IN THE FOURTH DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: ARIANNA JAYNE RADANDT Petitioner and MICHAEL ALAN JENSEN Respondent	DECREE OF ANNULMENT Case No. 264402745 Judge: Stack Commissioner: Ito

The above-captioned matter has been submitted to the Court for decision, Petitioner Arianna Jayne Radandt ("Arianna") and Respondent Michael Alan Jensen ("Michael") having executed a Stipulation for Annulment, whereby the parties consented to entry of a Decree of Annulment, and the Court having entered it Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, hereby DECREES and ORDERS as follows: .

1. Arianna is a resident of Utah County, Utah.

2. The parties were married on June 12, 2026. The parties separated on August 9, 2026.

3. The marriage is hereby declared null and void from the date of the marriage.

4. The parties do not have any children together and none are expected.

5. The vehicles and personal property of the parties have been divided and are awarded to the parties as they are currently divided.

6. The parties do not own any real property. However, the parties had a rental property in Gilbert, Arizona. Michael will be responsible for terminating the lease on the property and for all expenses related to the early termination of the lease. Michael hereby indemnifies Arianna against any and all claims regarding the rental property and lease.

7. Each party is awarded his or her separate financial accounts (banking, retirement, investment, life insurance, etc.) free and clear of any claim by the other.

8. Except as addressed above with respect to the Arizona rental property, each party shall assume and pay and hold the other harmless from any debts in his or her separate debts. To the extent that there are any joint debts which are not known at this time, the person who incurred the debt shall be responsible for payment of the debt. The parties should not incur any further joint debt.

9. The Court hereby enters the following restraining orders:

a. Neither party shall use the other party's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit of the other party to obtain credit, open an account for any service, or obtain any other service.

b. Except when speaking privately with immediate or extended family members, or with close friends with whom a party does not reasonably believe have a business/employment or personal relationship or contact with the other, neither party shall, directly or indirectly, make, publish, repeat, republish, communicate, disclose, transmit, forward, distribute, or cause, encourage, solicit, or facilitate the making or disclosure of any disparaging, derogatory, defamatory, or reputation-damaging statement or communication concerning the other party to any third party whatsoever, whether publicly or privately, by any means or medium and whether or not the other party is named or expressly identified. This prohibition applies regardless of the third party's actual, perceived, or nonexistent relationship or association with either party.

c. Neither party shall, directly or indirectly, publish, disclose, transmit, forward or distribute any personal information or material obtained from the other party. Personal information or material shall include, but is not limited to: personal identification records, bank and brokerage accounts, retirement accounts, tax documents, credit card and loan statements, any private text messages, emails, social media and phone app messages, phone records, letters and other written correspondence. Each party shall delete or otherwise destroy any such personal information or material in his or her possession.

d. Neither party shall, directly or indirectly, contact, communicate, correspond, or respond to any past, current, or prospective employer of the other party concerning the other party, nor cause, encourage, facilitate, or solicit another person to do so. This prohibition applies regardless of who initiates the communication and regardless of the truth, accuracy, merit, or alleged justification of the underlying information.

e. Neither party shall, knowingly, directly or indirectly, enter or remain at the other party's residence, workplace, or property without consent, or interfere with the other party's property, accounts, records, devices, employment, business, or personal affairs, except as authorized by law or court order.

f. Nothing in paragraph 9 and its subparts prohibits communications with legal counsel or law enforcement, statements made in court proceedings, or disclosures required by law or court order.

g. Each party has waived any and all claims and causes of action, whether known or unknown, he or she may have against the other through the date of execution of this Stipulation, except as it relates to criminal complaints or investigations.
