| IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OFSHANNON L. GUYMON,Petitioner,vs.KYLE O. GUYMON,Respondent. | | DECREE OF DIVORCEModified by the CourtCivil No.254700224Judge Michael S. EdwardsCommissioner Julie Winkler |

The above-entitled matter came on for the first day of Trial on September 11, 2026, before the Honorable Michael Edwards. Petitioner appeared in person and was represented by D. Michael Nielsen. Respondent appeared in person and was represented by Brittany Brown from the law firm of Richards and Brown, LLC. Kenyon Dove of and for Smith Knowles, PC, Private Guardian Ad Litem, appeared on behalf of the minor children.

The parties reached a full and final settlement of all issues through negotiations the day trial was scheduled. That agreement was read into the record and accepted by the Court. Each party was asked if he/she agreed and each replied in the affirmative.

The Court having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now therefore makes and enters the following:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

1. DECREE OF DIVORCE: A Decree of Divorce should be entered in this matter, based upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

2. RESIDENCY, JURISDICTION and VENUE. Petitioner and Respondent have been residents of Davis County, State of Utah, for more than three (3) months immediately prior to the commencement of this action. Venue is proper.

3. MARRIAGE. These parties were married on July 31, 2015 in Farmington, Davis County, State of Utah.

4. CHILDREN. The parties are the parents of two (2) female children as follows:

SJG: DOB: 4/18/16

MSG: DOB: 5/1/2018

5. HOME STATE OF MINOR CHILDREN. Utah is the Home State of the minor children, pursuant to UCCJEA.

6. There are no proceedings involving the custody of the minor children that are pending or that have been filed in this court or any other court.

7. JOINT LEGAL and PHYSICAL CUSTODY. The parties have stipulated and agreed that they will continue to maintain joint legal and physical custody in accordance with UCA 81-9-305 (50/50 basis), subject to the Parenting Plan, set forth below.

8. PARENT TIME. The parties will continue their 2-2-5 schedule under UCA 81-9-305 unless otherwise ordered or agreed upon in writing. Kyle will continue to enjoy Monday's and Tuesday's and Shannon will enjoy Wednesday's and Thursday's with weekends rotating.

PARENTING PLAN

9. Holidays: For purposes of holidays, Respondent will continue to be the non-custodial parent for purposes of holidays, and Petitioner will continue as the custodial parent for that purpose. Holidays should be as agreed by the parties. In the event that they do not agree, then holidays should be in accordance with UCA 81-9-302.

10. Summer Parent Time. The parties have agreed to vary their summer schedule, as both parties are employed as school teachers and enjoy summers off. In the event that they do not agree, then they will follow UCA 81-9-305(5)(a-d).

a. Each year a parent may designate two (2) consecutive weeks to exercise uninterrupted parent-time during the summer when school is not in session.

b. (i) One parent may make a designation at any time and the other parent may make a designation after May 1.

(ii) A parent should make a designation at least 30 days before the day on which the designated two-week period begins.

c. Petitioner should make the earlier designation on even numbered years and Respondent should make the earlier designation on odd numbered years.

d. The two consecutive weeks described in Subsection (5)(a) take precedence over all holidays except for Mother's Day and Father's Day.

11. Day-to-Day Decisions: With respect to minor day-to-day decisions, the parent in charge of the children during her/his designated parent-time has the right to make all such day-to-day decisions regarding the care of the children without consulting with the other parent.

12. Decisions Regarding the Children: With respect to decisions pertaining to the children's mental or physical health, education, religion, and/or any other decision of significant impact, the parties will confer and work together in good faith to reach joint decisions regarding these matters. Should a dispute arise relating to these matters, the following are ordered:

a. As to mental or physical health, the parties will rely upon the children's pediatrician.

b. As for education, the children will remain in their present schools and progress into the Junior High and High School in their area.

c. The parties do not anticipate any religious conflicts.

d. Petitioner will have the right to make any final decision required and Respondent will have the right to have that decision reviewed by the court, should he desire. Prior to court review, the parties will attend mediation.

13. Emergency Contacts: Both parents will be listed as emergency contacts at any institutions which the children attend, and each party will have an affirmative duty to ensure that the other parent is so listed.

14. Access to Records. Both parties will have full access to all of the children's teachers and health care providers as well as their school, church and medical records.

Each party will notify the other of all emergency medical, educational or legal events involving the children.

15. Communication. The parties will use Our Family Wizard for communications. The parties will discuss all parenting concerns via the app, text or email and will not use the children to deliver messages. The parties are limited to discussing issues related to the children. Each party will promptly provide the other parent with receipt of any significant information regarding the welfare of the children, including physical and mental health, performance in school, extracurricular activities, etc. However, each parent has an independent duty to create relations with the children's teachers, coaches, physicians, dentist, religious leaders, etc. and should not solely rely on the other parent for information related to such issues.

16. All communication regarding the children will be made outside of the children's presence whenever possible, and neither party will allow the children to view any communications between the parents.

17. The parties will seek to shield the children from all forms of parental conflict, wherever possible. The parties will not allow their conversation to become heated or overly emotional, especially in the presence of the minor children.

18. Neither party shall discuss the other party or the above-entitled case on social media or any other public forums.

19. The parties will allow their children to love both parents and not have to choose sides.

20. Differing Parenting Styles. Each party agrees to honor one another's parenting style, privacy, and authority. Neither party will infringe on the parenting style of the other, nor either party make plans or arrangements that would impinge upon the other parent's authority or time with the children without the express agreement of the other party.

21. Corporal Punishment. Neither party will engage in corporal punishment.

22. No Overnight Guests. The parties have agreed that there will be no overnight guests that are of a romantic interest while the children are present unless they have been in a committed relationship for more than 90 days.

23. Transportation. The party who is to begin exercising parent-time shall be responsible for picking up the children to begin their parent-time. When school is in session, exchanges will occur at school. When school is not in session, exchanges will occur curbside.

24. Relocation. In the event of the relocation of either party, the provisions of UCA 81-9-209 (Relocation Statute) will apply.

25. Domestic Travel. When the children travel with either parent all of the following information will be provided to the other parent as soon as reasonably possible:

a. Itinerary of travel dates, flight numbers or other travel plans, accommodations, destinations;

b. Places where the children or traveling parent can be contacted or reached, if cell phone service will not be available.

This information will be provided by text or email. It is the intent of the parties that each be informed well in advance of any travel, if possible.

26. International Travel. When the children travel internationally with either parent, all of the following information will be provided to the other parent at least sixty (60) days prior, or as soon as reasonably possible:

c. Itinerary of travel dates, flight numbers or other travel plans, accommodations, destinations;

d. Places where the children or traveling parent can be contacted or reached, if cell phone service will not be available.

This information will be provided by text or email. It is the intent of the parties that each be informed well in advance of any travel.

27. Passports. Both parties will comply or sign necessary documents to obtain passports for the girls, and each party shall be able to use those passports and care for them.

28. Special Events. Special consideration will be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

29. Music Lessons. The parties will cooperate in making sure that the minor children attend their music lessons and practice their musical instruments.

30. Extra-Curricular Activities. The parties will jointly agree upon any extracurricular activities. Such activities will need to be agreed upon in writing; however, in the event of a dispute, then the kids can engage in two (2) recreation activities during the school year in Bountiful and one (1) summer activity that would be based in Layton.

31. Regular School Hours. In accordance with UCA 81-9-202, regular school hours will not be interrupted for school-aged children for the exercise of parent-time by either party, unless otherwise agreed between the parties. In addition, each parent is obligated to ensure that the children are on time and attend school during relevant periods in which the children are in his or her care. This provision should not be interpreted as forbidding parents from allowing the children to miss a reasonable amount of school for special occasions, particularly family events.

32. School Fees. Each party is ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, school lunches, etc) incurred. The party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense should submit to the other parent verification of the incurred expenses, such as a bill, invoice or receipt for the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and will be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expenses, invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

33. Schooling. The minor children will continue to go to school in Bountiful based upon their current school and the feeder schools. If Petitioner relocates and those schools are no longer available, the parties will mediate to determine which school the girls will attend.

34. Mutual Restraints. Neither party will disparage one another; to the children, in the presence of the children; or to mutual third parties (meaning, co-workers or mutual friends), either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Furthermore, the parties will refrain from posting anything negative about the other parent or that could be construed about the other parent, on social media platforms, like Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Snap Chat, etc. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, harming, or threatening the other party.

35. Interrogation of Children. Neither party will interrogate the children regarding the other parent or require the children to provide an accounting of time spent with the other parent.

36. Disclosure of Information. Both parties have the right to know where the minor children reside and any individuals with whom the children reside or have daily contact with, such as transportation to school and activities. As such, each party will provide full disclosure of this information to the other party and will have a continuing duty to update any changes.

37. Contact Information. Both parties have the right to the basic contact information of the other party. As such, the parties will provide one another updated phone numbers and email addresses at all times.

38. Addictive Substances. Neither party will consume alcohol, use illegal drugs, or use prescription drugs in a non-prescribed manner during parent-time or leading up to parent time, or allow third parties to do so.

39. Neither party will smoke or vape in the immediate presence of the children.

40. Failure to Comply. Failure by either party to comply with this parenting plan will result in a finding of contempt by the court and associated sanctions and remedies, including attorneys fees.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

41. CHILD CARE. In the event that child care is needed, each party is responsible for her/his own child care and costs.

42. CHILD SUPPORT. As to child support obligation, it is recognized that the parties are both employed by the Davis School District, salaries are similar and each party is financially able to provide for the children, independent of the other.

e. Petitioner's income from one full-time position is $7,108.00.

f. Respondent's income from one full-time position is $7,346.00.

Using a joint custody 50/50 worksheet, Respondent will pay to Petitioner the amount of $36.00 per month, as and for child support.

43. MEDICAL INSURANCE FOR THE CHILDREN. The parties have agreed to standard medical provisions. Kyle currently insures the parties' minor children, and will continue to do so, so long as it is available at a reasonable cost through his employer. Shannon will reimburse Kyle for one-half of the children's portion of the health, dental, and vision insurance. If both parties choose to insure their minor children, they will each pay their own insurance expense, and Kyle's policy will be the primary health, dental, or vision insurance policy.

44. MEDICAL EXPENSES. Petitioner and Respondent will equally divide all out-of-pocket medical, dental, orthodontic, optical, pharmaceutical, counseling, co-pay and deductible expenses which are incurred on behalf of the minor children and not paid by insurance.

45. Any elective medical expense incurred will be approved, in writing, by the other parent prior to any cost being incurred.

46. The parent who incurs medical expenses will provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in UCA 81-6-208.

47. The parent who incurs the medical expenses will be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of providing verification of the cost and payment to the other parent.

48. Petitioner and Respondent will cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in UCA 81-6-208.

49. TAX EXEMPTION. The parties will evenly divide the right to claim the children for purposes of tax exemptions. Each will claim one (1) child. At such time as only one remains, then Petitioner will enjoy even numbered years and Respondent will enjoy odd numbered years.

50. REAL PROPERTY. Petitioner is awarded the residence located at 1448 East 1200 South, Bountiful, Utah, free of any claim by Respondent. Petitioner will have forty (40) days from entry of the Decree of Divorce to remove Respondent's name from the loan and pay Respondent the sum of $227,000. Concurrent with payment of the $227,000 amount, Respondent will execute a Quit-Claim Deed.

51. NO ENTRY UPON OTHER PARTIES RESIDENCE. Both parties are restrained and enjoined from entering the property surrounding the other party's residence without express permission from the other party. Permission of a child will not suffice. Curbside exchanges will not violate this provision.

52. SATISFACTION OF ALL CLAIMS. This payment of $227,000 not only satisfies the equity from the real property, but it further satisfies any and all claims either party has to the other parties' accounts, cash, or assets of any kind.

53. VEHICLES. Each party is awarded her/his vehicle in their possession, free of any claim by the other. Each party will bear and pay for all loans, repairs, maintenance and insurance on vehicles awarded to them.

54. BANK ACCOUNTS, INVESTMENT ACCOUNTS, ETC. Each party is awarded her/his bank accounts, investment accounts, etc.

55. RETIREMENT. The parties have agreed that regarding retirement they are each awarded their own, free and clear of claims by the other party.

56. DEBTS & OBLIGATIONS. Each party will bear and pay their own debts and obligations, free of any claim by the other.

57. ALIMONY: Neither party is awarded alimony, now or in the future.

58. FURNISHING, FIXTURES and OTHER HOUSEHOLD ITEMS. Division of certain furnishings, fixtures and other household items has taken place. Each party will keep those items in their possession, free of any claim by the other.

59. PERSONAL PROPERTY. The parties are awarded the property in their own possession, with the exception that Respondent is awarded the kiln, the shed, his passport and his winter items and boots. The Respondent will obtain and remove the kiln and shed within sixty (60) days of entry of the Decree or the Petitioner may consider those items forfeited. The removal shall be at Respondent's sole expense and he shall fully restore the property to the condition it was in prior to the removal. The parties agree to cooperate in good faith to arrange for the Respondent to obtain his personal property.

60. LIFE INSURANCE. Respondent has an insurance policy and it will be kept in full force and effect with the children named as the sole and exclusive beneficiary thereon.

61. INDEMNIFICATION. Each party is ordered to indemnify, defend and hold the other party harmless from any debt or obligation assigned to that party.

62. NO USE OF OTHER PARTIES PRIVATE INFORMATION. The parties are ordered not to use the other party's private information, ie: Name, Likeness, Identification, Social Security Number, Birth Date, Credit Score, etc. for the purpose of opening any kind of account whether financial, related to social media, or for any other purpose.

63. DOCUMENTS. Each party is ordered to sign all papers, documents, titles, deeds and any other document necessary to effect any of the provisions of the Decree including but not limited to the transfer of real or personal property.

64. ATTORNEY FEES. The parties shall each bear and pay their own attorneys fees and costs, including one-half of the guardian-ad-litem fees being paid by each party.

65. RELEASE OF PRIVATE GUARDIAN AD LITEM. The Private Guardian ad Litem is released from his duties at this time.

66. RESTORED TO MAIDEN NAME. Petitioner shall be restored to her maiden name of Lambert, should that be her desire.
