The Order of the Court is stated below:
Dated: October 16, 2026 10:17:51 AM /s/ DAVID J WILLIAMS
District Court Judge

DANIELLE R. CRUMB, #16673
FONTENOT LAW, P.C.
1596 S. 500 W. Suite #200
Woods Cross, Utah 84010
Tel: (801) 312-9330
Fax: (801) 383-9612
danielle@utahlawpro.com

Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT – FARMINGTON
IN AND FOR DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: CRYSTAL MARIE KERSH, Petitioner, and FRANCISCO GLENN FELSCH, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264701118 Judge: Hon. David J. Williams Commissioner: Julie Winkler

Petitioner, Crystal Marie Kersh ("Crystal" or "Petitioner"), commenced this action against Respondent, Francisco Glenn Felsch ("Frankie" or "Respondent") with the filing of the Divorce Petition on August 10, 2026 and the Respondent having been served the document via process server on August 11, 2026. The Court has received the parties' written Stipulation and Settlement Agreement executed and filed on September 18, 2026 ("the Agreement"), which resolves all pending issues between the parties. The Court, having also received Petitioner's Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds and entered Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and having reviewed the file in this matter and being otherwise fully advised, hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES and DECREES as follows:

PARTIES, CHILDREN, JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Residency. Petitioner and the minor child are actual and bona fide residents of Davis County, State of Utah, and were such for at least three months immediately prior to the commencement of this action.

2. Marriage. Respondent and Petitioner are husband and wife, having been married in the Salt Lake County, Utah on December 26, 2015.

3. The parties separated on or around June 2016.

4. Child. The parties have one minor child as a result of the marriage, namely: K.M.F. born February 19, 2012 ("minor child") and no other children are expected as issue of this marriage.

5. Jurisdiction. Jurisdiction is proper in this court pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-11-201 and §81-4-402.

6. Venue. Venue is proper in this court pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §78B-3a-201.

GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE

7. The Court shall decree the dissolution of the parties' marriage on the grounds of irreconcilable differences of the marriage, making the continuation of the marriage impossible, and therefore, the parties shall be granted a Decree of Divorce from one another.

PHYSICAL CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

8. Regular Parent Time. Parties shall be awarded joint physical custody of the minor child. Parent time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, then parent time shall be pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-303 with Respondent labelled as the non-custodial parent for the purposes of reading the statute.

9. Holiday Parent Time. If the Parties cannot agree on a holiday/summer parent-time schedule, the default holiday parent-time schedule found in Utah Code Ann. §81-9-303 shall apply, as outlined in the chart below:

Holiday	Holiday Time Period	Years Frankie is Granted Holiday	Years Crystal is Granted Holiday
Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day	(1) Holiday begins: (a) at the time that school is dismissed for Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day; or (b) Friday at 5:30 p.m. at the election of the parent granted the holiday. (2) Holiday ends upon delivering of the minor child to school on the day that school resumes.	Odd years	Even years
President's Day	(1) Holiday begins: (a) at the time that school is dismissed for Presidents' Day; or (b) Friday at 5:30 p.m. at the election of the parent granted the holiday. (2) Holiday ends upon delivering the minor child to school on the day that school resumes.	Even years	Odd years
Spring Break	(1) Holiday begins at: (a) the time school is dismissed for spring break; or (b) 5:30 p.m. on the day that school dismisses for spring break at the election of the parent granted the holiday. (2) Holiday ends upon delivering the minor child to school on the day that school resumes.	Odd years	Even years
Memorial Day	(1) Holiday begins: (a) at the time that school is dismissed for Memorial Day; or (b) Friday at 5:30 p.m. at the election of the parent granted the holiday. (2) Holiday ends: (a) upon delivering the minor child to school on the day following Memorial Day; or (b) at 8 a.m. on the day following Memorial Day if there is no school.	Even years	Odd years

Mother's Day	(1) Holiday begins at 5:30 p.m. on the day before Mother's Day. (2) Holiday ends on Mother's Day at 8:30 p.m.	Never	Every Year
Father's Day	(1) Holiday begins at 5:30 p.m. on the day before Father's Day. (2) Holiday ends on Father's Day at 8:30 p.m.	Every Year	Never
Juneteenth National Freedom Day	(1) Holiday begins at: (a) 5:30 p.m. on the day before Juneteenth National Freedom Day if the day before Juneteenth National Freedom Day is not Father's Day; or (b) 8 a.m. on Juneteenth National Freedom Day if the day before Juneteenth National Freedom Day is Father's Day. (2) Holiday ends at 5:30 p.m. on the day following Juneteenth National Freedom Day.	Even years	Odd years
Independence Day	(1) Holiday begins on July 3rd at 5:30 p.m. (2) Holiday ends on July 5th at 8:30 p.m.	Odd years	Even years
Pioneer Day	(1) Holiday begins on July 23rd at 5:30 p.m. (2) Holiday ends on July 25th at 8:30 p.m.	Even years	Odd years
Labor Day	(1) Holiday begins: (a) at the time that school is dismissed for Labor Day; or (b) Friday at 5:30 p.m. at the election of the parent granted the holiday. (2) Holiday ends upon delivering the minor child to school on the day that school resumes.	Odd years	Even years
Fall Break	(1) Holiday begins at: (a) the time that school is dismissed for fall break; or (b) 5:30 p.m. on the day that school dismisses for fall break at the election of the parent granted the holiday. (2) Holiday ends upon delivering the minor child to school on the day that school resumes.	Odd years	Even years
Halloween	(1) Holiday begins on October 31st or the day that Halloween is traditionally celebrated in the local community: (a) at the time that school is dismissed; or (b) at 3 p.m. if there is no school. (2) Holiday ends at 8:30 p.m. on the same day the holiday begins.	Even years	Odd years

Thanksgiving	(1) Holiday begins at: (a) the time that school is dismissed for Thanksgiving; or (b) 5:30 p.m. on the day that school dismisses for Thanksgiving at the election of the parent granted the holiday. (2) Holiday ends upon delivering the minor child to school on the day that school resumes.	Even years	Odd years
Winter Break (First Half)	(1) Holiday begins at: (a) the time that school dismisses for winter break; or (b) 5:30 p.m. on the day that school dismisses for winter break at the election of the parent granted the holiday. (2) Holiday ends on December 27th at 8:30 p.m.	Odd years	Even years
Winter Break (Second Half)	(1) Holiday begins on December 27th at 8:30 p.m. (2) Holiday ends upon delivering the minor child to school on the day that school resumes after the winter break.	Even years	Odd years
Day of Minor Child's Birthday	(1) Holiday begins at 3 p.m. (2) Holiday ends at 8:30 p.m.	Even years	Odd years
Day Before or After Minor Child's Birthday	(1) Holiday begins at 3 p.m. (2) Holiday ends at 8:30 p.m.	Odd years	Even years

10. Extended Summer Parent Time. The parties shall share equally parent time in the summer with a week on/ week off basis. The parties should schedule any vacation or extended uninterrupted summer time on their regularly rotating weeks.

11. Given the child's age, activities, school and other commitments, potential job opportunities, and preferences, the parties will be flexible in implementation of any parent time sharing with Petitioner's residence being designated as the primary residence of the child.

LEGAL CUSTODY AND PARENTING PLAN

12. It is in the best interest of the Parties' minor child that the Parties be awarded joint legal custody, subject to the following Parenting Plan:

Decisions Regarding Raising the Child

13. The Parties should discuss with each other major decisions involving the child's health and medical care, education, religious participation, and extracurricular activities, and attempt to come to an agreement. The parties should consult with and share information from any subject matter experts, professionals who are knowledgeable about the issue, or who have a substantial connection to the child. After having obtained and exchanged all of the relevant information and received the opinion of any relevant subject matter experts, if the Parties are unable to agree, Petitioner shall have presumptive decision making authority. If Respondent believes Petitioner's decision is not in the best interest of the child then he has the right to request Court review. Prior to court intervention, the Parties should attend mediation with each party paying an equal share of the mediator's fee.

14. Day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control, and discipline of the child should be made by the parent with whom the child is residing at the time.

15. Each parent shall have the right to make emergency medical decisions without consultation with the other parent and shall immediately inform the other parent of said emergency. Emergency medical decisions are those that are life threatening to the child.

Education Plan

16. The child shall attend school in the district where Crystal resides. The child shall continue in her historical and current school and feeder schools. Both parties shall have complete access to all school records.

Parent-time Exchanges

17. If school is in session, the parent who is exercising their parent time period with the child is responsible to take the child to school in the morning at the conclusion of their last overnight parent time, and the parent who is commencing their parent time period with the child, is responsible to pick the child up from school in the afternoon of that same day in order to commence their parent time period.

18. Each party is responsible to transport the child to and from school during their parent time and is responsible for the child's timely arrival to and pick-up from school.

19. If school is not in session, the parent time exchange will take place at a mutually agreed upon time. If the parties are unable to agree, then the exchange will take place at 8:00 a.m., with the parent who is commencing their parent time with the child being responsible to pick the child up from the parent whose parent time period is ending.

20. All parent time exchanges shall take place at school whenever possible. Any parent time exchanges which do not take place at school shall take place at the parties' residences curbside. In connection with this, the parent who is in the vehicle (and any third party accompanying that parent) is to remain in the vehicle, and the parent who is in the residence (and any third party at the residence) is to remain in the residence. The child will walk independently and unaccompanied between the vehicle and residence.

21. A stepparent, grandparent, or other responsible adult designated by the parent who is exercising parent time, may pick up the child for that parent's parent-time if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual and the parent who is exercising their parent time will be with the child by 7 p.m.

22. Both parents should be polite and cordial and behave maturely during exchanges of the child. There shall be no conflict or discussions that may lead to conflict during the exchange.

23. The parents should also prepare the child, both mentally and physically, for each parent-time exchange by having the child packed and ready to leave on time, and by encouraging the child to spend time with the other parent.

Virtual Parent-Time

24. Both parents should allow liberal telephone and other virtual communication (e.g. FaceTime, etc.) with the other parent and should encourage the child to call the other parent.

25. Each parent should allow the minor child to contact the other parent at any time the minor child desires to have telephone or virtual contact.

26. Each party should have the right to contact the child at reasonable times and for reasonable durations (based upon the child's age, maturity, interests, schedule, etc to participate).

27. These calls should not be unreasonably denied by the parent who has the child, as long they do not conflict with existing plans or scheduled events, or interfere with the child's customary routine, thereby causing emotional discomfort.

Communication Between Parties

28. Communication shall be in writing via text or email or other agreed upon coparenting app and only concerning the child, unless there is an emergency or time necessitates. Communication shall be peaceful, civil, and non-abusive. The parties shall utilize a shared calendar for scheduling and notifying of child related events, schedules.

29. Neither party should ask or attempt in any way to have the child transfer messages between the Parties, whether verbal or written. The Parties should contact each other directly via text message or phone to discuss personal or child-related issues between themselves and should not involve the child.

30. Communication should be between the Parties and not through third parties unless both Parties mutually agree otherwise.

Child's Devices

31. Both parties shall have equal access to the child's electronic devices, including but not limited to cellphones, tablets, & Gabb Watches. Both parties shall have equal access to set parental controls as they deem appropriate based on the child's age and needs.

Respect and Cooperation

32. Both Parties recognize that the best interests of the child require the Parties to cooperate and treat each other with dignity and respect, especially in the presence of the child. Both parents should use their best efforts to foster the development and maintenance of positive relationships with the child by encouraging affection and promoting respect and good feelings toward the other parent. In addition:

a. Neither parent should attempt to harm or alienate the relationship the other parent has with the child in any form. Neither parent should make or allow another person or agent within their control or influence to make any disparaging comments about the other person or the other person's spouse or significant other in the presence of or within earshot of the child, including making posts on social media.

b. The parents should cooperate and include each other as to their child's day care, health care, schooling, religious activities, organized sports, and other special activities and should notify each other of their child's regular activities so that they may participate; and

c. The parents should not involve the child in disputes or disagreements that may arise between each other, but they may jointly discuss issues with their child to obtain their input.

33. Both parents should be concerned for the best interest and well-being of the child; therefore, both parents should be governed by the following principles:

7. The Parties should have a co-parenting relationship that is built on trust and respect;
8. The Parties should establish and maintain parental communication with each other to ensure that the other parent is informed about the child's needs;
9. The Parties should support each other in their respective parenting roles and should use positive words about the other parent and the other parent's partner or spouse to the child, and should be restrained from saying anything negative about the other parent, for the purpose of the child developing good self-esteem;
10. The Parties should listen to each other and do their best to understand the other's point of view;
11. The Parties should make all attempts to resolve all conflict between them and should utilize experts to assist them in this endeavor, if they are unsuccessful personally;

12. The Parties should solve problems and make joint decisions by working through their decision-making procedure which is described herein;
13. If tension arises in a telephone call, the Parties should take a break from the telephone call or leave their conversations to email;
14. The Parties should work together to improve their parenting skills and to share their ideas;
15. The Parties should live by the golden rule that they should treat each other as they would like to be treated;
16. Clothing, toys, and other items of the child's personal effects should be exchanged by the Parties, and returned in clean condition, in order to facilitate the child's visits;
17. The Parties should start over and recommit to this Parenting Plan when one or both of them steps outside of this plan and forgets about a commitment made in this plan; and
18. The Parties should see the other parent as a resource, consultant, and ally. The Parties should effectively work together as co-parents to promote the best interest of the child.

Contact Information

34. Each party should keep the other informed as to changes in residential addresses; home, work, and cell phone numbers; email addresses, and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency, within 24 hours of any change.

Extended Overnight Trips

35. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-202(19), for emergency purposes, whenever a child travels overnight or out of state with either parent, all of the following should be provided to the other parent prior to travel: (1) an itinerary of travel dates, flights, etc.; (2) destinations; (3) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; (4) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

Activities, Events, and Information

36. Both Parties should be entitled to participate in all social and school functions their child attend. Each party should be entitled to know about all important events in the child's lives, including the right to have relationships with and access to third parties and information having to do with the child. This shall include health care providers and educators as well as medical and school records.

Surrogate Care

37. Direct care by either parent as opposed to surrogate care should be presumed to be in the child's best interest. As such each party is awarded the right of first refusal such that if one party cannot be present with the child during their respective parent time an overnight period or more, then that parent must offer that time to other parent prior to seeking surrogate care. Sleepovers for the child when the parent is available and in town shall not trigger the first right of refusal.

Relatives

38. Each party shall make reasonable efforts for the minor child to attend special family functions. Neither party shall abuse this privilege by making excessive requests or unreasonably withholding permission. This typically includes functions unalterable by a parent (i.e. weddings, extended family reunions, or important ceremonies).

Relocation of a Parent

39. As the parties are exercising joint physical custody, if a party intends to seek a relocation outside of 150 miles from their current residence, the party seeking relocation shall abide by the notice requirements of Utah Code Ann. §81-9-209 and file a Petition to Modify if there is no agreement.

40. Upon the filing of a petition to modify, the Parties will mediate and attempt to establish a new parent-time schedule.

Adjustments or Modifications

41. All permanent adjustments or modifications to this Parenting Plan should be made in writing, signed by both Parties, notarized, and filed with the Court. Temporary or minor changes may be made whenever the Parties agree.

Failure to Comply

42. If a parent fails to comply with any of the provisions set forth above under this Parenting Plan, the other parent's obligations under said section should not be affected.

[End Parenting Plan.]

CHILD SUPPORT

43. For child support purposes, Crystal's gross monthly income is $4,897.00

44. For child support purposes, Frankie's gross monthly income shall be imputed to $5,373.

45. Child support shall be awarded from Frankie to Crystal in the amount of $358.00 based on a Joint Custody Child Support Obligation Worksheet and pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-101 et seq. with Frankie awarded 145 overnights and Crystal awarded 220 overnights.

46. The child support obligation shall continue through the end of the month a child becomes 18 years of age, or through the end of the month of the child's normal and expected date of graduation from high school, whichever occurs later. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-213, there shall be an automatic adjustment to child support if and when a child becomes emancipated.

47. In order to collect child support, the obligee parent shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§81-6-106 and 81-6-107. Said income withholding procedure shall apply to existing and future payors of the non-custodial parent. All withheld income should be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah, 84145-0011 until such time as the obligor party no longer owes child support to the obligee party. Should the obligee parent elect this income withholding procedure any administrative fees should be assessed according to statute.

48. Any child support payable by the obligor parent shall be paid on the first day of each month or at the election of the obligor parent by paying one-half of the amount due not later than the 5th day of each month and the remaining half not later than the 20th day of each month.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITY AND SCHOOL FEES

49. In addition to child support, the Parties shall share equally any expenses related to the child's extracurricular activities that they both agree to in writing, and mandatory school fees. In the event that a party desires to have a child participate in an extracurricular activity that the other party refuses to agree to, that party may still enroll the child in the activity, as long as that party pays for the activity and the activity does not interfere with the other party's parent-time.

50. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity or school out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses.

CHILD CARE EXPENSES

51. Given the child's age this issue is moot.

HEALTH INSURANCE AND MEDICAL/DENTAL EXPENSES

52. In the event either party currently has now, or has in the future, health insurance available to them through their place of employment or through some other source at a reasonable rate, whichever party is able to obtain health insurance at a reasonable cost for the child should be required to obtain such insurance for the benefit of the minor child. If only one party maintains insurance for the child, the party who is able to obtain the best coverage at the lowest cost should be required to obtain the insurance, with contributions from the other party as set forth below. Health insurance should include an obligation to carry dental insurance if it is available on the same basis.

53. The Parties shall share equally the child's portion of the out-of-pocket costs of the health/dental insurance premium actually paid by a party.

54. The child's portion of the health/dental insurance premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child should be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children in this case who are covered by such a policy.

55. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health or dental insurance plan of Father should be primary coverage for the dependent child, and the health or dental insurance plan of Mother should be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health or dental insurance plan but are by a step-parent's plan, the health or dental insurance plan of the step-parent should be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and should retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

56. Double coverage should not in any event be required unless it results in a financial benefit to both Parties.

57. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions, neither party should be required to maintain health or dental insurance for the child if it is not available to them at a reasonably affordable rate.

58. Both parents shall provide cash medical support by equally sharing all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, orthodontic, optical and mental health expenses incurred for the dependent child, including deductibles and copayments.

59. The parent who incurs necessary medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208. The other parent shall then reimburse the parent incurring the expense within thirty (30) days after receiving the verification.

60. The parent who incurs medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

61. The Parties shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

62. The requirement for either parent to maintain health and dental insurance, and/or to pay any non-covered medical and dental expenses should remain in effect for a child only as long as the child is of the age that he or she would be entitled to receive child support.

63. The parent who maintains health insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter, on or before January 2nd of each calendar year as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

TAXES

64. Commencing with the 2026 tax year, the parties shall alternate claiming the minor child for tax purposes as follows:

The parties will alternate the child, with Petitioner claiming the child in even years and Respondent claiming the child in odd years.

65. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-210 (4), a party's right to claim a child on taxes shall be based on the obligor parent being current in the payment of all child support and child-related expense obligations by December 31st of the tax year in question.

66. The parties shall cooperate in signing any forms required by the IRS allowing the other party to claim the child he or she is entitled to claim pursuant to this paragraph.

MARITAL PROPERTY

REAL PROPERTY

67. During the marriage, the parties did not acquire any real property.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

68. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Except as otherwise indicated hereinbelow, all personal property has already been divided. As such, the parties shall each be awarded the personal property in their current possession as their sole and individual property.

69. Any personal property acquired prior to the marriage or after the date of entry of the Decree shall be awarded as separate property to the party who acquired it.

70. Vehicles—During the marriage, the Parties acquired certain vehicles which shall be divided as follows, including responsibility for any loans, insurance, taxes, and expenses associated therewith.

a. Crystal shall be awarded the 2023 Mitsubishi Outlander.

71. Retirement & Investment Accounts – The parties shall be awarded their separate and individual retirement and investment accounts held in their own name, free and clear of any claim of the other.

72. Bank & Other Financial Accounts – The parties shall be awarded their separate and individual bank and other financial accounts titled in their own name, free and clear of any claim of the other.

73. Trust and Inheritances – Each party shall be awarded their full share of any property, assets, accounts, or monies they individually receive or have received from a trust or inheritance, including any assets purchased or paid for using inherited funds.

MARITAL DEBTS, OBLIGATIONS AND LIABILITIES

74. The parties shall each be responsible for any debts incurred individually, in their own name, or since the date of separation. There are no marital debts that need to be divided that the parties are aware of.

75. Neither party shall incur any additional debt in the other's name using their name, likeness, or personal information.

76. Frankie shall indemnify and hold Crystal harmless on all debts and obligations Frankie is ordered to pay, and any such debts and obligations associated with any property awarded to him.

77. Crystal shall indemnify and hold Frankie harmless on all debts and obligations Crystal is ordered to pay, and any such debts and obligations associated with any property awarded to her.

78. Both Parties shall notify all creditors regarding the division of debts, assignment of payment liabilities, and the name and current address of both Parties.

79. Pursuant to U.C.A. §§15-4-6.5, 81-3-105 and 81-4-406(3)(b), the Parties shall provide a copy of their final Decree of Divorce to all joint creditors for any outstanding obligations that are included in their Decree of Divorce.

ALIMONY

80. That both parties are capable of supporting themselves and therefore neither party shall be awarded alimony one from the other and hereby forever waives any claim to alimony past, present or future.

DUTY TO SIGN DOCUMENTS TO IMPLEMENT DECREE OF DIVORCE

81. Both parties shall sign and fully execute whatever documents are necessary for the implementation of the provisions of their divorce decree. Shall a party fail to execute a document within sixty (60) days of the entry of the divorce decree, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce at the expense of the disobedient party and ask that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

ATTORNEY FEES AND OTHER COSTS

82. Each party shall bear sole responsibility for their own attorney fees and court costs they have incurred in connection with this proceeding to date.

83. If either party is found in contempt for violating a provision of the Decree of Divorce, that party shall be responsible for a reasonable amount of attorney fees and court costs incurred by the prevailing party.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

84. Both Parties shall be mutually restrained from attempting, threatening, or committing domestic violence against the other party, to include stalking, harassing, threatening physical harm, causing any other form of abuse, and interfering

85. Neither party shall access electronic accounts in the other party's name, including social media accounts, email accounts, financial accounts, utilities accounts, or medical accounts.

86. Neither party shall distribute the other party's image or personal information.

87. Neither party shall disparage, defame, insult, demean, or harm the reputation of the other or their family members, to include posting on social media accounts or other internet sites or disparaging the other party to any professional colleagues or employers.

FULL DISCLOSURE

88. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party, separately or by the parties jointly.

END OF DECREE OF DIVORCE.

SO ORDERED****

In accordance with U.R.C.P. 10(e), the official signature of the court authority who has hereto attached a signature to this Order of the Court shall appear at the top of the first page.

RULE 7 NOTICE

You are hereby notified that pursuant to Rule 7(j)(4) that you have seven (7) days from the date of service of this proposed Order, the 29th day of September 2026 to file an objection with the court if you object to the form of the Order. If you fail to file an objection with the court within the 7 days allowed by Rule 7, any objection you have to the form of the order shall be waived, and the court may sign and enter this order.

DATED this 29th day of September 2026

/s/ Danielle R. Crumb
Attorney for Petitioner

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I HEREBY certify that on the 29th day of September 2026, a true and correct copy of the foregoing document was served by the method indicated below to the following:

Francisco Felsch Respondent Frankfelsch1980@gmail.com	( ) E-file Notification (x) E-mail ( ) U.S. Mail, Postage Prepaid ( ) Hand Delivery ( ) Facsimile Transmission

/s/ Danielle R. Crumb
Attorney for Petitioner