Attorney - Mediator
Filing on behalf of both parties as a Third-Party Neutral, pursuant to Rule 2.4 of the Utah Rules of Professional Conduct

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, FARMINGTON DEPARTMENT IN AND FOR DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of JESSICA KEDDINGTON, Petitioner, and LUCAS KEDDINGTON, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No: 264701446 Judge: Jennifer Valencia Commissioner: Julie Winkler

The Petitioner, Jessica Keddington, and the Respondent, Lucas Keddington, have entered into a written Stipulation resolving all outstanding divorce issues, which has been filed with the court. The Court has received and accepted the parties' Agreement, reviewed the file, and being otherwise duly advised, having previously signed and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

The bonds of matrimony existing between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved. In addition, all other remaining issues in this matter, outlined below, are to become final and absolute upon entry by the court.

CHILD CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

1. There are two minor children born or adopted between the parties, to wit: D.D.K. (born November 2021) and L.P.K. (born January 2024).

2. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor children. The parties shall be governed by the Joint Custody Parenting Plan set forth herein.

3. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor children. Parent-time with the minor children shall be pursuant to a 50/50 timesharing arrangement as the parties may agree. Beginning October 2026 and continuing until L.P.K. begins kindergarten, if the parties are unable to agree on a parent-time schedule then they shall follow a 2-2-3 rotating schedule as follows:

   a. The parties shall exercise parent-time pursuant to a 2-2-3 rotating schedule, resulting in substantially equal parent-time and alternating weekends.

   b. Week One:

      i. Petitioner shall exercise parent-time from Monday after school, or 5:00 PM if school is not in session, through Wednesday morning, returning the minor children to school, or 9:00 AM if school is not in session.

      ii. Respondent shall exercise parent-time from Wednesday after school, or 5:00 PM if school is not in session, through Friday morning, returning the minor children to school, or 9:00 AM if school is not in session.

iii. Petitioner shall exercise parent-time from Friday after school, or 5:00 PM if school is not in session, through Monday morning, returning the minor children to school, or 9:00 AM if school is not in session.

c. Week Two:

i. Respondent shall exercise parent-time from Monday after school, or 5:00 PM if school is not in session, through Wednesday morning, returning the minor children to school, or 9:00 AM if school is not in session.

ii. Petitioner shall exercise parent-time from Wednesday after school, or 5:00 PM if school is not in session, through Friday morning, returning the minor children to school, or 9:00 AM if school is not in session.

iii. Respondent shall exercise parent-time from Friday after school, or 5:00 PM if school is not in session, through Monday morning, returning the minor children to school.

d. The schedule shall thereafter continue to alternate every week in the same 2-2-3 rotation.

e. Beginning the first of the month after L.P.K. begins kindergarten, the default parent-time schedule shall change to a week on/week off schedule with exchanges to occur on Thursday after school or 5:00 PM if school is not in session.

f. Work-Related Travel and Make-Up Parent-Time

i. If either party is required to travel for work and, as a result, is unable to exercise any portion of that party's regularly scheduled parent-time, the party shall be permitted to make up the missed parent-time during the following week. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to schedule the make-up parent-time while reasonably accommodating the minor children's school schedules and activities.

ii. Any work-related parent-time that is not made up during the following week shall be forfeited and shall not carry forward or accumulate, unless the parties mutually agree otherwise.

iii. The parties may mutually agree in writing to reasonable adjustments to the regular parent-time schedule. Except for the work-related make-up parent-time provided above or as otherwise mutually agreed, the default rotating schedule shall remain in effect and control.

4. Each parent is entitled to 2 weeks of uninterrupted parent-time during the summer months when the minor children are free from school. The parents will notify each other by May 15th of each year of the time period he/she will be exercising his/her uninterrupted parent-time. Petitioner will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an even number and Respondent will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an odd number. The summer parent-time cannot interfere with the other parent’s holiday. If the parent designated to first choose the 2-week period for the year fails to choose by May 15th, the non-designated parent may designate when the 2-week period will occur.

5. In addition, holiday parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If they do not agree, then the parties shall follow the holiday parent-time schedule set forth in UCA §81-9-303 and as follows. Holiday parent-time takes precedence over the normal rotating parent-time schedule.

6. The minor children shall continue to attend their current school and feeder schools, based on the address of the marital home, unless the parties mutually agree in writing to transfer schools. Both parties shall be listed in school records as a point of contact for school communications.

7. In the event either party moves more than 30 miles away from their current residence the parties will revisit the issue of parent time and custody.

CHILD SUPPORT

8. Petitioner is currently employed and has a gross monthly income of $9,416.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

9. Respondent is currently employed and has a gross monthly income (including base pay and average monthly commission) of $9,416.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

10. The joint custody worksheet shall be used with the Petitioner's income set at $9,416.00 with 183 overnights and the Respondent's income set at $9,416.00 with 182 overnights.

11. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-101 a child support order shall be entered pursuant to the statutory guidelines as follows:

a. Respondent shall be ordered to pay Petitioner the sum of $22.00 per month, however due to the minimal nature of the support, Petitioner waives her claim to child support. The sum is known as the base child support award, for the minor child of the parties, pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines, until a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later. When a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the base child support award is automatically adjusted based on the remaining children and the incomes from the most recent support order.

b. The base child support award should be reduced by 50% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the noncustodial parent by order for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days. If the dependent child is a recipient of Public Assistance from the State of Utah (T.A.N.F.), any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal parent time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

c. The mandatory income withholding relief provisions of the Utah Code Annotated may be instituted at this time. Said income withholding procedure should apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income should be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah 84145-0011 until such time as the obligor no longer owes child support to the oblige.

d. There are currently no child support arrearages.

e. Each of the parties should be under mutual obligation to notify the other if there is a change in income of more than 30% and the change is not temporary in nature.

f. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-212(5), the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines.

g. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-101 et seq, the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature.

INSURANCE, DAYCARE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

12. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-208 (2024) as amended:

a. Either Petitioner or Respondent should maintain insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor children where available at a reasonable cost. In determining which parent shall maintain insurance for medical expenses, the parties shall consider the reasonableness of the cost, the availability of a group policy and the coverage of the policy. If the parties cannot agree on who shall carry the insurance, then they shall attend mediation. If insurance is being provided by a plan by both parents, the Petitioner's insurance shall be considered primary coverage and the Respondent's shall be considered secondary.

b. The parties shall be equally responsible for all out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of the insurance. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

c. Both parties shall share equally all medical expenses incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties. Medical expenses shall include, but not be limited to, the following: medical, dental, orthodontia, ophthalmological, psychological, or therapeutic, etc.

d. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

e. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

13. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-209 both parties shall share equally the reasonable work-related childcare expenses of the parents.

a. The parent who does not incur childcare expenses shall begin paying his or her share of childcare expenses to the parent who does incur childcare expenses, on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense. The parent can either pay the provider directly or shall be required to reimburse the paying parent after being provided proof of payment.

b. The parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of the childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of a childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within 30 calendar days of the date of the change. A parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES, SCHOOL, & MISCELLANEOUS COSTS

14. The parties shall equally share the costs associated with the following expenses related to the minor children:

a. Cell phones

b. Car insurance

c. School fees and costs

d. Agreed upon extra-curricular activities. All current and extensions of the current extra-curricular activities where the children participate are approved.

e. Agreements for all expenses shall be made in writing. When possible, both parties should pay their one-half share directly to the provider, school or program for and on behalf of the children. If one parent pays the entire cost, that parent shall email the other parent proof of cost and payment within 30 days and the reimbursing parent shall pay their share within 10 days of receiving the email.

529 EDUCATION SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

15. Beginning January 1, 2027, each party shall contribute $50.00 per month, per minor child to a 529 education savings account established for the benefit of each minor child.

16. The parties shall continue making the required monthly contributions for each child until the child reaches eighteen (18) years of age or graduates from high school, whichever occurs later, unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing by the parties.

TAX EXEMPTION

17. The parties shall share equally in the child tax credit, exemption, or deduction for State and Federal income tax purposes as follows:

a. As long as there are two minor children, Petitioner will claim D.D.K. each year and Respondent will claim L.P.K. each year.

b. When only one minor child remains, the parties will alternate years with Petitioner claiming L.P.K. in odd years and Respondent claiming L.P.K. in even years.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

18. Prior to the marriage, the parties each had individually acquired certain separate property. Each party shall be awarded any property identified as premarital or separate property, including all gifts and inheritance.

19. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain items of personal property.

20. Petitioner shall be awarded the following personal property:

j. Peloton - Respondent shall pay Petitioner $800 for the value of the Peloton and $100 for two months of subscription service. This amount shall be deducted from home equity owed to Respondent as outlined below.

22. The parties' six (6) animals shall be rehomed no later than October 15, 2026. Both parties shall actively and equally participate in the rehoming process and shall cooperate in good faith to identify appropriate and responsible new homes for the animals. Each party shall be responsible for scheduling or arranging at least three (3) rehoming appointments or meetings and shall personally participate in or attend at least three (3) such appointments or meetings. Any reasonable fees or expenses incurred in connection with rehoming the animals shall be divided equally between the parties, with each party responsible for fifty percent (50%). The parties shall reasonably cooperate regarding the selection of new homes and all arrangements necessary to complete the rehoming of all six (6) animals by the deadline set forth above.

23. All other personal property shall be divided among the parties in a fair and equitable fashion as agreed upon by the parties.

24. All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources shall be awarded solely to the party from whose family it came.

VEHICLES

25. Respondent shall be awarded the 2020 Nissan Rogue. Respondent shall be responsible for the debts and liabilities related to this vehicle and shall hold the other party harmless from any liability associated therewith. The Respondent shall take all necessary steps to transfer the vehicle into his own name, including the auto loan and vehicle title, within thirty (30) days of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce. If Respondent is unable to refinance the auto loan into his own name in this timeframe, the vehicle shall be sold. All net proceeds shall be awarded to Respondent.

REAL PROPERTY

26. The residence located at 428 E. 2600 S., Bountiful, Utah 84010 shall be awarded solely to Petitioner, subject to Respondent's right to receive his agreed share of the marital equity as set forth herein.

27. Respondent shall vacate the residence and remove his personal belongings no later than September 21, 2026, except as otherwise mutually agreed by the parties. Beginning October 1, 2026, Petitioner shall be solely responsible for all costs and expenses associated with the residence, including the mortgage, property taxes, homeowners insurance, utilities, maintenance, repairs, and other expenses associated with ownership of the property, and shall indemnify and hold Respondent harmless from such obligations.

28. The parties shall obtain an independent appraisal of the residence no later than November 1, 2026. The parties shall mutually agree upon the appraiser and shall each be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of the appraisal cost.

29. For purposes of determining Respondent's equity interest, the parties shall calculate the adjusted marital equity as follows:

a. Appraised Fair Market Value

b. minus the outstanding mortgage balance as of the date of the appraisal

c. equals Adjusted Marital Equity.

30. Respondent shall be awarded fifty percent (50%) of the Adjusted Marital Equity calculated pursuant to the formula above, minus the following amounts:

a. $3,609.00, representing the agreed value of the Nissan Rogue

b. $4,000.00, representing the agreed credit for air conditioning and furnace expenses

c. $900.00, representing the value of the Peloton and two (2) months of monthly subscription fees

d. $3,700.00, representing the agreed credit for the cost of the roof

e. The remaining balance shall represent Respondent's portion of the equity from the home.

31. Respondent shall separately pay Petitioner the following amounts:

a. $863.00 for Respondent's September 2026 rent;

b. $634.00 for the missed June 2026 vehicle payment; and

c. $317.00 for Respondent's one-half share of the September 2026 vehicle payment.

d. The total amount due from Respondent to Petitioner pursuant to this paragraph is $1,814.00 and shall be paid in full no later than September 30, 2026. To the extent any portion remains unpaid after September 30, 2026, the unpaid amount shall be deducted from Respondent's share of the home equity otherwise payable to him.

32. Of Respondent's total equity award, $20,000.00 shall be satisfied through Petitioner's Benefits Center Deferred Profit-Sharing Plan for Salaried Employees retirement account. The parties shall cooperate in executing any documents or qualified domestic relations order necessary to effectuate the transfer, if required. The $20,000.00 transferred to Respondent shall be credited dollar-for-dollar against the total home equity otherwise owed to Respondent.

33. After applying the $20,000.00 retirement distribution and any other credits or deductions expressly provided herein, the remaining balance of Respondent's equity shall become due and shall be paid in full by Petitioner within ninety (90) days following the first occurrence of any one of the following triggering events:

a. Petitioner begins cohabitating with another person in a romantic relationship;

b. L.P.K. graduates from high school; or

c. Petitioner moves out of the residence, subject to the rental exception below.

i. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Petitioner moves out of the residence but retains ownership and rents the residence to a third party, Petitioner's move from the residence shall not, by itself, trigger the ninety (90)-day equity payoff requirement.

ii. For each month the residence is rented, Petitioner shall credit Respondent with fifty percent (50%) of the monthly rental profit. For purposes of this provision, "monthly rental profit" shall mean the gross monthly rent actually received minus the monthly mortgage payment.

iii. Respondent's fifty percent (50%) share of the monthly rental profit shall be applied as a dollar-for-dollar credit toward and reduction of the remaining home equity owed to Respondent. Petitioner shall provide iv. The rental arrangement shall not eliminate the other triggering events set forth above. If Petitioner begins cohabitating as described above or L.P.K. graduates from high school while the residence is being rented, the remaining equity balance, after application of all rental credits and other applicable credits, shall be paid to Respondent within ninety (90) days of that triggering event.

Respondent reasonable documentation of the rent received and mortgage payment upon request.

34. Upon Respondent's receipt of his entire equity award, whether through the retirement distribution, credits, rental-profit payments, final payment, or a combination thereof, Respondent shall have no further claim to the residence, its equity, future appreciation, rental income, or future sale proceeds.

BANK ACCOUNTS, PROFIT SHARING, STOCK OPTIONS, BONUSES, INVESTMENT, RETIREMENT/PENSION ACCOUNTS AND OR/BUSINESS INTERESTS

35. The parties have acquired and continue to acquire bank, profit sharing, stock options, bonuses, investment, retirement and/or pension accounts and business interests during the course of the parties' marriage.

36. All of these accounts or assets shall be divided as follows as of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce unless specified otherwise:

Account Description	Petitioner will Receive	Respondent will Receive	Other

All bank accounts in Petitioner’s name	100%
All bank accounts in Respondent’s name		100%
Petitioner’s Benefits Center Deferred Profit-Sharing Plan for Salaried Employees	Remaining funds minus Respondent’s award of $20,000	$20,000.00	The $20,000.00 awarded to Respondent from Petitioner's retirement account shall be credited dollar-for-dollar toward Respondent's share of the equity in the marital residence and shall reduce the remaining home equity amount owed by Petitioner to Respondent by $20,000.00.
All retirement and investment accounts in Respondent’s name		100%
All investment accounts in Petitioner’s name	100%

37. If necessary, a Qualified Domestic Relation Order (QDRO) or Domestic Relations Order (DRO) shall be prepared to divide the Benefits Center Deferred Profit-Sharing Plan for Salaried Employees account. Petitioner shall be responsible for any fees associated with the QDRO or DRO.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

38. During the course of the marriage the parties incurred certain marital debt; the parties shall be responsible for the debts in their own names and shall hold the other party harmless for any liability associated therewith.

39. The parties shall be equally responsible for medical debt related to the minor children.

40. Pursuant to §81-4-204(1)(e), Utah Code Annotated, the parties shall notify respective creditors or obligors, regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities and regarding the parties separate, current addresses.

LIFE INSURANCE

41. Pursuant to UCA §81-4-406 (3)(d), to the extent either party owns a life insurance policy or annuity contract, such party has reviewed and, where appropriate, updated the list of beneficiaries associated with said policy or contract. Each party affirms that the individuals currently designated as beneficiaries are, in fact, the intended beneficiaries following the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Each party further acknowledges and understands that if no changes are made to the beneficiary designations, the individuals currently listed shall remain the beneficiaries and shall receive any funds disbursed by the insurance company or annuity provider pursuant to the terms of the respective policy or contract.

ALIMONY

42. Both parties waive any claim to spousal support from the other, now or forever.

TAX RETURNS

43. The parties acknowledge that they have not filed all required federal and state income tax returns since 2018.

44. For tax years 2019 and 2020, each party shall file his or her respective tax returns using the filing status of Married Filing Separately, to the extent permitted and required by applicable tax law.

45. For tax years 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024, and 2025, the parties shall file joint federal and state income tax returns, to the extent permitted by applicable tax law.

46. The parties shall retain and cooperate with a qualified accountant or tax professional to prepare the outstanding returns and determine the portion of any resulting tax refund or tax liability attributable to each party. Each party shall be entitled to his or her respective portion of any refund and shall be responsible for his or her respective portion of any taxes, interest, penalties, or other amounts due, as determined by the accountant or tax professional based upon the parties' respective income, withholding, estimated payments, credits, deductions, and other relevant tax information.

47. The parties shall timely provide all documents, records, signatures, authorizations, and other information reasonably necessary to prepare and file the outstanding returns and shall cooperate in good faith to complete the filings.

48. The parties shall file taxes for the 2026 tax year as each deem appropriate.

ATTORNEY'S FEES

49. Each party shall be responsible for their own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the litigation of this matter.

MISCELLANEOUS

50. Both parties shall be mutually restraining from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, disparaging, or harming the other party at the other party's place of residence, employment or any other place.

51. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

52. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party separately or by the parties jointly.

53. This Decree of Divorce is the result of the Stipulated Settlement Agreement reached through mediation. The final documents were prepared as a service to both parties and shall not be interpreted against either as the "drafting party."

54. Each party should execute and cooperate in delivering to the other and to the court such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the divorce decree hereafter to be entered by the court. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of this divorce decree, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

55. Upon the filing of any Petition to change any provision of the final Decree of Divorce, the parties must first attempt to resolve the issue through mediation.

56. Petitioner may be restored to her maiden name of Jessica Devereaux Gates if she so desires.

KEDDINGTON and KEDDINGTON

JOINT CUSTODY PARENTING PLAN

Each parent has a loving and valuable relationship with the children and shall work together cooperatively with regard to the children's physical care and financial and emotional support. The parents shall adhere to the following parenting plan provisions:

1. Co-Parenting Principles

   a. The Parties shall co-parent cooperatively, focusing on the physical, emotional, and financial well-being of the children.

   b. Each parent shall support and encourage the children's meaningful relationship with the other parent.

   c. Civil communication is required at all times. Name-calling or hostile communication is prohibited.

2. Communication Between Parents

   a. Primary communication between the parties regarding the minor children shall occur via text message or email, except in emergencies or other time-sensitive situations.

b. The parties shall timely share important information regarding the minor children's schooling, health, medical care, social activities, extracurricular activities, and other relevant matters concerning the children.

c. If information is readily available to both parties through public or shared sources, including school portals, activity websites, or similar resources, each party shall be responsible for accessing that information directly.

d. When one party sends the other a communication that reasonably requires a response, decision, or approval, the receiving party shall respond within seventy-two (72) hours of receipt.

e. Unless the receiving party is traveling, the parties have agreed otherwise in writing, or circumstances reasonably prevent a timely response, failure to respond within seventy-two (72) hours shall be deemed approval of the request or proposal contained in the communication.

f. A party relying upon the absence of a response as approval shall retain the written communication establishing the request and the expiration of the seventy-two (72)-hour response period.

3. Joint Legal Decision-Making a. The Parties shall jointly decide major decisions affecting the children, including:

i. Education and daycare

ii. Medical, dental, counseling, and orthodontic care

iii. Religious upbringing

iv. Extracurricular activities

b. Decision-making process:

i. Identify the issue

ii. Develop possible solutions iii. Select the most reasonable solution in the children's best interests

4. Dispute Resolution for Major Decisions - If the parties cannot reach agreement:

a. They may defer to the recommendations of an expert. If they still do not agree;

b. They shall attend mediation with a mutually agreed mediator (each party pays their own fees).

c. Agreements reached in mediation shall be reduced to writing and signed by both.

d. Only after a good-faith mediation attempt may a party seek Court involvement.

e. A party who frustrates this process may be ordered to pay the other's attorney's fees, court costs, and mediation costs.

5. Day-to-Day Responsibility

a. The parent exercising parent-time shall make routine daily decisions.

b. Either parent may make necessary emergency decisions regarding the children's health or safety and shall inform the other immediately.

6. Information Access

a. Both parents shall have direct access to all school, medical, dental, and mental health records.

b. Each parent shall notify the other of medical appointments and emergencies.

c. Both parties shall provide written authorization enabling the other to access information from all providers.

7. School Access

a. Both parents may visit the children at school, receive school communications, and check the children out when necessary.

b. Disputes regarding education shall first go to mediation.

8. Medical Treatment Restrictions

a. Non-emergency, uninsured, elective medical/dental/orthodontic or alternative treatments require prior written consent from both parties.

b. Costs must be agreed in writing before scheduling.

c. Violating parent may be denied reimbursement.

9. Travel Notice Requirements

a. Either parent may travel domestically and to Canada with the minor children during their own parent-time without needing advance permission, provided they give standard notice.

b. Any international travel, excluding Canada, or any travel that would interfere with the other parent’s scheduled parent-time, must be mutually agreed to in advance and in writing.

c. When traveling with the children, the traveling parent shall provide the following, as required by Utah Code §81-9-202(19):

i. Itinerary with travel dates

ii. Destination(s)

iii. Contact information

iv. Name/phone of a third party aware of the children's location.

10. Children's Important Documents

a. The parties shall provide access to and exchange the minor children's important documents, including but not limited to passports, birth certificates, and Social Security cards, within forty-eight (48) hours of a request by the other parent.

b. If the requested documents are not reasonably available due to a party being out of town or otherwise away from the documents, the documents shall be provided immediately upon that party's return.

c. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to ensure timely access to such documents when needed for the benefit of the minor children.

11. Participation in Activities

a. Both parents may attend the children's school events, church functions, activities, recitals, and sports.

b. Parents shall cooperate to facilitate participation and family events (e.g., weddings, funerals, reunions, ceremonies).

12. Exchanges and Transportation

a. The receiving parent shall pick up the children at the designated start of their parent-time.

b. Children shall be ready on time for exchanges.

13. Contact Information

a. Each parent shall provide the other with current address, phone number, and email within 24 hours of any change.

14. Parent/Child Communication

a. Each parent shall encourage free and uncensored reasonable phone/virtual communication with the other parent.

b. The children may contact either parent at any time.

c. A parent shall reasonably facilitate calls when requested by the children.

15. Right of First Refusal

a. Parental care is preferred over surrogate care.

b. If overnight child care is needed, the other parent shall be offered the opportunity to provide care before third-party caregivers are used.

c. The parties shall create and maintain a mutually approved list of surrogate caregivers/babysitters who may be used by either parent without additional approval.

d. Any caregiver not on the approved list must be mutually agreed upon in advance and in writing before caring for the minor children.

e. Both parents shall provide names, addresses, and phone numbers of any caregivers used.

16. Conduct Around the Children

a. Neither party shall speak negatively about the other parent or allow third parties to do so in the children's presence.

b. Neither party shall discuss court matters with or in front of the children.

c. Neither party shall disparage the other on social media or in public.

17. Introducing New Partners

a. Parents shall not introduce dating partners to the children until the relationship is committed and exclusive.

b. Notice shall be given to the other parent beforehand.

18. Shared Calendar

a. Parents shall maintain a shared calendar for school events, appointments, practices, exchanges, and other child-related activities.

19. Substance Use Restrictions

a. Neither party shall use illegal drugs or consume alcohol while caring for the children or prior to transporting them.

b. Alcohol and medications shall be stored securely and out of the children's reach.

20. Enforcement and Non-Waiver

a. A party's failure to comply with any provision does not release the other party from their obligations.

b. All provisions remain enforceable unless modified by written agreement or court order.
