13. Parenting-Plan. The following parenting-plan is adopted:

a. Affection and Love. Both parties shall encourage and support the minor child in maintaining a loving, respectful, and positive relationship with the other parent and their extended families.

b. Alcohol/Drugs.

i. Restriction. Neither party shall consume alcohol or use any non-prescribed or illegal drugs during his or her parent-time. Each party shall ensure that he or she is not under the influence of alcohol or any impairing substance at any time while exercising parent-time. For purposes of this provision, "non-prescribed drugs" includes any controlled substance not lawfully prescribed to the party, as well as any misuse or abuse of a prescribed medication in a manner inconsistent with the prescribing provider's instructions.

ii. Testing. If either party has a reasonable suspicion that the other party has violated paragraph 13(b)(i), the concerned party may request that the other party submit to alcohol and/or drug testing. Any request for testing shall be made in writing and shall specifically articulate the facts and circumstances giving rise to the reasonable suspicion. Mere speculation, rumor, or unsupported allegations shall not constitute reasonable suspicion. Upon receipt of a written request, the requested party shall submit to testing at a licensed testing facility designated by the requesting party that is located within a reasonable distance of the requested party's residence as soon as reasonably practicable, but no later than twenty-four (24) hours after receiving the request, unless the parties otherwise agree in writing. Each party shall cooperate in scheduling and completing the testing and shall execute any authorizations reasonably necessary to permit the release of the test results to the other party. The requesting party shall initially be responsible for the cost of the requested testing. The allocation or reimbursement of testing costs may be determined by the Court in any subsequent proceeding based upon the evidence presented.

c. Child's Personal Belongings. The parties shall ensure that the personal items and clothing of the minor child be returned with him when he returns to the other parent's home.

d. Communication. The communication between the parties shall be in writing, including, but not limited to, text messages and email, and shall be limited to matters directly related to the minor child, including his health, education, extracurricular activities, and general welfare. Telephone communication should be reserved for urgent or emergency situations that require immediate attention. Both parties shall make reasonable efforts to respond to written communications in a timely manner and shall refrain from including personal disputes, criticisms, or unrelated matters in communications concerning the minor child. All communications shall be conducted in a respectful and civil manner, consistent with the best interests of the minor child.

e. Contact Information. If either party's physical address, email address and/or telephone number changes, they shall provide the other parent with their updated contact information within 24 hours of said change.

f. Day-to-Day Decisions. The parent with whom the minor child is residing at the time shall have the authority to make the minor day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control, and discipline of the minor child. Notwithstanding, there shall be no corporal punishment.

g. Dispute Resolution. The parties acknowledge that disputes may arise in the future regarding decisions affecting the parenting of their minor child. The parties shall first attempt to resolve any dispute through good-faith discussion. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement, Ashlynn shall have final decision-making authority regarding the disputed issue, including but not limited to education/school and medical decisions. Dallin may seek review of Ashlynn's decision by filing an appropriate petition or motion with the Court.

h. Education Plan.

i. The parties' minor child is not currently enrolled in school due to his age. When the minor child becomes of school age, he will be enrolled in a school associated with Ashlynn's residence.

ii. Both parties shall be listed as the minor child's parents on his school records; and both parties shall have access to the minor child's school records and teachers.

iii. Neither parent shall interrupt regular school hours to exercise parent-time with the minor child, unless mutually agreed upon by the parties.

i. Notice. Kidnapping, Trafficking, and Smuggling; (D) a sexual exploitation offense against a child under Title 76, Chapter 5b, Sexual Exploitation Act; or (E) an offense that is substantially similar to an offense set forth in sections (A) through (D).

j. Parent-Time Exchanges. The parent commencing their parent-time shall be responsible for picking up the minor child at the start of their scheduled parent-time. Either parent may designate a third party to assist with pickup, provided that the third party is personally known to the parent relinquishing parent-time and the minor child. Any third-party pickup shall be conducted in a safe and responsible manner, and the parent designating the third party shall remain responsible for ensuring the minor child's timely and safe transfer.

k. Relocation. The parties shall be bound by the notice provisions of Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209 if either party relocates more than 150 miles from the other parent.

l. Requested Change to Parent-Time. The parties shall provide at least 24-hour notice of any requested change to the ordered parent-time arrangements. The parent receiving the request shall not be obligated to agree to the requested change, and the ordered parent-time schedule shall remain in effect unless the parents mutually agree otherwise.

m. Special Events. Special consideration should be given by each parent to make the minor child available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of a minor child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

n. Travel with Parent. In the event that either party travels with the minor child outside the State of Utah, then advance written notification shall be provided to the other parent setting forth the following information: (i) an itinerary of travel date(s); (ii) destination(s); (iii) place(s) where the minor child or traveling parent can be reached; and (iv) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the minor child's location. If either parent intends to travel internationally with the minor child, the traveling parent shall provide the non-traveling parent with the above-referenced written notice at least 90 days prior to departure.

o. Passport. If the parties maintain a passport for the minor child, then: (i) they shall equally share the cost of the passport; and (ii) the passport shall remain in Ashlynn's possession. However, Dallin shall be granted use of the passport should he travel with the minor child. Dallin shall return the minor child's passport to Ashlynn within three days of returning home.

p. Virtual Parent-Time. The parent not exercising parent-time with the minor child shall be allowed reasonable phone communication (including video chatting) with the minor child. Telephone calls shall be made during reasonable times and should be reasonable in duration. Virtual parent-time should supplement, but not replace, in-person parent time.

14. Ashlynn's Income. Ashlynn is currently employed with a gross monthly income of $3,596.00.

15. Dallin's Income. Dallin is currently unemployed but agrees that, based on his historical work experience, he shall be imputed a gross monthly income of $3,640.00.

16. Base Child Support. Dallin's base child support obligation is $441.00/month using the sole-physical custody worksheet. The child support obligation shall commence as of September 1, 2026; and shall be due and payable in two monthly installments with one-half (1/2) due on the 5th and the 20th day of each month thereafter until the child support obligation is terminated.

17. Termination of Child Support. The child support obligation shall terminate when the minor child becomes 18 years of age or graduates from high school during the minor child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or if the minor child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Title 80, Chapter 7, Emancipation.

18. Reduction of Child Support. The base child support award shall be: (a) reduced by 50% for each child for time periods during which the minor child is with Dallin by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent-time; or (b) reduced by 25% for each child for time periods during which the child is with Dallin by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 12 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent-time. If the child is a client of cash assistance provided under Title 35A, Chapter 3, Part 3, Family Employment Program, the administrative agency should approve any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent-time. For purposes of this provision, normal parent-time and holiday visits to Ashlynn are not considered extended parent-time.

19. Income Withholding. The child support obligee shall be entitled to immediate and automatic withholding of income as a means of collecting child support, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-202(10)(f) and § 62A-11-101 et seq., as amended.

20. Annual Exchange of Income Information. The parties shall, upon the written request of the other party, exchange the then current proof of income no more than once during each calendar year. Such proof of income shall be provided within seven (7) days after receipt of the written request and shall include the party's three (3) most recent pay stubs or other reasonably equivalent documentation establishing the party's current gross income. If a party is self-employed or otherwise does not receive regular pay stubs, that party shall provide other documentation reasonably sufficient to verify current income.

21. Notice. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-202(10)(g), the final orders shall include the following notice (see Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-212(3)-(5)):

> (a) A parent, legal guardian, or the office may, at any time, petition the court to adjust the amount of a child support order if there has been a substantial change in circumstances.
> (b) A change in the child support tables is not a substantial change in circumstances for the purposes of Subsection (3)(a).
> (c) For purposes of this Subsection (3)(a), a substantial change in circumstances may include:
> (i) material changes in custody;
> (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties;
> (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent;
> (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn;

(v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or
(vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others.

(4) Upon receiving a petition under Subsection (3)(a), the court shall, taking into account the best interests of the child:
(a) determine whether a substantial change has occurred;
(b) if a substantial change has occurred, determine whether the change results in a difference of 15% or more between the obligor's ordered support amount and the obligor's support amount that would be required under the child support guidelines; and
(c) adjust the obligor's ordered support amount to that which is provided for in the child support guidelines if:
(i) there is a difference of 15% or more; and
(ii) the difference is not of a temporary nature.

(a) If a child support order has not been issued or modified within the previous three years, a parent, legal guardian, or the office may move the court to adjust the amount of a child support order.
(b) Upon receiving a motion under Subsection (5)(a), the court shall, taking into account the best interests of the child:
(i) determine whether there is a difference between the obligor's ordered support amount and the obligor's support amount that would be required under the child support guidelines; and
(ii) if there is a difference as described in Subsection (5)(b)(i), adjust the obligor's ordered support amount to the obligor's support amount provided in the child support guidelines if:
(A) the difference is 10% or more;
(B) the difference is not of a temporary nature; and
(C) the order adjusting the obligor's ordered support amount does not deviate from the child support guidelines.
(c) A showing of a substantial change in circumstances is not necessary for an adjustment under this Subsection (5).

HEALTH INSURANCE

22. Policy. The parties shall maintain health care coverage for the medical expenses of the minor child as that term is defined by Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-101(19).

23. Premiums.

a. The parties shall equally share the out-of-pocket premium cost attributable to the minor child's health and dental insurance coverage. The portion of the premium attributable to the minor child shall be calculated on a per-capita basis by dividing the total premium actually paid for the applicable health or dental insurance policy by the total number of individuals covered under that policy. Each party shall be responsible for one-half (1/2) of the premium amount attributable to the minor child.

b. If the minor child is covered by health or dental insurance through both parties' policies, each party shall be solely responsible for the premium associated with his or her own policy, and neither party shall be entitled to reimbursement from the other for the premium paid for his or her own policy.

c. If the parent obligated to provide health or dental insurance for the minor child is also the parent obligated to pay child support, that parent may deduct from his or her monthly child support obligation the portion of the premium attributable to the minor child, as provided by the applicable child support guidelines and worksheet.

24. Out-of-Pocket Expenses. The parties shall equally pay all necessary dental, health, medical, optical, orthodontic and therapy expenses for the minor child not covered by insurance.

25. Reimbursement of Out-of-Pocket Expenses.

a. Alternative Billing. Either party may elect to have the medical and/or dental provider bill the other parent directly for his or her one-half share of the minor child's expense as set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 15-4-6.7.

b. Reimbursement to Party. On a regular basis, but in no event less than every thirty (30) days, the parties shall furnish to the other verification in the form of cancelled checks, statements, receipts, or invoices for all unreimbursed dental and medical expenses for the minor child. Upon receipt of this verification, the other parent shall reimburse the requesting party within thirty (30) days for all properly documented unreimbursed dental and/or medical expenses. Failure to provide verification within thirty (30) days of incurring the expense should operate as a waiver of that party's right to recover the expense.

26. Verification of Coverage. The parent providing insurance for the minor child shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent and/or the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 602 et seq., upon initial enrollment of the minor child; and thereafter, on or before January 2nd of each calendar year. In addition, the parent providing insurance for the minor child shall also notify the other parent and/or the Office of Recovery Services of any change in insurance carrier, premium, and/or benefits within thirty (30) days of the date he/she first knew or should have known of the change.

27. Primary/Secondary Coverage. If, at any point in time, the minor child is covered by the health and/or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health and/or dental insurance plan of Dallin shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Ashlynn shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a party marries and their dependent child is not covered by their health and/or dental insurance plan but is covered by a stepparent's plan, the health and/or the dental insurance plan of the stepparent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

CHILDCARE

28. Expenses. The parties shall equally share all reasonable work-related childcare expenses for the minor child in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-209. The party incurring the expense shall provide proof of the expense to the other party, and the other party shall reimburse his or her one-half share within thirty (30) days after receipt of the documentation. Failure to provide verification within thirty (30) days of incurring the expense may operate as a waiver of that party's right to recover the expense.

29. Family Member Childcare. Childcare provided by a grandparent, stepparent, adult sibling, or other family member shall be presumed to be provided without charge. A party seeking reimbursement for childcare provided by a family member shall have the burden of establishing that the expense was actually incurred, was reasonable, and was paid or is legally owed.

30. First Right of Refusal. Parental care shall be presumed to be better than surrogate care. Each party shall give the other party the first right of refusal to provide care for the minor child if they shall be unavailable for 6 hours or more during their parent time. The party exercising the first right of refusal shall be responsible for all transportation.

31. Contact Information. If either parent enrolls the minor child in childcare or utilizes childcare services, both parents shall have equal access to the childcare provider, including but not limited to attending childcare events, receiving updates regarding the minor child's care and well-being, and picking up or dropping off the minor child in accordance with the court-ordered parenting schedule. Additionally, the childcare provider shall be provided with accurate and up-to-date contact information for both parents to facilitate open communication regarding the minor child's attendance, health, and any other matters relevant to the minor child's care. Neither parent shall interfere with the other's right to communicate with the childcare provider or access information about the minor child.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

32. The parties shall equally pay the cost of all extracurricular activities for the minor child, to which, they mutually agree upon in writing. The parties shall pay the providers directly, if possible; but if not, the party incurring the out-of-pocket expense for the extracurricular activity shall submit to the other parent verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for the minor child's extracurricular activities without receiving prior consent from the other party shall be solely responsible for that expense.

CHILD TAX EXEMPTION

33. Tax Exemptions. Starting tax year 2026, the parties shall equally share the minor child tax exemption, as follows: Ashlynn shall claim the minor child for even numbered tax years, and Dallin shall claim the minor child for odd numbered tax years.

34. Exception. As a condition precedent to Dallin claiming the minor child as a dependent in any applicable tax year, he must be current on all child support obligations, including but not limited to base child support, medical expenses, childcare costs, and any other court-ordered financial obligations related to the minor child, as of December 31 of the tax year in question. If Dallin is not current on his support obligations by December 31 of that given tax year, Ashlynn shall be entitled to claim the minor child for that tax year, regardless of the established rotation schedule.

35. Documents. Each party shall take all necessary steps to facilitate the enforcement of this provision, including signing any required IRS forms (such as IRS Form 8332) when applicable, provided that the claiming parent is eligible under the terms of this agreement.

REAL PROPERTY

36. The real property located at 811 W. Lone Pine Ln., Mapleton, Utah 84664 ("Real Property") shall be listed for sale with a mutually agreed-upon licensed real estate agent within 30 days of September 5, 2026. If the parties are unable to agree upon an agent or a listing price, then either party may file an emergency motion with the Court. The Real Property shall be sold at a commercially reasonable price, and after payment of all mortgages, deeds of trust, liens, closing costs, commissions, prorated taxes, and other customary costs of sale, the net proceeds shall be divided equally between the parties.

38. Dallin shall have sole use and possession of the Real Property until the Real Property is sold. Beginning September 1, 2026, Dallin shall be solely responsible for all principal, interest, property taxes, insurance, utilities, and ordinary maintenance expenses associated with the Real Property.
