IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, IN AND FOR UTAH COUNTY STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF: BRITTANY LYN BRANSON, Petitioner, and, JASON EDWARD BRANSON, Respondent	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No.: 254402602 Judge: Kasey L. Wright Commissioner: Dustin Hardy

This matter comes before the court for final entry of the Decree of Divorce. The Stipulation of the parties was previously filed. The Court having reviewed the Stipulation and having previously entered its Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

The bonds of matrimony and the marriage contract heretofore existing by and between the Petitioner ("Brittany") and Respondent ("Jason") are hereby dissolved, and Brittany is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from Jason on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, said Decree to become absolute and final upon entry by the Court in the Register of Actions:

1. Residency. Brittany and Jason are current residents of Utah County, State of Utah, and have been for more than three (3) months prior to the filing of this action.

2. Marriage Date. The parties were married on July 25, 2012, in Provo, Utah County, State of Utah.

3. Separation. The parties separated in the Summer 2025.

4. Jurisdiction. The parties resided in the State of Utah during their marital relationship.

5. Grounds. Irreconcilable differences have also arisen between the parties, making it impossible to continue the marital relationship; see U.C.A. § 81-4-405(1)(h).

6. Children. There have been three (3) children born as issue of this marriage:

Initials	Month/Year of Birth
B.O.B.	February 2013
A.E.B.	September 2016
B.E.B.	February 2018

7. Home State. Pursuant to the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, the State of Utah is the home state of the minor children.

8. Physical Custody/Parent Time: The parties shall share joint physical custody of the minor children as follows:

a. Parent-time. The parties shall share physical custody on a 50/50 basis. The parent-time schedule will make best efforts to accommodate each party's work schedule (for example, Jason's work schedule currently has him working 2-days-on/4-days-off); however, if there is a dispute as to the specific days on the ongoing parent-time schedule, either party may raise the parent-time schedule with the Court for resolution without showing a material and substantial change in circumstances. For parent-time scheduling purposes, the parents will exchange work schedules with each other as soon as they are available, and the parents will work out the calendar. Once a monthly calendar is established, if a parent needs to miss parent-time for work or another reason that month, there will not be makeup time unless otherwise agreed. If a party regularly works overtime that is substantially disruptive to the equal parent-time schedule, it may be a basis for the other parent to request a parent-time adjustment with the Court.

b. Holiday Parent-time. The parties shall share holiday parent-time as follows:

Even Years	Odd Years	Holiday and Time
Brittany	Jason	Spring Break pickup from school on the day school dismisses for the holiday through returning the minor children to school on the day school resumes after the holiday. In the event that there are any teacher development days, snow days, etc. contiguous to the holiday weekend, those days shall be included as part of the holiday.

Jason	Brittany	Memorial Day pickup from school on the Friday before the holiday through returning the minor children to school on the day school resumes after the holiday. In the event that there are any teacher development days, snow days, etc. contiguous to the holiday weekend, those days shall be included as part of the holiday.
Brittany	Jason	July 4th 6 p.m. the day before holiday to the day after at 6 p.m.
Jason	Brittany	July 24th 6 p.m. the day before holiday to the day after at 6 p.m.
Brittany	Jason	Labor Day pickup from school on the Friday before the holiday through returning the minor children to school on the day school resumes after the holiday. In the event that there are any teacher development days, snow days, etc. contiguous to the holiday weekend, those days shall be included as part of the holiday.
Brittany	Jason	Fall Break pickup from school on the day school dismisses for the holiday through returning the minor children to school on the day school resumes after the holiday. In the event that there are any teacher development days, snow days, etc. contiguous to the holiday weekend, those days shall be included as part of the holiday.
Jason	Brittany	Halloween after school to 9 p.m. or if school is not in session 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. on the day that the holiday is normally celebrated in the community.
Jason	Brittany	Thanksgiving pickup from school on the day school dismisses for the holiday through returning the minor children to school on the day school resumes after the holiday. In the event that there are any teacher development days, snow days, etc. contiguous to the holiday weekend, those days shall be included as part of the holiday.
Brittany	Jason	First Half of Christmas Vacation, including Christmas Eve and Christmas Day after school on the day school lets out for the holiday break through December 27 at 7:00 p.m.
Jason	Brittany	Second Half of Christmas Vacation, beginning 7 p.m. on December 27 through returning the minor children to school on the day school resumes after the holiday.
Brittany	Jason	this parent will have 2 hours on the Child's actual birthday at a time he or she chooses (notice by the exercising parent will be given 14 days prior to the birthday, so the other parent knows which 2 hours they are choosing, or the 2 hours is waived). This provision replaces the typical "day before or after child's birthday" time, which will not be observed.

Jason	Brittany	Child's actual birthday from 9 a.m. until the next morning at 9 a.m.
Jason	Jason	Father's Day 6 p.m. on the day prior to the holiday to the day after the holiday at 9 a.m.
Brittany	Brittany	Mother's Day 6 p.m. on the day prior to the holiday to the day after the holiday with drop off to school on Monday. If school is not in session on the Monday following the holiday, the exchange shall occur at 9:00 a.m.

c. Extended Parent-time. During the summer months, the parties will continue the same parenting schedule as during the school year. In lieu of any designated extended parent-time, the parties will work together for any planned vacations in approximately equal time, and will make best efforts to accommodate the vacation plans of the other (summer vacations may not override awarded holidays unless otherwise agreed).

d. In the event that the provisions provided herein conflict with Utah Code §§ 81-9-301 through 81-9-305 (in effect now or as amended in the future), the provisions provided herein shall govern.

9. Legal Custody/Parenting Plan. The parties shall share joint legal custody pursuant to the following parent-time plan provisions:

a. The parties shall cooperate regarding the minor children's physical, financial, mental, and emotional care and support.

b. The parties shall share information as follows:

i. Each parent shall have direct access to all school reports, including medical records, and shall be notified immediately by the other parent in the event of a medical emergency involving one of the minor children.

ii. Each parent shall make efforts to independently learn of all organized events in the children’s lives that permit parental and family participation. A parent shall not interfere with the other parent's opportunity to volunteer for or participate in the children’s activities. These include activities such as church functions, athletic events, recitals, and school programs, etc.

iii. Each parent shall permit and encourage the other parent to communicate with all doctors, clinics, school nurses, counselors, and other healthcare providers regarding the health and welfare of the children.

iv. Each party shall be reasonably responsible for notifying the other party of the children’s significant illness and health care concerns.

v. The parties shall immediately advise the other parent of any changes in their addresses, telephone numbers, or other contact information pertinent to communication.

c. The parties shall abide by the following decision-making procedures.

i. The parent with whom the children are exercising parent time shall make daily decisions regarding the care, control, and discipline of the minor children, except as specifically outlined below.

ii. The parties shall use the following major decision-making procedure: 1) Identify the issues; 2) Develop possible solutions; and 3) Choose the most sensible solution that considers the needs of everyone involved. In making these decisions, the parties shall focus on the best interests of the children.

iii. If the parties cannot agree on important issues, including but not limited to the minor children's education, daycare, medical care, dental care, orthodontics, counseling, religious upbringing, extracurricular activities, parent time, or the interpretation of this parenting plan, they shall first try to resolve the matter through direct communication using the method described above. If the dispute remains unresolved, the parties shall participate in good faith in a mediation session with a mediator they mutually agree upon, and they shall share the cost of the mediation equally. Any agreement reached during mediation shall be reduced to writing and signed by both parties at the conclusion of the mediation. If the parties still cannot reach an agreement, either party may bring the matter before the court unless an emergency or urgent issue requires immediate judicial action. The court has the authority to award attorney fees and sanctions if it determines that a party has misused or undermined the dispute-resolution process without a valid reason.

d. The parties shall abide by the following additional parenting plan provisions:

i. The parties shall make reasonable efforts to be effective co-parents. They shall support each other as parents and specifically support the teaching of values to the parties' minor children.

ii. The parties shall be flexible and workable with each other to maximize the quality of parent time each parent has with the minor children and support pre-planned and agreed-upon extracurricular activities.

iii. Any changes to previously calendared parent-time shall be confirmed in writing, via text, or by email.

iv. When the parents have differing points of view, they shall be tolerant, understanding that the minor children need peace rather than co-parent conflict.

v. The parent time schedule shall be utilized to maximize the continuity and stability of the children's lives.

vi. Each parent shall give special consideration to making the children available to attend special events, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, meaningful ceremonies, and other significant events in the children's or other parent's life that may inadvertently conflict with the parent's parent time schedule.

vii. Neither parent time nor child support shall be withheld due to either parent's failure to comply with a court-ordered parent time schedule.

viii. If either party is not available to provide care for the child for more than four (4) consecutive hours during their parent time, they shall first give the other party the chance to provide care (right of first refusal). The parent exercising the right of first refusal shall be responsible for all transportation.

ix. When traveling with the minor child, the parties shall give all the following information: 1) an itinerary of travel dates; 2) destinations; 3) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and 4) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

x. Both parties shall be required to have prior written consent to take the minor children for any international travel. Neither party shall unreasonably withhold consent for reasonable travel opportunities that benefit the minor children. Both parties shall have equal access to the minor children's passports at all times and shall cooperate to ensure the timely renewal and maintenance of travel documentation.

xi. Neither party shall post or allow others to post on their behalf any derogatory, disparaging, or harmful content about the other parent on any social media platform. Both parties shall protect the children's privacy and not exploit their images or personal information online for public consumption or personal gain. Any disagreements regarding social media or digital privacy shall be addressed through open communication and, if necessary, through the decision-making procedure listed above.

xii. Both parties shall encourage and facilitate regular, positive communication between the minor children and the other party during their parent time. The children shall have the right to telephone and video communication with the parent not exercising parent time at reasonable times, including reasonable “goodnight” calls. Communication shall occur at reasonable times, taking into account the children’s schedules, homework obligations, extracurricular activities, and sleep needs. Neither party shall monitor, restrict, or interfere with such communication.

xiii. Both parties shall have full and equal access to the minor children’s medical, dental, vision, mental health, and orthodontic records, including access to any electronic patient portals. Each party may make emergency medical decisions on behalf of the children when they are in their care, provided that the other party is notified as soon as possible, ideally within two hours of the event, or sooner if feasible. Non-emergency, elective medical, dental, or psychological treatments shall be decided jointly by the parties unless a physician deems immediate action necessary. Both parties shall share decision-making regarding healthcare providers and significant treatments. If the parties disagree, they shall follow the decision-making process outlined above and keep each other informed of all medical appointments and developments.

xiv. Neither party shall introduce a romantic partner to the children until they have been in a committed romantic relationship for at least six months. Additionally, no romantic partner or future spouse of either party shall be allowed to spend frequent periods of time or stay overnight when that parent has the children in their care until they have been in a committed romantic relationship for at least six months. Neither party shall allow anyone with a history of felony convictions, who is a registered sex offender, or who has pending violent or sexual criminal charges to be in the presence of the children. Upon a reasonable written request from the opposing party, the party introducing a romantic partner shall verify, through a criminal background check, that the individual does not have a disqualifying criminal history as listed above. Both parties shall exercise discretion and prioritize the children's emotional well-being and safety when introducing future partners into their lives.

xv. Both parties shall provide a stable living environment for the minor children. Neither party shall have unrelated adult roommates living in the children's primary residence during their parent time. This provision does not apply to basement apartments, detached accessory dwelling units, or separate rental spaces with independent entrances, which are exempt from this roommate restriction. The purpose of this provision is to ensure that the children’s primary residences stay safe, stable, and free from transient or unrelated adult occupants during parent time.

xvi. The minor children’s clothing, toys, school supplies, electronics, and personal belongings may freely move between the parties’ homes. Neither party shall intentionally withhold or limit the children’s access to their personal property based on where an item was purchased or who provided it. Both parties shall ensure that the children are appropriately dressed, have the required school supplies, and have access to their essential belongings during parent time. The parties shall openly communicate about any lost or damaged items and work together to replace or locate essential items when necessary.

xvii. Each party shall give the other written notice at least thirty (30) days before any planned remarriage, ensuring transparency and enabling proper discussions about how it might affect the children.

xviii. Except as otherwise provided herein, neither party will disparage the other to third parties about issues related to the divorce or "fault" for the divorce. "Disparage" as used here means to speak ill of the other party, whether it is true or not. The parties may speak to third party professionals (attorney, therapists, etc.) and close friends, family, and confidants regarding the divorce and "fault." Neither party will talk to the children about divorce-related issues.

10. Education Plan. The parties establish the following educational plan:

a. If the parties cannot mutually agree on educational issues, they will participate in mediation to try to resolve the issue.

b. If they are unable to reach an agreement in mediation, either party may bring the issue before the Court.

c. The minor children shall remain enrolled in the following schools: Edgemont Elementary School, Centennial Middle School, and Timpview High School, unless both parties agree in writing to a change or circumstances require a relocation approved by the court.

d. Both parties shall ensure that the minor children attend school regularly and arrive on time to school during their parent time, except in cases of illness or emergency. Neither party shall permit unnecessary or unexcused absences from school during their parent time. Each party shall take reasonable steps to ensure the children are present, prepared, and punctual for the start of the school day and for all scheduled school-related activities, including extracurricular activities and academic commitments. Both parties shall promptly notify the other parent of any illness, school absences, or school tardies.

e. During their parent time, each party shall be responsible for ensuring the minor children's homework, school assignments, and academic obligations are completed promptly and thoroughly. Both parties shall promote the children's academic excellence and healthy study habits, and shall provide a suitable environment conducive to learning. Both parties shall openly communicate about the children's academic progress and work together as needed to address school-related challenges. Both parties shall make an effort to attend all parent-teacher conferences and academic events, either together or in turn, to stay actively involved in the children's education. The parties shall collaborate to establish clear academic expectations to provide consistent guidance and stability for the children. This involves setting and maintaining standards for school performance. The parties shall discuss major discipline decisions related to poor academic performance. Whenever possible, they shall coordinate consequences and behavioral interventions to promote accountability, personal growth, and consistency between households regarding the children's education.

11. Parent-time Exchanges. Parent-time exchanges will be at 8:00pm (evening) curbside with transportation by the receiving parent. For illustration purposes only, if Father was working a 2-days-on/4-days-off schedule, and his workday started at 5:30am, Mother would pick up the children 8pm the night before Father starts his 2-days-on, and then Father would pick up the children at 8pm the night before his 4-days-off. If an evening extracurricular activity interferes with the 8pm exchange, the parties will work around the time of the activity for the exchange.

12. Relocation. In the event that either parent relocates out of Utah County, the relocating parent shall be solely responsible for arranging and providing all parent-time transportation. Furthermore, the parent-time provided herein is based on the parties remaining in reasonable proximity. The parties further acknowledge that it serves the best interests of the children for the parents to remain in close proximity and for the minor children to remain in the home area that they have been accustomed to. If a parent intends to relocate more than fifty (50) miles from Provo, Utah, written notice shall be provided sixty (60) days prior to relocation. The parent shall provide in their notice the proposed new address, the reason for the relocation, and the proposed changes to the parent time schedule. The Court retains jurisdiction to determine if relocation is in the best interests of the minor children.

13. Mutual Restraining Orders. The parties shall abide by the following mutual restraining orders:

a. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from harassing and threatening the other party. The parties shall refrain from making derogatory or disparaging comments about the other party in the presence of the children. The parties shall refrain from pumping or interrogating the minor children about what occurs during the other party's parent time. The parties shall refrain from discussing adult issues, issues regarding the parties' divorce, or from coaching the children regarding the children's living arrangements.

b. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph. The parties shall have an affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties, including the maternal grandparents, from such violations or shall remove the minor children from such circumstances.

c. The parties shall not relay messages to each other through the minor children. Further, tentative plans involving both parents and needing the other parent's consent will not be discussed with the minor children until after the other parent has agreed to the plan.

d. The parties shall not argue with each other within the hearing or conscious presence of the minor children or allow any other person to do so, particularly the maternal grandparents.

e. Neither party shall schedule activities directly with the children that conflict with the other party's parent time prior to obtaining written consent from the other parent.

f. Neither party shall use the other's likeness or post on any form of social media about the other party, unless prior and written approval has been given by the other party to post about them. Neither party shall make negative posts, comments, or other information on social media about the other party.

g. Neither party shall communicate with the other party's place of employment to disparage the other party and/or attempt to have the other party lose their job.

14. Child Related Expenses. The parties shall equally share the expenses related to the minor children as follows:

a. Both parties shall equally share all expenses for required school supplies, enrollment fees, uniforms, field trips, and yearbooks, on a 50/50 basis.

b. The parties shall equally share, on a 50/50 basis, all expenses related to mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities, including competitive sports, clubs, camps, and tournament-related travel.

15. Child Support. For purposes of calculating child support, Jason's gross monthly income is $12,039; and Brittany's gross monthly income is imputed at $10,417. Child support shall be awarded consistent with the Child Support Guidelines of the State of Utah, based on the joint custody child support worksheet (183 overnights Brittany/182 overnights Jason), which is Jason paying Brittany $154 per month commencing November 1, 2026. Child support shall continue until a child reaches the age of 18 or graduates from high school with their regular matriculating class, whichever occurs later. Child support shall be due one half on the 5th and one half on the 20th of each month

16. Child-Related Tax Benefits. The parties will file joint federal and state taxes for 2025. Brittany will pay $4,500 of the total federal and state taxes owing, and Jason will pay the remainder of the total federal and state taxes owing, without claim for reimbursement from Brittany. The child tax credits and related benefits for the minor children for 2026 and later tax years shall be allocated as follows:

a. Child tax credits and related benefits for the minor child, A.E.B., shall be awarded to Jason.

b. Child tax credits and related benefits for the minor child, B.E.B., shall be awarded to Brittany.

c. Child tax credits and related benefits for the minor child, B.O.B., shall be awarded to Brittany in odd years and to Jason in even years.

d. When the minor child, B.O.B., is no longer a minor, each party shall continue to receive the child tax credits and related benefits as previously listed.

e. When only one minor child remains, the child tax credits and related benefits for minor child, B.E.B., shall be awarded to Brittany in odd years and to Jason in even years.

f. The parties shall cooperate in completing any necessary tax forms to support this allocation of the child tax credits.

17. Childcare Expenses. In accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-209, each parent shall share equally the reasonable work-related childcare expenses for the minor children.

18. Medical Expenses. The parties shall share medical expenses as follows:

a. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208, if health insurance for the benefit of the minor children is available to either party at a reasonable cost, that party shall be required to maintain said insurance.

b. The parties shall be equally responsible for all insurance premiums, deductibles, co-payments, and other reasonable and necessary medical, dental, orthodontic, vision, therapy, etc. costs for the minor children.

c. Each parent shall share equally out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent. A child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for a minor child are calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case.

d. A parent who incurs medical, dental, orthodontic, vision, therapy, etc. expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of said expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

e. A parent incurring medical, dental, orthodontic, vision, therapy, etc. expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expense if that parent fails to comply with the notice requirement.

f. The parent to whom written verification is provided shall reimburse the parent who incurred the medical, dental, orthodontic, vision, therapy, etc. expenses the amount of the out-of-pocket costs within 30 days of receipt of the written verification.

g. Division of Accounts. Pursuant to U.C.A. § 15-4-6.7, the parties shall elect that medical, dental, orthodontic, vision, therapy, etc. expenses be divided by the service provider into two separate accounts for payment, one for each parent, as long as the service provider receives a copy of the Decree of Divorce at or before the day on which the service provider first renders medical, dental, orthodontic, vision, therapy, etc. services. A creditor who has been provided a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of the expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order, nor may the creditor make a negative credit report under U.C.A. § 70C-7-107, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full their share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order.

19. Alimony. In consideration of the terms herein, each party is capable of supporting him or herself, and no alimony shall be awarded.

20. Marital Home. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired real property at 4352 Imperial Way, Provo, Utah (the "Home"), which shall be awarded as follows:

a. Jason shall be awarded the marital home free and clear from any claims by Brittany, conditioned on paying Brittany the Property Settlement as set forth below. By May 31, 2027, Jason shall refinance the marital home to remove Brittany's name from the mortgage, take Brittany's name off the Synchrony Project Card debt, and pay Brittany the Property Settlement contemporaneous with the refinance.

b. If Jason is unable to satisfy the conditions herein, the Home shall be listed for sale with a mutually agreed sales agent under mutually agreed terms on or before June 15, 2027 (if there is a disagreement as to the terms of the listing, for example, the listing price or final selling price, they shall defer to the recommendation of the sales agent). When the Home is sold, the proceeds shall be awarded as follows: first, to pay costs of sale; second, to pay outstanding liens and mortgages; third, to pay off the Synchrony Project Card debt; fourth, to pay Brittany the Property Settlement herein; and last, the remainder shall be awarded to Jason.

c. Except where otherwise stated herein, Jason shall solely assume the ongoing debt and obligations on the Home until Brittany is paid her Property Settlement (with the conditions satisfied on the debt) or the Home is sold. Jason shall have sole and exclusive use of the Home during this time.

21. Retirement Accounts. The parties currently have interests in defined benefit and defined contribution accounts retirement in Jason's name. In consideration of the property division herein, Brittany shall be awarded all (100%) of the defined contribution retirement, including Jason's defined contribution retirement (i.e., the URS Savings Plan) without claim by Jason. The parties will mutually agree on a qualified attorney to transfer the URS Savings Plan to Brittany, and equally divide those fees. Jason will be awarded 100% of his defined benefit (pension) retirement account, without claim by Brittany. Brittany has been advised that the potential dollar value of Jason's pension could be much more than what she is exchanging in property settlement, and knowingly and willingly waives her right to the pension.

22. Vehicles. The parties have two (2) vehicles acquired during the marriage. Currently, Jason is driving a 2016 Dodge Ram Truck that is unencumbered with debt. Jason shall be awarded this vehicle. The parties also have a 2021 VW Atlas that is encumbered with debt. Brittany shall be awarded the vehicle. Brittany shall be responsible for any debt on the vehicle.

24. Personal Property. Except as otherwise awarded herein, the remaining personal property will be divided as the parties may agree. If the parties do not agree on the division of the personal property, they will attend mediation, and if not resolved in mediation, this issue is reserved for court decision.

25. Debts and Obligations. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain debts and obligations, which shall be divided as follows:

Debt	Approximate Balance	Obligation of
