

u. Parent-Child Communication: The parents shall provide age-appropriate help to the Child(ren) to communicate with the other parent. The parents are entitled to daily, reasonable, uninterrupted, unmonitored, and uncensored audio, video, or written communication with the Child(ren) at reasonable hours and for reasonable durations. This shall be based on the Child(ren)'s abilities, interests, schedules, and willingness to participate while the other parent exercises parent time with the Child(ren).

v. Educational Plan: The Child shall continue to be homeschooled unless the parties agree otherwise. Neither party may enroll the Child in a public or private school without the prior written consent of the other party or an order of the Court.

w. Each parent shall be responsible for supporting the Child's educational activities while the Child is in that parent's care. This includes ensuring the Child completes assigned schoolwork, maintains regular study habits, and has access to the materials and environment necessary for effective learning.

x. Both parents shall cooperate in maintaining a consistent homeschooling program and shall communicate as reasonably necessary regarding curriculum, assignments, and the Child's academic progress in order to promote the Child's educational, social, and emotional development.

y. Child(ren) Traveling: During parent-time, either parent may consent for the Child(ren) to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others. If the travel will be more than one day away from the arranging parent's home, that parent shall notify the other parent at least one day in advance and provide the travel schedule, locations, phone numbers, or other available contact information.

z. Time Away from Home: All overnight parent-time visits away from either parent's primary residence must be communicated to the other parent 24 hours before the beginning of the visit and include an itinerary of travel dates, destination(s), contact information, or location where the Child(ren) or traveling parent can be reached, the name and telephone number of a third person who is knowledgeable about the Child(ren)'s location.

aa. Contact Information: Both parents shall keep each other informed of their current residence address, home, work, and cell phone numbers, email addresses, and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency. If either parent changes their contact information, they must notify the other parent in writing within 48 hours.

bb. Third-Party Notification: Both parents' contact information shall be listed with all key third parties involved in the Child(ren)’s lives, such as daycare providers, teachers, schools, doctors, and dentists. Both parents must also be listed as emergency contacts.

cc. Access to Information: Both parents have access to all Child(ren)'s records, including, but not limited to, school, medical, dental, and psychological records. This Parenting Plan shall constitute a release to allow each parent access to all Child(ren)'s records.

dd. Event Information: Unless each parent has independent access to information, each parent shall take affirmative steps to share information with the other parent with times and locations of parent-teacher conferences, school programs, church programs, sporting events, recitals, performances, practices, schoolwork, report cards, school pictures, information relating to the schooling, extracurricular activities and other significant events involving the Child(ren).

ee. Special Events: Each parent shall give special consideration to making the Child(ren) available to attend family functions, including but not limited to funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, meaningful ceremonies, and other significant events in the Child(ren)'s or the parent's lives that may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

ff. Curbside Exchanges and School-to-School Exchanges: At the election of either party, exchanges may be school-to-school or curbside. If school is not in session, the parents may agree on another public location. If the parents cannot agree, exchanges shall occur at the closest police station to the Child(ren)'s home.

gg. Transportation Cost: Unless the parties make other arrangements in writing, the receiving parent shall transport the Child(ren) to the exchange location and shall bear the associated transportation expenses.

hh. Cooperation: The parents will develop a working relationship as co-parents built on respect and cooperation. Both parents will do their best to listen to each other and try to understand the other's point of view.

ii. Respectful Conduct: Both parents are restrained from insulting, harmful, or disparaging remarks about the other party in the presence of minor Child(ren), on social media platforms, or in other electronic formats. They shall also proactively restrain third parties from doing so.

jj. Support for Parent–Child Relationships: Both parents shall support each other in their parenting roles and encourage a positive relationship between the Child(ren) and the other parent. Each parent shall also respect and support the Child(ren)'s relationships with stepparents, grandparents, and other appropriate family members.

kk. Prohibited Conduct: Both parents are prohibited from engaging in or communicating anything that could harm or injure the other parent. This includes but is not limited to speaking disparagingly about the other parent in the presence of the Child(ren), discussing the issues in this case with the Child(ren), trying to influence the Child(ren)'s preferences regarding custody or visitation, attempting to undermine the Child(ren)'s love and affection for the other parent, or harassing, annoying, or disturbing the other parent.

ll. Third-Party Restraint: Both parents are prohibited from encouraging or allowing a third party to engage in actions prohibited under this order. Each parent must try to prevent third parties from committing such violations and remove the Child(ren) from any situations where such violations occur.

mm. Consideration of Child(ren)'s Needs: When having overnight guests while the Child(ren) are in the home, the parents shall consider the Child(ren)'s needs and sensitivity. Prudent behavior shall be exercised when introducing the Child(ren) to significant others.

nn. Physical and Emotional Safety: Both parents agree to prioritize the physical and emotional safety of the Child(ren) at all times. Each parent will ensure that the Child(ren) are cared for in a safe and supportive environment, free from conditions that may be harmful to their well-being.

oo. Substance Use. Neither parent shall consume alcohol, marijuana, illegal drugs, or any other impairing substance immediately before or during parent-time. A parent’s lawful use of medical cannabis or another legally prescribed controlled substance shall not alone constitute a violation of this paragraph, so long as the parent remains able to safely supervise, transport, and care for the Child(ren). Neither parent shall allow a third party who is impaired by alcohol, marijuana, illegal drugs, or any other substance to supervise or care for the Child(ren).

pp. Domestic Violence: Both parents are committed to maintaining a peaceful and respectful environment for the Child(ren). In the event that either parent has concerns regarding the Child(ren)'s emotional or physical safety, they will seek support to address these concerns in a healthy manner, ensuring the Child(ren) are always in a secure and nurturing environment.

qq. Mental Health and Counseling: Both parents agree to support the emotional and mental well-being of the Child(ren) by encouraging healthy communication and coping strategies. If either parent believes that counseling or therapy could benefit the Child(ren), they will work together to find appropriate resources to support their emotional needs.

rr. Parental Communication: The parents will maintain open and respectful communication about matters affecting the Child(ren)'s safety, health, and well-being. Both parents will make efforts to share important information related to the Child(ren)'s education, health, and emotional needs. When disagreements arise, both parents will work collaboratively to resolve them in the best interests of the Child(ren).

ss. Visitation and Parent Time Adjustments: The parents agree to be flexible and understanding with each other regarding changes to the parenting schedule, especially in the event of illness or other unforeseen circumstances. Both parents will work together to maintain a consistent and supportive routine for the Child(ren) while being considerate of their emotional needs.

tt. Family and Community Support: Both parents agree to encourage and support the Child(ren)'s relationships with extended family members and their community. They will work together to maintain positive connections with grandparents, siblings, and others, ensuring these relationships contribute to the Child(ren)'s emotional well-being.

uu. Changing the Parenting Plan: This plan shall remain in effect until modified. Modifications may be effectuated by mutual written agreement or through court action.

vv. Good Faith: This plan is made in good faith and is in the Child(ren)'s best interests.

ww. Child Support

xx. The parties stipulate that, for purposes of the Utah Child Support Guidelines, each party shall be imputed a gross monthly income of $2,600. The parties further stipulate that Mother shall exercise 183 overnights and Father shall exercise 182 overnights per year with the minor child.

yy. Using these figures, the guideline calculation results in a child support obligation of approximately $6.00 per month from Father to Mother.

zz. Because the parties have substantially equal incomes and nearly equal parent-time, the parties agree that the guideline amount is de minimis and stipulate that no child support shall be exchanged between them. The parties agree that this deviation from the guideline amount is reasonable and in the best interest of the child.

aaa. Each parent shall be responsible for the child's ordinary day-to-day expenses incurred during that parent's respective parent-time.

bbb. Medical Insurance Coverage: The parent with the best coverage shall maintain and enforce all health insurance for minor Child(ren) when it is available at a reasonable cost and the insurance coverage is accessible to the Child(ren).

ccc. If the Child(ren) are covered by the insurance plans of both parents at any time, the parent whose birthday comes first in the year shall be designated as primary coverage, and the other parent's coverage shall be secondary coverage for the Child(ren). Utah Code § 81-6-208.

ddd. If a parent remarries and the dependent Child(ren) are not covered by their insurance but by the stepparent's plan, the stepparent's plan shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent. It shall retain the same primary or secondary insurance designation as described above.

eee. If the court or an administrative agency must determine which parent shall be ordered to maintain insurance for medical expenses, the court or administrative agency may consider the reasonableness of the cost, availability of a group insurance policy, coverage of the policy, and preference of the custodial parent.

fff. The parent who carries the insurance on the Child(ren) shall verify coverage to the other parent or the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 601 et seq., upon initial enrollment of the dependent Child(ren), and after initial enrollment on or before January 2 of each calendar year. That parent shall notify the other parent or the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act 42 U.S.C. Sec. 601 et seq., of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date the parent first knew or shall have known of the change.

ggg. Per Utah Code § 81-6-208, parents shall equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the premium paid by a parent for the Child(ren)'s portion of the insurance. The Child(ren)'s portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid for the family. It is calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor Child(ren) of the parents. The insurance premium shall be automatically added to or subtracted from the child support obligation above.

hhh. Out-of-Pocket Medical Expenses: Each parent shall pay one-half of all reasonable and necessary health, optical, hospital, dental, orthodontic, psychological, and other medical expenses of the parents minor Child(ren), including, but not limited to out-of-pocket costs actually paid by either parent for the minor Child(ren)'s portion of health, optical, hospital, dental, orthodontic, psychological, and other medical insurance coverage and all reasonable and necessary uninsured health, optical, hospital, dental, orthodontic, psychological, and other medical expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for the dependent Child(ren) and actually paid by either parent.

iii. Any parent who incurs health, optical, hospital, dental, orthodontic, psychological, and other medical expenses for the parents' minor Child(ren) shall provide written verification of the costs and payment for the expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment. The other parent shall reimburse them within thirty (30) days of receiving verification of payment. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expense or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with this provision. Utah Code § 81-6-208.

jjj. Notice to Medical/Dental Creditors: Pursuant to Utah code, when a court or administrative order has been entered providing for the payment of medical expenses of the minor Child(ren), a creditor who has been provided a copy of the order may not claim unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order, nor may the creditor make a negative credit report under, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under the Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order.

kkk. Each parent shall send a copy of the Decree of Divorce to the creditor for the minor Child(ren)'s medical or dental expenses.

lll. Notify the creditor of that parent's current address and

mmm. Inform the particular creditor that it may not claim unpaid medical expenses against that parent if that parent has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order and also inform the particular creditor that it may not make a negative credit report or a report of the debtor’s repayment practices or credit history, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order

nnn. Extracurricular Activities: The parents shall split the costs of extracurricular activities for the Child(ren), which are mutually agreed upon in writing. If both parents do not agree on the activity, the parent who puts the Child(ren) in the activity pays the full fee and will be the parent making special accommodations if it, in fact, interferes with the other parent’s time.

ooo. School Expenses: The parents shall equally divide the Child(ren)'s necessary school expenses, including but not limited to registration, school lunches, and all other fees. The parent who incurs all of the Child(ren)’s costs will provide written verification of the cost and payment of those expenses to the other parent within 30 days. Once verification is received, that parent must make payment within 30 days.

ppp. Dispute Resolution: If a dispute arises regarding a provision of the Decree, the parents will first discuss the issue respectfully, considering all parties' needs. If no agreement is reached, they will consult relevant professionals. If the dispute persists, they will attend mediation or another agreed-upon resolution method, sharing the costs. If the issue remains unresolved, the parents may seek court intervention, but only after making a good faith attempt to resolve the matter outside of court.

qqq. Child Tax Credit Allocation.

rrr. The parties agree that Mother shall claim the minor child(ren) for federal and state tax dependency purposes in even-numbered tax years, and Father shall claim the minor child(ren) in odd-numbered tax years.

sss. A parent may claim the child(ren) only if that parent is current as of December 31 of the applicable tax year on all ordered child-related financial obligations, including health insurance premiums, agreed-upon extracurricular expenses, and daycare costs. If the parent entitled to claim the child(ren) is not current, the other parent shall be entitled to claim the child(ren) for that tax year.

ttt. The parties shall cooperate in signing any necessary IRS forms or providing documentation required to allow the eligible parent to claim the child(ren) consistent with this provision.

uuu. Either party may request to claim the child(ren) in the other party's designated year if mutually beneficial for tax purposes. Any such request must be made no later than March 1 of the tax filing year, and the parties may agree to reasonable compensation reflecting the value of the tax benefit.

vvv. Real Property: The parties do not have an interest in any real property.

www. Vehicles: During the marriage, the parties acquired certain vehicles. The parties shall receive vehicles with the associated debt as follows:

xxx. Ivory is awarded the Chevrolet Cruze in her possession, with accompanying debt.

yyy. Lee is awarded the Subaru in his possession, with accompanying debt.

zzz. Personal Property Division: The parties have already divided all personal property.

aaaa. Sentimental Items: The parties shall make items of sentimental value, such as family pictures, videos, and other family memorabilia, available to each other for copying. The original copies shall be promptly returned to the party currently in possession. The expenses for copying shall be shared equitably between the parties.

bbbb. Separate Property: All property rights that shall be vested in either party due to family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources shall be awarded to the party from whose family it came. Additionally, all property owned before the marriage or acquired after the date of separation shall be deemed the sole and separate property of the receiving party.

cccc. Retirement Accounts: Each party shall retain as their sole and separate property any retirement accounts currently held in their own name, including any associated gains or losses. Neither party shall have any claim to the other party's retirement accounts.

dddd. Bank/Credit Union Accounts: Each party shall retain as their sole and separate property any bank accounts, checking accounts, savings accounts, credit union accounts, investment accounts, and other financial accounts currently held in their individual name. Neither party shall have any claim to the other party's financial accounts.

eeee. Debt Responsibility and Indemnification Provisions: Each party shall be solely responsible for any debts incurred in his or her own name. Each party shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any liability associated with such debts, including any costs, fees, or collection actions arising from those obligations.

ffff. Legal And Equitable Considerations For Alimony: The parties mutually acknowledge and agree that, due to the short duration of the marriage, neither party shall be entitled to receive alimony from the other now or at any time in the future. Both parties expressly waive any and all present and future claims to spousal support, and this waiver is intended to be final, binding, and non-modifiable.

gggg. Name Restoration: Petitioner's name is restored to Ivory Daley.

hhhh. Protection of Personal Information: Each party warrants that they shall not use the other party's likeness, identity, credit, or personal information for any inappropriate or unauthorized purpose.

iiii. Execution of Documents: Both parties shall be ordered to sign and fully execute the necessary documents to implement the provisions of this divorce decree. If a party fails to execute a document within 60 days of the decree's entry, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce and Request for Sanctions at the expense of the disobedient party and seek the Court's appointment of another person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

jjjj. Office of Recovery Services. Nothing in this Decree limits the authority of the Office of Recovery Services to provide services or to enforce the child-support and medical-support provisions of this Decree as permitted by law. Because ongoing base child support is set at $0.00, no periodic base child-support payment is presently due.

kkkk. Effective Date. This Decree is effective upon entry by the Court.

llll. Continuing Jurisdiction. The Court retains jurisdiction to enforce and, where permitted by law, modify this Decree.

mmmm. Final Order. This Decree resolves all claims between the parties and is a final order, subject to the Court's continuing jurisdiction over matters that may be modified or enforced by law.
