Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF: EMMA BELLE IZATT, Petitioner and MICHAEL DEREK IZATT, Respondent	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No.: 244403107 Judge: Kasey L. Wright Commissioner: Marian Ito

This matter came before the Court on Petitioner's Petition for Decree of Divorce filed November 19, 2024. A bench trial was held in this matter on August 14, 17 and 18, 2026. The parties are referred to herein as "Emma" and "Michael" to avoid confusion and with no disrespect intended. Emma was represented by attorney Eric P. Paulson, and Michael was present but unrepresented. The Court, after trial, being fully advised in the premises, having incorporated various stipulations of the parties, and having previously entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now states: IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. Emma is an actual and bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah and has been so for at least three months prior to the filing of the divorce complaint.

2. GENERAL JURISDICTION. This Court has general jurisdiction over this matter, pursuant to Utah Code Section 78A-5-102(1).

3. PERSONAL JURISDICTION. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the parties, pursuant to Utah Code Section 78B-3-205.

4. CHILD SUPPORT JURISDICTION. This Court has jurisdiction to enter child support orders, pursuant to Utah Code Section 81-6-104(1) et seq. and Utah Code Section 78B-14-101 et seq.

5. The parties in this action were married on the 14th day of June 2005, in Utah County, State of Utah.

6. During the marriage, irreconcilable differences have developed thereby entitling Emma to a Decree of Divorce from Michael.

CHILDREN

7. The parties are the parents of the following children born as issue of this marriage:

Minor Children's Initials	Month & Year of Birth
L. A. I.	September 2011
K. O. I	October 2013

8. The parties are awarded joint legal custody and will jointly make significant decisions involving the children. This includes education, health care, religious, or permanent body changes involving the children. In the event the parties cannot agree on a decision, then Emma will make the decision. If Michael disagrees with a decision that she makes, he will have the right to challenge that decision through the judicial process.

9. Day-to-day decisions and emergency decisions will be made by the party who is caring for the children at the time. The parties will communicate through OurFamilyWizard and both parties will pay for a subscription to this app without delay.

10. The parties will adopt the “advisory guidelines,” which are the provisions within Utah Code Section 81-9-202, as amended, and they are hereby incorporated into this Decree of Divorce and the parties are bound by each of the provisions found therein that are not inconsistent with a provision found elsewhere within this Decree of Divorce.

11. Emma is designated as the primary, residential, custodial parent. Parent time will be as the parties agree. In the event the parties do not agree, then Michael's parent time will be pursuant to Utah Code Section 81-9-302. The weekday visit will be specified by Michael; however, it will not conflict with the children’s regularly scheduled, weekly youth, LDS activity night. Michael will announce his election to Emma no later than December 1st of each year as to what that day will be for the following calendar year and once Michael makes his election, that is what it will be for the year unless it conflicts with the aforementioned activity night or unless it is changed by mutual agreement of the parties, in writing.

12. ADDITIONAL PARENTING PLAN PROVISIONS. The parties are bound by the following provisions:

a. The parties will each obtain their own information regarding the minor children’s school work, school schedule, medical and dental treatment, counseling, emotional needs, accomplishments, and other information.

b. The parties will not discuss with the minor children or in the minor children’s presence litigation between the parties or other disputes between the parties.

c. The minor children will not be used as messengers between the parents.

d. The parties will maintain safe and appropriate sleeping and living accommodations for the minor children.

e. Each party will have adequate clothing for the minor children at his/her residence.

f. Neither parent will question the minor children about the other parent's activities, personal relationships or how the other parent spends his/her time or money.

g. The parties will not ask the minor children to keep secrets from the other parent.

h. Both parties are restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the minor children's love and affection for the other parent. This includes any comments about the other parent's actions that may be construed as having a negative impact on the other parent's relationship with the minor children.

i. The party with the minor children in his/her care is responsible for ensuring the minor children's homework is complete and for transporting the minor children to and from school on time.

j. Communication regarding the minor children will be directly between the parents and will not involve third parties.

k. Both parents will have access to the minor children during school hours and the authority to check the minor children out of school during his/her custodial time for emergency purposes or necessary appointments.

l. Neither parent will use corporal punishment.

m. All exchanges of the children will be “curbside” (i.e., the exchangers are able to touch their respective vehicles or home doors at all times). Other than polite greetings, there will be no communication between the parties at exchanges.

n. The children will be sent with clean and appropriate clothing at exchange times.

13. The “receiving parent” is responsible for transporting the children. That means that when a parent’s parent-time is starting, that parent will provide the parent-time related transportation of the children.

14. CHILD SUPPORT. Emma's gross income is $3,516.00 a month. Michael's gross income is $3,120.00 a month. Therefore, Michael's monthly child support obligation is $643.00 a month beginning September 1, 2026. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for a child terminates at the time: (1) the child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child’s normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) the child dies, married, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with U.C.A. Sections 78A-6-801 to 805. Child support is payable one-half on the 5th of each month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month. The child support obligee is entitled to immediately and automatic withholding of income as a means of collecting child support, pursuant to Utah Code Section 81-6-202(10)(f).

15. Emma is awarded a judgment in the amount of $3,584.00 for past-due child support through August 2026.

16. The provisions of the Decree of Divorce have no effect on the previously granted, unsatisfied, money judgments.

17. 1CHILD CARE EXPENSES. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated Section 81-6-209 both parties will share equally all reasonable work, career or occupational training-related child care expenses.

a. 2The parent who incurs child care expenses will provide written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. The parent will notify the other parent of any change of a child care provider or the monthly expense of child care within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the change.

b. 3The parent not directly paying for child care will begin paying his or her share of the child care expenses on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the child care expense.

c. 4A parent incurring child care expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions

18. 5HEALTH INSURANCE. A parent will maintain medical insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor children if it is available at a reasonable cost. In cases in which the parent does not have insurance, but another member of the parent's household provides insurance coverage for the children, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the children's portion of the premium. The parent providing insurance will provide verification of the coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. section 601 et seq., upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year. The parent will notify the other parent or the Office of Recovery Services under IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 601 et seq. of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) calendar days of the date he or she first knew or should have known of the change.

19. 6OUT-OF-POCKET MEDICAL AND DENTAL EXPENSES. 7Both parties will share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for the minor children and actually paid by the parties. In addition, a. Each party will share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of the insurance. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for the children will be calculated by 8dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy.

b. 9A parent who incurs medical expenses is ordered to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

c. 10A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with Subparagraph "b" above.

d. 11The parent responsible for reimbursing the other parent for medical expenses incurred is ordered to reimburse the other parent his or her share of the expenses within thirty (30) days of receipt of the verification of cost and payment of medical expenses.

e. If, at any point in time, the dependent minor children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, Emma's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan will be primary coverage for the dependent minor children and Michael's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan will be secondary coverage for the minor children. If a parent remarries and the minor children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent will be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and will retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the minor children.

20. TAXES. The parties will jointly file their state and federal tax returns for the years of 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024, and 2025. The parties will equally share the cost of preparing those tax returns. They will also be equally responsible for any tax liability, and they will also have equal access to any tax return.

21. INCOME TAX BENEFITS. The parties will equally share the right to claim the children as dependents for the purpose of state and federal income tax benefits as follows:

a. So long as there are two children who can be claimed as dependents, Emma is entitled to claim K.O.I. every year and Michael is entitled to claim L.A.I. every year.

b. So long as there is only one child who can be claimed as a dependent, the parties will alternate claiming the child with Emma claiming the child in tax years ending in an even number and Michael claiming the child in tax years ending is an odd number.

c. Michael must be current on his child support obligation as of December 31st of the tax year he is otherwise entitled to claim a child in order to be able to claim that child as a dependent on his tax returns.

d. The partes will cooperate in signing any forms required by the IRS allowing the other party to claim the child(ren) when he or she is entitled to claim a child.

e. Entitlement to claim a child of majority age for income tax benefits will be determined pursuant to federal tax law.

22. ALIMONY. Neither party is awarded alimony, now and forever.

23. REAL PROPERTY. The parties do not presently own an interest in real property.

24. PERSONAL PROPERTY. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Said personal property of the parties is distributed such that the person receiving the item is responsible for any associated debt with the item. a. ACCUMULATION OF DEBT. Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards after August 18, 2026.

b. OTHER DEBTS. Each party will pay any and all separate debts in their own names except as otherwise specified herein. Should other joint debts be later discovered, the person responsible for incurring the debt will be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the person responsible will hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal to pay what they are required to pay.

c. DELINQUENCY IN PAYMENTS. If a party is assigned a debt that is either a joint debt or that is a debt in the opter party's name, then the party assigned the debt must use their best efforts to re-finance that debt on or before December 16, 2026. If a party is delinquent on this type of debt assigned to them, then the other party, by operation of law, is awarded the property associated with the debt and the new owner of the asset may pay off the debt.

27. NAME CHANGE. Emma will henceforth be known by the name of Emma Belle Kennedy.

28. ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS. Each party is ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action, except that the court will entertain a Rule 37(c) motion from Emma.

29. MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDER. Both parties are restrained from making disparaging or derogatory remarks to one another or to their minor children about one another or in the minor children's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from annoying, stalking, harming, harassing or threatening the other party. The parties will not enter the residence of the other party without permission from that party. Each party is restrained from posting any stories, pictures, statements about the other party on any social media sites. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this Decree of Divorce and will have the affirmative duty to use his/her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or will remove the minor children from such circumstances. As used in this paragraph, “disparage” and “derogatory” mean to say anything ill of the other whether they believe it to be true or not.
