Attorney for Jeannette Adzitso

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH, SALT LAKE DISTRICT

In the Matter of the Marriage of: JACOB AHO KUEVIAKOE, Petitioner, and JEANNETTE ADJOA ADZITSO, Respondent.	JUDGMENT AND ORDER AFTER HEARING ON SEPTEMBER 28, 2026 Case No. 224905424 Judge SCOTT Commissioner MINAS

On September 28, 2026, a hearing was held on Respondent's Verified Motion to Enforce Divorce Decree and for Sanctions, the Honorable Commissioner Russell Minas presiding.

Petitioner, JACOB AHO KUEVIAKOE ("Jacob") appeared pro se by Webex. Respondent, JEANNETTE ADJOA ADZITSO ("Jeannette") was present in the courtroom and represented by Mark R. LaRocco, who was present in the courtroom. After a review of the pleadings and hearing argument/proffer from counsel and from Jacob, the Court hereby rules as follows:

FINDINGS, ORDERS, AND JUDGMENT

1. The prior ruling in the Divorce Decree and Judgment awarded the Ghana property to Jeannette upon payment of the $2,000, and in the Order on Motion to Enforce (December 14, 2023 Hearing) Jacob acknowledged receipt of the $2,000, and the terms of the decree were satisfied and the title to the Ghana property identified as PROPERTY SITUATE AT (WETA-ADEVUKOFE “TAFI”) may be transferred to Jeannette’s sole name.

2. The Decree is clear that this property is awarded to Jeannette.

3. If there is a letter or document for Jacob to be signed to effectuate the transfer, this shall be emailed to Jacob within ten (10) days, and if Jacob refuses to sign such, then the Court authorizes and directs the Court Clerk under U.R.C.P. 70 to sign on Jacob’s behalf.

4. Jeannette must ensure the correct language is provided so that the document can be honored by Ghana authorities to finalize the property transfer.

5. Therefore, the Court is not going to award attorney fees on that issue at this time.

6. Regarding the child support judgment, the updated amount that is owed by Jacob through September 28, 2026, is $24,037.60.

7. This amount is derived from the total support owing of $27,407.43 according to ORS records, less the $3,369.83 paid directly by Jacob to Jeannette in two payments in April 2025 and April 2026, and which was unreported to ORS.

8. Jacob paid $3,000 in April 2025, with $2,369.83 of it going toward child support, and Jacob paid $1,000 in April 2026.

9. This $3,369.83 is an acknowledged credit by Jeannette, who informed ORS of this but it was not included in their totals.

10. Jacob also appears to be seeking credit for gifts or items that he allegedly bought for the children, but under the law he can only get credit for cash payments so there are not included.

11. The Court heard Jacob's various arguments as to why he has not paid child support, including starting and stopping various jobs.

12. Where the Court has a problem with this is when months and months go by and the number of payments is zero.

13. The children are in need of ongoing support each and every month.

14. When the Court sees zeroes stacking up, the Court can only come to the conclusion that the child support payor is not doing the best that he can.

15. Therefore, the Court finds that there is a clear and valid order to pay child support, Jacob knew of the order, and Jacob willingly or knowingly refused to comply.

16. Based on those findings, Jacob is in contempt for failure to pay child support.

17. The amount that is owed also includes Jacob's one-half portion of the children's health insurance premiums, for a monthly amount of $878.85 at this time.

18. Therefore, based on the Jacob's Contempt, the Court is ordering the following sanctions:

a. Jacob is ordered to serve five (5) days in jail.

b. Jacob is ordered to pay a $500 fine.

c. Jacob has a suspension of driver's license, recreational license, occupational licenses, and under federal rule because his arrears exceed $2,500, U.S. passport suspension.

19. However, the Court is going to stay the imposition of those sentences to give Jacob an opportunity to purge his Contempt.

20. Jacob may purge his Contempt by making those payments of $878.85 on time every month for the next six months, starting in October 2026.

21. If Jacob does not make any of those payments on time during the six (6) months, then Jeannette may seek imposition of the sanctions.

22. The Court is not going set it for a review, but the Court will allow Jeannette to schedule a hearing if necessary.

23. Based on the failure to pay child support and the Contempt finding, the Court is granting Attorney Fees pursuant to Rule 73 as it relates to the enforcement of child support issue.

24. Mr. LaRocco is ordered to file a Declaration of Attorney Fees to state the amount of attorney fees to be added to the Judgment.

25. Therefore, with the Child Support Judgment of $24,037.60 and the Attorney Fees Judgment of $3,311.37, the total Judgment shall be $27,348.97.

26. The Judgment shall bear post-judgment interest at the legal rate from the date hereof until paid.

27. In regard to Jeannette's request to keep the ORS case open, Mr. LaRocco is directed to reach out to the Assistant Attorney General at ORS in charge of the case to get more clarity. If the law allows the Court to Order ORS to keep the case open, then it shall remain open; however, if it is within the rights of ORS to close the case based on their criteria for closure, then the Court cannot force ORS to keep the case open.

28. Jacob's email address as presented on the record is jacob.kuev@gmail.com and he may continue to be served there and receive pleadings and documents.

29. Mr. LaRocco is instructed to prepare and circulate a copy of this Order.

In accordance with E-filing Standards 4.1 and 5.4 of the Utah State District Courts and Rule 10(e) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, this document does not bear the handwritten signature of a judicial officer, but instead displays an electronic signature

NOTICE PURSUANT TO RULE 7(j) OF THE UTAH RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE TO THE PARTIES AND/OR TO COUNSEL

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to Rule 7(j) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, this Order prepared by Jeannette's counsel shall be the Order of the Court unless you file an objection in writing within (7) days from the date of the service of this notice.
