| In the Matter of the Marriage ofSCOTT PERRY BISHOFFandBRITTANY GAIL BISHOFF | DECREE OF DIVORCECivil No. 254403044Judge Derek PullanCommissioner Marian Ito |

The above-entitled matter came before the Court on Scott Perry Bishoff's Verified Petition for Divorce and the parties' signed Stipulation and Settlement Agreement dated September 15, 2026.

The parties have filed a Stipulation and Settlement Agreement with the Court resolving all issues. The Court, having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now orders:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

1. The parties are hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from one another on the grounds of irreconcilable differences and their marriage is hereby dissolved.

2. Residency: Both Scott and Brittany are bona fide residents of Utah County, State of Utah, and have been for three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

3. Marriage: The parties married on March 13, 2010, in American Fork, Utah County, State of Utah. The parties are currently married. The parties separated on or about November 3, 2025.

4. Grounds: During the course of the marriage the parties have experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled and that have prevented the parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship.

5. Children: There are four (4) minor children of this marriage: S.K.B., born August 2012; J.S.B., born April 2015; C.G.B., born November 2017; and B.S.B., born November 2019.

6. Legal Custody & Decision Making: The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor children and shall use the terms herein as a parenting plan and be bound to abide thereby. Day-to-day decisions involving the children shall be made by the parent with whom the children are then located. Emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children shall be made by the parent who is with the children at that time. The parties shall notify each other of any emergent circumstances involving the children as soon as is practicably possible. Significant decisions involving legal matters, health, education and religious upbringing shall be discussed in advance in an attempt to reach an agreement. Where applicable, the parties shall consult with relevant professionals in the field of the dispute, i.e., consult with a medical provider over a disputed medical issue. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement after consulting with relevant professionals, the parties shall attend mediation, with the cost of mediation equally divided, prior to initiating any court action. If the parties remain at an impasse after mediation, the parties shall bring the matter before the Court for decision. Either party may seek emergency relief from the Court should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical.

7. Physical Custody & Parent Time: The parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor children on a 50/50 basis as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, the parties shall alternate on a Monday-to-Monday basis, with the exchanges occurring through school drop-off Monday morning, or at 5:00 p.m. when school is not in session. If either party moves more than 20 miles away from the other party, the parties shall attend mediation in order to create a new joint custody parent-time schedule. If the parties are unable to agree, either party may file a Petition to Modify to address parent time.

8. Agreements to Adjust Parent Time: The parents may revise or adjust the parent-time schedule outlined herein only by advance, mutual, written agreement, which shall be made via text or email. Absent advance, mutual, written agreement, the parent-time schedule set forth herein shall be carried out.

9. Holiday Parent Time: The parties shall exercise holiday parent time pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-303, with Brittany designated as the custodial parent for that purpose. Absent any statutory deviation, the holiday schedule shall be as follows:

10. Summer/Extended Parent Time: Summer parent time shall be according to Utah Code 81-9-303 unless the children are enrolled in year-round school, in which case any off-track or summer time shall be split equally between the parties. For the purposes of extended parent time only, Brittany is considered the custodial parent and Scott is considered the noncustodial parent. Each parent shall provide notification to the other parent of the parent's plans for the exercise of parent time for summer break as follows:

a. Odd-Numbered Years: In odd-numbered years, the noncustodial parent (Scott) shall provide notice to the custodial parent by May 1, and the custodial parent (Brittany) shall provide notice to the noncustodial parent by May 15.

b. Even-Numbered Years: In even-numbered years, the custodial parent (Brittany) shall provide notice to the noncustodial parent by May 1, and the noncustodial parent (Scott) shall provide notice to the custodial parent by May 15.

c. Failure to Timely Comply: If a parent fails to provide a notification within the time periods described herein, the complying parent may determine the schedule for summer break for the noncomplying parent.

d. First to Comply has Priority: If both parents fail to provide notice within the time periods described herein, the first parent to provide notice may determine the schedule for summer break for the other parent.

e. Interruption: If a custodial parent intends to interrupt a noncustodial parent's parent time under this section, the custodial parent shall provide notification to the noncustodial parent of the intent to interrupt parent time within 10 days after the day on which the custodial parent receives notification of the noncustodial parent's plans for the exercise of extended parent time.

11. Transportation: Exchanges shall occur as agreed upon by the parties or by pick-up or drop-off at school, and curbside when school is not in session. The party beginning his or her parent time shall pick up the children. The parties shall cooperate and be flexible in the pick-up and delivery of the children and be mindful of the importance of promptness. Should either parent not be available to transport the children, either party may designate an appropriate person to provide said transportation, but shall provide the other parent with the name and contact information of that person.

12. Right of First Refusal: Each party shall arrange for surrogate care of the children while the children are in his or her custody, unless the parent will be gone overnight, in which case the other parent shall be given the first right of refusal as soon as is reasonably possible to provide care for the children. The parent shall ensure the other parent has contact information for anyone providing care for the children.

13. Out-of-State Travel/Vacation: If either party desires to take the minor children outside the State of Utah, he or she shall inform the other party 30 days in advance if possible, provide the other party with the travel itinerary, and make arrangements for maintaining reasonable contact with the other party during the trip. The parties shall cooperate in obtaining a passport and signing documentation for the minor children if required for travel.

14. Education Plan: The marital home shall be designated as the primary residence of the children for purposes of identifying the appropriate school. The children shall attend school in Mapleton until graduation from high school, or as the parties agree otherwise. Both parents shall have access to the children during school and authority to check a child out of school for any appropriate reason.

15. Education Expenses: In addition to any child support obligation, both parties shall be equally responsible for any and all of the children's education-related expenses. Said expenses include, but are not limited to, enrollment fees, registration, required school clothing, school supplies, any required or agreed-upon tutoring-related expenses, field trip expenses, and any required school-related activities.

16. Communication/Exchange of Information: The children shall not be requested to carry messages between the parents. The parties shall communicate with one another via text or email, and by telephone when necessary. The parties shall share all information about the children regarding special events, homework assignments, parent-teacher meetings, report cards, medical events and prescriptions to which the other parent may not have access. Information relating to the children shall be provided to the other parent as soon as practical.

17. Difference in Parenting Styles: The parties shall focus their attention on conversations about the children rather than each other and shall encourage the children to understand that differences occur and attempt to adapt to those differences without suggesting that the other parent is better or worse. The parties shall respect the other parent's right to establish an independent life with the children so long as it is not detrimental.

18. Consistency in Raising the Children: In an effort to maintain some consistency and standards for discipline, the parties shall attempt to adopt behavior rules that will apply in both homes, which should include bedtime, homework, types of movies and video games, and frequency of television and computer time. Should the children complain about a particular parent's rules, the explanation shall be that it must be resolved with the other parent so that the parents do not become an ally with the children in that regard. If it is perceived by one party that the discipline of the other is inappropriate, the discussion shall be had with the other parent without going through the children. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each parent shall have sole discretion over the daily routine and schedule of the children during that parent's parent time.

19. Extended Family Relationships: The parties shall encourage the children to maintain relationships with grandparents and other relatives, and each parent shall assist, as may be necessary, to permit those relationships to continue.

20. Communication with Children: Regardless of which parent the children are with at any given time, each parent shall make an effort to have the children contact the other parent as frequently as is reasonably requested or as desired by the children.

21. Relocation: If either party intends to relocate more than 150 miles from his or her residence at the time of entry of this Decree, the parties shall follow the notice and dispute resolution procedures found in Utah Code 81-9-209.

22. Extracurricular Activities and Sports: The parties shall encourage and support the children's participation in extracurricular activities and sports.

a. Costs: The parties shall split 50/50 the cost of any activities or equipment costs that are incurred for an activity that is agreed to in writing by both parties.

b. Reasonable Number: The parties shall enroll the children in a reasonable number of activities and shall not purposefully try to supplant parent time with activities.

c. Participation and Transportation: The parties shall attempt to allow participation in activities in which the children express a desire to participate. If a mutually agreed-upon extracurricular activity occurs during a party's parent time and that party is unable or unwilling to transport the child, the other party may do so. The exercising parent shall retain parent time before and after the activity unless otherwise agreed.

23. Disparaging Remarks: Each of the parties is restrained from speaking to or about the other in demeaning, disparaging or disrespectful terms, and shall prevent third parties and the children from doing so as well. The parties shall at all times conduct themselves in a manner that protects the minor children from exposure to conflict arising out of or related to these proceedings, the parties' divorce, or any ongoing disputes between the parties. Specifically, the parties shall refrain from discussing with the children, or within the children's hearing, any matters relating to these proceedings, the terms of this Decree, child support, alimony, property division, attorney fees, and any other financial or legal dispute between the parties. The parties shall also refrain from placing the children in the position of confidant, ally, or emotional support with respect to matters related to the divorce or the parties' relationship.

24. Religious Affiliation: The parties shall support and respect the other's religious preferences and shall reasonably encourage the children's participation in religious activities with both parents. However, both parents shall be free to choose an appropriate religion to participate in with the children or shall be free to refrain from attending religious services during their parent time with the children.

25. Special Considerations: The parties shall abide by the following:

a. Notice of Events: The parents shall notify one another within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the children are participating or being honored, and both parents shall be entitled to attend and participate fully. This provision is not intended to require a party to be responsible for providing notice where the other party could reasonably obtain it on his or her own.

b. Parent-Child Relationship: Neither party shall say or do anything that would diminish the children's love and affection for the other parent or encourage a child to ignore or resist the agreed-upon parent-time schedule.

c. Records: Both parents shall have direct access to all school reports and medical records, and shall be notified immediately by the other parent in the event of a medical emergency.

d. Contact Information: Each parent shall provide the other with his or her current address and telephone number within 24 hours of any change.

e. Emergency Contacts: Both parents shall be listed as “emergency contacts” for medical emergencies with any school, daycare, or any other such providers.

f. School Access: Both parents shall be allowed to access the children at school and shall be able to check the children out of school for any appropriate reason.

g. Discipline: The parties shall discuss with one another any situations with a child in which significant discipline was used. The parties shall not use corporal punishment in any form. Further, they shall consult with one another if they experience problems with discipline and try to create consistency with house rules and discipline techniques used. They shall consult with a mutually agreed mental health professional or counselor together if they are unable to resolve behavioral issues involving a child.

h. Physical Appearance: Neither parent shall make major changes in the children's physical appearance without first working out an agreement with the other parent to do so. This shall extend to cosmetic surgery, ear piercing, tattoos, etc.

i. Illness and Appointments: The parties shall notify one another of any illness that the children have while in their home for parent time. They shall also keep one another informed of any medications prescribed for the children, as well as any scheduled appointments with medical, dental or mental health professionals.

j. Medication: The parties shall notify the other parent immediately in the event of a medical emergency or when the children are seriously ill. The parties shall give details on medication for the children and any dosages necessary. Each party shall administer medicine as instructed by the children's regular pediatrician.

k. Medical Emergencies: In the event of a medical emergency, each party shall make every effort to contact, and consult with, the other party, but shall be entitled to make necessary decisions until both parties are available. Such efforts shall include every means at the party's disposal, including calls to work, home, and cell phone, as well as leaving messages at all such numbers and at the homes of relatives, in order to make sure the other parent knows about the medical emergency.

l. Divorce Issues: Both parties shall refrain from involving the children in “divorce issues.” Such issues include but are not limited to parent-time disagreements; discussions about child support or financial hardships brought about by divorce; differences of opinion on how money is spent; discussions about court and legal matters; contents of legal papers; seeking information regarding what occurs in one another's homes (other than general conversation); and involving the children as “messengers” between the parties.

26. Resolving Disputes: If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their children generally or over the terms or implementation of this Parenting Plan, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed-upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. Either party may seek emergency relief from the Court should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical.

27. Violation of Parenting Plan: If either parent fails to comply with a provision of this Parenting Plan, the other parent's obligations under the Parenting Plan or this Decree of Divorce shall not be affected. If either party violates any terms of the Parenting Plan and court action becomes necessary, the non-prevailing party shall pay the prevailing party's attorney fees and costs if the non-prevailing party is found to be in contempt of Court.

28. Child Support: Scott is employed and earns gross monthly income in the amount of $13,750. Brittany is employed and earns gross monthly income in the amount of $5,850. According to the parties' incomes and the

Uniform Child Support Guidelines, based on a joint child support worksheet with Scott being awarded 182 overnights and Brittany being awarded 183 overnights, Scott shall pay Brittany $660 per month for the support of the parties' minor children, commencing September 2026, the month the Stipulation was signed. (See Child Support Obligation Worksheet, filed concurrently with the Stipulation.)

a. Payment: All monthly payments of child support shall be payable one-half by the 5th day of each month and one-half by the 20th day of that month. Scott shall pay the monthly child support amount directly to Brittany by depositing said amount into a bank account opened and maintained by Brittany.

b. Duration: Scott's support of the minor children shall continue until said children become 18 years of age, or have graduated from high school during the children's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

c. Adjustment: When a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the base child support award shall be automatically adjusted to reflect the base combined child support obligation pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines for the remaining number of children due child support.

29. Child Care Expenses: The parties shall pay for their own childcare needs with no contribution from the other parent.

30. Health Insurance: Pursuant to Utah Code 81-6-208, the parent(s) shall provide health care coverage, as defined by Utah Code 81-6-208, for the medical expenses of the dependent children. A parent shall provide insurance for the medical expenses of a minor child if insurance is available to that parent at a reasonable cost.

a. Primary and Secondary Coverage: If at any time a dependent child is covered by both parents' health, hospital, or dental insurance plans, Scott's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan is designated as primary and Brittany's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan is designated as secondary.

b. Double Coverage: When a dependent child is covered by both parents' health, hospital, or dental insurance plans, each parent shall pay the entirety of the out-of-pocket costs of the premium without seeking reimbursement from the other party.

c. Determination of Insuring Parent: If the court or an administrative agency must determine which parent shall be ordered to maintain insurance for medical expenses, the court or administrative agency may consider the: (i) reasonableness of the cost; (ii) availability of a group insurance policy; (iii) coverage of the policy; and (iv) preference of the custodial parent.

d. Premiums: Except when the children are double-covered, which should be avoided, each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of insurance. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case.

e. Credit or Reimbursement: The parent who provides the insurance coverage may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the children's portion of the premium. If the parent does not have insurance but another member of the parent's household provides insurance coverage for the children, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the children's portion of the premium. The parent seeking a credit or reimbursement of a share of the children's portion of the premium must submit written verification of such premium amounts to the other parent.

f. Stepparent Coverage: If a parent remarries and the dependent children are not covered by that parent's insurance but are covered by the stepparent's plan, the stepparent's plan shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation for primary or secondary insurance as described above and the cost-sharing provisions herein, including calculating and splitting costs of the children's premium as described herein.

g. Verification of Coverage: The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 601 et seq., upon initial enrollment of the dependent children, and after initial enrollment on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services, of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date the parent first knew or should have known of the change. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the Court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply.

31. Medical Out-of-Pocket Costs: In accordance with Utah Code 81-4-406(4), each parent shall equally share all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for a dependent child, including deductibles and copayments. A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the Court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply. The parent to whom written verification is provided shall reimburse the parent who incurred the medical expenses one-half the amount of the out-of-pocket costs within 30 days of receipt of the written verification.

32. Notice to Medical/Dental Expense Creditors: Pursuant to Utah Code 15-4-6.7, 81-3-105, and 81-4-501(2)-(4), when a court order has been entered providing for the payment of medical expenses of a minor child pursuant to Utah Code 81-4-501 et seq., 81-4-204, or 81-6-208, or an administrative order under 62A-11-326, a creditor who has been provided a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order, nor may the creditor make a negative credit report under Utah Code 70C-7-107, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order. Each party shall:

a. Send a copy of this Decree to the creditor of the particular medical or dental expense of the minor children;

b. Notify the particular creditor of that party's current address; and

c. Inform the particular creditor that it may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against that party if that party has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order, and also inform the particular creditor that it may not make a negative credit report under Utah Code 70C-7-107 or a report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order.

33. Taxes: Brittany shall be entitled to claim the tax benefits relating to S.K.B. and B.S.B. Scott shall be entitled to claim the tax benefits relating to J.S.B. and C.G.B.

a. Three Qualifying Children: When there are three minor children who qualify for the child tax credit, the parties shall alternate the child tax credit for J.S.B., with Brittany entitled to claim the tax credit for J.S.B. during even-numbered years and Scott entitled to claim the tax credit for J.S.B. during odd-numbered years.

b. Two Qualifying Children: When there are two minor children who qualify for the child tax credit, Brittany is entitled to claim the tax credit for B.S.B. and Scott is entitled to claim the tax credit for C.G.B.

c. One Qualifying Child: When there is one minor child who qualifies for the child tax credit, the parties shall alternate the child tax credit for B.S.B., with Brittany entitled to claim the tax credit for B.S.B. during even-numbered years and Scott entitled to claim the tax credit during odd-numbered years.

34. Alimony: In consideration of Scott waiving his interest in the equity of the marital home, Scott shall pay Brittany $1,340 per month in alimony for a period of five (5) years beginning October 1, 2026. Alimony shall terminate upon the remarriage of Brittany, upon the establishment by Scott that Brittany is cohabiting with another person, or upon Brittany's death. Brittany acknowledges and agrees this amount is a fair and equitable figure given Scott's waiver of his interest in the marital home equity.

35. Real Property – Marital Home: During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired a home and real property located at 715 W 1600 N, Mapleton, UT 84664 (the “home”). In consideration of a reduced alimony figure, Scott waives all interest in the equity in the home. Brittany is awarded the home and real property as her sole and exclusive property and shall be responsible for maintaining any debt associated with the property.

a. Expenses and Indemnification: Brittany shall be solely responsible for all mortgage payments, property taxes, homeowner's insurance, and all maintenance and repair costs associated with the home. Scott shall have zero liability for any expenses, injuries, or other obligations arising from or related to the property while Brittany occupies or owns it. Brittany shall indemnify and hold Scott harmless from any and all claims, liabilities, damages, or costs arising from the property, including but not limited to personal injuries, property damage, missed mortgage payments, and negative credit reporting.

b. Refinance: Brittany shall refinance any and all outstanding mortgages on the home, removing Scott from any and all obligations on said mortgage(s), within three (3) years of the entry of this Decree of Divorce unless otherwise agreed to by the parties in writing. Both parties shall execute any documents necessary to effectuate said refinance. If Brittany has a refinance in process, and is under a written loan commitment from a qualified lender with a scheduled closing date and on track to close within sixty (60) days, that refinance shall pause any applicable deadlines set forth herein.

c. Triggering Events for Sale: If Brittany has not completed the refinance within three (3) years of entry of this Decree of Divorce, or if Brittany falls thirty (30) or more days behind on any mortgage payment, the home shall be listed for sale within sixty (60) days of such triggering event.

d. Sale Process: In the event the home is to be sold, Brittany shall have sole authority to select the realtor and manage the sale of the home. Brittany shall follow all reasonable recommendations of the realtor regarding list prices, adjustments to listing price, etc. As the resident of the home, Brittany shall be required to comply in good faith with recommendations from the realtor to facilitate showings, keep the home in marketable condition, and make reasonable repairs. Brittany's obligation to make all mortgage payments shall continue throughout any listing and sale period. If the home is not sold within six (6) months from the date of the triggering event, Brittany shall consult with Scott in good faith to resolve any outstanding obstacles preventing such a sale. If Scott and Brittany are unable to cooperate in good faith, they shall mutually select a realtor, and Brittany shall follow the reasonable recommendations of such realtor. If Scott and Brittany are unable to mutually select a realtor, Scott shall have sole authority to select the realtor, and Brittany shall follow the reasonable recommendations of such realtor.

e. Sale Proceeds: In consideration of a reduction in alimony, if the home is sold all proceeds from the sale of the home shall remain with Brittany. Scott expressly waives any claim to past, present, or future equity, appreciation, or proceeds from the sale of the home. Nothing in these real property provisions shall be construed to create any continuing ownership interest or financial claim by Scott in the home.

36. Business Interests: Brittany has business ownership interests in Mapleton Fabric. Mapleton Fabric is fully awarded to Brittany.

37. Retirement and Investment Accounts: Scott is awarded his retirement accounts and investment accounts as his sole and separate property, free from any claim by Brittany. Brittany is awarded her retirement account as her sole and separate property, free from any claim by Scott. No QDRO or other division of retirement or investment accounts shall be required.

38. Bank Accounts: During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired liquid financial assets in the form of checking and savings accounts. These accounts are awarded as the parties have heretofore divided them.

39. Personal Property: During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain items of personal property. The parties are awarded said property as they agree. If the parties cannot agree, they shall attend mediation to address personal property division. Each party shall be solely responsible for any and all financial obligations associated with the personal property awarded to him or her, free from any claim of interest by the other party.

40. Inherited and Family Property: All property and property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources are awarded to the party from whose family it came.

41. Family Pet: The parties own a dog named Ellie. Ellie shall rotate between the parties' households in conjunction with the children's parent-time schedule. All reasonable expenses associated with Ellie's care, including but not limited to veterinary costs and grooming, shall be split equally between the parties.

42. Debts and Obligations: The parties have no known outstanding marital debts or obligations aside from the marital home, which is awarded to Brittany. Each party shall assume and pay, and hold the other harmless and indemnify him or her from liability on, all debts and obligations incurred by that party after the parties' date of separation, November 3, 2025. Pursuant to Utah Code 81-4-204(1)(e), the parties shall notify their respective creditors or obligees regarding the division of debts, obligations, or liabilities herein and the parties' separate, current addresses.

43. Mutual Restraints: The parties are restrained as follows:

a. Harassment: Both parties are permanently restrained from harassing, threatening, or harming the other party at his or her place of residence, employment, or any other place. Both parties shall be civil and respectful in their communications with one another.

b. Employment and False Allegations: Both parties are restrained from interfering with the other party's employment or making false allegations regarding the other party to professional licensing agencies, DCFS, and/or police.

c. Financial Information: Neither party shall use the other's likeness, image, social security information, or other financial information to obtain any type of loan or any type of debt. Neither party shall access the other party's credit information or utilize the other party's available credit without written permission.

d. Private Accounts: Neither party shall access the other party's personal or private accounts such as email, bank accounts, cell phones, social media accounts, etc.

44. Full Disclosure: Scott and Brittany have each represented and warranted that he or she has fully and completely disclosed to the other party all of his or her assets, debts, retirement accounts/benefits, and sources of income of every kind and nature known to him or her, as reflected in their financial declarations filed herein. In the event one party has concealed any marital assets or retirement accounts/benefits from the other party, the other party shall be entitled to reopen this divorce matter for the limited purpose of the other party being awarded the entirety of the concealed asset(s) and retirement accounts/benefits, and shall be entitled to recover his or her attorney fees and costs incurred in such an action.

45. Former Name: Brittany is restored the use of her former name "Siddoway" if and when she so desires.

46. Documentation Cooperation: Each party shall execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of this Decree of Divorce.

47. Attorney Fees: Each party shall assume his or her own costs and attorney fees incurred in prosecuting or defending this action.

48. Interpretation: Any references to Utah statute herein shall mean the Utah Code in effect as of the date of entry of this Decree. Paragraph headings are for convenience only and do not affect the substance of the terms hereof. This Decree shall be binding upon each of the parties and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns.
