Attorney for Respondent

IN THE SECOND DISTRICT COURT,
DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage Of, KYLIE DAWSON, Petitioner, and SPENCER DAWSON, Respondent.	DECREE DIVORCE Modified by the Court Case No: 264700555 Judge: MICHAEL S. EDWARDS Commissioner: JULIE WINKLER

Respondent, Spencer Dawson, by and through counsel, hereby submits the following Divorce Decree based on evidence provided in support thereof by the Stipulated Settlement Agreement of the parties. The Court, having received, reviewed and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and now being fully advised in the premises, does HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

1. Children

The parties are the parents of C.R.D. (Carter), born July 2021, and Q.A.D. (Quincy), born May 2025. All child-related provisions shall be applied in the children's best interests.

2. Joint Legal Custody

The parties shall share joint legal custody, without either parent having superior decision-making authority.

3. Parenting Plan

a. Decisions and Emergencies. The parties shall jointly decide major medical, dental, mental-health, educational, school-enrollment, religious, and extracurricular matters after good-faith consultation and consideration of relevant professional advice. Neither may implement a major change without agreement or Court order. The status quo known to both parents shall remain pending resolution under subsection (e) below. Each parent may make routine decisions during that parent's time. In an emergency, either may act to protect a child and shall promptly notify the other and share relevant records and follow-up information.

b. Administrative Contacts and Records. Kylie's current and future address, phone number, and email address shall be designated as the children's primary contact information for administrative purposes, including, but not limited to, school registration, school-related administrative matters, mailing address, medical and dental providers, and emergency contacts.

Spencer's address, phone number, and email address shall be used for administrative purposes that specifically require his information to be listed as the primary contact, including, but not limited to, matters relating to the Amazon health insurance policy for the children. Spencer's address, phone number, and email address shall also be designated as the children's primary contact information for religious records.

Both parents shall provide their current contact information, including their address, phone number, and email address, to the children's schools, medical and dental providers, insurance providers, and other relevant organizations, as applicable. Both parents shall be included as contacts whenever permitted and shall have equal access to notifications, records, and information concerning the minor children.

c. Vacations and Travel. Each parent may take at least two weeks of vacation with the children annually. Vacation time shall be given with reasonable advance notice. In the event of overlapping vacation time Spencer shall have priority for his two weeks first in even years, and Kylie shall have priority for her two weeks first in odd years; the other parent shall select afterward. Vacation does not supersede holidays unless agreed upon. For overnight travel, the traveling parent shall provide travel dates, destinations, contact information, and the name and telephone number of an available third person who knows the children's location. Both parents shall have access to the children's passports. Each shall reasonably consider requests for the children to attend significant family events.

d. Communication and Parenting Conduct. The parents shall communicate directly, civilly, and in a child-focused manner, preferably by text or telephone, without using the children or third parties as messengers. Each shall reasonably respond within 24 hours, sooner for emergencies; promptly report a child's illness or injury; report changes to personal contact information within 24 hours; and share notice of significant school, social, sports, and community events within 24 hours of receiving notice of such event. Both may attend. Each shall share pertinent school, medical, developmental, and activity information and professional contacts.

Each parent shall permit reasonable, uncensored telephone or video contact with the other parent without monitoring, coaching, or interference. Neither shall involve the children in adult, legal, or financial disputes, question them about the other parent's private life or spending, disparage the other parent to them, or undermine their relationship with the other parent. Neither parent shall post, share, comment on, or affirmatively endorse disparaging social-media content about the other parent.

Each parent shall provide safe sleeping and living accommodations, ensure homework is completed and timely school attendance, and refrain from introducing a romantic partner to the children until after six months of dating.

e. Dispute Resolution. Before seeking Court intervention on child-related disputes, the parties shall discuss the issue in good faith, consult relevant professional for advice and then mediate, sharing mediation fees equally unless otherwise agreed or ordered. This requirement does not delay emergency relief, enforcement of a clear payment obligation or deadline, or relief for which mediation is not legally required. The existing arrangement shall continue pending written agreement or Court order.

4. Joint Physical Custody and Regular Parent Time

The parties shall exercise equal (50/50) parent-time on a 2-2-3 schedule. Unless the parties agree otherwise in writing, the schedule shall operate as follows:

a. Week One: Spencer shall exercise his parent time from Sunday at 7:00 p.m. until Tuesday at 7:00 p.m. Kylie shall exercise her parent time from Tuesday at 7:00 p.m. until Thursday at 7:00 p.m. Spencer shall exercise his parent time from Thursday at 7:00 p.m. until Sunday at 7:00 p.m.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Kylie → Spencer 7:00 p.m.	Spencer All day / overnight	Spencer → Kylie 7:00 p.m.	Kylie All day / overnight	Kylie → Spencer 7:00 p.m.	Spencer All day / overnight	Spencer All day / overnight

b. Week Two: Kylie shall exercise her parent time from Sunday at 7:00 p.m. until Tuesday at 7:00 p.m. Spencer shall exercise his parent time from Tuesday at 7:00 p.m. until Thursday at 7:00 p.m. Kylie shall exercise her parent time from Thursday at 7:00 p.m. until Sunday at 7:00 p.m.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Spencer → Kylie 7:00 p.m.	Kylie All day / overnight	Kylie → Spencer 7:00 p.m.	Spencer All day / overnight	Spencer → Kylie 7:00 p.m.	Kylie All day / overnight	Kylie All day / overnight

c. The parties may adjust the exact exchange times or locations by mutual written agreement as needed. A temporary adjustment shall not constitute a modification of custody or parent-time unless expressly stated in a signed written agreement or court order.

d. On exchange days, the parent whose parent-time is ending shall be responsible for drop-off unless otherwise agreed. If the parties cannot agree on an exchange location, exchange shall occur at the parties' home who is beginning parent time. If either parent is not available for drop off or pick up, parents must communicate who will be dropping off, picking up or accepting the children.

e. Each parent shall ensure that the children are exchanged appropriately clothed for the weather and planned activities, including shoes, coats, school items, medication, and necessary personal items. Neither parent shall withhold ordinary clothing, shoes, school materials, comfort items, or necessary child-related items for the purpose of frustrating the other parent's time. The parties are encouraged and expected to individually have all necessary clothing and items. However, the parties are encouraged to willingly exchange items and are expected to effectively and meaningfully co-parent.

5. Exchanges

Exchanges shall occur on Sundays at 7:00 p.m., Tuesdays at 7:00 p.m. and Thursdays at 7:00 p.m., unless parties agree otherwise in writing.

Each parent shall maintain appropriate clothing and supplies, send necessary medication, school materials, and personal items with the children, and not withhold the children's belongings to interfere with parent-time.

6. Holidays and Breaks

Holiday parent-time shall supersede the regular 2-2-3 schedule. The Parties are encouraged but not expected to share each holiday with the other parent and their families and continue a healthy coparenting relationship for the children. The holiday schedule shall be as follows:

Holiday / Break	Kylie	Spencer
New Year's Day (9:00 am day of - 7:00 pm day of)	Even years	Odd years
Martin Luther King Jr. Day (9:00 am day of - 7:00 pm day of. On Kylie's years, Spencer may have parent time if he chooses to from 5:00 pm - 9:00 pm)	Even years	Odd years

Spencer’s Birthday (If desired 9:00 am - 7:00 pm)	—	All years
Kylie’s Birthday (If desired 9:00 am - 7:00 pm)	All years	—

The parties may agree in writing to additional or different holiday arrangements in any given year. Any such temporary holiday adjustment shall not modify the ongoing schedule unless expressly stated in writing.

7. Right of First Refusal and Childcare

A parent personally unavailable for five or more consecutive hours during scheduled parent-time shall first offer the other parent the opportunity to care for the children by text or telephone before arranging third-party care. The other parent shall respond within two hours, or a reasonable time under urgent circumstances, and shall provide transportation if accepting. This right does not apply to school, daycare, agreed activities, daytime work, ordinary short errands, or care lasting less than five consecutive hours. Exercising this right does not create make-up time or change custody or the regular schedule.

a. Before either party obtains paid childcare, agreed upon unpaid family members and close friends shall be utilized first, if available. If paid childcare is a must, an agreed upon licensed provider may care for the children. The party obtaining paid childcare must give verification of payment within 30 days. The party receiving payment verification must pay their half of the childcare within 30 days of receipt of the invoice.

8. Activities and Shared Expenses

Activities affecting the other parent's time, transportation, or finances require prior written agreement. Agreed activity expenses shall be divided equally unless otherwise agreed in writing. A parent enrolling a child without agreement bears the costs and transportation and may not interfere with the other parent's time. Both shall support agreed activities and promptly share available schedules, equipment, and information.

Other agreed child-related expenses shall be divided equally. No parent may create a reimbursement obligation without prior written agreement, except necessary medical, emergency, school-required, or expressly authorized expenses. Unless another provision controls, reimbursement is due within 30 days after receipt of reasonable documentation.

9. Child Support

Both parties expressly stipulate to imputed gross monthly incomes of $6,219.72 for Kylie and $4,333.33 for Spencer. Support shall be calculated under Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, using those incomes and the joint physical custody schedule. The completed joint-custody worksheet shall be attached to and incorporated into the final decree.

The monthly base support award shall be $160, payable by Kylie to Spencer, beginning upon entry of the Decree, with payments due on the 1st and 15th of the month. Nothing in this agreement prevents the paying party to pay upfront on the first of the month.

Modification and adjustment of child support shall be governed by Utah Code §§ 81-6-212 and 81-6-213, without any additional contractual dollar or percentage threshold. Neither party may unilaterally change the stipulated incomes or ordered support; this does not restrict statutory adjustments or the Court's authority to modify support.

10. Health Coverage and Medical Expenses

The parties shall provide and maintain medical, dental, and vision insurance for the children if available at reasonable cost. Updated medical cards shall be provided to the other party. If one parent provides coverage, the other shall be responsible for one-half of the children's portion of the premiums actually paid, calculated under Utah Code § 81-6-208. The parties shall coordinate any replacement coverage to avoid a lapse in coverage and shall continue to share equally the children's portion of the applicable premiums. The parties agree to follow Utah law, in that if both parents have health insurance plans that cover their child(ren), they do not directly contribute to or pay a share of each other's individual health care premiums.

Health coverage, each child's share of premiums, equal sharing of reasonable and necessary uninsured or unreimbursed medical and dental expenses, and required verification and notices shall be governed by Utah Code § 81-6-208. The parties shall also equally share reasonable and necessary vision, orthodontic, mental-health, and prescription expenses. No expense credited on the support worksheet shall be reimbursed twice.

If, at any point in time, a child is covered by the health insurance plans of both parents, the health insurance plan of Spencer Dawson shall be primary coverage for the child and the health insurance plan of Kylie Nicole Dawson shall be secondary coverage for the child. If a parent remarries and the child is not covered by that parent's health insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the child. If at any point the minor child is covered by a health insurance plan by both parties or their significant others, then the insurance premiums offset and neither party shall pay a portion of the other party's premium- regardless of a disparity in the premium costs.

Proof of medical expenses and payment shall be provided within 30 days after payment; reimbursement is due within 30 days after receipt. Elective, non-emergency, out-of-network, or extraordinary care requires prior consultation and agreement. A parent incurring such costs unilaterally may be responsible for unnecessary or excess costs as determined by the Court.

11. Children's Tax Benefits

While both children remain eligible, Spencer shall claim Q.A.D., the younger child, and Kylie shall claim C.R.D., the older child, for the child tax credit and other assignable child-related tax benefits. When only one child remains eligible, the parents shall alternate annually, with the parent paying child support claiming the child in the first year and the other parent in the next.

12. Relocation

Relocation shall be governed by Utah Code § 81-9-209. A move does not itself change custody, parent-time, transportation obligations or decision-making rights unless agreed in writing or ordered by the court.

13. Alimony

Both parties waive past, present, and future alimony. Neither shall pay alimony to the other, and neither requests that alimony be reserved.

14. Marital Residence

The residence is located at 449 E London Way, Clearfield, Utah 84015. The agreed value is $388,000.00, the mortgage balance is $273,887.09, and the HELOC balance is $24,300.00. Net equity is $89,812.91. Spencer's one-half interest is $44,906.46. This already deducts his $12,150.00 half of the HELOC; that amount shall not be deducted again.

The debt service on the HELOC is $149 per month. The parties shall evenly split that payment until the home is sold or the property is bought out by one party or the other. If not paid directly, the half interest service cost shall be trued up at sale or buyout.

Kylie shall complete the refinance or other financing, pay Spencer his equity, and obtain his release from all mortgage, HELOC, lien, tax, and other property-related financial obligations within 365 days after entry of the Decree, unless Spencer extends the deadline in writing. Kylie also reserves the right to give written notice at any time that she no longer wishes to pursue the buy-out option. The buyout remains fixed despite later market changes, principal reduction, refinancing, or improvements, absent written agreement or Court order.

At closing, Kylie shall pay Spencer in certified funds or by title-company disbursement, and Spencer shall concurrently sign the deed and necessary documents upon payment and release from liability. Accounting for the retirement offset in Section 16, Kylie shall pay Spencer $40,256.46 instead of $44,906.46. The additional equity off set in Section 15 shall also apply to the equity paid to Spencer by Kylie.

If Kylie does not timely complete all buyout requirements, Spencer shall have 90 days after her missed deadline or Kylies written notice of her wishes to no longer pursue her buyout option, whichever comes first, to buy out Kylie on the same general terms using the agreed value and debt balances and obtain her release from property-related liability. The retirement offset $4,650.00 shall be added to Kylie’s equity payment as well as the additional equity credit set in Section 15. If neither completes a buyout, the residence shall be promptly listed with a mutually selected licensed agent. If no agent is agreed upon within 14 days, each shall nominate an agent, and those agents shall select the listing agent. Net sale proceeds shall be divided equally after secured debts and actual sale costs, subject to the repair allocation below and any offsets expressly agreed in writing.

In the event of a sale of the residence, the parties shall equally share repair costs as agreed upon. Pending buyout or sale, the occupying party shall pay ordinary utilities, maintenance, and day-to-day occupancy expenses.

Parties shall equally divide the monthly HELOC interest service payment until home buyout is complete or home is sold and HELOC is paid off in full. Kylie shall be responsible for all Mortgage, Tax, HOA, Homeowners Insurance, and Utility Payments associated with the marital residence until the home is refinanced or sold. Kylie shall have all tax credits and deductions associated with the property until either Spencer completes a buyout of the property or the home is sold. Neither party shall commit waste, remove fixtures, add encumbrances, borrow against the residence, or impair the other's equity; refinancing is permitted only as authorized here. Both shall cooperate with financing, transfers, listing, showings, and sale.

15. Vehicles

The Honda Prologue shall be sold. Both parties shall cooperate in marketing, showing, and transferring it, and Spencer may actively participate in the sale. Sale proceeds shall be applied to the Honda loan. The parties shall equally share the Honda debt and any remaining loan deficiency. Spencers equal share of the debt shall be deducted from the equity of the home to be paid to him by Kylie if she pursues a buyout or given as an equity credit to Kylie if Spencer pursues a buyout or if the home is to be sold. Reducing Spencers equity by the remaining debt on the Honda after a fair market value sale is applied to the vehicles loan.

Spencer shall receive the Tesla Model Y and all its equity and debt, with no equalization or offset against other property. He shall pay all related costs and indemnify Kylie. Within 90 days after entry of the Decree, he shall refinance or otherwise obtain Kylie's release from all Tesla-related financial liability. If unsuccessful, he shall immediately list, sell, trade, or otherwise dispose of the Tesla in a commercially reasonable manner sufficient to release Kylie, unless she grants a written extension. Both shall sign necessary vehicle-transfer documents.

16. Retirement

Based on agreed retirement values of $17,550.00 for Spencer and $8,250.00 for Kylie, with an agreed retirement equalization of $4,650. The difference between the parties' retirement account values shall be applied as a credit against the equity buyout owed to Spencer from the marital residence if Kylie pursues a buyout or given as an equity credit paid to Kylie if Spencer is to pursue a buyout or the marital home is sold. Except for this equalization, each retains that party's retirement accounts, pensions, and similar benefits and waives claims to the other's.

17. Other Property and Debts

Each party shall retain personal property in that party's possession. The children's belongings shall be shared for their reasonable use. Any remaining property exchange shall be arranged in writing. Kylie shall be awarded all gift cards belonging to the parties and in either party's possession. Spencer shall deliver any such gift cards in his possession and any information reasonably necessary to use them to Kylie without reducing their remaining balance.

The parties acknowledge that joint bank-account balances are zero and shall close those accounts and remove joint access and liability. Each shall retain financial accounts in that party's individual name. Each party is responsible for debts incurred individually in their name, except expenses jointly agreed in writing or allocated under this Agreement. Neither may incur debt in the other's name or on the other's credit.

Each party shall indemnify the other against debts and liabilities assigned to that party. If a creditor seeks payment from the other, the responsible party shall promptly cure the default and reimburse resulting payments, fees, interest, damages, and reasonable attorney fees.

18. High 5 Casino LLC Tax Credits

Spencer shall indemnify and hold Kylie harmless from liabilities arising from tax credits associated with High 5 Casino LLC, including disallowance or recapture of credits, resulting taxes, penalties, interest, and reasonable attorney and tax-professional expenses.

19. Final Terms

Kylie's former name, Kylie Nicole Strong, shall be restored. Both parties shall timely execute documents and take reasonable steps necessary to carry out this Agreement. Refinance, buyout, reimbursement, and property deadlines are material. The Court may award the prevailing party reasonable attorney fees and costs to enforce a clear provision of this Agreement or the Decree.

This Agreement contains the parties' settlement, including the Parenting Plan set out in Section 3. No outside promises are incorporated. Changes require a written agreement and Court approval when required by law. The parties request approval and incorporation into the Decree of Divorce.

Added by the Court: The parties divorce will be final upon entry of this document in the records of the court.
