In the matter of the marriage of: WEI CHENG LIANG Petitioner, and YAN DI Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 264300216 Judge Eldridge Commissioner Ito

This matter comes before the court for a final entry of the Decree of Divorce. Default was entered against the Respondent for failure to respond to the Petition for Divorce. The Court having reviewed the Petitioner's Petition for Divorce and the pleadings in this matter and having previously entered its Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. The bonds of matrimony and the marriage contract heretofore existing by and between the Petitioner and Respondent be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and the Petitioner is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from Respondent on the grounds of Respondent's cruelty, causing great mental distress and anguish to Petitioner, making it impossible to continue the marriage, said Decree to become absolute and final upon entry by the Court in the Register of Actions.

JURISDICTION

1. Residency. Petitioner has been a resident of Utah County for at least three months prior to the filing of this action.

1. Marriage Statistics. The parties were married on November 22, 2014, in Shanghai, China.

CHILD CUSTODY

1. Children. There have been two children born as issue of this marriage:

Name	Month/Year of Birth
R.Y.H.D.	February 2015
N.P.H.D.	January 2018

1. Child Custody Jurisdiction. Utah has jurisdiction to make the initial child custody determination pursuant to U.C.A. §81-11-201, et seq. The children have resided in Utah for at least six consecutive months immediately before the commencement of this proceeding, and Utah is the home state of the children. A court of another state does not have jurisdiction over the children, and the children and at least one parent have a significant connection with Utah, and substantial evidence is available in Utah concerning the children's care, protection, training, and personal relationships.

1. Custody/Visitation. Mother is awarded sole legal and sole physical custody, subject to parent-time as the parents may agree. If the parents do not agree, Yan is awarded parent-time pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-209, with all such parent-time to be supervised under such terms and conditions as the Court determines appropriate and in the best interests of the minor child(ren), and in accordance with the following parenting plan.

PARENTING PLAN

1. Parenting Plan. The parties shall adopt the Advisory Guidelines pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-202 as the binding Parenting Plan. In addition, the parties shall be bound by the following parenting plan which is filed in good faith:

a. The parties shall equally share transportation with the receiving parent obtaining the children from the other parent.

b. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule;

c. The parents shall notify each other of any special events involving the children such as school activities, church events, sports events, graduations, etc., so that each party shall have the option of attending the special event if possible. For any event that is not posted online, each party shall notify one another within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the children are participating or being honored, and both parties shall be entitled to attend and participate fully. The parties shall share passwords for any school website so each can access events and school work online.

d. Mother is designated as the residential parent for purposes of identifying the appropriate school or another specific plan that provides for where the children will attend school and will have the final authority to make education decisions for the children.

e. Both parties are ordered to provide to the other party the name, address and telephone number of every educational institution the children attend; as well as the name, address and telephone number of all providers of extracurricular activities and an identification of those activities. Furthermore, the parties are ordered to update this information when any new or different educational institutions are attended by the children or any different extracurricular activities are engaged in. The parties shall notify all providers that each party shall be given separate notice of any and all communications from the education providers to the parties.

f. For emergency purposes, when traveling with the minor child, the parties shall give all information required by Utah Code § 81-9-202(19), to wit: 1) an itinerary of travel dates; 2) destinations; 3) phone numbers where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and, 4) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

g. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health or safety of the child.

h. The parent, with whom the children are residing at the time, shall make day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control and discipline of the parties' child.

i. The parties shall be bound by the 30-minute rule meaning that the parties must arrive for pickup and drop off of the minor children within 30 minutes of the designated time or parent time for that period is forfeited.

j. Each parent shall notify the other parent of significant illnesses the children may have when they are at each parent's individual homes.

k. Both parents shall be allowed to call the minor children at reasonable times. The children may call either parent at reasonable times.

l. Any parental rights not specifically addressed by this Parenting Plan may be exercised by the parent having physical custody of the children the majority of the time.

m. SERVICEMEMBER(S): Neither parent is currently serving in the military. In the event that either does enlist in the future, the parenting plan shall be amended to contain provisions that address the foreseeable parenting and custodial issues likely to arise in the event of notification of deployment or other contingency, including long-term deployments, short-term deployments, death, incapacity, and noncombatant evacuation operation.

CHILD SUPPORT

1. Child Support. Father is currently incarcerated and unemployed and is imputed gross income of $1,575 per month. Mother is employed and has gross income of $1,575 per month. Father's child support obligation is $251 per month. The child support obligation of Father is effective October 1, 2026.

a. Reduction When Child Becomes 18. In accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-213, when a child becomes 18 years of age or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or if the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forced of the United States or is emancipated, the base child support award is automatically adjusted to the base combined child support obligation for the remaining number of children due child support, shown in the table that was used to establish the most recent order, using the incomes of the parties as specified in that order or the worksheet, unless otherwise provided in the child support order.

b. Mother is entitled to immediate and automatic withholding of income as a means of collecting child support, pursuant to §81-6-202.

CHILD CARE AND EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

1. Child Care Expenses. In accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-209, each parent shall equally share the reasonable work-related child care expenses for the minor children.

1. The parties shall share equally the costs for the minor children's school fees and costs for extracurricular activities.

INSURANCE

1. Medical/Dental Expenses. In accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-208, insurance for the medical and dental expenses of the minor children shall be provided by the parent who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost. Each parent shall pay one-half of the premium for said coverage and one-half of all reasonable and necessary unreimbursed medical and dental expenses for the minor children.

TAXES/TAX CREDITS

1. Child Tax Credit. Petitioner shall claim the child tax credits for the minor children every year.

ALIMONY

1. Alimony. The parties are each capable of supporting himself and herself; and, therefore, neither is awarded alimony.

PROPERTY

1. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage, Yan and Wei Cheng acquired personal property. Said personal property shall be equitably distributed.

1. Real Property. During the marriage, the parties acquired and/or held interests in real property. The parties may also have separate property interests in certain real property or proceeds attributable to property owned prior to the marriage. The parties' respective marital and separate interests in any real property are in China and shall be dealt with in a Chinese court, unless the parties agree otherwise.

DEBTS

1. Debts. During the course of the marriage, Yan and Wei Cheng have acquired debts and obligations. The debts and obligations shall be equitably distributed.

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

1. Any financial accounts that were acquired during the marriage shall be equitably awarded.

MUTUAL RESTRAINT

1. Father and Mother are restrained from speaking derogatorily about the other parent or speaking to the children about the issues in this case, or from attempting to influence a child's preference regarding custody or parent time which would tend to diminish the love and affection of the children for the other parent. Father and Mother are mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party. Father and Mother are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph, and will have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violation, or will remove the child or children from such circumstances.

1. Both parties are restrained from making visitation arrangements through the children or from using a minor child as a messenger.

1. Neither party is allowed to use the other's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit for personal gain, such as obtaining credit, opening accounts, or acquiring services in order to prevent one party from exploiting the other's identity or financial standing post-divorce.

1. The parties are restrained from making public comments, sharing posts, or posting photos about each other or the divorce proceedings on social media platforms such as Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat, etc. in order to protect the privacy of both parties and avoid any public airing of grievances or details about divorce.

1. All contact and communication between the parties shall be civil in nature and conducted via email or text message, except in the event of a medical emergency, which may and shall be communicated by telephone immediately. The parties are mutually restrained from harassing or engaging in unwanted contact with the other party, the other party's family members, personal friends, business partners or associates, or place of employment, or from contacting such persons for the purpose of harassing, intimidating, interfering with, or obtaining information about the other party.

1. Both parties are restrained from coming to the home, work place, or places where the other party is known to be present without the other party's express permission. Prearranged parent-time exchanges shall be an express exception to this restraint.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1. Attorney's Fees and Costs. Each of the parties shall assume and pay their own attorney fees and cost so long as the matter remains uncontested.
