Joel Frederick Stewart (name of Petitioner) and Hope Alicia Williams (name of Respondent) Other parties (if any)

The court decrees:

Divorce

1. Joel Frederick Stewart is granted a divorce based on the Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds signed by Joel Frederick Stewart. The divorce will become final upon entry of the divorce decree.

Children (Utah Code 81-6-101(7))

2. Joel Frederick Stewart and Hope Alicia Williams do not have any children together.

- We do not have any children together who are minors. A minor is a child under 18 who has not been married or otherwise emancipated.
- We are not expecting a child.
- We do not have incapacitated adult children together who are eligible for child support, or, Joel Frederick Stewart is not asking for child support for any adult child who is eligible for child support.

Personal property (Utah Code Title 81, Chapters 1, 4, 6, and 9)

3. All personal property not addressed in the divorce should be divided as the parties have already divided it.

Debts

4. The parties are not aware of any debts from the marriage. If any debts exist, each debt will be the responsibility of the party who incurred the debt.

Real property

5. The parties do not have any real property that is marital property. The parties do not need a court order about real property.

Alimony

6. Neither party will pay alimony.

Retirement money

7. The parties do not need a court order about retirement money.

Duty to sign documents

8. The parties will sign all documents necessary to comply with the divorce decree within 60 days from entry of the decree. If a party fails to sign a document within 60 days, the other party may ask the court to appoint someone to sign the document. (Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 70)

Divorce Decree Exhibit 1:

- Both parties agree to remove the other person's name from all shared financial and banking accounts including loans, credit cards, investment, and retirement accounts. Parties have agreed on which accounts each person will keep. All funds or liabilities in those accounts will belong to the person who they have agreed will keep that account. Both parties have agreed that there will be no future right, title, or claim to the other person's accounts. Both parties will keep their own accounts in full as previously designated.
- Both parties will keep their own personal property as previously designated. The other party will not have any future right, title, or claim to that property.
- Parties have agreed to split the refund of their apartment security deposit for the amount of $1410. Sixty-five percent will go to Hope for the amount of $916.50, and thirty-five percent will go to Joel for the amount of $493.50. The person who the check is made out to will have 7 calendar days to pay the other person.
- The parties have agreed to filing state and federal taxes for the 2026 tax year as married, filing jointly or in another way to maximize the return. They have agreed to split the net amount of the refunds of the two filings and any filing fees. As the net amount is currently unknown, seventy-five percent will go to Hope. Twenty-five percent will go to Joel. Joel will be responsible to front any filing fees and any owed liabilities.
