12. There will be curbside transfers. The parent/person dropping-off or picking-up a child will remain in the vehicle and the other parent/person will remain in the residence, building, or other vehicle where that other parent/person has been waiting, so that the two parents/persons are never in each other's physical presence.

Decision-making

13. Each parent will make day-to-day decisions for the children during the time they are caring for the children. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children. A parent who makes an emergency decision must share the decision with the other parent as soon as reasonably possible.

Joint decision-making. The parents will share responsibility for making major decisions about the children. If there is a disagreement, the parents will resolve the dispute as provided in the Resolving disputes section below.

Education plan

14. The school the children will attend is based on a specific plan for where the children will attend school: The children (Ivory, Letti and Paul Kiki) will attend Provo Peak Elementary School, Centennial Middle School, and Timpview High School. The school may contact either parent during school hours, and the children can have access to either parent during school hours as needed. If both parents relocate outside of said district, the parties shall confer and agree on a new school placement. or seek court determination if no agreement is reached. .

15. Angela Jane Kiki and Rostand B Kiki has authority to check the children out of school. Angela Jane Kiki and Rostand B Kiki has access to the children during school. If the parents cannot agree, education decisions will be made by Rostand B Kiki.

Communication with each other

16. Parents will communicate with each other by any method.

Communication with the children

17. The parents agree they will:

- provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.
- give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.

18. Parents and children may communicate with each other whenever the children choose.

- In person
- By telephone

  Parents will maintain voice mail so the children can leave and receive messages.

- By text

19. Other terms about communication with the children: video chat like FaceTime

Records and information sharing

20. Both parents will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care, and health care.

Travel by the children

21. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others.

22. If the children will be travelling for more than 7 days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 15 days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 7 days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.

Child care

23. A child care provider for our children must be:

A relative, friend, or neighbor.
Over the age of 16.

Relocation of a parent

24. Neither parent may relocate with the minor children more than 20 miles from their current residence without a written agreement signed by the parties or further court order.

25. Other terms about relocating: The children won't change school with the relocation of either parent. Unless mutually agreed upon by both parents.

26. If either parent lives 150 miles or more away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be paid by the parent who moved.

27. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

28. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Resolving disputes

29. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will go to the following before bringing the issue to the court:

a. Mediation

Changing the plan

This plan remains in effect until changed. A change comes from a modification of a court order.

30. A joint physical custody arrangement may result in denial of cash assistance under the Employment Support Act, Title 35A, Chapter 3, of the Utah Code.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Income: Petitioner (Angela Jane Kiki) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

31. Angela Jane Kiki's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $1257. Angela Jane Kiki receives the following gross monthly income:

a. Angela Jane Kiki has no recent work history. The court should consider Angela Jane Kiki's wage to be the federal minimum wage of $7.25 an hour. This is a gross monthly income of $1257. (Utah Code 81-6-203(6)(c) and (d))

32. The adjusted gross monthly income for Angela Jane Kiki is $1257.

Income: Respondent (Rostand B Kiki) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

33. Rostand B Kiki's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $4704. Rostand B Kiki receives the following gross monthly income:

a. Rostand B Kiki is employed at DoTerra. Rostand B Kiki earns $4704.17 gross (pre-tax) monthly income working a 40-hour a week job or less.

34. The adjusted gross monthly income for Rostand B Kiki is $4704.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

35. Angela Jane Kiki believes the guideline amount for child support is unjust, inappropriate, or not in the best interest of our children for the following reasons:

The reason(s) for deviation are We came to an amicable agreement..

36. It is in the best interest of the children that Rostand B Kiki be ordered to pay child support to Angela Jane Kiki as follows:

a. $900.00 per month. This deviates from the Utah Uniform Child Support Guidelines.

b. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child ends when:

- a child turns 18 or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or
- a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the United States armed forces, or is emancipated (Utah Code 78A-6-801).

37. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

38. The person ordered to receive child support can request mandatory income withholding (Utah Code 62A-11 parts 4 and 5). If support is past due, the State of Utah may take federal or state tax refunds or rebates and apply the amounts to the child support owed.

a. Withheld income will be sent to the Office of Recovery Services (ORS) until all past-due support is paid. Child support payments will be sent to:

150 East Center Street, Suite 2100 Provo, Utah 84606

unless ORS gives notice that payments should be sent elsewhere.

39. If ORS begins mandatory income withholding, child support is due on the first day of each month and will be past due on the first day of the next month.

40. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

41. Angela Jane Kiki and Rostand B Kiki will each pay half of any ORS fee.

a. If a fee is withheld from payments to Angela Jane Kiki, Rostand B Kiki will reimburse Angela Jane Kiki for half the fee.

42. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

43. The Office of Recovery Services (https://ors.utah.gov/) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

Dependent children for tax purposes

44. The parents may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes as follows:

45. Angela Jane Kiki may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes in odd numbered years. Rostand B Kiki may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes in even numbered years.

Child health care (Utah Code 81-6-208)

46. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Heath care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

47. Rostand B Kiki must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:

- Rostand B Kiki's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Angela Jane Kiki's insurance will be secondary coverage.

b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:

- Rostand B Kiki's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Angela Jane Kiki's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.

c. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.

d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.

e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.

f. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

g. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.

h. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 81-6-209)

48. Both parties will equally share all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses.

a. The party who pays child care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider. This must be done when a provider is first hired, and any time the other party asks for the information. The party incurring or paying child care expenses must notify the other party of any change of a child care provider or monthly expense. This must be done within 30 calendar days of the change.

b. The party not directly paying for child care must pay their share of child care expenses as soon as they receive verification of the expenses.

c. If a party does not follow the order and provide written verification, they may not receive credit for work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

Public assistance statement – Office of Recovery Services (ORS) (Utah Code 81-6-106(2)-(3))

49. Neither party has received or is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah.

Additional Provision: Parental Conduct and Child Care Provisions 1. Sleeping Arrangements Each child shall be provided with their own bed. Children may share a bedroom only with a full biological sibling. No child shall be required to share a bedroom with an unrelated adult. This provision shall apply in both parents' households, including when a parent resides with a new partner. ——— 2. Right of First Refusal Each parent shall have the right of first refusal in the event they are unable to personally care for the children during their scheduled parenting time. If a parent anticipates being unavailable for a period of two (4) consecutive hours or longer, that parent shall provide reasonable notice to the other parent and offer them the opportunity to care for the children before arranging for any third-party caregiver. For purposes of this provision, a step-parent, romantic partner, or any other adult shall be considered a third-party caregiver. The parent receiving the offer shall respond within a reasonable period of time, not to exceed four (4) hours. If the parent declines or fails to respond within that time, the offering parent may make alternative childcare arrangements. If the other parent exercises the right of first refusal for a period of four (4) consecutive hours or longer, the children shall remain in that parent's care for the duration of the absence. If such period extends into the children's normal sleeping hours, (8:30pm-7:am) the children shall remain overnight, and shall be returned at the start of the next scheduled parenting time unless otherwise agreed in writing. For purposes of this section, "overnight" shall mean any period in which the children are in the care of a parent during their customary sleeping hours. ——— 3. Introduction of Romantic Partners In order to promote the emotional well-being of the children and avoid premature attachments, neither parent shall introduce the children to a romantic partner unless the parent has been in a committed, exclusive relationship with that individual. Prior to such introduction, the romantic partner shall not stay overnight in the presence of the children. Each parent shall provide the other parent with reasonable advanced notice prior to introducing the children to a romantic partner. ——— 4. Children's Activities and Related Expenses Each child shall be permitted to participate in up to two (2) extracurricular activities per calendar year, provided the activity is mutually agreed upon by both parents in advance, which agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld. The parents shall equally share (50/50) all reasonable costs associated with such activities, including but not limited to registration fees, uniforms, equipment, lessons, and participation expenses. In addition, the parents shall equally share (50/50) the costs of the children's ongoing personal and recreational expenses, including gym memberships or passes, swimming passes or lessons, school fees and required school-related expenses, routine haircuts/barber services for Paul, and hair braiding or comparable hair care services for the girls. Unless otherwise agreed, the parent incurring the expense shall provide proof of payment to the other parent, and reimbursement shall be made within 7 days of receipt of documentation. 5. General Enforcement The parties shall act in good faith in complying with the provisions set forth herein. Repeated or willful violations of these provisions may be considered a material breach of the parenting plan and may be addressed by the court upon proper motion.

Duty to sign documents

58. The parties will sign all documents necessary to comply with the divorce decree within 60 days from entry of the decree. If a party fails to sign a document within 60 days, the other party may ask the court to appoint someone to sign the document. (Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 70)
