f. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

Father shall commence paying child support December 1, 2026. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for the child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) the child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month.

14. 1Medical/Dental Expenses. The parties shall provide health care coverage for the minor child pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-208. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor child in accordance with the statute. Father is presently maintaining the insurance for the minor children.

a. 2Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of child in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. 3Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents.

c. 4The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

e. If the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium.

15.2026 taxes. The parties agree to file separate taxes for 2026 and each shall be responsible for their own tax liability or receive their own tax refund. The parties will hold the other harmless from any taxes and liabilities arising from their separate tax return.

The parties shall equally share any federal and state capital gains tax liability attributable to the sale of the marital residence, after application of all available exclusions, deductions, and adjustments. Any capital gains tax liability arising from the sale shall be equally allocated between the parties. The parties shall pay their equal portion of the capital gains taxes from their portion of the equity in the marital home. Neither party shall be responsible for additional tax liability resulting solely from the other party's separate income, tax elections, or
