IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: BRANDY COPENHAVER Petitioner, and KALEB COPENHAVER, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264701440 Judge Michael Edwards Commissioner Julie Winkler

WHEREFORE the Court has reviewed the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, Stipulation on Divorce and Custody, and previous pleadings submitted to the Court. Based thereon, it is hereby ordered, adjudged, and decreed as follows:

1. JURISDICTION: That Brandy was for more than three (3) months prior to filing this action an actual and bona fide resident of Davis County, State of Utah.

2. Brandy and Kaleb were married on the 16th day of June, 2018, in Bountiful, Utah.

3. GROUNDS: During the course of the marriage, the parties have experienced differences which cannot be reconciled that make continuation of the marriage impossible and the parties shall be granted a divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

4. That as a result of the aforesaid facts, the parties were separated July 2026.

5. CUSTODY & PARENT-TIME: There are two (2) children born or adopted as issue of this marriage to wit; J.C. dob 11/17/2014 and L.C. dob 9/12/19.

6. Brandy and Kaleb are fit and proper to be awarded joint legal custody of the minor children. The parties shall discuss all major issues regarding the children with one another and shall respond to any requests within 24 hours, except when it is an emergency situation and the issue requires and emergency response. If there is no agreement after discussion, the parties shall look to a professional in the field (i.e. child's doctor on medical issue) and discuss again strongly favoring the professional's opinion. If a parent doesn't respond within 24-hours of the request, the other parent may move forward with the plan. If there is a response and there is still no agreement, Brandy shall then have presumptive decision-making authority with Kaleb having the right to object to the Court.

7. Brandy and Kaleb shall be awarded joint physical custody of the minor children. Brandy's residence designated as the children's primary residence for purpose of school and records. Kaleb shall be awarded parent-time consistent with U.C.A. §81-9-303 as follows:

Week	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat	Sun
1	Mom	Mom	Mom	Dad	Dad	Dad	Dad
2	Mom	Mom	Dad	Dad	Mom	Mom	Mom

Kaleb's weekend shall be August 7-9, 2026and alternating weekends and Brandy's shall be August 14-16, 2026 and alternating weekends thereafter.

8. The parties shall exercise holidays in conjunction with U.C.A.§81-9-303 with Kaleb designated as the non-custodial parent for this purpose.

9. The parties shall each be awarded two weeks of uninterrupted summer parent-time each year with Kaleb receiving preference on weeks in odd numbered years and Brandy preference in even numbered years. The preference shall apply if the weeks are designated by May 1 of each year. The other party shall designate by May 15 of each year.

10. Neither parent shall consume alcohol to the point of intoxication during their parent time with minor children. Neither will drive the children impaired.

11. The parties shall incorporate the following parenting plan provisions:

a. The parties are both dedicated parents who desire to create a structured parenting relationship for the benefit of their children and that their focus is the needs and interests of the children.

b. The parties realize that both of them are important to the children; that the children need their active support, and the parents agree to respect each other's role as a parent and their decisions with regards to the children.

c. The parties agree that to have a successful parenting relationship they will need to be flexible with the other parent. The parties shall incorporate U.C.A.§81-9-202 in giving special consideration to make the children available for funerals, weddings, or significant events.

d. The parties should have the children ready and able to leave with my Co-parent at the scheduled time for pick-up. The parties should understand that the other Co-parent has plans, schedules, and other constraints on their time. The parties should be considerate of this by demonstrating routine timeliness. The parties should make the transition quickly, without fanfare or drama.

e. As such, the parents understand and agree to develop and maintain good communication with each other and to establish a cooperative working relationship based upon trust, compromise, the sharing of information and open, honest and frequent communication between them.

f. The parents understand that the communication between them shall be civil and shall be regarding the health, welfare, education and all other interests of the children. The parties shall use a co-parenting app for primary communication if the parents cannot communicate effectively.

g. Communication about adult issues as well as the child should occur between the parties only. This means that in the event that one or both of the parties remarries, the parties will continue to communicate with one another and not communicate through their new spouse or any other third party nor shall the parents use the child as a messenger.

h. Each parent should be responsible for keeping himself or herself advised of athletic and social events in which the children participate. The parties should make a good faith effort to notify one another within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the children are participating or being honored, and both parents should be entitled to attend and participate fully.

i. The parent with the children during their parent time will ensure that the children arrive to school on time, is picked up on time and that they complete any and all assigned homework. The parents will discuss the children's homework and school activities so that they are both aware of assignments, projects and other homework that may be due. Both parents, if possible, will attend the parent-teacher conferences.

j. While the children is with a parent, that parent shall provide the children with: (1) regular and nutritious food; (2) clean and appropriate clothing; (3) sanitary and reasonable living and sleeping quarters; (4) appropriate medical examinations and treatment; and (5) supervision and guidance as appropriate for the age of the children. That parent will also ensure that they will not engage in, nor permit the presence of excessive alcohol consumption, unlawful drug use, sexually explicit activities, violence, or disrespect for law and order.

k. Each parent may make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of the children while the children are in the physical custody of that parent.

l. The parties shall ensure that the minor children have appropriate and safe sleeping accommodations during each parent's parent-time. Each parent shall provide the minor children with their own bedroom or other suitable sleeping space that is separate from the parent's bedroom. The minor children shall not be required to share a bedroom or sleeping area with stepsiblings or other children of the opposite sex. Each parent shall provide proper bedding, a clean and healthy sleeping environment, and age-appropriate privacy for the minor children at all times.

m. If either parent is going out of state with the children, that parent shall provide to the other the address and telephone number of where the children will be prior to travel taking place.

n. The children shall be allowed telephone contact with each parent at parent or child's request.

o. The parents will use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other on a frequent basis regarding the children's development, school work, medical and dental treatment, therapy, and regarding other information appropriate to share with the other parent.

p. The parents will notify the other parent of all school programs, church events, extracurricular activities, and sporting events that involve the children.

q. The parents will notify the other parent of illnesses the children may have when they are at the individual homes.

r. The parents agree not to place the children in the middle of their communications or conflicts that may arise, if any. They will not probe or question the children regarding the other parent, send messages to the other parent through the children disparage or degrade the other parent in the presence of the children or allow third parties to do so.

s. The parties shall provide 30 days' notice prior to any move out of state and 10 days' notice any in state relocation.

End parenting plan.

12. The Divorce Education Class for Parents Notice has been attached hereto giving all parties notice, that if there are children under the age of eighteen or a dependent adult that were born as issue of this marriage, the parties must attend this class before a divorce will be granted, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-4-105 as amended 1992.

13. CHILD SUPPORT: Kaleb is currently employed earning $26.44 per hour and $1,200 per month in commissions or $5,783/month.

14. Brandy is currently unemployed, but for purposes of child support, she will be imputed at $4,383 based on her historical earnings.

15. Child support should be established in accordance with the minimum support guidelines using the allowable gross incomes of the parties in an amount as provided for by Utah Code Ann. §81-6-301 et. seq. for the minor children of the parties based on a joint custody worksheet. The amount of child support provided per Code is $505 per month based upon a 156/209 worksheet. Child support shall begin the month following the sale of the marital home.

16. Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing, child support should be payable one-half by the 5th day of each month and one-half by the 20th day of that month. Child support due and not paid by the 5th day of each month should be deemed delinquent on the 6th day of the month. Child support due and not paid by the 20th day of each month should be deemed delinquent on the 21st day of the month. Either party should be entitled to establish an account with the Office of Recovery Services (“ORS”) for the purpose of collecting, enforcing and modifying child support. All administrative fees and costs of income withholding assessed by the Office of Recovery Services should be paid by the party who requests the services of ORS.

17. The parties shall jointly and equally be responsible for any extra-curricular activities for the children which are agreed upon in writing.

18. The parties shall equally share (50/50) all school-related costs for the minor children, including school fees, school lunches, and any other mandatory educational expenses. The parties shall also each be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any additional reasonable and necessary expenses incurred for the children from elementary school through high school, including but not limited to car insurance, cell phones, and cell phone plans.

19. The parties will each provide clothing for the children while they are in their own care.

20. CHILD CARE: The parties shall equally split any daycare expenses incurred for children care for work related care, if any.

21. MEDICAL: The parties shall ensure that the minor children are continuously covered by health insurance. The parent who is employed full-time and has health insurance available through their employer at a reasonable cost shall be designated as the parent responsible for maintaining the children's primary health-insurance coverage. The parties shall equally share the cost of the children's health-insurance premiums. Each parent shall promptly provide the other with insurance cards, policy information, and any changes in coverage. In the event both parties are able to have medical coverage for the children, the children shall be double covered and the parties shall each pay their own medical premiums costs for the children and Brandy's insurance will be the primary insurance for the children.

22. Each parent is to pay for one-half (½) of any deductible or non-covered amounts for such essential medical or dental services or prescriptions related thereto that are not paid by the insurance provider. The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, upon initial enrollment of the dependent children and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year, or 30 days after the annual enrollment period. The parent shall notify the other parent or Office of Recovery Services of any change of insurance carrier, premium or benefits within 30 days of the date of the change.

23. A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment. The other parent is ordered to make their portion of those payments or make arrangement to do so within thirty (30) days of receipt of the documentation supporting required participation.

24. Neither parent shall contract for or incur any obligation for elective surgery for the children, or any type of psychological counseling or evaluation for a child, anticipating co-payment from the other parent without the prior agreement or consent of that parent in writing. Orthodontia work for the children shall be split 50/50 by the parties.

25. TAXES: For purpose of taxes, the parties will file a joint tax return for the year 2026. Beginning Tax year 2027, the parties shall each claim one child. Upon only one child remaining a minor, Brandy shall claim the only child in even numbered tax years and Kaleb shall claim the only child for odd numbered tax years. Kaleb's right to claim the child is dependent upon being current on child support by December 31 of the claiming year.

26. REAL PROPERTY: The parties have real property located at 580 E. 300 S., Clearfield, UT 84015. The property shall be listed for sale by November 1, 2026 with an agreed upon realtor.

27. The parties will cooperate in the sale of the home and keep it in show ready condition, follow the realtor's advice on list price, reductions, offers, repairs, etc.

28. At the time of the sale the proceeds shall be paid as follows: 1. Payment of the mortgage and HELOC loan; 2. Payment of realtor fees and sales costs; 3. Payment of the medical debt and taxes owed for the tax year 2026; 4. The remaining equity is the net equity which shall be split equally with Kaleb receiving 50% of the equity and Brandy 50% of the equity.

29. Until the home sells, the parties shall continue to split household expenses as they did during the marriage.

30. RETIREMENT: The parties shall each be awarded their own retirement free and clear of claims of the other party.

31. PERSONAL PROPERTY: The parties have acquired personal property during the course of the marriage which shall be equally divided. Each party shall take the property currently in their own possession free and clear of claims of the other party more specifically as follows:

a. Brandy shall take the washer and dryer, kids' furniture, ½ the kid's toys, dressers, kitchen table, Eagles collection, holiday décor, the PS5, 3 TV's, the Jeep and her personal items.

b. Kaleb shall take the bed and frame, TV's, couches, ½ the kids, toys, both dogs, Audi, Yukon and Jetta, lockers, nightstands, premarital items and his personal items.

c. The parties shall equally split the tools, camping gear, fishing gear.

32. All further property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar source should be awarded to the party from whose family it came.

33. BUSINESS: The business, KB Card Hive shall be awarded to Kaleb free and clear of claims of Brandy. Kaleb will remove Brandy from any business accounts or ownership within 30 days of entry of divorce, any additional money earned from the business shall not be used to calculate support.

34. DEBTS: During the course of the marriage the parties incurred martial debt. The marital debt shall be divided as follows: so long as Kaleb signs the stipulation, Brandy will pay 100% of her credit card debt, in the event there is no agreement, Kaleb shall pay one-half of the credit card debt. Kaleb shall take the trailer and debt. The parties shall equally split the refrigerator debt.

35. Any debts incurred after the date of filing shall be the responsibility of the party incurring the debt.

36. ALIMONY: No alimony shall be awarded so long as this matter in uncontested.

37. OTHER: Brandy shall have her maiden name of Lovato restored should she choose.

38. The parties shall be civil in all communications and should not bother, harass, annoy, or threaten the other Co-parent.

39. The parties shall not disparage, demean, or speak negatively about the other parent in the presence of the minor children, nor shall they permit any third party to do so. Each parent shall take reasonable steps to prevent any individual—including extended family members, significant others, or persons closely bonded with the children—from making disparaging remarks about the other parent or any individual with whom the children share a significant relationship. Each parent shall appropriately manage and control their own extended family and associates to ensure that their conduct and communications do not undermine the children's relationship with either parent.

40. Each party shall be ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

41. Each party will pay their own attorney fees and court costs.

42. Each party shall be ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.
