Attorneys for Petitioner

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of AARON LARSON and MAIRA LARSON	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 264401647 Judge Kraig Powell Commissioner Dustin Hardy

This matter is before the court on Petitioner Aaron Larson having filed a Petition for Divorce from Respondent Maria Larson, and the Court having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and the Court having reviewed the file and being otherwise fully advised, it is hereby

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED

That the Petitioner Aaron Larson is awarded a Decree of Divorce from the Respondent Maira Larson, to become final upon entry.

1. Jurisdiction: The parties are residents of Utah County, State of Utah, and have been for the three (3) months preceding the filing of this action in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-402.

2. Marriage: The parties were married on April 13, 2019, in Salt Lake City, Utah.

CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

3. Children: The parties share two (2) minor children, to wit: E.L., born in June 2020, and L.L., born in July 2023.

4. Physical Custody: The parties are awarded joint physical custody.

5. Parent-Time: The parties shall exercise parent-time as they agree, or pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-305, on a 2/2/5 schedule, if they cannot agree.

6. Legal Custody: The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor children. Each parent may make routine day-to-day and emergency decisions while the children are in that parent's care. For major decisions concerning the child's medical care, education, or religion, the parties shall contact one another and provide a reasonable description of the decision for which input is requested. If the parties confer but cannot agree on a major medical, educational, or religious decision, they shall seek appropriate input from a qualified professional in the relevant field when reasonably available. After considering the professional input, and the parties cannot come to a mutual decision, the parties will mediate the disagreement before bringing the matter to court. Nothing herein prevents either parent from obtaining emergency medical care when necessary.

7. Holidays: Holiday parent-time shall be exercised pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-302, with Maira designated as the custodial parent for purposes of holiday rotation and designation. If either party is unable to exercise their holiday parent-time, they shall notify the other party at least seven (7) days in advance of the holiday parent-time to allow the other party to adjust their schedule.

8. Extended Parent-Time: Each party shall receive two-uninterrupted weeks of summer parent-time. The parent not exercising extended parent-time shall be permitted two (2) virtual parent-time visits per week.

9. Notification of Extended Parent-Time: Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time or vacation weeks, with the children by May 1 of each year for the first option parent and May 15 for the second option parent. Maira shall have first choice of extended time in odd numbered years and the Aaron shall have first choice of extended time in even numbered years. If notification is not provided timely the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent-time for the non-complying parent.

10. Transportation: Unless otherwise specified herein, parent-time exchanges shall occur as agreed upon by the parties, or by pick-up or drop-off at school. When school is not in session, the parties shall exercise parent-time exchanges at the Payson, Utah McDonalds. The parties shall cooperate and remain flexible regarding pick-up and delivery times, keeping in mind the importance of punctuality. If a parent is more than 15 minutes late to the exchange time, they must pickup the children from the other parent, wherever that parent may be in their day.

11. If a parent is unavailable to transport the child, they may designate a suitable individual for the task. However, they must inform the other parent of this person's name and contact information.

12. Out-of-State Travel: If either party wishes to take the minor children outside the State of Utah, they shall, if possible, inform the other party thirty (30) days in advance. Additionally, they shall provide the travel itinerary, name and contact information of individual who will be with the children or knowledgeable of their location, and arrange for maintaining reasonable contact during the trip. Both parents shall have access to and exercise possession over the children's passports. Neither party will withhold the children's passports from the other upon request.

13. Education Plan: The children shall remain in their current school and feeder schools, if possible. If the children are no longer able to remain in their current school and feeder schools, Maira's home should be designated as the primary residence of the children for purposes of identifying the appropriate school. Both parents shall have access to the children during school and have authority to check the children out of school, so long as it doesn't interfere with the children's grades or the other parent's parent-time. The current elementary school is American Preparatory Academy and the current preschool Early Learning Essentials in Payson.

14. Each party shall be entitled to maintain in his or her possession a birth certificate and Social Security card for each minor child. To the extent necessary, the parties shall reasonably cooperate in obtaining replacement Social Security cards so that each parent may maintain the cards for each child.

15. Education Expenses: In addition any child support obligation, both parties shall be equally responsible for any and all of the children's educational related expenses that are agreed to in writing. Said expenses include, but are not limited to, enrollment fees, school uniforms, school supplies, field trip expenses, school lunches, and any school related activities.

16. Communication/Exchange of Information: The children shall not be requested to carry messages between the parents. The parties shall communicate with each other via text or email, and by telephone when necessary. The parties shall share all information about the children regarding special events, homework assignments, parent/teacher meetings, report cards, medical events and prescriptions that the other parent may not have access to.

17. Maintaining Contact: Regardless of which parent the children are with at any given time, each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of virtual parent-time. The parent not exercising parent-time during the 5-day weekend will have two virtual parent time visits with the children during this time period, between 6:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. The duration of the call will be pursuant to the children's engagement and not more than 20 minutes. If there is a holiday longer than a 48-hour period, the parent not exercising parent-time is entitled to one virtual parent-time call during that time period. These calls will not be recorded and the parent will not interfere with the other parent's virtual parent-time. Parties may revise these provisions upon written agreement.

18. The parties shall provide the minor children with Gabb watches when the children turn 8 years old. Both parties shall ensure that the children are permitted to wear, possess, and have reasonable access to their respective Gabb watches during each parent's parent-time. The telephone numbers for both parents shall be programmed into each child's Gabb watch, and neither parent shall remove or block the other parent's number or otherwise interfere with the child's reasonable ability to communicate with either parent through the device. The parties shall equally share all reasonable costs and fees associated with the purchase, activation, service, and maintenance of the Gabb watches. At such time as the parties mutually agree that a child is sufficiently mature and responsible to possess a cellular telephone, that child's Gabb watch shall be replaced with a cellular telephone. Both parents shall be provided with and have access to each child's cellular telephone number, and neither parent shall block or restrict the other parent's number from the child's device. The parties shall equally share the reasonable costs associated with the children's cellular service plans.

19. The parents will discuss and make reasonable decisions regarding the children's access to social media and online accounts.

20. Relocation: If either party intends to relocate, the parties shall follow the process outlined in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209.

21. Extracurricular Activities: The parties shall encourage and support the children's participation in extracurricular activities and sports. The parties shall enroll the children in a reasonable number of activities and shall not purposefully try to supplant parent time with activities. The parties shall attempt to allow participation in activities in which the children express a desire to participate. The parties shall facilitate participation in scheduled extracurricular activities. The parties shall equally share the cost of any activities or equipment costs that are incurred for an activity in which the children are currently enrolled and any future activity that is agreed to in writing by both parties.

22. Childcare Expenses: Both parties shall share equally all reasonable work, career or education related child care expenses (including after school care or summer camps). Both parties shall pay their one-half share directly to the provider, school or program for and on behalf of the children. If one parent pays the entire cost, that parent shall email the other parent proof of cost and payment within thirty (30) days of payment and the reimbursing parent shall pay their share within 10 days of receiving the email.

23. If a parent chooses to utilize a family member to provide childcare, the other parent shall not be responsible for reimbursing any costs associated with that childcare.

24. First Right of Refusal: Each parent will have first option to provide care for the children over any other third party if the parent responsible for the children is not available overnight (defined as home and available for care by midnight) during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation.

25. Disparaging Remarks: Each of the parties shall refrain from communicating with or about the other in demeaning, disparaging or disrespectful terms and shall prevent third parties, and the children from doing so as well. Neither parent will say or do anything that will diminish the child's love or affection of the child towards the other parent.

26. Neither party will allow third parties to speak disparagingly about the other parent to the children or within hearing of the child.

27. Religious Affiliation. The children will be raised in the LDS faith. Aaron will perform ordinances for the children so long as he remains qualified to do so. If Aaron is not qualified to do the ordinances then the parties will agree upon other individuals to perform the ordinance.

28. The parties will not allow alcohol or drugs around the children.

29. The parties will only expose the children to age appropriate media and materials.

30. Special Considerations: Special considerations shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

31. Both parties shall notify the other parent within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the child(ren) is participating or being honored, and the noncustodial parent shall be entitled to attend and participate fully.

32. The parties shall encourage and permit the children to bring their comfort items with them to each parent's household.

33. Both parties shall have access directly to all school reports including preschool and daycare reports and medical records and both parents shall be notified immediately, within thirty 30 minutes, by the parent with the child(ren) in their care in the event of a medical emergency.

34. Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

35. All guns in each parties' home will be secured in a locked case or with a trigger lock.

CHILD SUPPORT

36. Child Support shall be calculated using a joint custody worksheet in accordance with the Utah Child Support Guidelines with Maira having 183 overnights per year and Aaron having 182 overnights per year. For the calculation of child support, the income of the parties shall include: salary, commissions, bonuses, overtime and/or any income derived from any business interests. Maira will be imputed at $7,453 per month and Aaron historically makes $8,000 per month. Based on these earnings, Maira is awarded $60 per month in child support from Aaron, beginning October 1, 2026.

37. The payor shall be obligated to pay child support in accordance with the Utah Child Support Guidelines.

a. Child support shall be paid one-half (1/2) on the fifth (5th) day of each month and one-half (1/2) on the 20th day of each month.

b. Child support shall continue until each child reaches eighteen (18) years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is otherwise emancipated.

c. Parties shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §62A-11 parts 4 and 5 (1953 as amended). Any Federal and/or State tax refunds or rebates due to Petitioner may be intercepted and applied to arrearages. All administrative fees and costs of income withholding assessed by the Office of Recovery Services should be paid by Respondent.

d. Each of the parties shall be under mutual obligation to notify the other within ten (10) days of any change in monthly income.

TAX RELATED ISSUES

38. The parties shall share in claiming the minor children as dependency exemptions for State and Federal income tax purposes with each party claiming one minor child each year. So long as there are two minor children to claim, Maira will claim Linley and Aaron will claim Everly. At any time when there is only one minor child, Maira shall be entitled to claim the minor child in odd numbered years. Aaron shall be entitled to claim the minor children in even numbered years. The obligor parent may only claim the dependency exemptions if his child support obligation is current by December 31st of the year.

MEDICAL EXPENSES

39. Whichever parent has insurance available to them for medical, dental, vision and orthodontic expenses for the minor children shall be ordered to maintain on behalf of the minor children so long as it is available at a reasonable cost through their respective employer. The parties will share equally the costs for the children's health insurance. The parties are not required to keep double coverage for the children if insurance is available through both of their respective employers.

a. The children shall remain established patients with their current pediatrician and dentist unless the parties otherwise agree to change their providers in writing.

b. Both parties shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of insurance. The children's portion shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of parties on said plan.

c. Both parties shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, vision and orthodontic expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for the minor children and actually paid by the parties. Any late or no show fees, will be the sole responsibility of the party incurring these fees and not subject to division between the parties.

d. A parent who incurs medical, dental, vision and orthodontic expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The reimbursement shall occur within 30 days of being provided proof of payment and verification of said expenses.

e. A parent incurring medical, dental, vision and orthodontic expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with the subparagraphs "c" and "d" above.

f. The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, upon initial enrollment of the dependent children, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent or the Office of Recovery Services, of any change of insurance carrier, premium or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date that parent first knew or shall have known of the change.

40. Pursuant to and in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 15-4-6.7, notice is hereby given to any medical provider that receives a copy of this order:

a. at or before the time the provider renders medical or dental services to the child, and upon request from a parent, the provider shall separately bill each parent for the share of the medical and dental expenses that the parent is required to pay under the order; or

b. within 30 days after the day on which the provider renders the medical or dental service to the child, the provider shall not:

i. make a claim for unpaid medical and dental expenses against a parent who has paid in full the share of the medical and dental expenses that the parent is required to pay under the order; or

ii. make a negative credit report under Section 70C-7-107, or a report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full the share of the medical and dental expenses that the parent is required to pay under the order.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

41. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired certain items of personal property. Aaron is awarded the personal property currently in his possession and following personal property:, basement kid's kitchen, fire pit and camping equipment, shotgun w/ case, Aaron's handgun, Aaron's skies and equipment, 4 lacrosse sticks and balls, Aaron's 13" PC laptop, ½ emergency food buckets, office printer, one Amazon Alexa, Jesus in Water picture, Jesus with Sheep picture, and Jesus with Gold Frame. Aaron shall arrange a date and time with Maira to retrieve his personal property remaining at the home within thirty (30) days of entry of the Decree.

42. All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources shall be awarded to the party from whose family it came.

43. Both parties shall be allowed to keep the personal property items that they brought with them into the marriage, and/or the items the parties received as gifts from family members and each other.

VEHICLES

44. Aaron is awarded the 2009 Toyota Corolla.

45. The parties shall sell the 2018 Chevrolet Silverado. Maira is responsible for listing, marketing, and coordinating the sale of the vehicle and shall keep Aaron reasonably informed regarding bona fide offers received. Both parties shall reasonably cooperate and timely execute any title, bill of sale, lien-release, or other documentation necessary to complete the sale and transfer ownership of the vehicle. The vehicle will be sold for fair market value. Upon completion of the sale, any outstanding loan or lien secured by the vehicle and any reasonable costs directly associated with the sale shall first be paid from the sale proceeds. The remaining net proceeds, if any, shall thereafter be divided equally between the parties..

REAL PROPERTY

46. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired real property located at 635 W Raintree Lane, Santaquin, Utah 84655 ("Marital Residence"). Maira is awarded use and possession of the marital home until the sale of the home, and will pay the mortgage, HOA, and utilities on the Marital Residence. The Marital Residence shall be sold, and the proceeds distributed, as follows:

a. For-Sale-by-Owner Period. The parties shall initially offer the Marital Residence for sale by owner ("FSBO") for a period of up to four (4) months. Aaron shall be responsible for preparing and maintaining all online listings, advertising, and marketing of the Marital Residence during the FSBO period. Maira shall be responsible for conducting walkthroughs and showings of the Marital Residence to prospective purchasers. Maira shall provide Aaron access to a Google Calendar identifying the dates and times during which she is reasonably available to conduct showings. Maira shall maintain the Marital Residence in a clean, orderly, and reasonably show-ready condition throughout the listing period.

b. Listing with Realtor. If the Marital Residence has not sold by the expiration of the four (4) month FSBO period, the property shall promptly be listed for sale with a licensed real estate agent. Maira shall provide Aaron with the names of three (3) licensed real estate agents, and Aaron shall select one (1) of those three agents to list the property. Both parties shall reasonably cooperate with the selected real estate agent and shall follow the agent's reasonable recommendations concerning the listing, marketing, showing, and preparation of the property for sale.

c. Distribution of Sale Proceeds. Upon closing of the sale of the Marital Residence, the net proceeds shall be distributed in the following order:

i. First, payment of all customary and necessary costs of sale, including any outstanding mortgage or other liens required to convey clear title, closing costs, commissions, taxes, and other expenses required to complete the sale;

ii. Second, payment of the parties' marital debts, to the extent sufficient proceeds are available. The debts shall be paid in the following order: Discover, Bank of America,. USAA, US Bank, CitiBank, AmEx (2 card), Mohela (student loan), Cascade Collision, IRS, WellsFargo, SOFI; and

iii. Third, any proceeds remaining after payment of the foregoing amounts shall be divided equally between Maira and Aaron.

d. Remaining Marital Debt—FSBO Sale. If the Marital Residence is sold during the FSBO period and the net proceeds are insufficient to satisfy all marital debts, Aaron shall be solely responsible for any marital debt remaining after application of the sale proceeds. Aaron shall indemnify, defend, and hold Maira harmless from any such remaining marital debt, including any principal, interest, penalties, fees, collection costs, and other amounts arising from the debt.

e. Remaining Marital Debt—Realtor Sale. If the Marital Residence is sold after being listed with a real estate agent and the net proceeds are insufficient to satisfy all marital debts, Maira shall be responsible for the first $7,500.00 of the remaining marital debt. Aaron shall be solely responsible for all remaining marital debt in excess of Maira's $7,500.00 obligation and shall indemnify, defend, and hold Maira harmless from those amounts.

47. Documents Necessary to Effectuate Sale. Each party shall timely execute and deliver all listing agreements, purchase contracts, closing documents, deeds, authorizations, and other documents reasonably necessary to effectuate the listing, sale, conveyance, and distribution of proceeds from the Marital Residence as ordered herein. If either party fails or refuses to execute a document necessary to effectuate the terms of this Decree, the other party may seek relief pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, including an order directing another person appointed by the Court to perform the required act.

DEBTS

48. The parties incurred marital debts during the marriage. Except as otherwise specifically allocated in this Decree, the parties' marital debts shall first be satisfied from the net proceeds from the sale of the Marital Residence pursuant to Paragraph 46 above. To the extent the net sale proceeds are insufficient to satisfy all marital debts, responsibility for the remaining balances shall be allocated pursuant to Paragraphs 46(d) and 49(e), depending upon whether the Marital Residence is sold during the FSBO period or after being listed with a real estate agent. Aaron shall continue to service all debts until the sale of the home.

49. To the extent Maira is jointly liable on any debt or credit account assigned to Aaron, Aaron shall, within thirty (30) days, refinance, pay off, close, transfer, or otherwise take all steps reasonably necessary to obtain Maira's release from liability on the account. Aaron shall not incur any additional charges or obligations on any joint account following entry of this Decree. Until Maira is formally released from liability by the applicable creditor, Aaron shall timely pay all amounts due on the account and shall indemnify, defend, and hold Maira harmless from any liability associated with the debt, including principal, interest, late fees, penalties, collection costs, and any other charges resulting from Aaron's failure to timely satisfy the obligation. Aaron shall provide Maira written documentation confirming her removal as an authorized user or release from liability within five (5) business days after receiving such confirmation from the creditor..

50. Accumulation of Debts: Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards. Maira shall be removed as an authorized user on any credit cards held by Aaron no later than ten (10) days after signing this Stipulation.

51. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

FINANCIAL ASSETS

52. The parties acquired and continue to acquire bank, profit sharing, stock options, bonuses, investment, retirement and/or pension accounts during the course of the parties' marriage.

53. The party whose name is on the account is awarded the account free and clear of any claim of interest by the other party.

54. Any joint financial accounts shall be divided equally between the parties and closed immediately after the division.

55. The business Elevate & Exit, LLC is awarded to Aaron.

ALIMONY

56. Each party is fully capable of supporting his and herself and therefore, neither party is awarded alimony at any time, and forever waives any such claim.

PERSONAL CONDUCT

57. Both parties are restrained from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, or harming the other at the other place of residence, employment or any other place. Both parties shall be civil and respectful in their communications with one another.

ATTORNEY FEES

58. Each party is ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.

MISCELLANEOUS

59. The parties shall each maintain full access and possession of their life insurance policies free and clear of any claim of interest by the other party.

60. No dispute arising from or related to the Decree of Divorce shall be presented to the Court without a good faith attempt by both parties to resolve the issue through mediation or another mutually agreeable method of dispute resolution, except for enforcement issues.

61. If any dispute arising from or related to the Decree of Divorce is submitted to the Court, the prevailing party may be awarded his attorney fees and costs associated with prosecuting or defending the dispute.

Order becomes effective on the date when electronically signed by the Court on the first page.
