4. I say the following:

a. There are no custody, child support or parent-time cases about Kayla Ann Talosaga and Mathew Sualua Talosaga's minor children in any court or government agency. This includes filed, pending, and completed cases.
b. Kayla Ann Talosaga does not know of any criminal, delinquency, or protective order cases involving Kayla Ann Talosaga, Mathew Sualua Talosaga, or their children.
c. Kayla Ann Talosaga and Mathew Sualua Talosaga have physical custody of Luka Fury Talosaga, Lucy Taliilagi Talosaga, Uriah Gabriel Talosaga , our children. We are the only people who have custody, child support, and parent-time rights to Luka Fury Talosaga, Lucy Taliilagi Talosaga, Uriah Gabriel Talosaga .

Children – custody

It is in the children's best interest that the parties be awarded joint legal custody. Respondent will be awarded sole physical custody. Petitioner will have parent-time at reasonable times and places.

Decision-making

Each parent will make day-to-day decisions for the children during the time they are caring for the children. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children. A parent who makes an emergency decision must share the decision with the other parent as soon as reasonably possible.

The parents will share responsibility for making major decisions about the children. If there is a disagreement, the parents will try to resolve the dispute before going to court.

Records and information sharing

5. Both parents will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care and health care.

Children – parent time

The parents will follow the parent-time schedule in the following statute(s).

Changing the plan

6. This plan remains in effect until changed. A change must be agreed to by both parents and must be in writing.

Resolving disputes

7. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will try to resolve them with a professional or specialist before bringing the issue to court.

Income (Utah Code 78B-12-203)

8. Petitioner's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $ 2400.00. Petitioner is employed at Fidelity Investments 49 N 400 W , Salt lake city, UT 84101.

9. Respondent's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $ 2800.00. Respondent is employed at Autoliv 3350 Airport Rd , Ogden, UT 84405.

Child support (Utah Code 78B-12-202 et seq.)

10. Child support will be paid as follows:

    0.00 per month base support.

11. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

12. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

    a. The parties can ask to change this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if:

        i. There's a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines,
        ii. The difference is not temporary, and
        iii. The amount previously ordered was not a deviation from the child support guidelines (Utah Code 78-B-12-210(8)).

If the children receive TANF funds at the time an adjustment is sought, ORS will review the order and ask the court to adjust the amount if appropriate. (Utah Code 62-A-11-306.2).

13. The parties can ask to change this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of material changes in:

    a. Custody;
    b. The relative wealth or assets of the parties;
    c. Income of a parent of 30% or more;
    d. The employment potential and ability of a parent to earn;
    e. The medical needs of the child; or
    f. The legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others. (Utah Code 78-B-12-210(7) and (9)).

The change must result in a difference of 15% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines. The difference may not be temporary.

The court can consider natural or adoptive children born after the entry of the decree other than those in common to both parties as part of a request to modify an existing award subject to limitations in the law. (Utah Code 78B-12-210(7)).
