In the Matter of the Marriage of: STORMY WINTER, Petitioner and KADEN WINTER, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE CASE NO. 264900461 JUDGE: HON. CRISTINA ORTEGA COMMISSIONER: BRANDON RICHARDS

WHEREFORE, the Court has reviewed the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, Mediated Stipulation and Settlement Agreement, and previous pleadings submitted to the Court. Based thereon, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed as follows:

1. DIVORCE: That the parties shall be granted a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences the same to become final upon entry.
2. NAMES: Because the parties share the same last name, they are referred to by their first names to avoid confusion, meaning no disrespect by the apparent informality to-wit: Petitioner Stormy Winter [“Stormy”] and Respondent Kaden Winter [“Kaden”]. Janson v. Janson, 2019 UT App 106.

3. CHILDREN: The parties share two minor children, to-wit: B.J.W., born July 2021 and L.L.W., born November 2023 (hereinafter referred to as "children").

factored in) from the non-moving parent's home to the potential new school should be considered too great.

5. PARENTING PLAN: The following parenting plan shall govern the parties to-wit:

   a. DEFINITIONS:

      i. Adult issues: Child related issues surrounding finances, parent-time, subjects beyond the children's maturity, changes to parenting responsibilities, any issue which children have no control over that will reasonably cause stress.

      ii. Advance Notice: 72 hours in advance of an actual event.

      iii. Compliance: Routine obedience to terms of the parenting plan - not perfection.

      iv. Confer: Actively seeking the opinion/advice of a co-parent and conveying any decision made as a result of said communication to a co-parent.

      v. Co-parent: The other parent of the child.

      vi. Co-parenting: The lifestyle of working together for the goal of raising the children to be the best, most well-adjusted, and the happiest children possible transitioning into the best, most well-adjusted, and happiest adult possible.

vii. Custody: This word is never used alone in the Parenting Plan because it is too vague and has too many meanings for too many people.

viii. Day-to-day decisions: Any and all routine parental decisions that do not interfere with decisions designated "major" or "moderate."

ix. Gate keeping: When one parent controls the flow of information about the child. This can only occur when one parent does not have access to the source of information.

x. Major decisions: non-emergency surgery, long-term prescription medication, school/teacher selection, and other life-altering decisions.

xi. Moderate decisions: Religious ordinances, emergency medical treatment, extra-curricular activities that affect a co-parent's awarded time, haircuts, piercings and similar decisions.

xii. Non-compliance: Three or more failures to follow the Parenting Plan.

xiii. Parent-time: The actual time awarded to a parent to care for a child.

xiv. Reply Notice: 36 hours in advance of an actual event.

b. FIRST PERSON RECITATIONS: Each party shall adhere to the following in the first person to-wit:

i. I understand that the court is the "boss" of this case and that I don't get to make my own rules at any point. I am willing to work hard, and I agree to be a flexible Co-parent. I agree that Co-parenting is the lifestyle that will give our children the best chance of success in life and that it is in the best interest of our child.

ii. I will look for the positive qualities of my Co-parent. I understand that our children view himself or herself as ½ me and ½ my co-parent. I shall abide by the Golden Rule and treat my Co-Parent exactly the way I want to be treated by my Co-parent.

iii. I shall actively promote our children's positive relationship and opinion of my Co-parent (I am not required to lie to do so. However, I shall not disclose information that is inappropriate for our child).

iv. I shall not bother, harass, annoy or threaten my Co-parent.

v. I will focus 90 percent of my efforts on my own Compliance in this parenting plan and only 10 percent on my Co-parent's Compliance.

vi. I understand that my Co-parent may have lapses of judgment, will act human, or may "mess" up. Providing our children are not injured or likely to suffer physical or emotional harm, I will give my Co-parent the benefit of the doubt and provide them with a pass (as undoubtedly, I will require my own pass someday). If I repetitively take advantage of receiving a pass without correcting the behavior, then the court should sanction me sufficiently to rectify my non-compliance and to prevent future occurrences.

vii. I understand that my Co-parent's parenting style may be different than mine; however, this does not make it worse. I will embrace the positive and not focus on changing my Co-parent.

viii. I know that no parent ever gets enough time with their child. I will cherish my time and use it wisely.

ix. I understand that it will never be acceptable to use our children as a confidante or counselor on adult issues.

x. I understand our children will continue to mature. As our children's needs/interests change I shall utilize my best efforts to coordinate any appropriate changes with my Co-parent. Neither of us can unilaterally make any changes.

xi. Any modifications shall be written and signed by both parties.

c. COMMUNICATION/INFORMATION:

i. Communication about Adult Issues shall occur between the parties only. This means that in the event that one or both of the parties remarries, the parties will continue to communicate with one another and not communicate instead through their new spouse or any other third party. In the event that communication with our children regarding Adult Issues becomes necessary, it shall be done jointly with my Co-parent.

ii. Communication with my Co-parent shall be peaceful, civil, and non-abusive.

iii. Communication with our children shall not disparage, harm or alienate my Co-parent. Communication with our children shall positively reinforce the good qualities of my Co-parent.

iv. I shall Confer with my Co-Parent on Major Decisions and Moderate Decisions and utilize Advance Notice and Reply Notice.

v. I shall create my own relationships with our children's teachers, doctors, coaches and friends. I shall obtain child related information for myself and freely exchange this information with my Co-parent.

vi. I shall notify my Co-parent immediately in the event of a medical emergency. I shall notify my Co-parent when our children are ill and shall not utilize it as a means to interfere with parent-time. My Co-parent is competent to care for our children during illness. Nevertheless, our children's comfort should be placed ahead of my desires. I will give details on medication for our children and any dosages necessary. I will administer properly prescribed medication as instructed.

vii. During Father's parent time, Mother should be permitted to have a phone call with the children at 6:00 p.m. on Fridays. During Mother's parent time, Father should be permitted to have phone calls with the children on Tuesdays at 6:00 p.m. and Fridays at 6:00 p.m. The children should be able to contact the parents at any reasonable time.

d. DECISION MAKING/DISPUTE RESOLUTION:

i. Each of us shall give good faith consideration to the views of the other. If the decision involves medical or schooling issues, we will seek input from treating physicians/educators or other experts. Both of us shall be provided with the input.

ii. If the parties still cannot come to an agreement, the parties shall attend one good faith session of mediation prior to bringing the issue before the Court. The parties shall share equally in the mediator's costs.

e. TRANSPORTATION, TRAVEL AND LOCAL RELOCATION:

i. I shall have our children ready and able to leave with my Co-parent at the scheduled time for pick-up. I understand that my Co-parent has plans, schedules, and other constraints on their time. I shall be considerate of this by demonstrating routine timeliness. I shall make the transition quickly, without fanfare or drama.

ii. If I travel with our children beyond 150 miles, I will give my Co-parent at least 14 days advance notice and provide them with a phone number and address for emergencies. When travelling I will make reasonable efforts to facilitate communication with my Co-parent. If our children require a passport for travel we will both assist in obtaining our children's passport.

iii. I shall provide my Co-parent current contact information within 24 hours of any local change of address.

f. ACTIVITIES:

i. Both parties have the right to know about and attend all school, religious, and extra-curricular activities of our child.

ii. I shall make reasonable efforts for our children to attend special family functions. I shall not abuse this privilege by making excessive requests or unreasonably withholding permission. This typically includes functions unalterable by a parent (i.e. weddings, extended family reunions, or important ceremonies).

iii. If I have joint physical custody of our children then it is my duty to ensure that our children have the opportunity to be exposed to many good activities. If I am selfish in how my parent-time is spent this cannot occur—as I enjoy a substantial portion of our children's time. It is encouraged that I cooperate and listen to our children's wishes and desires regarding the activities our children would like to participate in.

iv. I can enroll our children in activities that do not require involvement of my Co-parent. By doing so I recognize my Co-parent will not be sharing the cost and understand that the activity shall not interfere with their parent-time.

v. I shall discuss any proposed changes to the parent-time schedule with my Co-parent prior to talking with our children about any activity that I want them to be involved in.

vi. I shall help our children to complete any homework our children have received during my parent-time.

vii. I shall make our children's activities comfortable and enjoyable for our child, my own needs are inferior.

g. ENVIRONMENT:

i. While caring for our children, I shall not consume any intoxicant or other substance to impairment.

ii. I shall prevent anybody from disparaging my Co-parent or other individual significantly bonded to our child. I shall control my own extended family and make sure that their conduct and behaviors are consistent with these terms.

h. STEPPARENT: I understand that a stepparent is likely to be involved at some point with our child—whether by myself or through my Co-parent. I will value the positive aspects of any stepparent introduced into the relationship. I will ensure any stepparent I introduce to the relationship does not overstep their limited role. The role of a stepparent is to support, not supplant, a Co-parent.

i. CONCLUSION: If the court finds my actions to be dishonest, deceptive or frivolous, or finds me in non-compliance, then it should sanction me. I shall routinely review each and every provision of this parenting plan and ignorance will not be a defense.
