If mediation fails, the parties may have the court address and rule on the issue. Both parties agree, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency relief or enforcement from the court if, in the future, an emergency arises which would make formal negotiation not practical.

8. The parties shall adopt U.C.A. §81-9-202 as the binding parenting plan with additions as follows:

a. Educational Plan. The parties agree that they shall both have access to school records. Both parties shall be able to check out the child on their respective parent-time. The parties will use phone or text contact for emergencies or changes on the day of the exchange. The parties will be civil with one another. All communication shall be limited to issues regarding the minor child or implementation of the Decree of Divorce. Neither party will engage in threats, accusations, name calling, swearing, or uncivil communication.

For information the other party does not have access to, the parties shall take affirmative steps to share school, school programs, extracurricular activities, sporting events, and activity information concerning their child with each other on a frequent basis.

g. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

i. Both parties are restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the child's love and affection for the other parent, including, but not limited to speaking derogatorily about the other parent in front of the child or speaking to the child about the issues in this case, or from attempting to influence the child's preference regarding custody or visitation. This includes any comments about the other parent's actions that may be construed as having a negative impact on the other parent's relationship with the child.

ii. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the child in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the child in a way that promotes their best interest.

iii. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the child or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the child's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the child, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the child for information regarding what occurs when the child is with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

iv. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations, or shall remove the minor child from such circumstances.

v. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their child about one another or in the child's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking or threatening the other party.

doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor child from such circumstances.

viii. Both parties are restrained from putting the child in the middle of parenting issues and neither parent shall communicate through the child nor ask the child to convey information between parents.

ix. Neither parent will ask the child to keep secrets from the other parent.

k. Relocation. If either party moves more than 150 miles from the residence of the other parent, they shall be bound by the requirements of U.C.A. §81-9-209.

9. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor child may be involved in. The party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior written consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense.

10. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

11. Division of Accounts. According to Utah Code Annotated §15-4-6.7 each party will elect for dental, medical and school expenses to be created in separate accounts for each parent so that the parents are not jointly obligated.

12. Transportation. The parties will utilize school-to-school exchanges where possible. If school to school exchanges are not possible because the child is not in school, the parent concluding parent-time will provide the transportation to the receiving parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

13. Child Support. Child support shall be calculated according to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-201 et seq. Father is employed and has a gross monthly income of $13,564. Mother is employed and has a gross monthly income of $2,669 for purposes of calculating child support. Based upon a joint custody child support worksheet with Mother exercising 220 overnights each month and Father exercising 145 overnights each month, Father's child support obligation shall be $964 per month. Father shall commence paying child support beginning the first month after the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 6th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 21st day of each month.

14. 2Medical/Dental Expenses. The parties shall provide health care coverage for the minor child pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-208. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor child in accordance with U.C.A. §81-9-208.

a. Father is currently providing the child's health insurance. The parties agree that Father shall pay 100% of the out-of-pocket costs of the premium. In the event Mother is able to secure better coverage at a more reasonable cost, Father shall reimburse Mother 100% of the premium actually paid by Mother for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children (1) in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically added to the child support paid.

b. 3Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents.

c. 4The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within thirty (30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a stepparent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the stepparent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

e. If the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium.

15.Child Care Costs. Given the age of the child, the parties do not anticipate child care costs. In the event a work-related child care cost is incurred by a party, that party shall be solely responsible for the cost.

16.Dependency Exemption/Tax Credit. The parties will alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child.

a. The parties will alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child. Mother will be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for odd-numbered tax years, and Father will claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for even-numbered tax years.

b.Father must be current on child support obligations by December 31st to claim the child.

This amount is payable in full on the 1st day of each month. This shall be considered a property settlement agreement incident to divorce and is nondischargeable in bankruptcy and is nontaxable income to Tiffany. For so long as Hernaldo has a child support obligation, Hernaldo may deduct the amount of child support owed to Tiffany from this payment such that Tiffany receives a total payment each month of $12,000, including the child support on the months that child support would be owed.
