This amount was arrived at having contemplated the parties' respective incomes, debts, property distributions, and agreed upon reductions, reducing the lump sum to present value. Anita will make no further claim for alimony in the future, regardless of any change of circumstances.

9. Real Property: The parties own no real property, therefore no division is required.

10. Separate Property: Unless provided otherwise herein, all property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of acquisition prior to the marriage, acquisition after separation, family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources shall be awarded to the party who acquired the same, or to the party from whose family it came.

11. Personal Property: During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired items of personal property including but not limited to vehicles, furniture, appliances, electronics, décor, etc. Anita has no vehicles. Robert has a Harley Davidson motorcycle and a 2016 Jeep Grand Cherokee. Robert shall be awarded the vehicles. Robert will pay to Anita $19,086.00 as Anita's share of the equity in the two vehicles.

12. To equalize the other personal property items, Robert will pay to Anita $4,000. The parties will divide personal property contemplating that most items will be left with Robert as Anita is contemplating a move out of state and will not take much with her.

13. Bank Accounts. The parties acquired bank accounts during the marriage, which are valued as of July 17, 2026 and shall be awarded as follows:

ACCOUNT	VALUE AS OF 7/17/26	AWARDED TO

Any joint accounts will be closed or have been closed in favor of new individual accounts.

Robert will retain the balance of the Fidelity Rollover IRA.

c. Neither party shall borrow against or withdraw from the retirement accounts prior to the division of the accounts.

d. The retirement accounts shall be valued as stated above.

e. The parties shall have attorney Dave Hunter, Ben Brown, or Rori Hendrix prepare the Qualified Domestic Relations Orders (QDROs) for the division of the retirement accounts.

f. To reduce the amount of QDROs required and to reduce costs, only one QDRO will be prepared on the Fidelity Rollover Account as stated above.

d. Any and all other debts and obligations, including credit card accounts, shall be the sole and exclusive responsibility of the party who incurred the particular debt or is listed as the primary account bearer, holding the other person harmless therefrom.

e. Creditors. The parties understand that for joint debts upon entering the Decree of Divorce of joint debtors, the claim of a creditor remains unchanged unless otherwise provided by the contract, or until a new contract is entered into between the creditors and the debtors individually.

f. Notification to creditors. Pursuant to Utah Code §15-4-6.5, the party under the obligation to pay a debt shall provide a copy of the parties' Decree of Divorce to all joint creditors of the parties existing at the time of the entry of the divorce and notify the creditors regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

g. Delinquency in payments. If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.
