Attorneys for Daniel Godines Venancio

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH COUNTY

STATE OF UTAH

137 North Freedom Blvd, Provo, UT 84601

In the matter of the marriage of: BLANCA ESTELA VARGAS ORTIZ Petitioner, and DANIEL GODINES VENANCIO, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 264401291 Judge Ryan Stack Commissioner Dustin Hardy

THIS MATTER comes before the above-referenced Court by way of Petitioner Blanca Estela Vargas Ortiz's Petition for Divorce, and the parties' Stipulation. The Court, having previously entered Its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. The bonds of matrimony and the marriage contract heretofore existing by and between the Petition and Respondent are hereby dissolved. The Court hereby grants this Decree of Divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, said Decree to become absolute and final upon entry by the Court in the Register of Actions.

2. Residency. The parties have been residents of Utah County for at least three months prior to the filing of this action.

3. Marriage Statistics. Daniel and Blanca were married on March 11, 2017, in Provo, Utah. The parties separated on or about January 21, 2026.

4. Grounds. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-4-405(1)(h), the parties have experienced significant disagreements regarding their marriage and future together. The marriage has irretrievably broken down due to irreconcilable differences.

CHILDREN

5. Children. Two children were born as issue of the marriage, only one remains a minor child, to wit: M.G., born February 2009.

CUSTODY/PARENTING PLAN

6. Custody/Parent Time. Blanca and Daniel will share joint legal custody of the minor child, with Blanca having physical custody of the minor child, subject to Daniel's rights to reasonable parent time, as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree, Daniel's reasonable right of parent time will be defined by U. C. A. §81-9-302.

a. Holidays. The parents will follow U.C.A. §81-9-302 for the holiday schedule. The following table illustrates the schedule:

1. Parenting Plan. The parties will adopt the Advisory Guidelines pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-202 as the binding Parenting Plan. In addition, the parties will be bound by the following parenting plan which is filed in good faith:

a. The parents will equally share the transportation for parent-time. The parent who is the receiving parent will provide the transportation unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.

b. The parent who has the child in his or her care may make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the child without having to consult with the other parent.

c. The parents will advise and consult with one another in good faith regarding the child's emotional and physical health and wellbeing, and all non-emergency medical, dental, and psychological treatment for the child, including the selection of professionals, treatments, and procedures. The parents shall advise and consult with one another in good faith regarding the child on all other major decisions for the child, such as education, religion, and disciplinary issues. Both parties will use their good faith best efforts to reach shared decisions for their child. If they reach an impasse, they shall mediate the issue with an agreed-upon neutral professional mediator and equally share the mediator's fees. Any agreements reached at mediation shall be reduced to writing, and a copy given to each parent. If the parties are unable to reach agreement through mediation, either party may seek court intervention for resolution of the disputed issue.

d. Each parent shall promote a healthy and positive relationship between the child and the other parent. The parents shall minimize the child's exposure to parental conflict. Child exchange times shall be without tension or contention for the child's benefit. The parents shall be courteous and respectful when exchanging the child and shall defer discussing any disputes until a time and place outside of the child's presence.

e. Educational Plan. In accordance with U.C.A. 81-9-203(11), the parents both have authority to make educational decisions for the child. Blanca will be designated as the residential parent for purposes of identifying the appropriate school for where the child will attend school. The parties will consult together and strive to reach joint educational decisions. If the parties cannot agree, they will attend mediation before seeking a court-imposed solution.

f. Both parties will have access to the child's school, church, and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The parties will provide each other with the names and telephone numbers of teachers and others who work with the minor child at school, medically, or otherwise so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these professionals.

g. The parents will notify each other of any special events involving the child such as school activities, church events, sports events, graduations, etc., so that each party will have the option of attending the special event if possible. For any event that is not posted online, each party will notify one another within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the child are participating or being honored, and both parties are entitled to attend and participate fully.

h. The parties will notify the other parent of major injury or illness as soon as reasonably possible involving the child.

i. Each parent shall be listed as the child's parent and emergency contact person on all school records, registration forms, medical records, and any other document with legal importance or other significance.

j. The parties will notify the other parent of any change of address, email address, cell phone number and telephone number within 24 hours of the change.

k. For emergency purposes, whenever the child travels overnight with either parent, all of the following will be provided to the other parent: (a) an itinerary of travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

l. Each parent will have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child are not available for a period of an overnight or longer during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and transportation.

m. The parties will work together in a reasonable manner to accommodate each other and to provide the child consistency and stability.

n. Special consideration should be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

o. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable, uncensored, and unmonitored communication between the other parent and the child.

p. Mutual Restraining Order. The parents shall be permanently restrained from making any derogatory remarks about the other parent to, or in the hearing of, the child. The parents shall also affirmatively restrain all third parties from making derogatory remarks regarding the other parent to, or in the hearing of, the child. The parents shall be enjoined from discussing this divorce matter, or other adult issues, with the child or in the child's presence. Because the child may have access to social media, each parent also shall not publish online negative comments about the other parent. Each parent will be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor child.

q. Resolution. Except for exigent circumstances or enforcement, the parties will participate in mediation prior to initiating litigation in the court.

CHILD SUPPORT

7. Child support. Daniel is not employed, but he agrees to be imputed income of $25 per hour, or $4,333 per month. Blanca is employed and earns approximately $2,773 per month. Using the child support worksheet, Father's child support obligation is $529 per month, commencing September 1, 2026.

a. Time and Method of Payment. Father will make said child support payments to Mother, one-half on or before the fifth day of each month and one-half on or before the twentieth day of each month. Mother is allowed to implement automatic income withholding procedures through the State of Utah, Office of Recovery Services.

CHILD CARE EXPENSES

8. Child Care Expenses. Due to the age of the child, childcare expenses are not expected, but if work-related childcare expenses are incurred, the parties will follow U.C.A. §81-6-209 for division of work-related childcare expenses.

INSURANCE

9. Medical/Dental Expenses. In accordance §81-6-208, the court will order that insurance for the medical expenses of the minor child be provided by a parent. Either parent shall provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of their minor child as defined by §81-6-208. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor child.

a. Each parent will share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child will be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. A parent may deduct the other parent's health insurance premium share from the child support obligation if they are the child support obligor and are paying the health insurance premiums as indicated herein.

b. Each parent will share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents.

c. The parent ordered to maintain insurance will provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2, of each calendar year, if there is a change in the previous coverage or provider. The parent will notify the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date he or she first knew or should have known of the change.

d. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses will provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party will be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child as indicated.

e. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with Subsection (d).

f. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Petitioner will be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Respondent will be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent will be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and will retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

g. Division of Accounts. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §15-4-6.7, the parties may elect that medical/dental or school expenses be divided by the service provider into two separate accounts for payment, one for each parent as long as the service provider receives a copy of the Decree of Divorce at or before the day on which the service provider first renders medical/dental services or issues a bill for school fees.

DEBTS

10. Debts. During the course of the marriage, the parties incurred certain marital debts and obligations, including debts and obligations associated with Alpine Stone. The debts and obligations identified below shall be allocated and paid as set forth herein. Those obligations designated as payable from the proceeds of the sale of the lot shall be paid from the funds currently being held in Daniel's attorney's trust account. Any obligation identified below as Daniel's responsibility shall be assumed and paid by Daniel, who shall indemnify and hold Blanca harmless from the same. The parties have taken the payment of these obligations, and their respective responsibilities for such obligations, into consideration in reaching the overall division of the marital estate and the property settlement set forth herein.

a. Joint Debt. Neither party shall incur any additional charges, debt, or other liability on any joint credit card, line of credit, bank account, or other joint account.

TAXES/TAX CREDIT

11. 2025 Taxes. The parties shall cooperate in the preparation and filing of their 2025 federal and state income tax returns. The parties understand that they owe approximately $26,524 in federal income taxes and $8,208 in Utah state income taxes for tax year 2025. The parties shall be equally responsible for these tax liabilities, which shall be paid from the funds currently being held in Daniel's attorney's trust account.

12. Child Tax Benefits. Beginning with tax year 2026, Father shall be entitled to claim the parties' minor child as a dependent in even-numbered tax years, and Mother shall be entitled to claim the child in odd-numbered tax years, for so long as the child remains eligible to be claimed as a dependent or otherwise qualifies a parent for child-related tax benefits under applicable federal or state tax law.

a. A party obligated to pay child support may claim a child as a dependent only if that party is current on all child support obligations as of December 31 of the applicable tax year.

ALIMONY

13. Alimony As part of the overall settlement and division of the marital estate set forth herein, Husband and Wife each knowingly waive and relinquish any right to receive alimony from the other, both now and in the future. The parties further acknowledge that each is capable of supporting himself or herself and, therefore, neither party shall be awarded alimony.

BUSINESS INTERESTS

14. Business Interests. During the marriage, the parties acquired an interest in a business known as Alpine Stone. Alpine Stone is no longer operating. Daniel is awarded all right, title, and interest in and to Alpine Stone, together with all remaining assets and equipment of the business, except as otherwise specifically provided herein. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, Daniel shall be responsible for all debts, liabilities, and obligations associated with Alpine Stone, whether known or unknown, and shall indemnify and hold Blanca harmless from any liability therefrom.

a. Daniel shall take all necessary steps to remove Blanca's name, Social Security number, and other personal identifying information from any remaining accounts, registrations, licenses, or other records associated with Alpine Stone to the extent such information may be removed or changed. Daniel shall not use Blanca's name, Social Security number, or other personal identifying information in connection with Alpine Stone or any other business activity in the future.

PROPERTY

15. Personal Property. The parties have divided their personal property to their mutual satisfaction, except that Daniel is awarded his personal effects and any gifts or personal keepsakes given to him by his children that may remain at the marital home or otherwise come into Blanca's possession. To the extent Blanca locates or discovers any such items, she shall give them to Daniel within fifteen (15) days of locating or discovering them.

16. Real Property. The parties own or formerly owned the following real property: (a) 54 N. 1000 W., Payson, Utah, which has been sold; and (b) the marital residence located at 287 S. 800 W., Payson, Utah. The parties' interests in these properties shall be divided as follows:

a. 54 N. 1000 W., Payson, Utah. The property located at 54 N. 1000 W., Payson, Utah has been sold, and the net sale proceeds of $284,414.33 are currently being held in Daniel's attorney's trust account at Moody Brown Law. Moody Brown Law shall disburse the funds from the trust account to pay the following obligations directly in the amounts set forth below:

Creditor	Approx. Balance
IRS – Federal income taxes for years 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023, and 2024	$54,905.61
2025 Federal income taxes	$26,524
2025 State income taxes (Utah State tax commission)	$8,208
2025 IRS Penalty	$418
2025 Worker's compensation (Utah State Tax Comm)	$1,251
2024 Property Taxes (marital home)	$2133
2025 Property Taxes (marital home)	$2,523
MS International	$16,663.10
Freeway Fencing	$6,691
Mountain Land Comm. Center Health	$406
Utah Pathology Services	$510

i. After payment of the obligations identified above, the remaining funds held in Daniel's attorney's trust account shall be distributed to Daniel as part of the overall property settlement set forth herein

b. 287 S. 800 W., Payson, Utah. Blanca is awarded the marital residence located at 287 S. 800 W., Payson, Utah, together with all equity therein, subject to Daniel's lien securing the property equalization payment of $121,911, as set forth in Paragraph 17 below. Daniel's interest in the marital residence has been taken into consideration in determining the property equalization payment, and no additional payment shall be due to Daniel for his interest in the residence.

17. Property Settlement. As part of the overall division of the marital estate and in consideration of the allocation of the parties' real property, personal property, business interests, debts, liabilities, and other property-related claims set forth herein, Blanca shall pay Daniel the sum of $121,911 as a property equalization payment. Blanca shall pay the property equalization payment in full no later than December 31, 2027.

a. The parties acknowledge that the amount of the property equalization payment was negotiated as part of the overall division of the marital estate and takes into consideration, among other things, the assets awarded to each party, the debts and liabilities assumed by each party, Daniel's assumption of the debts and liabilities associated with Alpine Stone, the distribution of the proceeds from the sale of the 54 N. 1000 W. property, and Blanca's award of the marital residence located at 287 S. 800 W., Payson, Utah.

b. Except for those assets, debts, liabilities, and obligations expressly addressed elsewhere herein, the payment of $121,911 constitutes a full and final settlement of the parties' respective claims relating to the division of the marital estate, including claims concerning real property, personal property, business interests, reimbursement, dissipation, and any other property-related or equitable claims arising from the marriage. Upon completion of the payments and transfers required herein, neither party shall have any further claim against the other arising from the division of the marital estate except as expressly provided herein.

c. Lien. To secure Blanca's obligation to pay the property equalization payment, Daniel shall have a first-position lien against the marital residence located at 287 S. 800 W., Payson, Utah, in the amount of $121,911. Blanca shall not encumber the property or permit any lien or encumbrance to obtain priority over Daniel's lien. The lien shall remain in effect until the property equalization payment has been paid in full. Upon payment in full, Daniel shall promptly take all steps necessary to release the lien.

d. Sale of Marital Residence. If Blanca has not paid the property equalization payment in full by December 31, 2027, the marital residence shall be listed for sale with a licensed real estate agent no later than January 15, 2028. Blanca shall be primarily responsible for coordinating the listing and sale of the residence; however, she shall act reasonably and in good faith to facilitate a timely sale of the property and shall not take any action, or fail to take any reasonable action, for the purpose of delaying or preventing the sale.

i. The residence shall be listed at a commercially reasonable price consistent with the recommendation of the listing agent and then-current market conditions. Blanca shall reasonably cooperate with the listing agent regarding showings, inspections, access to the property, recommended price adjustments, and other reasonable measures necessary to market and sell the residence. Blanca shall give reasonable consideration to all bona fide offers and shall not unreasonably reject an offer consistent with the property's fair market value and the recommendation of the listing agent.

ii. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to facilitate the sale of the residence. All communications between the parties concerning the listing and sale of the residence shall occur through their adult son, and neither party shall be required to communicate directly with the other regarding the sale. Through their adult son, Blanca shall keep Daniel reasonably informed regarding the sale, including the identity and contact information of the listing agent, the listing price and any changes thereto, offers received, and the anticipated closing date.

e. Payment Upon Sale. Upon the sale of the marital residence, the sum of $121,911, less any amounts previously paid by Blanca toward the property equalization payment, shall be paid directly to Daniel from the sale proceeds at closing in full satisfaction of the property equalization payment. The remaining net sale proceeds shall be awarded to Blanca.

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

18. Bank/Financial Accounts. During the marriage, the parties acquired various joint and separate bank and financial accounts. Each party shall be awarded, as his or her sole and separate property, all bank and financial accounts held solely in that party's name. Any funds remaining in jointly held bank or financial accounts shall be equally divided between the parties, and all joint accounts shall be closed within ten (10) days after execution of the Stipulation.

19. Retirement. Daniel and Blanca each represent that they do not presently have any retirement, pension, 401(k), IRA, or other retirement-type accounts. To the extent either party has any such account or benefit, whether presently known or later discovered, each party is awarded any retirement or retirement-related account or benefit held in his or her own name, free and clear of any claim by the other.

DISSIPATION OF MARITAL ASSETS

20. Resolution of Dissipation and Reimbursement Claims. As part of the parties' overall negotiated division of the marital estate, the parties have taken into consideration and fully resolved all claims asserted by either party concerning the use, withdrawal, receipt, expenditure, transfer, sale, or alleged dissipation of marital funds or assets during the marriage and separation.

a. The parties acknowledge that these disputed funds, expenditures, and claims have been considered in determining the overall division of the marital estate and the property equalization payment provided herein. Accordingly, upon performance of the property division set forth herein, each party waives and releases any further claim against the other for reimbursement, credit, offset, dissipation, waste, depletion, or other equitable adjustment arising from the receipt, possession, use, expenditure, transfer, or disposition of marital funds or property occurring prior to the execution of the Stipulation, except for obligations expressly preserved or imposed by the Stipulation.

MUTUAL RESTRAINTS

21. Each party is restrained from speaking derogatorily about the other parent or speaking to the child about the issues in this case, or from attempting to influence the child's preference regarding custody or parent time which would tend to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent.

22. Neither party will directly or indirectly attempt to influence the child's preferences regarding custody or parent-time, interfere with or undermine the child's relationship with the other parent, or engage in conduct intended or reasonably likely to diminish the child's love, affection, or respect for the other parent.

23. The parties shall further be restrained from encouraging, permitting, or allowing any third party, including family members, significant others, or friends, to engage in conduct prohibited by this section. Each party shall use his or her best efforts to prevent such conduct and shall promptly remove the child from any such situation if it occurs.

24. Neither party shall interfere with, obstruct, discourage, or unreasonably withhold the other parent's court-ordered or agreed-upon parent-time, nor shall either party encourage or permit the minor child to refuse or avoid contact with the other parent. Each parent shall take all reasonable steps to encourage the child to maintain a healthy, loving, and meaningful relationship with the other parent and to comply with the Court's parent-time orders.

25. Neither party shall use the other's name, likeness, photograph, identity, Social Security number, financial information, credit, or other identifying information for any unauthorized purpose, including obtaining credit, opening accounts, or acquiring goods or services. The parties shall further be restrained from posting, publishing, or causing to be published on any social media platform or other public forum any disparaging comments, photographs, videos, recordings, or information concerning the other party or this divorce proceeding that would reasonably be expected to embarrass, harass, intimidate, or interfere with these proceedings or the parties' co-parenting relationship

1. Contact and communication between the parties will preferably be in writing, either by text message or email, except for medical emergencies; which may be and should be communicated via telephone immediately.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

2. Attorney's Fees and Costs. Each of the parties is ordered to assume and pay their own attorney fees and costs incurred in this action.

3. Both parties will sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

4. Resolution. Except for exigent circumstances or enforcement, the parties will participate in mediation prior to initiating litigation in the court.

5. Arrearages. This resolves all claims either party has against the other including but not limited to past alimony, child support, daycare expenses, out-of-pocket medical expenses, out-of-pocket medical premiums, and any other financial claims through the date of the signing of the Stipulation.

6. The Stipulation of the parties became effective when signed by all parties.
