IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, SALT LAKE CITY
SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF TAYLOR OSEGUERA, Petitioner, & SCOTT ANDREW BOOTH, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264903128 Judge Richard Pehrson Commissioner Michelle Blomquist

This matter came before the Court upon the parties' Stipulated Agreement for Divorce reached during mediation on October 2, 2026. The Court, having reviewed the pleadings, the Stipulated Agreement for Divorce, and the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law entered in this matter, and being otherwise fully advised, now ORDERS, ADJUDGES, and DECREES as follows:

1. The bonds of matrimony between Taylor Oseguera and Scott Andrew Booth are dissolved, and the parties are granted a Decree of Divorce on the ground of irreconcilable differences.

2. The parties' Stipulated Agreement for Divorce is approved and incorporated into this Decree. The parties shall comply with the terms of the Stipulated Agreement and this Decree.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. The parties are bona fide residents of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and had been residents for at least three months immediately before this action was filed.

4. The parties resided in the marital relationship in the State of Utah, or the acts complained of by Petitioner were committed by Respondent in the State of Utah. The Court has jurisdiction over Respondent pursuant to Utah Code § 78B-3-205.

5. Venue is proper in Salt Lake County under Utah Code § 78B-3a-201 because the cause of action arose in this county and Respondent resides in this county.

6. The parties were married on August 18, 2018, in Las Vegas, Clark County, Nevada. The parties separated on or about August 17, 2024.

CHILDREN

7. There are no minor children born as issue of the marriage. No child-related orders are required.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

8. The parties shall not harass or threaten each other.

9. Neither party shall allow third parties to do what that party is prohibited from doing under the preceding paragraph. Each party shall use his best efforts to prevent third parties from violating this restraint on his behalf.

TAXES

10. For tax year 2026, the parties shall file married filing separately for federal and state income taxes. Any tax refund shall belong to the party receiving the refund, and any tax liability shall be paid by the party owing the liability.

11. The parties filed joint income tax returns for tax years 2021 and 2022. The outstanding tax liabilities for those years were included in Scott Booth's recent bankruptcy proceeding. Inclusion of those liabilities in the bankruptcy proceeding shall not, by itself, be construed as payment or discharge of those obligations.

12. Judgment is entered against Respondent Scott Booth and in favor of Petitioner Taylor Oseguera in the amount of Fourteen Thousand Dollars ($14,000.00).

A. Scott Booth shall pay Taylor Oseguera $14,000.00 on or before October 2, 2031, in settlement of the parties' respective claims against one another concerning their joint federal and Utah income tax liabilities for tax years 2020, 2021, and 2022. Taylor Oseguera's release of those claims shall become effective only upon receipt of the full payment in cleared funds. This settlement does not release or otherwise affect any claim of the Internal Revenue Service or Utah State Tax Commission.

B. The payment obligation is owed directly to Taylor Oseguera and is incurred in connection with the parties' divorce and Stipulated Agreement. The parties intend that the obligation be excepted from discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(15) to the extent applicable by law.

C. The $14,000.00 judgment shall accrue post-judgment interest. The judgment shall be satisfied and released upon full payment of the outstanding principal and accrued interest.

13. Taylor Oseguera shall be solely responsible for preparing and filing all required 2023, 2024, and 2025 tax returns for himself and his business, and for paying all associated taxes, interest, penalties, and preparation and filing costs. As between the parties, Scott Booth shall have no responsibility for these obligations.

14. Scott Booth has filed his separate tax returns for tax years 2023 through 2025 in connection with his bankruptcy proceeding. Scott Booth's outstanding 2023 tax liability shall not be discharged in that proceeding. Scott Booth shall be solely responsible for all taxes, interest, and penalties associated with his 2023 tax obligations. As between the parties, Taylor Oseguera shall have no responsibility for these obligations.

15. Each party shall indemnify and hold the other harmless from the tax obligations assigned to that party under this Decree, including associated interest and penalties. The allocation of responsibility between the parties does not limit the rights of any taxing authority.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

16. The parties have divided the debts and obligations acquired during the marriage. Any other debt shall be the responsibility of the party who incurred it.

17. The parties shall be mutually restrained from incurring any additional liability on any joint debt or joint credit line.

18. All debts and obligations incurred since the parties' separation shall be the responsibility of the party who incurred the particular debt. Any debt listed, addressed, compromised, or discharged in Scott Booth's bankruptcy proceeding shall remain Scott Booth's sole responsibility as between the parties to the extent any obligation associated with that debt remains legally enforceable. Scott Booth waives any claim against Taylor Oseguera for contribution, reimbursement, equalization, credit, or offset based upon any debt discharged, forgiven, compromised, or otherwise resolved through his bankruptcy proceeding. Nothing in this paragraph alters the specific tax allocation set forth above.

19. As authorized by Utah Code § 15-4-6.5, the parties shall notify respective creditors or obligees regarding the division of debts, obligations, or liabilities herein and the parties' separate current addresses.

20. Each party shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from all debts and obligations awarded to that party under this Decree. This hold-harmless provision shall apply to bankruptcy proceedings.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

21. Each party is awarded any vehicle in his own name and shall be responsible for all remaining payments due on the vehicle in his possession. Each party shall remove the other party from the vehicle insurance policy and title as soon as practicable. If both parties are on a vehicle loan, the party awarded the vehicle shall refinance the vehicle into his sole name within thirty (30) days after entry of this Decree. If the party is unable to refinance within thirty (30) days, the vehicle shall immediately be placed for sale.

22. The parties have already divided their bank accounts and separated them into their respective individual names. Each party is awarded the accounts in his own name, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

23. Each party is awarded property he owned before the marriage, property he acquired after the date of separation, inheritance received by him, and gifts to him from his respective family, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

24. Any remaining personal property shall be divided as the parties have already agreed.

REAL PROPERTY

25. The parties have no interest in any real property requiring division by this Court.

ALIMONY

26. Neither party shall be awarded alimony.

PENSION AND RELATED ASSETS

27. Each party is awarded his own retirement accounts free and clear of any claim by the other party.

BUSINESS INTERESTS

28. Taylor Oseguera is awarded Hair Sailor Taylor, together with its bank accounts, debts, and liabilities, free and clear of any claim by Scott Booth. Taylor Oseguera shall remove Scott Booth's name from all Hair Sailor Taylor legal documents as soon as possible. Scott Booth shall sign any documents necessary to facilitate the transfer of interest. Taylor Oseguera shall hold Scott Booth harmless from any and all liabilities associated with the business.

29. Scott Booth shall have no ongoing connection with, interaction with, or association with Hair Sailor Taylor and shall not purchase or have any dealings with the website hotsailortaylor.com. He shall not use or access the account hstsalonslc@gmail.com or any business-associated email accounts. If Scott Booth has access to any other business accounts, websites, or email systems, he shall log out, remove his access, and cooperate in returning access to Taylor Oseguera.

ATTORNEY FEES AND OTHER PROVISIONS

30. Each party shall be responsible for his own costs and attorney fees.

31. Before filing any petition to change any provision of this final Decree of Divorce, the parties shall first attempt to resolve the issue through mediation.

32. Each party shall execute and deliver to the other all documents required to implement the provisions of this Decree of Divorce.

33. If any term, paragraph, or provision incorporated from the Stipulated Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder shall continue in full force and effect.

34. This Decree and the incorporated Stipulated Agreement constitute the complete resolution of the issues addressed therein. The Court retains jurisdiction to enforce the terms of this Decree and grants such other and further relief as may be just and appropriate and consistent with the parties' Stipulated Agreement.
