Counsel for Brett Cragun

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
137 N. Freedom Boulevard, Provo, Utah 84601

In the matter of the marriage of BRETT CRAGUN and SOLANA RENAE CRAGUN	DIVORCE DECREE Case No. 264402827 Judge Tony F Graf Jr Commissioner Marian Ito

IN THIS MATTER, the parties have signed a Stipulation for Divorce consenting to the entry of a Decree of Divorce consistent with the terms set forth in the Stipulation. The Court, having reviewed the pleadings and the Stipulation for Divorce, finds that the Court has jurisdiction to enter a Decree of Divorce. The Court, having found and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and being otherwise fully advised, and for good cause appearing, it is hereby ORDERED ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that:

The parties are granted a divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-4-405(1)(h).

1. Residency. Petitioner and Respondent are both bona fide residents of Utah County, State of Utah, and have been for more than three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

2. Marriage Information. Petitioner and Respondent were married on April 24, 2010 in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and are presently married. The parties separated in or around August 28, 2026.

3. Grounds. The parties have experienced irreconcilable differences in their marriage and there is no chance of reconciliation. The parties request that this Court order that the marriage be dissolved.

4. Children. The parties have two (2) children born or adopted of this marriage, all of whom are minors, to wit:

a. A.C.C., born in May of 2014; and

b. J.L.C., born in November of 2016.

5. Pursuant to Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 100(a), there are no proceedings involving custody, criminal, protective orders, or delinquency involving the above-named minor children in juvenile court or any other venue.

6. Jurisdiction. Utah has jurisdiction to make child custody and parent-time determinations pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-11 et seq. (1953 as amended), in that Utah is the home state of the minor children at the time of commencement of this proceeding.

7. Safety Plan. As the safety of the minor children is of utmost importance to both Mother and Father, the parties agree to the following safety plan:

a. Psychological Evaluation – Father and Mother. As soon as practicable, but in no event later than ninety (90) days following this Stipulation, Mother and Father shall each receive a psychological evaluation with parenting component from a licensed psychologist qualified to perform such an evaluation. Each party shall provide the other a copy of the evaluation report, including any included recommendations. Both parties shall follow any recommendations set forth in the evaluation report.

b. Completion of IOP – Mother. Mother is currently undergoing an intensive outpatient program ("IOP"). Mother shall complete this IOP and shall enroll in and successfully complete any future IOP that may be recommended by her treating physician, psychiatrist, or therapist. Mother shall follow any recommendations from her IOP.

c. Therapy – Mother. Mother is currently receiving therapy for her mental and emotional health and well-being. Mother shall continue to attend her therapy sessions and follow all recommendations of her therapist as to frequency of sessions and duration of therapy.

d. Psychiatric Care – Mother. Mother is currently under the care of a psychiatrist. Mother shall continue to see this psychiatrist and to follow this provider's recommendations as to medications, dosages, and other matters.

e. Driving Plan – Mother. Mother's primary care physician has prohibited Mother from operating a motor vehicle due to the risk of seizures and other potential health issues. Mother shall not operate any motor vehicle in which the children are passengers unless and until Mother's physician lifts the prohibition and certifies that she is fit to operate such a vehicle.

f. Notice to the Other Parent – Mother and Father. If either Mother or Father are unable to provide physical care for the children due to physical, mental, or emotional conditions of that parent which would endanger the children, that parent shall immediately notify the other parent. If the parent experiencing the physical, mental, or emotional condition which renders him or her unable to care for the children is unable to notify the other parent, the children may so notify him or her, and the other parent shall be entitled to pick the children up until such time as the physical, mental, or emotional condition of the suffering parent is resolved. Having a third party in the party's home is not a sufficient reason to withhold notice of the party's condition.

g. Return to Supervision. If, at any time, Mother is hospitalized for a suicide attempt, suicidal ideation, or self-harm, Mother's parent time shall return to Phase One as set forth in Paragraph 9(a). Mother shall thereafter go through the ramp up period set forth in Paragraph 9 and fulfill all conditions as set forth therein. This provision shall remain in force regardless of Mother's custody or parent time status.

8. Legal Custody. Each of the parties being fit and proper persons, the parties shall have joint legal custody of the minor children.

a. The parties shall discuss all major decisions concerning the children including their health, education, and general welfare, daycare, medical and dental treatment, and therapy.

b. To accomplish this, the parties shall use the following decision-making procedure: (1) Identify the issue; (2) Meaningfully discuss possible solutions and respond to any inquiries within twenty-four (24) hours; (3) Consult with any applicable and available experts in the relevant area of dispute ; and (4) Choose the most sensible solution that considers the needs and interests of everyone involved. (5) If the parties reach an impasse, they shall attend mediation to try to resolve the issue.

c. If the parties do not resolve the issue in mediation, either party may seek Court review and intervention.

d. The parties agree that the children shall continue to be raised within The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The following shall apply:

i. During Father's parent time, the children shall attend church activities and Sunday services in Father's home ward.

ii. During Mother's parent time, the children may choose whether to attend with Father or Mother.

iii. The parties shall ensure that the children attend an English speaking ward (not a Spanish speaking or bilingual ward), and that both parents know the name of the ward in which the other shall be attending with the children.

iv. Any ordinance involving the children shall be performed in Father's ward.

v. The children shall be interviewed for temple recommends by Father's bishop.

e. Unless the parties agree otherwise, Father shall be deemed the residential parent for school zoning purposes.

9. Physical Custody and Parent Time. Father is initially awarded sole physical custody of the minor children, subject to an increase in Mother's parent time and a change to joint physical custody as set forth herein. Parent time shall be as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, Mother's parent time shall be as follows:

a. Phase One. Beginning immediately, Mother's parent time shall be as follows:

i. Mother's parent time during Phase One shall be supervised by her mother, father, sister, or other responsible adult approved by Father.

ii. Mother shall have the minor children on alternating weekends. Weekend parent time shall begin Friday at 5:00 p.m. Parent time shall end Saturday night at 6:00 p.m.

iii. In addition, Mother shall have the minor children every week for a mid-week visit. Mother shall have the children every Thursday beginning at 5:00 p.m. and ending at 8:00 p.m.

iv. Unless the parties agree otherwise, Mother's Phase One parent time shall be pursuant to the following schedule:

A. Mother is currently under the primary care physician's care;

B. Mother is following all recommendations of the primary care physican as to frequency of appointments, following prescriptions, and other matters; and

C. That Mother is fit and prepared to increase her parent time from supervised to unsupervised as contemplated in this Stipulation.

c. Phase Two. Beginning upon completion by Mother of all conditions set forth in Paragraph 9(b), Mother's parent time shall be pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302, as follows:

i. Mother shall have the minor children on alternating weekends. Weekend parent time shall begin Friday at the end of Mother's workday, or the end of school (if the children are in school). Parent time shall end Sunday night at 8:00 p.m. If the children are not in school and Mother is available to be with the minor children, Mother may pick the children up Friday beginning at 8 a.m.

ii. In addition, Mother shall have the minor children every week for a mid-week visit. Mother shall have the children every Thursday beginning at the end of school (if the children are in school), or 8:00 a.m. if school is not in session and Mother is available to provide personal care for the children, until 8:00 p.m.

iii. Unless the parties agree otherwise, Mother's Phase Two parent time shall be pursuant to the following schedule:

Week	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1	Father	Father	Father	Father	Mother visit, Father overnight	Mother	Mother
2	Father	Father	Father	Father	Mother visit, Father overnight	Father	Father

d. Conditions to Commence Phase Three. In order for Mother's parent time to leave Phase Two and transition to Phase Three, all of the following must occur:

i. At least four (4) months must have passed with Mother successfully exercising her parent time under Phase Two.

ii. Mother must continue to be following all recommendations contained in the psychological evaluation report.

iii. Mother must provide a letter from her therapist evidencing that:

A. Mother is currently under the therapist's care;

B. Mother is following all recommendations of the therapist as to frequency of sessions and attendance at those sessions; and

C. That Mother is fit and prepared to increase her parent time as contemplated in this Stipulation.

iv. Mother must provide a letter from her psychiatrist evidencing that:

A. Mother is currently under the psychiatrist's care;

B. Mother is following all recommendations of the psychiatrist as to frequency of appointments, following prescriptions, and other matters; and

C. That Mother is fit and prepared to increase her parent time as contemplated in this Stipulation.

v. Mother must provide a letter from her primary care physician evidencing that:

A. Mother is currently under the primary care physician's care;

B. Mother is following all recommendations of the primary care physician as to frequency of appointments, following prescriptions, and other matters; and

C. That Mother is fit and prepared to increase her parent time as contemplated in this Stipulation.

e. Phase Three. Beginning upon completion by Mother of all conditions set forth in Paragraph 9(d), Mother's parent time shall be pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-303, as follows:

i. Upon Mother's successful completion of Phase Two and commencement of Phase Three, the parties shall be awarded joint physical custody of the minor children. Parent time shall be as set forth in this Paragraph 9.

ii. Mother shall have the minor children on alternating weekends. Weekend parent time shall begin Friday at the end of Mother's workday, or the end of school (if the children are in school). Parent time shall end Monday morning at the beginning of school, or 8:00 a.m. if school is not in session. If the children are not in school and Mother is available to be with the minor children, Mother may pick the children up Friday beginning at 8 a.m.

iii. In addition, Mother shall have the minor children every week for a mid-week overnight. Mother shall have the children every Thursday beginning at the end of school (if the children are in school), or 8:00 a.m. if school is not in session and Mother is available to provide personal care for the children, until Friday morning school drop off (if the children are in school) or 8:00 a.m. (if the children are not in school).

iv. Unless the parties agree otherwise, Mother's Phase Three parent time shall be pursuant to the following schedule:

Week	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1	Father	Father	Father	Father	Mother	Mother	Mother
2	Mother	Father	Father	Father	Mother	Father	Father

f. Conditions to Commence Phase Four. In order for Mother's parent time to leave Phase Three and transition to Phase Four, all of the following must occur:

i. At least one (1) year must have passed with Mother successfully exercising her parent time under Phase Three.

ii. Mother must continue to be following all recommendations contained in the psychological evaluation report.

iii. Mother must provide a letter from her therapist evidencing that:

A. Mother is currently under the therapist's care;

B. Mother is following all recommendations of the therapist as to frequency of sessions and attendance at those sessions; and

C. That Mother is fit and prepared to increase her parent time as contemplated in this Stipulation.

iv. Mother must provide a letter from her psychiatrist evidencing that:

A. Mother is currently under the psychiatrist's care;

B. Mother is following all recommendations of the psychiatrist as to frequency of appointments, following prescriptions, and other matters; and

C. That Mother is fit and prepared to increase her parent time as contemplated in this Stipulation.

v. Mother must provide a letter from her primary care physician evidencing that:

A. Mother is currently under the primary care physician's care;

B. Mother is following all recommendations of the primary care physician as to frequency of appointments, following prescriptions, and other matters; and

C. That Mother is fit and prepared to increase her parent time as contemplated in this Stipulation.

g. Phase Four. Beginning upon completion by Mother of all conditions set forth in Paragraph 9(f), parent time shall be pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-305, as follows:

i. Each parent shall have the minor children on alternating weekends. Weekend parent time shall begin Friday at the end of school (if the children are in school). Parent time shall end Monday morning at the beginning of school, or 8:00 a.m. if school is not in session. If the children are not in school and the parent beginning weekend parent time is available to be with the minor children, that parent may pick the children up Friday beginning at 8 a.m.

ii. Father shall have the children every week beginning Monday at the end of school (if the children are in school), or 8:00 a.m. (if school is not in session), until Wednesday morning school drop off (if the children are in school) or 8:00 a.m. (if the children are not in school).

iii. Mother shall have the children every week beginning Wednesday at the end of school (if the children are in school), or 8:00 a.m. (if school is not in session), until Friday morning school drop off (if the children are in school) or 8:00 a.m. (if the children are not in school).

iv. Unless the parties agree otherwise, Phase Four parent time shall be pursuant to the following schedule:

Week	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1	Father	Father	Father	Mother	Mother	Mother	Mother
2	Mother	Father	Father	Mother	Mother	Father	Father

h. Sunday Nights. Notwithstanding anything else set forth in this Paragraph 9, Mother shall have the minor children on the second Sunday of each month from 3:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m., and Father shall have the minor children on the third Sunday of each month from 3:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. Sunday exchanges on the second or third Sunday of each month shall be at 8:00 p.m.

10. Transportation. Exchanges shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, the following shall apply:

a. Mother shall provide all transportation for her mid-week visits under Phase One, Phase Two, and Phase Three as set forth in Paragraph 9.

b. While Father resides in Eagle Mountain, exchanges for all weekend and holiday parent time shall be at a location to be determined by the parties mid-way between Mother's residence and the marital home.

c. Once Father relocates to Kaysville, which the parties agree shall be no later than January 1, 2027, the receiving parent shall pick up the minor children from the other party's residence.

d. School-to-school exchanges shall be utilized when possible. When they are not possible, exchanges shall be curbside and at the parties' respective residences.

e. Both parties shall be civil and shall avoid confrontation during parent exchanges. The parties shall ensure that any third parties (including spouses, other children, extended family members, etc.) are civil and avoid confrontation during parent exchanges.

f. A spouse, grandparent, or other responsible third party known to the minor children and approved by both parties may pick up or drop off the minor children for exchanges.

11. Holiday Parent Time. Holiday parent time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, holiday parent time shall be based upon Utah Code Ann. §81-9-303, as set forth herein:

a. At any time when Mother's parent time is in Phase One as set forth in Paragraph 9(a), Mother shall only be entitled to one overnight visit during her assigned holidays. The remainder of her assigned holidays shall be day visits only.

b. For 2026, Mother shall have the children for the Halloween holiday. This may be an overnight visit.

c. The parties have chosen to remove Juneteenth from their holiday parent time calendar.

d. Regardless of which parent has the first or second half of Winter Break, the parties agree that Father shall have minor children from 8:00 a.m. every December 24 until 8:00 a.m. December 25, and Mother shall have the minor children from 8:00 a.m. every December 25 until 8:00 a.m. December 26.

e. The parties will follow the calendar of the school district in which the children are enrolled for holidays related to school breaks.

f. Holiday parent time shall take precedence over regular parent time, and both parties shall be restrained from interrupting the other's holiday parent time.

g. If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the parent exercising parent-time shall be responsible for the children's attendance at school for that school day.

h. If there is more than one child and the children's school schedules vary for purpose of a holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday or the parent's half of the holiday, the children may remain together for the holiday period beginning the first evening that all children's schools are dismissed for the holiday and ending the evening before any child returns to school.

i. If a conflict arises in the parent-time schedule, the following order of precedence shall be applied when determining which parent is entitled to parent-time:

    i. the holiday schedule for Mother's Day or Father's Day;

    ii. the holiday schedule for the child's birthday, unless a parent is exercising uninterrupted extended parent-time and takes the child away from that parent's residence during the uninterrupted extended parent-time;

iii. the holiday schedule for any holiday that is not Mother's Day, Father's Day, or the child's birthday;

iv. extended parent-time; and

v. the schedule for weekday or weekend parent-time.

j. A parent exercising parent-time for a child's birthday may bring other siblings along for the child's birthday.

k. Unless the parties agree otherwise, holiday parent time shall be according to the following modified schedule:

13. Summer Parent Time. Summer extended parent time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, summer parent time shall be as follows:

a. Each parent shall be entitled to two (2) weeks of uninterrupted summer extended parent time. In addition, while Mother's parent time is in Phase Two or Phase Three as set forth in Paragraph 9, Mother shall be entitled to an additional two (2) weeks of summer extended parent time.

b. Mother's four (4) weeks of summer parent time shall be taken in two (2) blocks of two (2) weeks each, separated by a block of not fewer than two (2) weeks.

c. Each parent shall provide notice of their intended extended summer parent time. During odd-numbered years, Father shall have first option and shall provide notice of his intended extended summer parent time by April 1 and Mother shall provide notice of her intended extended summer parent time by April 15. During even-numbered years, Mother shall have first option and shall provide notice of her intended extended summer parent time by April 1 and Father shall provide notice of his intended extended summer parent time by April 15.

d. If a parent fails to provide notice as set forth herein within the applicable time period, the non-complying parent loses their priority and the complying parent may schedule their own extended summer parent time.

14. Virtual Parent Time. Each party may have reasonable and uncensored phone contact with the children while they are with the other parent, as follows:

a. The children may call or text either parent at any reasonable time.

b. Both parties shall be supportive of virtual parent time with the other parent.

c. Neither party shall use virtual parent time as a means of manipulating or otherwise trying to coerce the children's behavior in any way.

d. Either party will be entitled to initiate a phone or video call with the children twice per week, on Sunday at 9:00 p.m. and Wednesday at 9:00 p.m.

15. Right of First Refusal. Parental care is presumed to be better than surrogate care. Each party shall have first option to provide care for the minor child over any other third party (i.e., surrogate care) if the parent responsible for the minor child is not available for a period of overnight or longer during parent time, and the other parent shall be entitled to parent-time if that parent is personally available and willing to provide direct care and transportation. The parent exercising parent time under the right of first refusal shall (a) provide all transportation to and from parent time and (b) provide direct parental care.

16. School Fees; Extracurricular Expenses. Although the parties are equally responsible for the children's school fees and extracurricular expenses, Father has agreed to pay for these expenses as follows:

a. Father shall pay all mandatory school fees, not including private school tuition and fees.

b. Father shall pay any extracurricular activities that are agreed upon in writing by both parties. Neither party may obligate a child to an unapproved extracurricular activity which infringes on the parent time of the other parent.

c. If a party does not consent to an extracurricular activity, that party is not required to pay any of the cost of that activity and is not required to take the child to activity events; however, the other parent may still enroll the child in the extracurricular activity for the child to participate in during the enrolling parent’s parent time.

d. Each party shall, during their respective parent time, ensure that the children get to and from their agreed-upon activities, practices, games, etc.

17. Parenting Plan. The parties shall adopt the Advisory Guidelines pursuant to Utah Code

Ann. §81-9-202 unless otherwise stated herein. In addition, the parties shall adopt the guidelines as follows:

a. Both parties shall have access to the children's educational, church, and other records and shall include the other party as the parent on such records. The parties shall notify one another within twenty-four (24) hours of receiving notice of all significant social, sports, and community functions in which the children are participating or being honored, and both parties shall be entitled to attend and participate fully;

b. The parties shall use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other, whenever necessary, to convey information regarding the children's schoolwork, school schedule, medical and dental treatment, counseling, emotional needs, accomplishments, and other information appropriate to share with the other parent;

c. The parties shall notify the other parent of major injury or illness involving the children as soon as reasonably possible;

d. The parties shall provide each other with the names and telephone numbers of teachers, coaches, and others who work with the minor children at school, medically, or otherwise, and shall encourage such teachers, coaches, and others to add both parents to email and communication lists, so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these professionals;

e. The parties shall share information relating to doctor or dentist appointments, sports, special lessons, new skills, new language development, discipline challenges, etc., regarding their minor children;

f. The parties shall notify the other parent of any change of address, email address, cell phone number, and telephone number within twenty-four (24) hours of the change;

g. The parent who has the children in his or her care may make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the children without having to consult with the other parent;

h. For emergency purposes, whenever the children travel with either parent overnight or longer, the following shall be provided to the other parent prior to departure: (1) an itinerary of travel dates; (2) destinations; (3) places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and (4) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location;

i. Before leaving the United States with the children, the parent taking the minor children will give the other parent at least thirty (30) days' notice. The parties shall cooperate in obtaining passports for the minor children. Father shall pay the costs associated with obtaining the passports. Father shall keep the passports in his possession, but shall make them available to Mother in the event Mother desires to travel with the minor children outside the United States and requests them;

j. The parties shall work together in a reasonable manner to accommodate each other and to provide the children consistency and stability;

k. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule;

l. The parties shall not put the children in the middle. The parties shall not discuss case-related adult issues including any legal or financial-related issues with the children pertaining to this legal matter;

m. The minor children shall not be used as messengers;

n. The parties shall maintain safe and appropriate sleeping and living accommodations for the children. Each child shall have their own bed when staying with either parent;

o. Neither parent shall question the minor children about the other parent's activities, personal relationships, or how the other parent spends his/her time or money. Each parent shall be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor children;

p. The party with the minor children in his/her care shall be responsible for ensuring the minor children's homework is complete and transporting the minor children to and from school on time; and

q. Communication regarding the minor children shall be directly between the parents and shall not involve third parties;

r. Communication between the parties shall solely be about the minor child or implementation of the provisions of this Stipulation. All non-emergency communication shall be in writing, through Our Family Wizard. Emergency communication may be through text message;

s. Within seven (7) days of this Stipulation, each party shall establish their own O.F.W. account. Thereafter, O.F.W. shall be utilized for all non-emergency communications, calendaring, sharing medical and day care bills, and any other child-related communication between the parties. Father shall be responsible to pay all costs for both accounts;

t. Neither party shall consume illegal drugs, misuse prescription drugs, or consume alcohol to excess during their respective parent time, nor will they allow other third parties to violate this provision in the presence of the children;

u. If either party chooses to own firearms, they shall be secured in a locked gun safe or cabinet at any time when the children are in that party's home;

v. Neither party shall introduce the children to a romantic partner unless the relationship has been committed and exclusive for not fewer than six (6) months. Neither party shall have unrelated overnight guests during that party's parent time.

18. Mutual Restraining Order. The parties stipulate and agree to the following mutual restraining order:

a. Both parties shall be restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the children's love and affection for the other parent, including, but not limited to, name calling, speaking derogatorily about the other parent online or in front of the children or speaking to the children about the issues in this case, or from attempting to influence the children's preferences regarding custody or visitation.

b. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes the children's best interest.

c. Both parties shall be restrained from discussing divorce issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties shall also be restrained from discussing the children's relationships with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the children for information. Neither party shall request or encourage the children to hold back information from the other party which shall otherwise be divulged to the other party by the other parent.

d. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party. This includes: (i) an unreasonable number of texts, emails, phone calls, or other contact between one parent and the other at any time; or (ii) unreasonable contact between parent and children during the other parent's parenting time.

e. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do in front of the children what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this section and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the children from such circumstances.

f. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing, both parties shall be mutually restrained from going to the residence of the other party, except for child pickup or drop-offs.

g. Neither party shall use the other party's likeness, picture, name, or identification to denigrate or criticize the other party on any social media platform. If such denigration or criticism has already occurred, the party placing such items on social media shall remove such postings immediately.

h. Neither party shall use the other party's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit of the other party to obtain credit, open an account for any service, or obtain any other service.

i. The parties shall not post any pictures of the minor children on any public social media accounts. Posting for private Facebook social media shall be permissible. The children's private, identifying information shall not be posted on any social media. The children shall not be included in any TikTok videos.

19. Child Support. Child support shall be based on Utah Child Support Guidelines and the Child Support Worksheet(s) attached hereto. For purposes of this Stipulation, the parties have agreed to Father's monthly gross income as $7,326 and Mother's monthly gross income as $0. Mother's monthly child support obligation under the guidelines for two (2) minor children under parent time and custody Phases One, Two, and Three is established as $0.

a. As Father is assuming all responsibility for school fees, agreed extracurricular costs, medical insurance, medical out-of-pockets, and other costs as set forth in this Stipulation, the parties agree that Father shall have no child support obligation in the event Mother's parent time moves to Phase Four as set forth in Paragraph 9(g).

b. Both parties waive any claim they may have to past child support.

20. Medical, Dental and Other Healthcare Expenses. In accordance with Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208, the parties agree that insurance for the medical, accident, vision, and dental expenses of the minor children shall be provided by Father.

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be considered the primary coverage for the child, and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be considered the secondary coverage for the child.

b. Father shall pay for any out-of-pocket costs of the premium. Both parties shall ensure that the children go to providers that are in Father's insurance network.

c. Father shall pay all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments incurred for the dependent children.

d. Each parent who has obtained insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year if there is a change in the previous coverage or provider. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date he or she first knew or should have known of the change.

21. Childcare Expenses. Each party shall provide for their own work-related childcare expenses.

a. Where feasible, the parties shall cooperate to give each other the first right of refusal to provide childcare, or to utilize family members to provide such care prior to employing paid childcare.

b. Family childcare shall be sought before paid childcare. Childcare provided by family members shall be deemed to be free.

22. Tax Exemptions and Credits. Tax exemptions for the minor children shall be awarded as follows:

a. Starting with tax year 2025, Father shall claim both minor children for all tax years.

b. The parties shall follow all IRS guidelines as to filing status.

23. Alimony. Given the income disparity of the parties and the distribution of assets hereunder, Mother shall be awarded alimony from Father as follows:

a. Mother shall be awarded alimony, in the amount of $1,100 per month for a period of ninety-six (96) months.

b. Alimony payments shall begin October 1, 2026.

c. Alimony shall be payable one half on the 5th day of each month and one half on the 20th day of each month unless the parties otherwise agree.

d. Alimony shall continue until the first to occur of:

i. The death of Father or Mother;

ii. Mother's remarriage or cohabitation; or

iii. The final alimony payment due for September 2034.

e. Both parties waive any claim they may have for past spousal support.

24. Real Property. During the course of the parties' marriage, the parties acquired certain real estate located at 7732 Riverwood Way, Eagle Mountain, Utah (the "Home"). The Home shall be listed for sale and the parties anticipate selling the property as soon as reasonably practicable. The following terms and conditions pertaining to the sale shall apply:

a. Father shall continue to have exclusive right to reside in the Home pending its sale.

b. The parties shall utilize an agreed upon Realtor. If they cannot agree upon a Realtor, Father shall provide a list of not fewer than three (3) licensed Realtors to Mother. Mother shall select one (1) of the Realtors on Father's list within seven (7) days of her receipt of the list.

c. The parties agree that the Home shall be listed for sale no later than March 1, 2027.

d. The parties shall follow the recommendations of their listing Realtor as to asking price, Home presentation, and other matters.

e. The parties agree that the Home will need to be repainted and for tile flooring to be installed in the laundry room. The parties shall agree upon any estimates for these repairs prior to commencement of any work. The parties shall agree upon any additional repairs to prepare the Home for sale.

f. The party who pays for the agreed repairs shall be reimbursed from the Home sale proceeds prior to division of the net proceeds.

g. Neither party shall further encumber the Home.

h. Father shall continue to be solely responsible for paying the mortgage, tax, insurance, and utility payments until the Home is sold.

i. When the Home is sold, the proceeds shall be applied as follows:

    i. First, to pay any sales commissions and closing costs due from the parties;

    ii. Second, to pay off any mortgage or other loans outstanding against the Home, including the first mortgage;

iii. Third, to reimburse the party who paid for any necessary and mutually agreed repairs to the Home during the sale process; and

iv. Fourth, any remaining proceeds shall be equally divided between and paid to Mother and Father.

25. Vehicles. The parties own certain vehicles, which shall be divided as follows:

a. Mother shall be awarded the 2014 Hyundai Sonata. Mother shall assume all payment obligations for this vehicle.

b. Father shall be awarded the 2022 Toyota RAV4. Father shall be responsible for all payment obligations for this vehicle.

c. Both parties shall cooperate to remove the other from title and refinance any vehicle awarded to them in which the other party is named no later than thirty (30) days after entry of the Decree.

d. If either party becomes fifteen (15) days late on a payment for which the other party is on the loan, that item shall be immediately placed for sale and sold to satisfy the loan. The party awarded that vehicle shall be solely entitled to all sale proceeds and shall be solely obligated for any deficiency upon such sale. If a party chooses to sell any personal property awarded to him/her, or when a party refinances, the other party shall fully cooperate in that process, including by signing all requisite documents.

e. Each party shall maintain and pay for their own automobile insurance policy.

f. Each party shall indemnify and hold the other harmless from any vehicle(s) awarded to him/her.

26. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired certain personal property. That personal property shall be divided hereafter between the parties. If there is any dispute regarding an item of personal property, they shall return to a low cost or free mediation prior to seeking court approval. Mother is awarded the family cats and family bird.

27. Debts. During the marriage, Mother and Father acquired certain debts. Division and payment of those debts shall be as set forth herein:

Creditor	Approx. Balance	Obligation of:
Mortgage on Home	Balance	Father, until the Home sells and the balance is paid from Home sale proceeds
Service Finance Company (garage door loan)	Balance	Father
Intermountain Health Care	Balance for charges incurred before August 28, 2026	Father
America First Credit Union credit card #7301	Balance	Father
America First Credit Union line of credit #7301	Balance	Father

a. Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint debts.

b. Except as otherwise set forth herein, any debts incurred since the date of separation, shall be the sole responsibility of the party who incurred the debt.

c. Any joint debts later discovered and not addressed herein shall be the responsibility of the party who incurred the debt.

d. Each party shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any debts awarded to him or her.

28. Financial Accounts. During the course of the marriage the parties acquired joint bank and savings accounts. Each party shall be awarded any accounts in their own names. Any joint accounts shall be equally divided and then closed.

29. Retirement. During the course of the marriage, Father acquired certain retirement accounts and pension rights. Those accounts shall be divided as follows:

a. Father shall be awarded all of Father's BYU pension account.

b. Father's DMBA 401(k) shall be equally divided between the parties.

c. The parties shall retain David Hunter to complete the required Qualified Domestic Relations Orders (hereinafter "QDRO") to divide these accounts, if necessary. The parties shall equally share in the costs related to the completion of the QDROs. The parties shall promptly cooperate in reviewing and signing necessary documents to effectuate the transfer and shall provide all information necessary.

d. The accounts shall be valuated as of the date of the Decree.

e. Neither party shall obtain a loan against their account, withdraw from their account, or otherwise dissipate or encumber their account before division.

30. Maiden Name. If she so chooses, Mother shall be entitled to legally change her name to SOLANA BRUCKMAN-CRAGUN.

31. Dispute Resolution. If a dispute arises between the parties, they shall return to mediation prior to filing an action in court. Enforcement or emergency actions may be filed directly with the court without mediation.

32. Cooperation. Petitioner and Respondent shall cooperate with each other, through counsel or otherwise, to effect changes in titles to property agreed to be divided, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided, to divide automobile insurance policies, and to cooperate in every other way necessary or proper to ensure that the Decree of Divorce is fully satisfied.

33. Attorney Fees. Both parties shall pay their own attorney's fees in this matter.
