IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF:	DECREE OF DIVORCE
April Ferguson, Petitioner, and Chase Ferguson, Respondent.	Civil No. 264701467 Honorable Michael D. DiReda Commissioner Christina Wilson

April Ferguson (Hereinafter "April"), having filed an action for divorce in the above entitled matter and the parties having come to an agreement as to the matters previously at issue between them, with regards to Property Settlement Agreement memorializing the terms of their agreement; pursuant to URPC 2.4 which states, "A lawyer serving as a mediator in a mediation in which the parties have fully resolved all issues: ... with the informed consent of all parties confirmed in writing, may record or may file the documents in court, informing the court of the mediator's limited representation of the parties for the sole purpose of obtaining such legal approval as may be necessary"; and the Court having reviewed the Petition for Decree of

Divorce, together with all the pleadings herein and being fully advised in the premises, now enters the following:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. April shall be awarded a divorce against Chase Ferguson (Hereinafter "Chase"), on the petition filed herein, with the Decree to become final upon signing and filing by the Court.

CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

2. Children. The parties have three (3) children born as issue of this marriage, namely:

a. K.D.F, born 03/2010;

b. E.B.F., born 1/2013;

c. I.N.F., born 01/2018;

d. and no more children are expected.

e. Pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN. § 78B-13-102(7), Utah has jurisdiction over custody of the minor children.

3. Custody. It is in the best interests of the minor children that the parties be awarded joint legal and joint physical custody of the parties' minor children. April's home shall be considered the primary residence.

4. Parent Time. Unless the parties agree otherwise, in accordance with their joint physical custody agreement, the parties shall share equal time with I.N.F., and K.D.F. and E.B.F. shall not have a set schedule, but the parties shall encourage them to spend liberal time with Chase.

5. Holidays: Unless the parties agree otherwise, the parties shall share holidays in accordance with the following table, with April designated as "A" and Chase designated as "B":

A	B	Holidays and Times
Odd Years	Even Years	Spring Break: ● Beginning on the day school is dismissed for the holiday at 6:00 PM. ● Ending on the day after the holiday at o upon delivering the children to school; or o 8:00 AM if there is no school.
Odd Years	Even Years	Fall Break/U. E. A.: ● Beginning on the day school is dismissed at 6:00 PM. ● Ending on the day before school resumes at 7:00 PM.
Even Years	Odd Years	Thanksgiving: ● Beginning on Wednesday at o 7:00 PM; or o The time school is regularly dismissed for the holiday. o The parent granted this holiday shall make the election. ● Ending on the day before school resumes at 7:00 PM.
Odd Years	Even Years	Winter Break (first half): ● Beginning on day school is dismissed at o 6:00 PM; or o The time school is regularly dismissed. o The parent granted this holiday shall make the election. ● Ending on December 27th at 7:00 PM. ● The parties will cooperate and make time for the parent who has the second half of winter break to have (approximately) 4 hours on either Christmas Eve or Christmas day.
Even Years	Odd Years	Winter Break (second half): ● Beginning on December 27th at 7:00 PM ● Ending on the day before school resumes at 7:00 PM.
B Every Year	B Every Year	Father's Day: ● Beginning on Saturday at 7:00 PM. ● Ending on Sunday at 7:00 PM.
A	A	Mother's Day:

Every Year	Every Year	● Beginning on Saturday at 7:00 PM. ● Ending on Sunday at 7:00 PM.

6. Monday Holidays. The parties have acknowledged the above schedule has omitted the Monday holidays provided in the code (Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day, President's Day, Memorial Day, Labor Day, Columbus Day, and Veterans Day). The parties wish to simplify their parent-time schedule, maintain their weekend rotations, and reduce exchanges between the parties. Therefore, in the event their children do not have school before or after a weekend (i.e. teacher development day on a Friday or a Holiday on a Monday, etc.), whichever parent is awarded that weekend, shall be awarded those additional days/overnights. For example, if Parent A was awarded the weekend, and on that weekend the children did not have school on Friday and Monday, then Parent A would pick up the kids from school on Thursday and take them back to school on Tuesday.

7. Extended (Summer) Parent Time: In lieu of the provisions in UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-9-303, each parent will have two, uninterrupted weeks with the children during the summer. In odd-numbered years, April shall have the first choice for their block of parent time, and in even-numbered years, Chase shall have the first choice for their block of parent time. The party with the first choice shall provide notice no later than May 1 of the schedule for his or her uninterrupted time. The party with the second choice shall provide notice no later than May 15 of the schedule for his or her uninterrupted time. If notification is not timely provided, the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent-time for the non-complying parent.

8. Parent-Time Conflict Resolution: When there is a conflict, the parties shall use the following list as a rule of thumb for priority:

a. Uninterrupted, extended summer parent-time if traveling more than 25 miles;

b. Mother's and Father's Day;

c. Holidays;

d. Extended summer parent-time if staying within 25 miles; and

e. Regular parent-time.

9. The parties are not entitled to make up parent-time should either of their regular time with the children be interrupted by any of the above. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the regular rotation shall continue, meaning there may be times when two to three weeks go by where one party does not get a weekend with the children due to a conflict occurring over their standard weekend visitation.

10. Special Occasions: The parties shall notify each other of any special events involving their children, such as school activities, sports events, graduations, social events, etc. so that the other party shall have the option of attending that special occasion, if possible.

11. Relocation: "Relocation" means moving 25 miles or more from the residence of the other parent.

12. Notice of Relocation. The relocating parent shall provide 60 days advance written notice of the intended relocation to the other parent. The written notice of relocation shall contain statements affirming the following:

a. the parent-time provisions in Subsection (6) or a schedule approved by both parties will be followed; and

b. neither parent will interfere with the other's parental rights pursuant to court-ordered parent-time arrangements, or the schedule approved by both parties.

13. Relocation Hearing. In accordance with UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-9-209, et al, "the court shall, upon motion of any party or upon the court's own motion, schedule a hearing with notice to review the notice of relocation and parent-time schedule." All other provisions of UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-9-209 not herein modified shall remain in effect.

CHILD SUPPORT

14. April is currently making $3,250.00 gross income per month.

15. Chase is currently making $11,750.00 gross income per month.

16. Child Support Payment. Therefore, in accordance with UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-6-302, Chase shall pay $716.00 per month in child support to April; however, the parties have agreed to an upward deviation to $1,600.00 per month. Chase shall make payments by direct deposit if possible. Said child support payments shall begin on September 1, 2026, with half of the monthly support paid on the 1st and half on 15th.

a. Based on the upward deviation, the parties have further agreed that as each child ages out, child support shall be reduced by $530.00 per month for each child.

17. Future Modification of Child Support. UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-6-202, as amended, provides that the parents are to be notified of the opportunity to adjust a child support order under any of the following circumstances:

a. Upon any minor child turning eighteen years old or graduating from high school during their normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, child support shall be reduced to reflect the same;

b. When a support order has not been modified within the previous three (3) years, and if this Court, taking into account the best interests of the children, determines that the new child support payment would be a difference of at least ten percent (10%) than the previous amount ordered;

c. A substantial change in circumstances occurs, including but not limited to:

i. Material changes in custody;

ii. Material changes in relative wealth or assets of the parties;

iii. Material changes of thirty (30) percent (30%) or more in the income of either parent;

iv. Material change in the ability of either parent to earn income;

v. Material change in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of a third party.

d. For any of the substantial changes of circumstances identified in (c) above, the change shall result in a difference of fifteen percent (15%) or more between the amount of child support previously ordered and the amount that would be required under the guidelines. If there is such a difference and the difference is not temporary, this Court shall adjust the amount of child support ordered to that which is provided for in the guidelines.

18. Collection. Should either party fall more than thirty (30) days behind in their child support obligations, the other party shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding payable through the Utah Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, UT 84145, as provided by UTAH CODE ANN. § 62A-11-401 et seq. to aid in the collection of support.

CHILD-RELATED EXPENSES AND TAX CREDITS

19. Childcare Expenses. Pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-6-209, both parties shall be responsible for one-half of any and all work, career, or occupational-training-related childcare expenses. The parties shall try and mitigate childcare-related expenses in accordance with their Rights of First Refusal described in the accompanying parenting plan, and by utilizing family first when available.

20. When possible, the parties shall make all childcare payments directly to the provider.

21. The parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of childcare expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days.

22. The parent who incurs childcare expenses shall be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of providing written verification of the cost and payment to the other parent.

23. In addition to any other sanctions provided by this Court, a parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with the provisions set forth above.

24. Insurance Premiums on Behalf of the Children. The parties shall maintain medical, dental, and optical insurance for the minor children's benefit. The parties shall work together to determine the least expensive, best quality insurance for the children. Pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-6-208 et seq., each party shall be responsible for one-half of any and all insurance premiums incurred by either party on behalf of the children. The parent covering the children on their insurance shall provide proof of insurance within 48 hours of renewal and shall ensure that both parents have access to use the insurance, and a copy of the insurance card.

25. Healthcare Expenses. Pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-6-208 et seq., each party shall be responsible for one-half of any and all healthcare expenses not covered by insurance, including but not limited to physician care, inpatient prescription medications, medically necessary medical supplies, eye examinations, corrective lenses, and dental and orthodontic care.

26. In accordance with their Joint Legal Custody, the parents shall attempt to discuss with one another any healthcare expense before incurring an expense. In the event one parent becomes unresponsive, the other parent may make a written request to the other parent for a specific treatment/expense. In that request, they must notify the other parent that if they do not respond within 72 hours, they will proceed with the treatment/expense. If that parent does not respond, such shall be considered acceptance of the treatment, and the parent shall split that expense equally.

27. If the parents cannot agree to a treatment/expense, they shall follow their decision-making provisions as outlined herein.

28. The parent who incurs medical expenses, including insurance, shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days, and as set forth in UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-6-20 (8).

29. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of providing written verification of the cost and payment to the other parent.

30. The parent maintaining insurance shall provide verification of coverage and updated insurance cards to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent children and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year, and as set forth in UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-6-208 (7).

31. In addition to any other sanctions provided by this Court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with the provisions set forth above.

32. Tax Exemption. The parties shall alternate claiming two children and one child with April taking the first year with both children. When only two children can be claimed, each party shall claim one child, with April claiming the oldest. When only one child can be claimed, the parties shall alternate claiming the child, picking up on the alternating schedule from when three children could be claimed. The parent owing child support obligation shall be required to be current on all child support obligations by December 31 of a given tax year to be entitled to claim the children for tax purposes.

33. School Fees. Both parents shall each be responsible for one-half of any and all mandatory school fees (i.e. books, registration, fees). Any non-mandatory school fees shall be considered an extracurricular activity as outlined below.

34. Extracurricular Activities. In accordance with their Joint Legal Custody, the parents are to discuss the children's extracurricular activities one with another before enrolling them or committing them to an activity. Once the parents have agreed upon an activity, both parents shall each be responsible for one-half of the cost of the activity.

35. Activities Attendance. Once the parents have agreed upon an activity, both parents shall encourage and facilitate the child's attendance of that activity through completion. Both parents and their significant others shall be allowed to attend an activity, no matter whose parent time during which the activity occurs. If either parent is unable to take the child to an activity during their parent time, the other parent shall be allowed to do so to ensure the child does not miss out.

36. Non-Agreed Extracurricular Activities. In the event the parents cannot agree on an activity, then either parent may still enroll the child in that activity, however, they shall individually be responsible for the entire cost, and such activity shall not interfere with the other parent's parent time. Neither parent shall unreasonably withhold agreeing to an activity.

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

37. Alimony. The parties have agreed to the following for Alimony:

a. Amount. Chase shall pay to April $1,600.00 per month.

b. Start Date. Alimony shall begin on September 1, 2026

c. End Date. Alimony shall continue to be paid each month until the first of the following occur:

i. April cohabitates with a romantic partner;

ii. April re-marries;

iii. April/ Chase's death; or

iv. If none of the above occur, the final payment shall be on August 30, 2046. However, the parties have agreed that alimony may be recalculate on or about June 2036, based on the parties then established need.

38. Real Property. The real property acquired during the marriage shall be divided as follows:

a. 531 N. 3225 W., West Point, Utah

i. Possession. April is awarded possession of this property. The party awarded possession of the property shall solely be responsible for any and all debts and obligations associated with the home (i.e. mortgage, utilities, etc.). April shall assume the mortgage as soon as she is able (estimated at 6 months post-divorce). However, Chase shall continue to have access to the Mortgage login to ensure that payments are being made on time, until April assumes the loan.

ii. Equity. There shall not be a requirement to sell or refinance the property until I.N.F. graduates from high school. However, at any time that the home is sold or refinanced, equity therein shall be divided equally amongst the parties. To calculate both parties' equity shall use the following:

1. Value. In the event of a refinance or new loan, they shall get an appraisal to determine the valuation of the home.

2. Value. In the event the home is sold, the sale price of the home shall be used to calculate the valuation of the home.

3. Calculation. Equity shall then be calculated by taking the value of the home and reducing that amount by the cost (i.e. appraisal fees, loan origination fees, realtor fees, suggested repairs by the Realtor, title fees, etc.) and/or any and all debts associated with/secured by the home (i.e., mortgage, liens, etc.) Such calculation is depicted as follows: Value – Costs – Debts = Equity. The mortgage referred to herein only includes the currently existing debts on the home and will not include any future loans taken against the home, except for a loan taken out for the purpose of home repairs that is discussed in advance between the parties..

4. Timing. Such calculation shall occur at the time of payout (i.e. if the value of the home has gone up/down since the Decree, both parties shall share in the increase/decrease).

iii. Terms. The party awarded possession shall (1) pay to the other party their share of the equity; and (2) remove the other party's name from any debts (i.e., mortgage, liens, etc.) associated with or secured by the Property.

iv. Default. In the event the party awarded possession of the home does not satisfy the terms listed above, the home shall immediately be listed for sale with an agreed-upon Realtor. If they fail to do so, the other party shall be allowed to proceed with the eviction process as outlined by Utah Law, and the non-defaulting party shall be awarded possession of the property to list the home for sale.

39. Personal Property. The parties shall equitably divide all personal property acquired during the marriage. In the event they cannot agree, they shall first seek the assistance of a Mediator before seeking the court's assistance to divide their personal property.

40. Motor Vehicles. The Motor Vehicles acquired during the marriage shall be divided as follows:

a. 2015 Chrysler Town & Country and 2018 Toyota Yaris. shall be awarded to April, free and clear of any interests and rights of Chase.

i. April shall remove Chase's name from any and all debts/obligations associated with this vehicle within 30 days of the Decree of Divorce being signed by this court.

ii. Upon April removing Chase's name from any and all debts/obligations, the parties shall retitle this vehicle solely in April's name (if so required) with both parties being required to sign any paperwork necessary to do so.

iii. April shall hereinafter be responsible for any and all debts, and expenses, including insurance, accrued with regards to this vehicle.

41. Retirement/Investment Accounts. In consideration for the global financial settlement set forth herein, Chase shall keep his retirement account. The parties have otherwise equitably divided all retirement accounts acquired during the marriage and each party is awarded the retirement account(s), investment account(s), and pension(s) currently in their possession and control as their sole and separate property.

42. Bank Accounts. Each party shall keep the bank accounts currently in their names as their sole and separate property, free of any claim by the other party.

43. Business Interests. During the course of the marriage, the parties did not establish any business, and therefore both parties are awarded any businesses in their name.

44. Debts. The parties have equitably divided all debts acquired during the marriage and each party is responsible for the debts currently held in their name as their sole responsibility.

a. Chase shall be awarded the approximate $30,000 in credit card and debt consolidation in exchange for keeping his retirement account.

45. Future Debts. Any and all debts incurred by either party after the date of separation shall be the sole responsibility of the party incurring the debt, with the other party being indemnified and held harmless from the same.

46. Notice to Creditors. The parties shall notify creditors or obligees of this Court's division of debts or obligations and to give creditors the parties' separate, current addresses. The parties understand that this division of debts is an agreement between them. This agreement does not excuse the other party from the debt with the creditor. Therefore, the parties further agree that they will keep any and all joint debts current and in good standing with the creditors.

47. In addition to a creditor's duties as a secured party under UTAH CODE ANN. § 70A-9-112 and the creditor's duties as a trustee or beneficiary of a trust deed under UTAH CODE ANN., Title 57, Chapter 1, Conveyances, a creditor, who has been notified by service of a copy of a court order under UTAH CODE ANN. §§ 81-4-501 or 81-4-202 that the debtors are divorced or living separately under an order for separate maintenance, and who has been expressly advised of the separate, current addresses of the debtors either by this court order or by other written notice, must provide to the debtors individually all statements, notices, and other similar correspondence required by law or by the contract.

48. With respect to a debtor who is not ordered by this Court under UTAH CODE ANN. §§ 81-4-501 or 81-4-202 to make payments on a joint obligation, no negative credit report under UTAH CODE ANN. § 70C-7-107, and no report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under UTAH CODE ANN., Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, may be made regarding the joint obligation after the creditor is served notice of this Court's order as required in this section of the Stipulation & Agreement unless the creditor has made a demand on the debtor for payment because of the failure to make payments by the debtor, who is ordered by this Court to make the payments.

PARENTING PLAN

49. Objectives. In accordance with UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-9-203(9)-(16), the objectives of this parenting plan are the following: (a) to provide for the children's physical care; (b) to maintain the children's emotional stability; (c) to provide for the children's changing needs as the children grows and matures in a way that minimizes the need for future modifications to the parenting plan; (d) to set forth the authority and responsibilities of each parent with respect to the children, consistent with the definitions outlined in this chapter; (e) to minimize the children's exposure to harmful parental conflict; (f) to encourage the parents, where appropriate, to meet the responsibilities to their minor children through agreements in the parenting plan rather than relying on judicial intervention; and (g) to protect the best interests of the children.

50. The parties understand the objectives of this Parenting Plan and believe they are both dedicated parents who desire to create a structured co-parenting relationship for the benefit of their children and that their focus will be on the needs and interests of their children.

51. The parties realize that they each have different parenting functions and will support and acknowledge the benefits to the children of having a healthy relationship with both parents.

52. The parties realize that both of them are important to the children, that the children needs both parents' active support, and the parents agree to respect each other's role as a parent and their decisions with regards to the children.

53. The parties understand that to have a successful parenting relationship they will need to be flexible with the other parent as to changes in parent-time, and adapt the parent-time as the growth and maturity of the children dictate a change in that time.

54. The parties shall reduce the conflict between them and learn problem-solving skills and implement those skills to eliminate future conflict. The parties shall have open communication and focus on the needs and interests of their children ahead of their interests.

55. Sharing Information. The parties shall use their best efforts to communicate and share information, to convey information regarding their children's schoolwork school schedule, medical and dental treatment, counseling, emotional needs, accomplishments, and other information appropriate to share with the other parent.

56. The parties shall notify the other parent of significant illnesses involving the children and of any information relating to their medications and/or hospital visits.

57. The parties shall communicate most reasonably, whether by telephone, email, text message, or by personal letter. The parties recognize that their children will feel more secure and loved when the parties are working together in a positive, cooperative, and constructive manner.

58. Co-Parent App. If the parties mutually agree that it would be beneficial, then they can use a co-parenting app.

59. Contact Information. The parties should keep each other apprised of their current address(es), e-mail address(es), and phone number(s).

60. Phone Communication with the Minor Children. The parties agree that the parent not exercising custody and parent-time with the minor children shall be allowed reasonable phone communication (including video chatting) with the children, not to exceed one call per day and at a reasonable time(s).

61. Right of First Refusal. Each of the parties shall have the First Right of Refusal for the care and custody of the children if either party requires childcare or supervision for the children for any period of time in excess of four (4) hours, and the other parent is willing and able to transport the children, then that parent will be able to exercise his or her right of alternative supervision.

62. Alcohol and Illegal Drugs. Neither party, while exercising custody, control, or parent-time of their minor child shall be under the influence or consume any (1) illegal drugs, including prescribed drugs in an un-prescribed manner while; or (2) alcohol to the point of intoxication. Neither party is to allow persons under the influence of illegal drugs, including prescribed drugs in an un-prescribed manner, or who are intoxicated, to be around their minor children. If either party becomes concerned that the other is using the above-mentioned substances in an above-described manner, they may request that the other party take a drug test or breathalyzer test. The requesting party shall pay any upfront costs for a test to be administered. In the event the drug test is positive, or the alcohol level is above the legal limit, the tested party shall reimburse the requesting party for any and all costs associated with taking the drug test.

63. Passports and Foreign Travel. The parties agree that the children's passports shall remain with Petitioner. In the event either party wishes to travel internationally, that party must provide the other party with written notice no less than 30 days before travel. If either party objects to the foreign travel, the parties agree to follow the "Decision Making" process outlined herein.

64. Decision Making: The parties are awarded Joint Decision Making.

a. Day to Day Decisions. Each parent may make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of the children while they are residing with that parent.

b. Major Decisions. For major decisions, including but not limited to medical, dental, psychological treatment, religion, and education of the minor children, the parties shall work together before making any of these decisions.

65. Dispute Resolution. If the parties disagree on a major decision as outlined above, they shall use the following Dispute Resolution Process.

a. The parties shall first attempt to discuss the issue together;

b. If they can't agree, the parties shall then seek the assistance of a professional who specializes in the disputed issues (i.e., a Dentist for a toothache, an Orthodontist for braces, a psychiatrist/LCSW for depression and anxiety, etc.) The parties should prioritize specialist or general practitioners if/when they can, and taking into consideration the cost of treatment, etc.

c. If they still cannot agree, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreeable mediator and participate in good faith in mediation.

d. If the parties still cannot agree, either party may seek assistance from this Court. If either party is found to have acted unreasonably during the process, this Court may at its discretion award attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

e. The parties shall not move forward with the decision (i.e. get treatment, change school districts, or perform ordinances) without first following and completing this entire process unless failure to do so would cause immediate and irreparable harm to the child.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDER

66. Disparagement. The parties are mutually restrained from making any disparaging remarks about the other parent in front of the parties' minor children or to the minor children.

67. Credit. Neither party shall use the other party's credit, likeness, or accounts for any purpose.

MISCELLANEOUS

68. Maiden Name: April shall be allowed to restore her maiden name if she so desires but is not mandated to do so.

69. Execution of Documents: Each party shall promptly execute and deliver any and all documents necessary to carry out the terms and provisions contained in the Decree of Divorce entered in this matter.

70. Separate Property: All property and money received or retained by each party pursuant to the Decree of Divorce is the separate property of such party free and clear of any right, interest or claim of the other party. Each party shall have the right to deal with or dispose of his or her separate property, both real and personal, fully and effectually, in all respects and for all purposes.

71. Attorney's Fees: The parties shall each be responsible for their attorney fees incurred in this matter. In the event that any party hereto shall in the future be found in default or breach of this Decree, said party shall be liable to pay all reasonable attorney fees, court costs and other related collection costs and expenses incurred by the non-defaulting or non-breaching party in prosecuting its rights hereunder.
