Petitioner's Attorney

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, SALT LAKE CITY
SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF AMANDA SLOAN, Petitioner, & JOHN SLOAN, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264904330 Judge Derek Williams Commissioner Russell Minas

Petitioner, Amanda Sloan, through her attorney, Alixandria Young-Jui, and Respondent, John Sloan, pro se, stipulated to a full and final resolution of all issues raised in this matter pursuant to an agreement reached on 31 August 2026, via the Stipulation. From the records, files, and papers in this matter, the Court being fully advised, and having previously made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now:

ORDERS, ADJUDGES, AND DECREES

PROVISION REGARDING FINALITY OF DIVORCE

The bonds of matrimony heretofore existing by and between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved and Petitioner is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from Respondent, to become absolute and final upon entry by the Court.

PROVISIONS REGARDING PARTIES' CHILDREN

1. Parties are the parents of four (4) children, two (2) of which are minors, namely: S.S., born April 2011; and J.S., born July 2013; collectively referred to as Minor Children.

A. Neither Party is currently pregnant.

2. Pursuant to Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 100(a), there are no proceedings regarding custody, child support, criminal, protective orders, or delinquency involving the above-named Minor Children in juvenile court, or any other court.

PROVISIONS REGARDING CHILD CUSTODY, PARENT-TIME, AND PARENTING PLAN

3. Parties are awarded joint legal custody and joint physical custody of Parties' Minor Children.

4. Joint legal custody requires Parties to communicate and attempt to resolve between them all issues relating to Minor Children's welfare. If Parties disagree about decisions regarding religion, medical, education, and extra-curricular activities after good-faith discussion, Amanda shall be the final decision-maker. John may bring the issue(s) to mediation. If, after good faith mediation, Parties are unable to come to an agreement, Parties may file appropriate proceedings with the Court. Parties shall share equally mediation fees incurred pursuant to this paragraph.

5. Each parent may make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of Minor Children when Minor Children are residing with that parent. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of Minor Children.

6. Except as otherwise stated herein, Parties shall adopt into their Parenting Plan the statutory advisory guidelines contained in Utah Code, Section 81-9-202.

7. John shall be awarded rights of parent-time with Minor Children of Parties as follows:

PROVISIONS REGARDING CHILD CUSTODY, PARENT-TIME, AND PARENTING PLAN

8. Parent-time with Minor Children shall be as follows:

A. Reasonable parent-time shall be as Parties agree. If Parties do not agree to a parent-time schedule, the following schedule — which is based on Utah Code, Section 81-9-303 — shall be considered the minimum parent-time to which John (i.e., the noncustodial parent) shall be entitled:

i. Midweek: One weekday evening to be specified by the noncustodial parent or the court, or Wednesday evening if not specified, beginning at 5:30 p.m. and ending the following day upon delivering Minor Children to school or at 8 a.m. if there is no school; or at the election of the noncustodial parent, beginning at the time that Minor Children's schools are regularly dismissed and ending the following day upon delivering Minor Children to school or at 8 a.m. if there is no school. In addition, if there is no school, the noncustodial parent is available to be with Minor Children, and in accommodation with the custodial parent's work schedule, beginning at 8 a.m. and ending on the following day upon delivering Minor Children to school or at 8 a.m. if there is no school.

ii. Alternating Weekend: Beginning on the first weekend after the entry of the decree and continuing each year, alternating weekends from 6 p.m. on Friday and ending on Monday upon delivering Minor Children to school or at 8 a.m. if there is no school. At the election of the noncustodial parent, the weekend parent-time may begin at the time Minor Children's schools are regularly dismissed. In addition, if there is no school, the noncustodial parent is available to be with Minor Children, and in accommodation of the custodial parent's work schedule, beginning Friday from approximately 9 a.m. and ending on Monday upon delivering Minor Children to school or at 8 a.m. if there is no school. Weekends include any snow days, teacher development days, or other days when school is not scheduled and that are contiguous to the weekend period.

a. A parent exercising parent-time for a child's birthday may bring other siblings along for the minor child's birthday.

b. If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the parent exercising parent-time shall be responsible for Minor Children's attendance at school for that school day.

c. If there is more than one child and Minor Children's school schedules vary for purpose of a holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday or the parent's half of the holiday, Minor Children may remain together for the holiday period beginning the first evening that all Minor Children's schools are dismissed for the holiday and ending the evening before the first Minor Child returns to school.

iv. Extended: For extended parent-time with Minor Children, and at the election of the noncustodial parent, the noncustodial parent is entitled up to four weeks of parent-time with Minor Children, which may be consecutive, when school is not in session for summer break. For the four weeks:

a. two weeks, which may be consecutive, shall be uninterrupted parent-time for the noncustodial parent; and

b. two weeks, which may be consecutive, may be interrupted by the custodial parent for a weekday visit on the same day on which the noncustodial parent is granted weekday parent-time.

c. The custodial parent is entitled to uninterrupted parent-time with Minor Children for two weeks, which may be consecutive, when school is not in session for summer break.

B. Notification: Each parent shall provide notification to the other parent of the parent's plans for the exercise of extended parent-time for summer break.

i. In odd numbered years, the noncustodial parent shall provide notice to the custodial parent by May 1, and the custodial parent shall provide notice to the noncustodial parent by May 15.

ii. In even numbered years, the custodial parent shall provide notice to the noncustodial parent by May 1, and the noncustodial parent shall provide notice to the custodial parent by May 15.

iii. If a parent fails to provide a notification within the time periods described herein, the complying parent may determine the schedule for summer break for the noncomplying parent. If both parents fail to provide notice within the time periods described herein, the first parent to provide notice may determine the schedule for summer break for the other parent.

iv. If the custodial parent intends to interrupt a noncustodial parent's interrupted extended parent-time, the custodial parent shall provide notification to the noncustodial parent of the intent to interrupt parent-time within ten days on which the custodial parent receives notification of the noncustodial parent's plans for the exercise of interrupted extended parent-time.

C. Conflict and Precedence: Changes may not be made to the parent-time schedule, except that if a conflict arises in the parent-time schedule, the following order of precedence shall be applied when determining which parent is entitled to parent-time:

i. The holiday schedule for Mother's Day or Father's Day;

ii. The holiday schedule for Minor Children's birthdays, unless a parent is exercising uninterrupted extended parent-time and takes the Minor Children away from that parent's residence during the uninterrupted extended parent-time;

iii. The holiday schedule for any holiday that is not Father's Day, Mother's Day, or Minor Children's birthdays.

iv. Extended parent-time; and

v. The schedule for weekday or weekend parent-time.

D. Elections: An election shall be made by the noncustodial parent at the time of the entry of the order, except that the election may be changed by mutual agreement, court order, or by the noncustodial parent in the event of a change in Minor Children's schedule. An election by either parent concerning parent-time shall be made a part of the order.

9. Parties shall not use illegal drugs, misuse prescription medication, or alcohol while Minor Children are in their care. Parties shall not allow third parties to use illegal drugs, misuse prescription medications, or abuse alcohol in Minor Children's presence. If a Party has a reasonable belief that other Party is drunk, using illegal drugs, or misusing prescription medication while Minor Children are in their care, that Party can withhold parent-time.

10. Amanda's residence shall be considered Minor Children's home residence for purposes of identifying the appropriate school.

11. Unless Parties mutually agree in writing or the Court orders otherwise, Minor Children shall remain enrolled in their current school, and shall attend the corresponding feeder schools.

12. If either parent takes Minor Children out of state for vacation, that parent must give notice to the other parent 30 days before leaving the state.

13. If either Party wishes to travel outside of the United States with Minor Children, Parties shall cooperate to obtain passports for Minor Children. Amanda shall be the custodian of the passports. Parties shall either agree in writing or obtain Court order allowing travel outside of the United States. Minor Children's passports shall be freely shared between Parties as necessary to facilitate any written agreement or Court Order regarding travel.

14. Each Party shall be awarded reasonable telephone or other electronic communication with Minor Children when Minor Children are at the other Party's home at reasonable times and for reasonable durations.

15. Whenever Minor Children travel with either parent, the traveling parent shall provide the following to the other parent:

A. An itinerary of travel dates;

B. Destinations;

C. Places where Minor Children or traveling parent can be reached, and

D. The name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of Minor Children's location.

16. If one Party moves more than 150 miles, then John shall be awarded reasonable parent-time as Parties agree. If Parties do not agree to a parent-time schedule, Utah Code, Section 81-9-209 shall be considered the minimum parent-time to which John shall be entitled. Transportation costs shall be shared according to Utah Code, Section 81-9-209, with John being considered the relocating parent.

17. John shall be responsible for providing all travel necessary to exercise his parent-time. John shall be responsible for all other costs associated with exercising his parent-time.

PROVISIONS REGARDING SUPPORT PAYMENTS

18. Amanda is employed and earns $4,391 gross per month.

19. Upon information and belief, John is employed and earns $18,333 gross per month.

20. Pursuant to Utah Code, Sections 81-6-202 through 305, John shall be Ordered to pay child support.

A. Beginning September 2026, John shall pay an upwards deviation of $2,377.00 per month in child support while both Minor Children are eligible to receive child support. According to Uniform Child Support Guidelines, joint child support worksheet, John's child support obligation is $1,884.

B. Child support shall continue until Minor Child becomes 18 years of age, or graduates from high school during Minor Child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

C. After S.S. has aged out and there is only one child requiring support, John shall pay $1,208 as base child support.

D. Pursuant to Utah Code, Sections 26B-9-302 through 412, John shall make child support payments to the Office of Recovery Services or directly to Amanda.

E. In the event income withholding is commenced, all administrative fees and costs of income withholding assessed by the Office of Recovery Services shall be paid by John.

F. If income withholding through the Office of Recovery Services is pursued, all child support payments shall be made to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, UT 84145-0011, unless the Office of Recovery Services gives notice that payments should be sent elsewhere.

G. The issue of child support arrearages may be determined by further judicial or administrative determination.

H. If a child support order has not been issued or modified within the previous three years, a parent may move the Court to adjust the amount of a child support order if there is a non-temporary difference of at least ten percent between the payor's ordered support amount and the payor's new support amount that would be required under the guidelines and the new order adjusting the ordered support amount does not deviate from the guidelines.

I. A parent may at any time petition the Court to adjust the amount of a child support order if there has been a substantial, non-temporary, change in circumstances, resulting in a difference of fifteen percent or more between the payor's ordered support amount and the new support amount that would be required under the guidelines.

PROVISIONS REGARDING EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

21. Each Party shall be Ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for all mutually agreed-upon-in-writing extracurricular activities that Minor Children are involved in. Party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to other Party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by other Party within thirty days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A Party who incurs an expense for Minor Children's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense.

PROVISIONS REGARDING HEALTH AND OTHER INSURANCES

22. Pursuant to Utah Code, Section 81-6-208, if health, dental, and optical insurances for the benefit of Minor Children is available to either Party, it is reasonable and proper that the Party shall be required to maintain such insurance.

A. Both Parties shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for Minor Children's portion of insurance. Minor Children's portion of the premium shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children of Parties in this case. If at any time Minor Children are covered by both Parents' insurances, each Party shall be responsible for their own insurance premiums.

B. Both Parties shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for Minor Children and actually paid by Parties.

C. The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, upon initial enrollment of Minor Children and, thereafter, on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services, of any change of insurance carrier, premium or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date that parent first knew or should have known of the change.

D. A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

E. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with subparagraphs C and D above.

F. The parent to whom written verification is provided shall reimburse the parent who incurred the medical expenses one-half of the amount of the out-of-pocket costs within 30 days of receipt of the written verification.

G. If, at any point in time, Minor Children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of John shall be primary coverage for Minor Children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Amanda shall be secondary coverage for Minor Children. If Minor Children are not covered by a parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but are covered by another member of the parent's household, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the member of the household shall be treated as if it is the plan of the parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of Minor Children.

H. According to Utah Code, Section 15-4-6.7, each Party may elect for dental, medical, and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.

PROVISIONS REGARDING CHILD-CARE EXPENSES

23. Pursuant to Utah Code, Section 81-6-209, Parties shall share equally the reasonable work-related or career- or educational- or occupational-training related child-care expenses actually paid by a parent.

A. A parent shall begin paying his or her share of child-care expenses on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of a child-care expense.

B. The parent who incurs child-care expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a child-care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider; and, thereafter, on the request of the other parent. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of child-care provider or the monthly expense of child-care within thirty calendar days of the date of the change. A parent incurring child-care expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.

C. The parent to whom written verification is provided shall reimburse the parent who incurred the child-care expenses one-half of the amount of the out-of-pocket costs within thirty days of receipt of the written verification.

PROVISIONS REGARDING MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

24. Parties shall abide by the following mutual restraining orders:

A. Parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or about one another in Minor Children's presence, either verbally, in writing, or otherwise. As used in this paragraph, disparage means to say anything ill of the other whether they believe it to be true or not.

B. Parties shall not speak with Minor Children about litigation between Parties.

C. Parties shall not involve or speak with Minor Children about the issues in this matter.

D. Parties shall not harass or threaten each other.

E. Parties shall not allow third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph. Parties shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations, or they shall remove Minor Children from circumstances in which violations are occurring.

PROVISIONS REGARDING MINOR CHILDREN TAX EXEMPTIONS, DEDUCTIONS, AND CREDITS

25. Amanda shall be entitled to claim Minor Children as exemptions, deductions, and credits for the purposes of filing federal and state income tax returns from 2026 onward.

26. John shall have the option to exercise a buy-out of other Amanda's exemptions, deductions, and credits if John pays for all accounting expenses and uses a third-party accountant to calculate the buy-out option. John shall pay Amanda the amount which she would have benefited from the dependency exemption to leave Amanda tax neutral. John shall request tax information by March 1st and should decide by March 15th if a buy-out should occur.

PROVISIONS REGARDING TAXES

27. Parties shall file married, filing separately for federal and state taxes for 2026. Any tax refund or liability shall be paid by the Party owing the tax or receiving the refund.

PROVISION REGARDING LIFE INSURANCE

28. John shall maintain a life insurance policy on his life, so long as such is available at reasonable cost or through his employer, in an amount of sufficient size to provide for a monthly income equal to child support and alimony payments ordered until Minor Children all age out of child support and alimony obligation ends. John shall maintain in full force and effect this life insurance policy until child support obligation ordered terminates and all child support arrearages have been paid in full. During such period, John shall irrevocably designate Parties' children as beneficiaries on the life insurance and designate either the other Party or a trust as the trustee for Minor Children.

PROVISIONS REGARDING DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

29. During the course of the marriage, Parties acquired certain debts and obligations. These debts shall be divided, as follows:

A. John shall pay the debt owed on the 2025 Federal Taxes in the amount of approximately $12,000.

B. If there are any other debts, the debt shall be the responsibility of the Party incurring the debt.

C. Parties shall be mutually restrained from incurring any additional liability on any joint debts or joint credit lines.

D. All debts and obligations incurred since Parties' separation shall be the responsibility of the Party who incurred the particular debt.

E. As authorized by Utah Code, Section 15-4-6.5, Parties shall notify respective creditors or obligees, regarding the division of debts, obligations, or liabilities herein and Parties' separate, current addresses.

F. Each Party shall indemnify and hold the other Party harmless from all debts and obligations he or she is awarded under the Decree of Divorce. This hold harmless clause shall apply to bankruptcy proceedings.

PROVISIONS REGARDING PERSONAL PROPERTY

30. During the course of the marriage relationship, Parties have acquired certain items of personal property. The personal property shall be divided as follows:

A. Parties shall be awarded vehicles as follows: (1) Amanda shall be awarded the 2024 Mini Cooper Electric and the Buddy Scooter and (2) John shall be awarded the 2026 Honda Accord. Each Party shall be responsible for all remaining payments due on the vehicle in their possession. Each Party shall remove the other Party's name from the vehicle insurance policy as soon as practicable. Each Party shall remove the other Party's name from the vehicle's title as soon as practicable. Each Party shall refinance the vehicle into his or her own name within thirty days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce. If Party is unable to begin the process of refinancing the vehicle within thirty days, then the vehicle shall be immediately placed for sale.

D. Parties shall be awarded half of the value of any joint bank accounts on the date of the separation. Parties shall be awarded the bank accounts in their own name.

E. Each Party shall be awarded property he or she owned before the marriage, property he or she acquired after the date of separation, inheritance received by him or her, and gifts to him or her from their respective family.

F. Parties shall duplicate any desired family pictures and videos, so each Party has a copy. Parties shall share the costs of duplication equally.

G. The remaining personal property shall be divided as Parties agree. If Parties cannot agree to a personal property division, Parties shall attend mediation.

PROVISIONS REGARDING REAL PROPERTY

31. During the course of the marriage, Parties acquired real property located at 11668 S. Misty Creek Place, South Jordan, UT, 84095, legal description: Lot 556, Midas Creek Estates

NO.5 SUB.10182-5577. Amanda shall be allowed to stay in the home with the Minor Children for five (5) years or until the youngest child turns 18 and graduates from high school. Upon which time, the real property shall be sold, the proceeds shall apply as follows:

A. First, the proceeds shall pay all obligations, debts, and mortgages on the property.

B. Second, the proceeds shall pay all costs associated with the sale of the property, including costs in preparing the home to be sold.

C. Finally, the proceeds shall be divided equally between Parties.

32. During the time that Amanda and the children remain in the home, both Parties shall equally share the costs of any major maintenances or major upkeep expenses regarding the house (replacement of appliances, major repairs for plumbing, electric, HVAC, flooring, roofing, and structure), and Amanda will be solely responsible for the mortgage and utilities payments. Amanda will also be solely responsible for minor maintenances such as cleaning, lawn mowing, paint and wallpaper, etc.

PROVISIONS REGARDING ALIMONY

33. John shall pay Amanda alimony in the amount of $4,000 per month for the length of the marriage or 280 months. In the alternative to alimony, John may pay Amanda a lump sum of $800,000. Alimony shall end if Amanda cohabits or remarries, if one Party dies, or upon full payment of the $800,000 lump sum.

PROVISIONS REGARDING PENSION AND RELATED ASSETS

34. John has acquired interest in defined contribution plans or defined benefit plans, including his 401k with American Funds in the amount of approximately $50,416.00.

A. Regarding defined contribution plans (e.g., 401(k), IRA, annuity), Parties shall equally divide the marital share of those plans. Marital share shall be defined as all plan contributions made, and all increases and decreases in plan value experienced, during Parties' marriage. Conversely, Party who accrued the non-marital shares of those plans shall be awarded 100% of those non-marital shares. Non-marital share shall be defined as all plan contributions made, and all increases and decreases in plan value experienced, before Parties' marriage.

B. Regarding defined benefit plans, (e.g., employer pension), those plans shall be divided pursuant to the Woodward formula found in Woodward v. Woodward, 656 P.2d 431 (Utah 1982).

C. John shall be 100% responsible for the cost of administering the Qualified Domestic Relations Order(s) (QDRO(s).

PROVISIONS REGARDING MISCELLANEA

I. ATTORNEY'S FEES.

35. Each Party shall be responsible for their own costs and attorney's fees.

II. OTHER.

36. Prior to the filing of any Petition to change any provision of the final Decree of Divorce, Parties shall attempt to resolve the issue(s) first through mediation.

37. Amanda shall be restored to the use of her former name of Fallick, if she so chooses.

38. Each Party is Ordered to execute and deliver to the other the documents required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce the Court enters.

39. Parties each indicated that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Both Parties understood and agreed that any deliberate failure to provide complete disclosure constitutes perjury.
