The above-entitled matter having come duly before the Court; the court having reviewed the papers filed herein; and having found that all appropriate documents have been filed; the Court having reviewed Petitioner's Affidavit as to Jurisdiction and Grounds, the Court having entered the Finding of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now ORDERS, ADJUDGES AND DECREES;

1. Three-month Residency. The parties were bona fide resident of Davis County, State of Utah, on the date this action was filed and for at least three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

2. Marriage. The parties were married on August 3, 2015, in Yankton, Yankton County, South Dakota and are presently married.

3. Separation. The parties separated on August 1, 2024.

4. Grounds. During the course of the marriage, the parties experienced irreconcilable differences that have prevented the parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship.

5. Children. The parties are the legal mother and legal father of the following child under Utah's Uniform Parentage Act, Utah Code 78B-15-101 et seq, thus, this court has jurisdiction to determine the issues related to the child. Pursuant to Rule 4-202.02 of the Utah Code of Judicial Administration the names and birth dates of the minor child are being submitted to the court on the NON-PUBLIC INFORMATION – MINORS form. The initials, birth month, and birth year of minor child are as follows:

    a. J.L.M., born in July of 2019.

6. Child's Residency. The parties' minor child resided in the State of Utah for at least six (6) months immediately prior to the filing of this action and Utah is the home state for the child.

7. Legal Custody. It is in the best interests of the parties' minor child that the Court award legal custody as follows: The parties will share legal custody. If there is a disagreement, Paige will have final say. If John continues to disagree, the parties will consult with professionals and specialists to attempt to resolve the disagreement. If consulting professionals and specialists does not resolve the disagreement, parties will attempt to resolve the matter through mediation before engaging the court to resolve the matter.

8. Physical Custody. It is in the best interest of the parties' minor child that the Court award physical custody as follows: Paige is awarded sole physical custody subject to John's right to parent-time.

9. Parenting Plan. The following schedules (a re-introductory schedule followed by the regular parent-time schedule) will be considered the minimum parent-time to which the non-custodial parent and the minor child should be entitled:

   a. Re-introductory Parent-Time Schedule. The child has not had parent-time with the noncustodial parent for an extended period. A modified, re-introductory parent-time schedule is appropriate. The child will be reintroduced to parent-time gradually. All parent-time is scheduled as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, John will have 1-2 hours of parent time per week with the child at a location that Paige is comfortable with and with an adult that the child is comfortable and familiar with. Parent time will be on a regular schedule, and both parents will work diligently to ensure they remain available to facilitate parent time for their child's best interest.

   b. Parent time will gradually increase until the child is able to tolerate minimum parent time (one mid-week visit and every other weekend) with John. There will be no overnights.

   c. Should John move more than 150 miles away from the child, John will travel to the child's location for parent time on his own expense. John will have no overnights during those visits.

   d. Virtual parent time: Virtual parent time will occur based on the child's ability.

e. Travel:

i. J.L.M cannot travel unchaperoned.

ii. For emergency purposes, whenever there is nonroutine travel with a child, all of the following will be provided to the other parent:

If one parent has paid in full the share of the medical or dental expenses that he/she is required to pay under the order, a provider/creditor may not, within 30 days after the date on which the medical or dental service is rendered, make a claim for unpaid medical or dental expenses against that parent, and may not, within 30 days after the date on which the medical or dental service is rendered, make a negative credit report under Section 70C-7-107 or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding that parent.
