IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF KARI LYNNE JARMAN, Petitioner, vs. ARLEY JEFFERY JARMAN, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264701389 Judge David J. Williams Commissioner Julie Winkler

The above-captioned matter came before the Court by Affidavit and based upon the Stipulation entered into by the parties. The Court having previously entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now therefore makes and enters the following:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

DECREE OF DIVORCE: A Decree of Divorce is hereby entered in this matter, dissolving the bonds of matrimony between the parties.

RESIDENCY, JURISDICTION and VENUE. Petitioner and Respondent have been residents of Davis County, State of Utah, for more than three (3) months immediately prior to the commencement of this action. Venue is proper.

MARRIAGE INFORMATION.-2-Kari and Arley were married on June 18, 2005 in Bountiful, Davis County, State of Utah. They separated March 13, 2026.

GROUNDS. During the course of the marriage, irreconcilable differences have arisen to the degree where continuation of the marriage is not possible.

CHILDREN. Kari and Arley have three (3) children, two (2) of whom are minors. Both are females

AJ: 9/8/2009 (DOB)

KJ: 2/2/2012 (DOB)

JOINT LEGAL and PHYSICAL CUSTODY, EQUAL PARENT TIME and REFERENCE TO PARENTING PLAN. Kari and Arley will be granted joint legal and physical custody of their children, in accordance with UCA 81-9-305. Parent time will be as agreed by the parties with the intent that their children may choose to spend time with either parent as the children may desire.

It is recognized that Kari and Arley intend to be flexible in trading days and working together in their daughters' best interests.

However, they recognize the importance of providing information to each other regarding the plans and whereabouts of their children. Both Kari and Arley will let the other know where and when the girls are going to be picked up and returned.

Kari and Arley recognize that their daughters are not to be used as messengers. The two of them communicate with one another regarding their daughters, not leaving that task to the daughters.

Kari and Arley have agreed that regardless of the number of overnights each enjoys, the 50/50 child support worksheet will be utilized in calculating child support, and because there incomes are similar, neither will have a child support obligation to the other. That is their intention and they commit in good faith to these provisions.

Holidays will be as agreed by Kari and Arley. In the event that they do not agree, then holidays will be in accordance with UCA 81-9-302, a copy of which is attached.

Kari and Arley recognize that a Parenting Plan is required under an order of joint legal and physical custody. The Parenting Plan has been filed on September 28, 2026.

HOME STATE OF MINOR CHILDREN. Utah is the Home State of the minor children, pursuant to UCCJEA.

NO PROCEEDINGS. There are no proceedings involving the minor children that are pending or that have been filed in this court or any other court.

CHILD SUPPORT. In accordance with their agreement regarding custody and parent time, child support will be calculated utilizing a joint legal and physical custody worksheet with equal parent time.-4Petitioner's and Respondent's incomes are similar - each makes approximately $5000.00 per month. Both represent that he/she is capable of financially supporting the children without assistance from the other. No child support order will be required in this case.

MEDICAL INSURANCE FOR THE CHILDREN. Arley will continue to provide medical and dental insurance for the benefit of the children through his employer at his sole cost. This may include the adult son.

MEDICAL EXPENSES. Kari and Arley will divide equally all out-of-pocket medical, dental, orthodontic, optical, pharmaceutical, counseling, co-pay and deductible expenses which are incurred on behalf of the children and not paid by insurance.

TAX ISSUES. Kari and Arley have agreed that each will file separate taxes for 2026. They will evenly divide the right to claim the children for purposes of exemptions - one (1) each. At such time as only one child remains, Kari will claim that child on even years and Arley will claim that child on odd years.

TAX DEBTS. Kari and Arley have agreed that each is responsible for her/his own tax debts for 2026 and continuing thereafter. Each will indemnify, defend and hold the other harmless therefrom. It is recognized that Arley may have withdrawn funds from his retirement accounts in 2026. Kari will not be responsible for any penalties or tax obligations arising from those withdrawals.

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS. All joint checking accounts will be evenly divided. As to other accounts, including but not limited to savings, checking, retirement, investment, etc., they are sole accounts and each party will be awarded those accounts in her/his name, free of any claim by the other.

DEBTS. Kari and Arley have significant debts, the majority of which are in Kari's name. They have agreed to divide these debts. Each has agreed to pay those debts assigned to her/him as follows:

Any debts incurred after their separation are the responsibility of the party who incurred the debt.

Arley has credit card debts to Citi Bank Visa, American Express and Lowe's. He is solely responsible to pay those obligations. Amounts and monthly payments are unknown. However, the American Express debt are assumed to be minor and the Citi Visa debt is assumed to be approximately $10,000.

Kari will pay the joint debt on the windows which were installed several years ago. Total debt is approximately $19,900 and the monthly obligation is approximately $328.00.

Arley will pay the joint debt on the Hilton Vacation Club. He is awarded that asset and will attempt to remove Kari's name from that asset. The monthly obligation is approximately $311.00.

Kari will pay the following debts, which are in her name:

The adult son's car loan of approximately $2036.00. The monthly payment is approximately $200.00.

The Priceline credit card in the approximate amount of $18,725.00. The monthly payment is approximately $ 530.00.

The Barclay credit card in the approximate amount of $1309.00. The monthly payment is approximately $100.00.

The Amazon credit card in the approximate amount of $5504.00. The monthly payment is approximately $140.00.

The America First Visa in the approximate amount of $7955.00. The monthly payment is approximately $200.00.

Arley will pay the following debts, which are also in Kari's name:

The Sams Club credit card in the approximate amount of $5926.00. The monthly payment is approximately $190.00.

The Southwest credit card in the approximate amount of $3719.00. The monthly payment is approximately $120.00.

The Costco Visa in the approximate amount of $9354.00. The monthly payment is approximately $300.00.

The Burt Brothers debt in the approximate amount of $2829.00. The monthly payment is approximately $124.00.

The debt consolidation loan through Discover in the approximate amount of $24,429.00. The monthly payment is approximately $678.00.

INDEMNIFICATION. -7- Kari and Arley are each ordered to indemnify, defend and hold the other party harmless from any debt or obligation assigned to her/him.

VEHICLES. Vehicles will be awarded as follows:

Kari will be awarded the GMC Denali, already in her name and possession.

Arley will be awarded the Chevrolet Tahoe, already in his name and possession.

The minor child AJ will be awarded the Jeep vehicle; and

The adult son Keeton will be awarded the Chevrolet Equinox.

Each party will be responsible for all indebtedness, insurance, expenses, maintenance, etc. associated with his/her vehicle. AJ's Jeep will be insured by Arley and Keeton's Equinox will be insured by Kari. Each realizes the importance of keeping insurance coverage current on these vehicles. Each will have an obligation to notify the other if insurance coverage is interrupted, for what ever reason.

ALIMONY: Neither party will be awarded alimony, now or in the future.

HOUSEHOLD ITEMS and PERSONAL ITEMS. Kari and Arley are satisfied with the present division of household items. Each is awarded the items in his/her possession, Arley will be awarded his yearbooks, bike, and other personal items.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDER. Kari and Arley will be restrained and enjoined from harassing, demeaning or threatening the other party, personally, in writing, electronically or by any other means. Further, Kari and Arley will be restrained and enjoined from disparaging communications and/or comments about the other from this time forward - this includes all platforms of social media and any communication, whether verbal, written, electronic, or otherwise.

NO USE OF OTHER PARTIES PRIVATE INFORMATION. Kari and Arley will be ordered not to use the other party's private information, ie: Name, Likeness, Identification, Social Security Number, Birth Date, Credit Score, etc. for the purpose of opening any kind of account whether financial, related to social media, or for any other purpose.

DOCUMENTS. In the final Decree in this matter each party will be ordered to sign all papers, documents, titles, deeds and any other document necessary to effect any of the provisions of the Decree including but not limited to the transfer of real or personal property.

FULL DISCLOSURE. The parties have not hidden any marital assets and have disclosed to each other all of their properties of any kind and wherever located. The parties have no marital assets or debts other than those listed on their respective Financial Declarations.

DEFAULT. In the event that either party defaults in his/her obligations hereunder causing the non-defaulting party to seek relief from the Court in the enforcement of the Decree, the defaulting party will be liable to the non-defaulting party for all reasonable attorney fees and court costs.

FULL and COMPLETE SETTLEMENT. The parties each represented that their stipulation is entire and complete and embodies all understandings and agreements between the parties. No prior contemporaneous oral or written agreements or matters outside of their Stipulation will have any force and effect. Kari and Arley are aware that they have a right to proceed to trial in this matter to present all of their evidence and witnesses, but have waived that right. Kari and Arley are satisfied that this Stipulation is fair and reasonable. There are no questions Kari and Arley have to ask or unresolved issues that need to be addressed. All issues either party wishes to raise have been incorporated in their Stipulation.

COOPERATION. Each of the parties will sign and fully execute whatever documents are necessary for the implementation of the provisions of this agreement. Will a party fail to execute a document within 30 days of the entry of the Decree, the other party may bring an Order to Show Cause at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT. Kari and Arley each warrant and represent that they understand all the terms, conditions and obligations set forth in this document.

Each acknowledges that they believe this document is fair and reasonable and reflects her/his understanding and agreement. Each has had the opportunity to discuss issues with an attorney and has either done so or decided not to.

REPRESENTATION. Arley acknowledged that attorney D. Michael Nielsen did not represent her interests and represented only the interests of Kari in this matter.

ATTORNEY FEES. Each party will bear and pay their own attorneys fees and costs.
