Attorney for Kristin Quinones

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, TOOELE DEPARTMENT, IN AND FOR TOOELE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of KRISTIN QUINONES and LUIS QUINONES	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 264300206 Judge L. Douglas Hogan Commissioner Renee Blocher

The above-entitled matter came before the court on Kristin Quinones's Verified Petition for Divorce, her Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds, and the parties' signed Stipulation.

The parties have filed a Stipulation with the Court resolving all issues. The Court, having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now orders:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

1. The parties are hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from one another on the grounds of irreconcilable differences and their marriage is hereby dissolved.

2. Residency: Kristin is a bona fide resident of Tooele County, State of Utah, and has been for three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

3. Marriage: The parties married on April 23, 2022, in Stansbury Park, State of Utah. The parties are currently married. The parties separated on or about June 2026.

4. Grounds: During the course of the marriage the parties have experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled and that have prevented the parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship.

5. Child: There is one (1) minor child of this marriage: L.A.Q., born February 2023.

6. Legal Custody & Parenting Plan: Both parties shall be awarded joint legal custody of the minor child and use the terms herein as a parenting plan and be bound to abide thereby.

7. Information Sharing: Both parties are entitled to direct access to all of the child's records without limitation. Both parties will be listed as parents and basic contact information provided to all third parties who interact with the child (medical, school, therapeutic, religious, childcare, etc.). The parties will provide each other with the names and telephone numbers or emails of persons who work with the child so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these people (teachers, medical providers, therapists, coaches, etc.). The parties will keep each other informed and give notice to the other parent of the activities and appointments of the child. The parents will notify each other of any special events involving the child such as school activities, church events, sports events, graduations, etc., so that each party will have the option of attending the special event if possible and participate fully.

8. Decisions: Minor and day-to-day decisions and emergency medical decisions will be made by the parent exercising parent time. The parties shall have a good-faith discussion on all major decisions in the child's life prior to a decision being made regarding health, safety, religion, and education.

9. Dispute Resolution: If the parties disagree on a major decision regarding the child, the parties will first consult with an appropriate professional or relevant individual about the issue—doctor, teacher, therapist, coach, etc. The parties will give significant weight and consideration to the professional recommendations. If the parties still disagree on the issue, then the parties will promptly submit the matter to mediation. If mediation does not resolve the issue, then either party may file a motion in court and schedule a hearing, and the court will decide the issue using the standard of the best interest of the child. The parties agree to the jurisdiction of the commissioner to resolve such disputes.

10. Educational Plan: Both parents shall have access to the child during school and authority to check the child out of school on his or her custodial days. The parties will obtain separate passwords for any school website so each can access events and schoolwork online. The party with the minor child in his/her care will be responsible for ensuring the minor child's homework is complete and transporting the minor child to and from school on time. The child will attend school based on the Mother's residence, so long as the school choice does not cause the Father to drive more than 30 minutes to the school or daycare setting. In the future, if a proposed change of schools is outside of this range and the parties disagree on the school placement or registration, they will use the dispute resolution procedures outlined herein.

11. Contact Information: The parties will keep each other informed of his and her contact information (address, phone, email) and update the other within 48 hours of any change.

12. Communication between Parents: Unless otherwise agreed, all communication between the parties shall be primarily via text, email or an agreed-upon parenting app. All communication between the parties shall be civil in nature and only pertaining to child-related issues.

13. Communication with Child: Communication between a parent and the child (phone, Facetime, texting and other forms of electronic communication) shall be at reasonable hours, for a reasonable duration, and shall be uncensored, unmonitored, and unrecorded. If the child is not available when a parent calls, then the party with parent time will initiate or have the child initiate return contact as soon as possible the same day, but not later than 24 hours. The child may initiate contact with either parent at any reasonable times and durations.

14. Travel: When the minor child is traveling away from a party's regular place of abode for overnight or longer, the parent exercising parent time shall notify the other parent in advance of the travel with the following information: (a) travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location. See Utah Code 81-9-202(19). If the child is traveling internationally (outside of the 50 states), then the traveling parent will provide the above information along with copies of the specific round trip flight details at least 14 days prior to the travel dates.

15. Passports and International Travel: Both parties will cooperate to sign any forms necessary to obtain and/or renew passports for the child. The passport will be held by the Mother until needed for travel with the Father. If either party intends to travel internationally, the parties will provide the other with the child's passport at least 7 days before the travel, and both parties will cooperate and sign any written permission or forms that may be required for international travel.

16. Physical Custody: The parties will be awarded joint physical custody of the minor child. Parent time shall be as the parties may agree.

a. Current through Start of School: Until the child enters kindergarten, the parties will use Utah Code 81-9-305 with one change in the mid-week rotation which makes it a 2-2-3 pattern. The Mother exercises her mid-week parent time and overnights on Monday and Tuesday on week 1 then on Wednesday and Thursday on week 2; the Father exercises his mid-week parent time and overnights on Wednesdays and Thursdays on week 1, and on Mondays and Tuesdays on week 2. This pattern then repeats. The parties will alternate weekends from Fridays to Monday mornings.

b. Kindergarten Forward: After the child enters kindergarten, parent time will be pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-

305, with the Mother exercising her mid-week parent time and overnights on Mondays and Tuesdays, and the Father exercising his mid-week parent time and overnights on Wednesdays and Thursdays each week. The parties will alternate weekends from Fridays to Monday mornings.

c. Introductions: If Luis decides to introduce the minor child, L.A.Q., to his other children at some point, he will give Kristin advance notice.

17. Holiday Parent Time: Holidays shall be as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree, the parties will use the holiday schedule in Utah Code 81-9-302 summarized in the following table. If there are differences in the table below and the statutory holidays—as they are amended from time to time—then the updated statutory terms apply.

18. Summer Parent Time: Extended parent time during the summer will be pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-305 (2 weeks each). Unless the parties mutually agree otherwise, each summer week will be separated by at least 1 week. Each parent shall provide notification to the other parent of the parent's plans for the exercise of extended summer parent-time as follows:

a. Priority in odd-numbered years: the Mother shall provide notice to the Father by May 1, and the Father shall provide notice to the Mother by May 15; and

b. Priority in even-numbered years: the Father shall provide notice to the Mother by May 1 and the Mother shall provide notice to the Father by May 15.

c. Failure to Timely Comply: If a parent fails to provide a notification within the time periods described above, the complying parent may determine the schedule for summer break for the noncomplying parent.

d. First to Comply has Priority: If both parents fail to provide notice within the time periods described above, the first parent to provide notice may determine the schedule for summer break for the other parent.

19. Exchanges: The parties will share transportation for parent time exchanges as the parties may hereafter agree. If the parties are unable to agree, the exchanges will be at the daycare setting, school-to-school or by the receiving parent at a neutral location, if daycare or school is not in session. The “receiving parent” is the parent who is beginning parent time.

20. Curbside: Unless the parties agree otherwise in writing, all exchanges shall be curbside. When the parties are meeting at a neutral location, curbside means that the party that drove the child to the location stays in the driver’s seat, and the other party will assist the child out of the car seat/car into his or her own vehicle. If residences are being used in the future and the child is mature enough to go from the car to the residence unassisted, the receiving parent will remain at the curb and within 5 feet of the car, the sending parent will remain at or within 5 feet of the door of the residence, and the child is sent to and from the car. Unless the parties agree otherwise, for all exchanges, except for pleasant greetings, no communication is to take place at the exchanges. If communication is needed for the exchange (to discuss logistics, medical information or other child-related issues), they will do so via text just before or just after the exchange.

21. Moves: If a party intends to relocate the child and place the child in a school more than 30 minutes from the residence of the other, the relocating parent shall provide 60 days advance written notice of the intended relocation to the other parent. See Utah Code 81-9-209 for the minimum contents of the notice.

22. Mutual Restraining Orders:

a. Disparaging: Both parties shall be restrained from demeaning or disparaging the other parent, speaking derogatorily or in a belittling manner about the other parent in the presence of the minor child. As used in this subparagraph, demeaning or disparaging means to say anything ill of the other whether they believe it to be true or not.

b. Mutual Respect: The parties shall be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor child.

c. No Involvement in Legal Case: Both parties are restrained from discussing any legal or financial issues in this case with the child.

d. Not Use Child as Messenger: The parties will not use the child to send messages to the other about parent time arrangements, parent time adjustments, or related to financial issues, but will communicate such issues directly with one another and outside the presence and hearing of the child.

e. Undue Influence: Both parties are restrained from attempting to influence the child's preference regarding custody or parent time.

f. Interrogation: Neither parent shall question, interrogate or "pump," the minor child about the other parent's activities, personal relationships or how the other parent spends his/her time or money.

g. Corporal Punishment: Neither party shall use corporal punishment as a form of discipline on the child.

h. Harassment and Abuse: Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party or the minor child, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party or the minor child.

i. Substance Abuse: Neither party will use alcohol in excess, illegal drugs, or abuse prescription drugs within 12 hours prior to or during parent time with the child.

j. Third Parties: Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under these subparagraphs and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the child from such circumstances.

23. Child Support: The Mother is employed and earns approximately $6,265 per month. The Father is employed and earns approximately $5,000 per month and in addition receives monthly VA benefits, which together create a total income of approximately $8,000 per month. Effective October 1, 2026, child support is awarded to the Mother from the Father in the amount of $91.00 per month pursuant to the child support guidelines. Child support is due one-half by the 5th and one-half by the 20th of each month. Child support will be paid directly into an account of the Mother's choice, or through ORS if there is an open case.

24. Childcare: Utah Code 81-6-209 shall apply and order the equal division of work-related childcare expenses. A parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent within 30 calendar days and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. If a party fails to notify the other of day care expenses within 30 days of payment of a day care expense, the party may be denied the right to reimbursement for such expenses. Childcare arrangements with family members are preferred as are childcare arrangements with nominal or no charge—so long as the care can be provided consistently similar to a paid provider. A party using family members to provide childcare will not be entitled to reimbursement unless both parents have agreed in advance in writing to the specific family member providing the care and the associated costs. The parties will share the contact information of all childcare providers with the other parent and share the contact information of both parents with the childcare provider.

25. First Right: Each parent will have the first right to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available for a period of overnight or longer during their parent time. The parent exercising the first right must be personally available, willing to provide the transportation, and shall return the child when the other becomes available. This provision is not intended to prevent the minor child from attending occasional overnights with a grandparent, camps, playdates, or other reasonable activities for the child when the parent exercising parent time is otherwise available.

26. Medical and Dental Insurance and Premiums: One or both parents shall provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of their minor child if such coverage is available to a parent at a reasonable cost. The parent who can secure the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall do so. Currently, the Mother is providing medical insurance and the Father has coverage through the VA. Each parent shall share equally the actual out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent who maintains the insurance for the child's portion of insurance. See Utah Code 81-6-208. If, like now, the child is covered by both parents (or the insurance plan of a future spouse), the coverage of the Mother shall be primary, and the coverage of the Father will be secondary. Additionally, regarding the calculation and payment of the child's share of the medical insurance premiums:

a. The parent who provides health insurance may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium.

b. If the parent does not have health insurance but another member of the parent's household provides health insurance for the child, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium.

c. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid.

d. The premium expense for a child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case.

27. Medical Out-of-Pocket Costs: Each parent shall equally share all other reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, mental health, and orthodontia expenses incurred for the child, including deductibles and copayments. A parent who incurs such medical expenses for the minor child shall provide proof of the expense and proof of the payment to the other parent within 30 calendar days, and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. If a party fails to notify the other of medical expenses within 30 days of payment of an expense, that party may be denied the right to reimbursement for such expenses. See Utah Code 81-6-208. The parties will share new health insurance information every year no later than January 31st.

28. Division of Accounts: When a parent is arranging for and making payment for medical, school, childcare or other activities, the parent may request that the provider create separate accounts for each party to pay their respective half of the costs separately. See Utah Code 15-4-6.7.

29. Extracurricular Expenses: Each party shall pay fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amounts for any extracurricular activities if both parties agreed in writing to the activity in advance. The party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment, and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. If an extracurricular activity is agreed upon, then both parents will make reasonable efforts to have the child attend during his or her parent time. If an extracurricular activity is not agreed upon, then the parent who did not agree to the activity is not required to have the child attend during his or her parent time.

30. School Expenses: Each party shall pay fifty percent (50%) of any required out-of-pocket public-school expenses for the minor child incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of documents of verification.

31. Divorce Education Classes: If either party has not taken the required divorce classes, he or she will do so within 30 days and provide proof to the other party and to the court.

32. Taxes: The parties shall file separate tax returns for the 2026 tax year, and thereafter.

a. Beginning for the 2026 tax year, the Mother will claim the minor child on her tax returns for the even-numbered tax years; and beginning for the 2027 tax year, the Father will claim the child on his returns for the odd-numbered tax years.

b. A party's right to claim any child on the tax returns for any particular tax year is subject to being current on all child support obligations by December 31st of the particular tax year.

c. A party's right to claim any child on any tax return for any particular tax year is subject to a party receiving a tax benefit in a particular tax year.

d. If a party cannot claim a child on his/her tax return for a particular tax year, then the other party is automatically entitled to claim the child on his/her return for that year. See Utah Code 81-6-210.

33. Alimony: Neither party is awarded alimony, now and forever.

34. Real Property: The parties acquired a home and real property located at 303 Lakeside Dr., Stansbury Park, UT 84074. This property is subject to a mortgage and the parties contemplate that the property is and when sold will be at a loss. Both parties have moved from the home, and the mortgage was unpaid from July through September. Neither party contemplates making any further payments on the mortgage pending sale.

a. Sell Now: This property shall be immediately listed for sale by Andrew Ho as a short sale. Both parties will cooperate in the listing and signatures required to facilitate the sale. Both parties are to keep each other informed of all offers on the property and both shall be able to communicate with the sales agent. Both parties will comply with all reasonable requests made by the sales agent in the marketing and sale of the home.

b. Sale Proceeds: When sold, the proceeds of the sale shall be applied as follows: (1) pay expenses and costs of sale; (2) pay off any and all mortgages on the property; (3) the proceeds remaining thereafter (if any) to be divided equally between the parties; and (4) any shortfall (if any are remaining after the sale) will be divided in the following steps: (a) Luis will pay 3 months' worth of full mortgage payments of $3,745 as his sole and separate portion, and (b) the balance after Luis' portion is subtracted will be paid equally (one-half by each party).

35. Vehicles: Kristin is awarded the Hyundai Elantra along with any associated debt, insurance, and expenses relating thereto. Luis is awarded the Audi Q6 along with any associated debt, insurance, and expenses relating thereto.

36. Personal Property:

a. Luis will retain the shed he moved from the marital residence property.

b. All other personal property not otherwise distributed herein shall be awarded to each of the parties as they have heretofore divided such and is now in his or her possession or control as of September 28, 2026.

37. Bank Accounts: Any joint bank or credit union accounts shall be closed as soon as possible. Each party is awarded any other bank account(s) in his or her sole name as his or her separate property, free and clear of any claim of the other.

38. Debts: The debts not otherwise distributed herein will be paid as follows:
