Attorney - Mediator
Filing on behalf of both parties as a Third-Party Neutral, pursuant to Rule 2.4 of the Utah Rules of Professional Conduct

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, FARMINGTON DEPARTMENT
IN AND FOR DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of TAMARA PRIOR, Petitioner, and MICHAEL PRIOR, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No: 264701325 Judge: Blaine Rawson Commissioner: Julie Winkler

The Petitioner, Tamara Prior, and the Respondent, Michael Prior, have entered into a written Stipulation resolving all outstanding divorce issues, which has been filed with the court. The Court has received and accepted the parties' Agreement, reviewed the file, and being otherwise duly advised, having previously signed and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

The bonds of matrimony existing between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved. In addition, all other remaining issues in this matter, outlined below, are to become final and absolute upon entry by the court.

CHILD CUSTODY JURISDICTION AND PARENT-TIME

1. There is one minor child born or adopted between the parties, to wit: Z.R.M.P. (born October 2015).

2. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor child. The parties shall be governed by the Parenting Plan set forth herein.

3. The Petitioner is awarded sole physical custody of the minor child. Respondent's parent-time with the minor child shall be as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree on a parent-time schedule, then they may follow the parent time schedule as outlined in UCA §81-9-302, with exceptions as stated herein.

4. Each parent is entitled to 2 weeks of uninterrupted parent-time during the summer months when the minor child is free from school. The parents will notify each other by May 15th of each year of the time period he/she will be exercising his/her uninterrupted parent-time. Petitioner will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an even number and Respondent will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an odd number. The summer parent-time cannot interfere with the other parent's holiday. If the parent designated to first choose the 2-week period for the year fails to choose by May 15th, the non-designated parent may designate when the 2-week period will occur.

5. In addition, holiday parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If unable to agree, then parties shall follow the holiday parent-time schedule set forth in UCA §81-9-302 and as follows with the Respondent identified as the non-custodial parent for holiday purposes.

6. Petitioner's residence shall be identified as the primary residence for education purposes. Both parties shall be listed in school records as a point of contact for school communications.

7. In the event either party moves 150 miles or more away from their current residence, the parties agree to follow the notice provisions of UCA §81-9-209, the Relocation Statute. While the parties currently live in Syracuse, Utah, Mother has an absolute right to move with the minor child as she deems necessary.

CHILD SUPPORT

8. Petitioner is currently unemployed, however based on her experience and ability to work, it is reasonable and appropriate to impute her to a gross monthly income of $3000.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

9. Respondent is currently employed and has a gross monthly income of $6667.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

10. The sole custody worksheet shall be used.

11. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-101 et seq a child support order shall be entered pursuant to the statutory guidelines as follows:

a. Respondent shall be ordered to pay Petitioner the sum of $697.00 per month beginning September 1st, 2026. The sum is known as the base child support award, for the minor child of the parties, pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines, until a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

b. The base child support award should be reduced by 50% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the noncustodial parent by order for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days. If the dependent child is a recipient of Public Assistance from the State of Utah (T.A.N.F.), any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal parent time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

c. The mandatory income withholding relief provisions of the Utah Code Annotated may be instituted at this time. Said income withholding procedure should apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income should be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah 84145-0011 until such time as the obligor no longer owes child support to the obliged.

d. There are currently no child support arrearages.

e. Each of the parties should be under mutual obligation to notify the other if there is a change in income of more than 30% and the change is not temporary in nature.

f. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-212(5), the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines.

g. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-101 et seq, the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature.

INSURANCE, DAYCARE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

12. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-208 (2024) as amended:

a. Either Petitioner or Respondent should maintain insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor child where available at a reasonable cost. In determining which parent shall maintain insurance for medical expenses, the parties shall consider the reasonableness of the cost, the availability of a group policy and the coverage of the policy. If the parties cannot agree on who shall carry the insurance, then it shall be determined by the preference of the custodial parent. If insurance is being provided by a plan by both parents, the Respondent's insurance shall be considered primary coverage and the Petitioner's shall be considered secondary.

a. The parties shall be equally responsible for all out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of the insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. Both parties shall share equally all medical expenses incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties. Medical expenses shall include, but not be limited to, the following: medical, dental, orthodontia, ophthalmological, psychological, or therapeutic, etc.

c. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

d. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

13. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-209 both parties shall share equally the reasonable work related child care expenses of the parents.

a. The parent who does not incur childcare expenses shall begin paying his or her share of childcare expenses to the parent who does incur childcare expenses, on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense. The parent can either pay the provider directly or shall be required to reimburse the paying parent after being provided proof of payment.

b. The parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of the childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of a childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within 30 calendar days of the date of the change. A parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES, SCHOOL, AND MISCELLANEOUS COSTS

14. The parties shall equally share the costs associated with the following expenses related to the minor child:

a. Cell phones

b. Car insurance

c. School fees and costs

d. Agreed upon extra-curricular activities. All current and extensions of the current extra-curricular activities where the child participates are approved.

e. Agreements for all expenses shall be made in writing. When possible, both parties should pay their one-half share directly to the provider, school or program for and on behalf of the child. If one parent pays the entire cost, that parent shall email the other parent proof of cost and payment within 30 days and the reimbursing parent shall pay their share within 10 days of receiving the email.

TAX EXEMPTION

15. Petitioner shall claim the child tax credit, exemption, and deduction for State and Federal income tax purposes each year.

16. This tax benefit is stipulated as a property settlement issue.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

17. Prior to the marriage, the parties each had individually acquired certain separate property. Each party shall be awarded any property identified as premarital or separate property, including all gifts and inheritance.

18. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain items of personal property.

19. Petitioner shall be awarded the dog known as Koa.

20. Upon Petitioner's written request, Respondent shall purchase for Petitioner one (1) new Major Fitness F22 All-In-One Home Gym Power Rack within thirty (30) days of the request. The equipment shall be purchased new and shall become Petitioner's sole and separate property upon purchase and delivery. Respondent shall have no ownership interest or claim to the equipment thereafter.

21. All other personal property shall be divided among the parties in a fair and equitable fashion as agreed upon by the parties.

22. All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources shall be awarded solely to the party from whose family it came.

VEHICLES

Vehicle	Awarded to Petitioner	Awarded to Respondent	Other
2007 Toyota Corolla		X	There is no loan against this vehicle.
2008 Chevrolet Suburban	X		Petitioner shall be awarded the Chevrolet Suburban as Petitioner's sole and separate property. Respondent shall assume sole responsibility for the outstanding loan secured by the Suburban and shall timely make no less than the required minimum monthly payments until the loan has been paid in full. Respondent shall indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless from any liability, fees, interest, penalties, or collection efforts arising from the loan. Petitioner shall remain listed as an insured driver under Respondent's automobile insurance policy covering the Suburban, and Respondent shall maintain such coverage in full force and effect for 90 days after the entry of the Decree of Divorce. After which, Petitioner will get her own insurance.

23. The parties shall take all necessary steps to transfer the vehicles into their own names as follows:

a. The Toyota Corolla shall be transferred to Respondent's name within thirty (30) days of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce.

b. The Chevrolet Suburban shall be transferred to Petitioner's name within thirty (30) days of the auto loan being paid in full.

REAL PROPERTY

24. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain parcels of real property, including but not limited to:

a. Marital residence located at 3555 W 2400 S, Syracuse, Utah 84075

25. The marital residence shall be awarded to Respondent as Respondent's sole and separate property, subject to Petitioner's claim to fifty percent (50%) of the equity as set forth herein.

26. The parties acknowledge and agree that Petitioner's fixed equity interest in the residence is $103,500.00. Unless the residence is sold pursuant to this provision, Respondent shall pay Petitioner the sum of $103,500.00 on or before August 1, 2027. No interest shall accrue on this amount.

27. To secure payment of Petitioner’s equity interest, Respondent shall obtain and pay Petitioner from a Heloc or refinance of the home by August 1, 2027.

a. Respondent shall commence his efforts in seeking this money for payment immediately.

b. Regardless of the reason, if the money is not paid to Petitioner by August 1, 2027, the house shall be immediately listed for sale. This document hereby gives Petitioner the right to list and direct the sale of the home at that time (see paragraph 40 below).

28. Petitioner and Respondent shall coordinate efforts to equally divided the personal property left in the home.

29. Beginning July 1, 2026, Respondent shall be solely responsible for all costs associated with the residence, including but not limited to mortgage payments, property taxes, homeowner's insurance, utilities, maintenance, repairs, HOA dues, and any other expenses related to the property. Respondent shall indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless from any liability arising therefrom.

30. Respondent shall bring the mortgage loan current within thirty (30) days of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce and shall thereafter timely make all required mortgage payments.

31. Respondent shall maintain homeowner's insurance, timely pay all property taxes, HOA assessments, and other charges relating to the residence, and shall not permit any additional liens or encumbrances to be placed against the property without Petitioner's prior written consent.

32. Respondent shall notify Petitioner in writing within five (5) days of receiving any notice of default, notice of acceleration, foreclosure notice, trustee's sale notice, or other material communication from the mortgage lender.

33. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties, if Respondent fails to pay Petitioner the sum of $103,500.00 by August 1, 2027, the residence shall be listed for sale with realtor Brayden Bangsten. If Brayden Bangsten is unavailable or unwilling to list the property, Petitioner shall mutually select another licensed realtor.

34. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Respondent fails to timely cure any mortgage delinquency, if foreclosure proceedings are commenced, if a notice of default or trustee's sale is recorded, or if the lender accelerates the loan prior to August 1, 2027, Petitioner may require that the residence be immediately listed for sale.

35. When the residence is sold, Petitioner is limited to the fixed equity amount of $103,500.00. The net proceeds, after payment of customary closing costs, commissions, liens, encumbrances, mortgages, costs of sale, and Petitioner’s $103,500.00 will be awarded to Respondent. However, under no circumstances will Petitioner’s amount be less $103,500.

36. If the residence is sold, the parties shall be equally responsible for any mutually agreed repairs, improvements, staging expenses, or other costs reasonably necessary to facilitate the sale. If either party advances more than his or her share of such agreed costs, that party shall be reimbursed from the sale proceeds before the remaining net proceeds are divided.

37. In the event of any disagreement regarding the listing price, repairs, staging, marketing, acceptance of offers, price reductions, closing matters, or any other issue relating to the sale of the residence, the parties shall defer to the recommendations of the listing realtor.

BANK ACCOUNTS, PROFIT SHARING, STOCK OPTIONS, BONUSES, INVESTMENT, RETIREMENT/PENSION ACCOUNTS AND OR/BUSINESS INTERESTS

38. The parties have acquired and continue to acquire bank, profit sharing, stock options, bonuses, investment, retirement and/or pension accounts and business interests during the course of the parties' marriage.

39. All of these accounts or assets shall be divided as follows as of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce unless specified otherwise:

Account Description	Petitioner will Receive	Respondent will Receive	Other
Chase joint checking account			This account shall be awarded to the primary account holder.
All other bank accounts in Petitioner's name	100%
All other bank accounts in Respondent's name		100%
Respondent's Voya Financial HCA 401(K) Plan	50%	50%

40. Retirement and or investment accounts divided by percentage are awarded subject to gains and losses.

41. If necessary, a Qualified Domestic Relation Order (QDRO) or Domestic Relations Order (DRO) shall be prepared to divide these accounts. Any fees associated with the above orders shall be split evenly between the parties.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

42. Each party shall be responsible for the debts in their own names and shall hold the other party harmless for any liability associated therewith.

43. Each party shall pay his or her own school loans.

44. Pursuant to §81-4-204(1)(e) Utah Code Annotated, the parties shall notify respective creditors or obligors, regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities and regarding the parties separate, current addresses.

LIFE INSURANCE

45. Pursuant to UCA §81-4-406 (3)(d), to the extent either party owns a life insurance policy or annuity contract, such party has reviewed and, where appropriate, updated the list of beneficiaries associated with said policy or contract. Each party affirms that the individuals currently designated as beneficiaries are, in fact, the intended beneficiaries following the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Each party further acknowledges and understands that if no changes are made to the beneficiary designations, the individuals currently listed shall remain the beneficiaries and shall receive any funds disbursed by the insurance company or annuity provider pursuant to the terms of the respective policy or contract.

ALIMONY

46. Respondent agrees to pay Petitioner rehabilitative alimony. The parties acknowledge the time, effort, and work that expended by Petitioner in assisting in the care of Respondent children. Petitioner has not graduated from college at this time. Alimony shall be paid by Respondent to Petitioner in the amount of $600 per month until Petitioner has graduated from college and has employment within the area of her expertise. The limit on this award will be 4 years (August 31, 2030). Alimony will commence as of September 1, 2026.

TAX RETURN

47. The parties shall file taxes for the 2026 tax year as each deem appropriate.

MEDIATION AND ATTORNEY'S FEES

48. Petitioner shall receive an advance from her brother in the amount of $1,100.00 to pay Respondent's remaining portion of the parties' mediation fees. Respondent shall reimburse Petitioner the full $1,100.00 by making eleven (11) monthly payments of $100.00 each. The first $100.00 payment shall be due one month after entry of the Decree of Divorce, with an additional $100.00 payment due each month thereafter until the $1,100.00 obligation has been paid in full. Respondent may prepay all or any portion of the outstanding balance at any time without penalty. This reimbursement obligation is separate from any other support, property equalization, debt allocation, or financial obligation contained in the parties' Agreement.

49. Each party shall be responsible for their own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the litigation of this matter (if the matter remains uncontested).

MISCELLANEOUS

50. Respondent shall continue to maintain and pay for Petitioner's current cellular phone service and associated plan for ninety (90) days following the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce. At the expiration of the ninety (90) day period, Petitioner shall be solely responsible for obtaining and maintaining her own cellular phone service. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to transfer Petitioner's telephone number to an account in Petitioner's name, if requested, and each shall execute any documents reasonably necessary to facilitate the transfer.

51. Both parties shall be mutually restraining from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, disparaging, or harming the other party at the other party's place of residence, employment or any other place.

52. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

53. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party separately or by the parties jointly.

54. This Decree of Divorce is the result of the Stipulated Settlement Agreement reached through mediation. The final documents were prepared as a service to both parties and shall not be interpreted against either as the "drafting party."

55. Each party should execute and cooperate in delivering to the other and to the court such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the divorce decree hereafter to be entered by the court. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of this divorce decree, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

56. Upon the filing of any Petition to change any provision of the final Decree of Divorce, the parties must first attempt to resolve the issue through mediation.

57. Petitioner may be restored to her maiden name of Tamara Rae Rawson if she so desires.

PARENTING PLAN

Each parent has a loving and valuable relationship with the child and shall work together cooperatively with regard to the child's physical care and financial and emotional support. The parents shall adhere to the following parenting plan provisions:

1. Co-Parenting Principles

    a. The Parties shall co-parent cooperatively, focusing on the physical, emotional, and financial well-being of the child.

    b. Each parent shall support and encourage the child's meaningful relationship with the other parent.

    c. Civil communication is required at all times. Name-calling or hostile communication is prohibited.

2. Communication Between Parents

    a. Primary communication shall occur via text or email, except in emergencies or time-sensitive situations.

    b. Parents shall timely share important information regarding the child's schooling, health, social activities, and other relevant matters.

    c. If information is available through public sources (e.g., school portals), each parent shall access it directly.

3. Joint Legal Decision-Making

    a. The Parties shall jointly decide major decisions affecting the child, including:

        i. Education and daycare

        ii. Medical, dental, counseling, and orthodontic care

iii. Religious upbringing

iv. Extracurricular activities

b. Decision-making process:

i. Identify the issue

ii. Develop possible solutions

iii. Select the most reasonable solution in the child's best interests

4. Dispute Resolution for Major Decisions - If the parties cannot reach agreement:

a. They may defer to the recommendations of an expert. If they still do not agree, Petitioner shall make the presumptive decision;

b. Thereafter, the parties may attend mediation with a mutually agreed mediator (each party pays their own fees).

c. Agreements reached in mediation shall be reduced to writing and signed by both.

d. Only after a good-faith mediation attempt may a party seek Court involvement.

e. A party who frustrates this process may be ordered to pay the other's attorney's fees, court costs, and mediation costs.

5. Day-to-Day Responsibility

a. The parent exercising parent-time shall make routine daily decisions.

b. Either parent may make necessary emergency decisions regarding the child's health or safety and shall inform the other immediately.

6. Information Access

a. Both parents shall have direct access to all school, medical, dental, and mental health records.

b. Each parent shall notify the other of medical appointments and emergencies.

c. Both parties shall provide written authorization enabling the other to access information from all providers.

7. School Access

a. Both parents may visit the child at school, receive school communications, and check the child out when necessary.

b. Disputes regarding education shall first go to mediation.

8. Medical Treatment Restrictions

a. Non-emergency, uninsured, elective medical/dental/orthodontic or alternative treatments require prior written consent from both parties.

b. Costs must be agreed in writing before scheduling.

c. Violating parent may be denied reimbursement.

9. Travel Notice Requirements

a. Either parent may travel domestically with the minor child during their own parent-time without needing advance permission, provided they give standard notice.

b. Any international travel, or any travel that would interfere with the other parent’s scheduled parent-time, must be mutually agreed to in advance and in writing.

c. When traveling with the child, the traveling parent shall provide the following, as required by Utah Code §81-9-202(19):

i. Itinerary with travel dates

ii. Destination(s)

iii. Contact information

iv. Name/phone of a third party aware of the child's location.

10. Child's Important Documents

a. Petitioner shall maintain possession of the minor child's important documents, including but not limited to passports, birth certificates, Social Security cards, immunization records, and other similar records.

b. Upon written request from Respondent, Petitioner shall provide any reasonably requested document to Respondent within forty-eight (48) hours. Respondent shall return the document(s) to Petitioner within forty-eight (48) hours after the completion of the intended use.

c. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to obtain and renew passports for the minor child(ren), including timely signing any applications, consents, or other documents reasonably necessary for issuance or renewal.

11. Participation in Activities

a. Both parents may attend the child's school events, church functions, activities, recitals, and sports.

b. Parents shall cooperate to facilitate participation and family events (e.g., weddings, funerals, reunions, ceremonies).

c. The parties shall make the child available for his activities regardless of the parent-time schedule, and who might “lose” parent-time because of the activity. The parties will listen to their son and accommodate his wishes in regard to attendance at his activities.

12. Exchanges and Transportation

a. The receiving parent shall pick up the child at the designated start of their parent-time.

b. Child shall be ready on time for exchanges.

13. Contact Information

a. Each parent shall provide the other with current address, phone number, and email within 24 hours of any change.

14. Parent/Child Communication

a. Each parent shall encourage free and uncensored reasonable phone/virtual communication with the other parent.

b. The child may contact either parent at any time.

c. A parent shall reasonably facilitate calls when requested by the child.

15. Right of First Refusal

a. Parental care is preferred over surrogate care.

b. If overnight child care is needed, the other parent shall be offered the opportunity to provide care before third-party caregivers are used.

c. The parties shall create and maintain a mutually approved list of surrogate caregivers/babysitters who may be used by either parent without additional approval.

d. Any caregiver not on the approved list must be mutually agreed upon in advance and in writing before caring for the minor child.

e. Both parents shall provide names, addresses, and phone numbers of any caregivers used.

16. Conduct Around the Child

a. Neither party shall speak negatively about the other parent or allow third parties to do so in the child's presence.

b. Neither party shall discuss court matters with or in front of the child.

c. Neither party shall disparage the other on social media or in public.

17. Introducing New Partners

a. Parents shall not introduce dating partners to the child until the relationship is committed and exclusive.

b. The other parent should be apprised of the individual when this occurs, and contact is made with the child.

18. Shared Calendar

a. Parents shall maintain a shared calendar for school events, appointments, practices, exchanges, and other child-related activities.

19. Substance Use Restrictions

a. Neither party shall use illegal drugs or consume alcohol to excess while caring for the child or prior to transporting them.

b. Alcohol and medications shall be stored securely and out of the child's reach.

20. Enforcement and Non-Waiver
