Attorney-Mediator

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF UTAH,

DAVIS COUNTY, FARMINGTON DEPARTMENT

In the matter of the marriage of:	DECREE OF DIVORCE
PHYLLIS A. MORRIS	Case Number: 264701420
and	Judge: JOSEPH BEAN
MICHAEL J. MORRIS	Commissioner: JULIE WINKLER

The matter before the Court is the stipulated petition for divorce. The parties met in mediation with Mediator Jonathan L. Felt on September 30, 2026, and reached a full settlement resolution for entry of a Decree of Divorce. Having received the parties' Stipulation and documents filed, and having entered findings and conclusions, the Court hereby decrees as follows:

JURISDICTION & GROUNDS

1. RESIDENCE. One or both parties have been residents of Davis County, Utah, for more than three months immediately prior to the commencement of this action.

2. MARRIAGE. The parties married on February 25, 1978, in Salt Lake County, Utah, and are still married to each other.

3. GROUNDS. The parties are granted a Decree of Divorce, on grounds of irreconcilable differences, effective upon entry.

4. MILITARY STATUS. Neither party is in active duty with the uniformed services.

5. NO MINOR CHILDREN. The parties have no minor children together.

PROPERTY DIVISION

6. REAL PROPERTY. The parties have marital interest in their home located at 1402 North 2275 West, Clinton UT 84015 (the Marital Home). Michael will be permitted to remain in the home through Spring 2027. Beginning in March 2027, the parties will work together to sell the home.

a. The parties will work together to select a realtor and will work with the realtor to sell the home at market value within a reasonable timeframe given market conditions.

b. The parties will follow the reasonable recommendations of the realtor to get the home sold.

c. If the parties experience difficulty reaching agreement, Phyllis may make the tie-breaking decision.

d. When the Marital Home is sold, proceeds from the sale will be divided equally (50/50) between the parties.

7. BANK ACCOUNTS. The parties agree to continue sharing mutual bank accounts, including and not limited to their joint checking and savings, until the Marital Home is sold (as provided above). Both parties will continue contributing their current income streams to the joint account until the house is sold and proceeds divided. All funds remaining in the account at the time of closing for the sale of the Marital Home will then be divided equally and distributed 50/50 to each party.

8. INVESTMENTS/RETIREMENT. The parties acquired joint interest in investments and retirement interests during the marriage, which shall be divided and distributed as follows:

a. Each party is awarded in full their own Social Security interests.

b. Phyllis is awarded in full her jetBlue retirement interests and her Target "IRA Accumulator" account interests, which is held at America First Credit Union.

c. Michael is awarded in full his VA disability benefits.

d. Michael is awarded in full the Schwab One Account (ending in 7495) and all funds or interest therein. The parties will work together to remove Phyllis' name from the account.

e. The parties will divide Michael's military pension. Specifically, the parties will work together with an attorney who specializes in QDROs and Military Retirement Pay Division Orders (MRPDOs) to prepare and enter a MRPDO:

i. Phyllis will be responsible to contact and work with the attorney to prepare the needed documents. Michael will cooperate in promptly reviewing and signing the needed documents.

ii. The fees will be paid from the joint account, thus shared between the parties. If the Marital Home has been sold and joint account divided, each party should pay one half of the fees.

iii. Michael entered military service in November 1973 and separated in July 2000. Consistent with Utah's Woodward formula, the division of Michael's military pension, which Michael is already receiving, will be divided as follows: Phyllis will be entitled to ½ times [the time the parties were married while Michael was in military service (which was all active duty)] divided by [the total time of Michael's military service] times Michael's disposable retirement pay (as defined by 10 U.S.C § 1408), effective as of the Date of Divorce. Phyllis is entitled to a pro-rata share of all cost-of-living adjustments (COLAs) associated with her portion of the benefit.

iv. Survivor Benefit Plan was not selected at the time of retirement, and Phyllis will not be entitled to survivor benefits.

9. VEHICLES. The parties' vehicles are awarded as follows:

a. To Michael: his truck, Mustang, and Harley.

b. To Phyllis: her Chevy.

c. The parties will work together to retitle the vehicles as needed into their respective individual names. Each party will be individually responsible for their own insurance and any costs of obligations on the vehicles awarded to that person.

10. PERSONAL PROPERTY. Phyllis is awarded the family cabin she inherited, as her inheritance. The parties will work together to divide the remaining personal property while waiting for and upon the sale of the Marital Home. If the parties are unable to mutually divide the remaining personal property, they will return to mediation for assistance before either party may seek division of personal property through the courts.

11. DEBTS. The parties have no joint unsecured debts other than credit cards that get paid off each month from the joint bank account. Each party will pay any unsecured debt in their own name, if any.

12. ALIMONY. Neither party will pay alimony to the other.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

13. MAIDEN NAME. PHYLLIS may return to her maiden name if she so chooses.

14. DUTY TO SIGN. The parties should each be ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce within 30 days of the Decree being entered.
