IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF: GLORIAN MARY STUMP, Petitioner, and SHANE ROBERT STUMP, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No.: 264901165 Judge: Stephen Nelson Commissioner: Joanna Sagers

The Court, having made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusion of Law, hereby ORDERS, ADJUGES AND DECREES that the bonds of matrimony and marriage contract between the parties are dissolved and the parties are awarded a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, to become final upon entry by the Court. The Court further ORDERS as follows:

1. Marriage Information. Petitioner Glorian Mary Stump ("Petitioner" or "Glorian") and Respondent Shane Robert Stump ("Respondent" or "Shane") are wife and husband, having been married on March 6, 2004 ("Date of Marriage") in Utah.

MARRIAGE, GROUNDS, AND JURISDICTION

2. Petitioner is over the age of 18 and is a resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah. Petitioner was a Utah resident for greater than three (3) consecutive months before filing the petition in this matter.

3. Respondent is a resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah. Respondent was a Utah resident for greater than three (3) consecutive months before filing the petition in this matter.

4. The parties are currently wife and husband. The parties separated on or about November 2, 2025, and do not currently reside together.

5. During the course of the marriage, irreconcilable differences have arisen between the parties making continuation of the marriage impossible, and the marriage is no longer viable.

6. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-402.

7. The Third Judicial District Court in Salt Lake City, UT has jurisdiction over the parties based on the Respondent's March 31, 2026 acceptance of service of Petitioner's March 5, 2026 Petition for Divorce. Dkts. 1 & 10.

CHILDERN

8. The parties have three (3) minor children together, to wit: Z*S born November, 2009, K*S born July, 2012, and S*S born February, 2016.

9. There are no proceeding involving the custody of the children of the parties has been filed or are pending in the juvenile court or in any other jurisdiction or state.

10. The parties' children have resided in the State of Utah for at least the last six (6) months prior to filing this action.

CHILD CUSTODY, PARENT TIME, AND PARENTING PLAN

11. Legal Custody. The parties shall share joint legal custody.

12. Physical Custody. Petitioner shall have primary physical custody for the minor children.

13. Parent Time and Parenting Plan. The Respondent shall exercise parent-time as the parties agree. If the parties are unable to agree on the parent-time, Respondent shall exercise parent-time pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-302. The parties shall comply with the Parenting Plan, which is incorporated by reference. The parties shall be required to have a mutual agreement in writing before taking the children out of the state of Utah, and the parties shall provide information that is at least consistent with Utah Code § 81-9-202(19).

CHILD SUPPORT

14. Child Support. Child support shall be calculated in accordance with Utah Code § 81-6-205 utilizing the applicable Sole Physical Custody Worksheet, based on the parties' incomes and parent-time arrangement. Petitioner's income shall be imputed at $6,367. Respondent income shall be imputed at $1,700. Based on the Sole Physical Custody Worksheet, Respondent shall pay child support to Petitioner for the parties' three (3) minor children (based on the Sole Physical Custody Worksheet) in the amount of $347 until each child reaches the age of 18 or gradates high school, which event occurs later. As each child turns 18 or graduates high school, whichever event occurs later, the Sole Physical Custody Worksheet shall be used to recalculate child support for the remaining children rather than taking the child support number for three children and dividing it by three children, then multiplying that number by the remaining number of children to be supported.

15. The parties shall have an affirmative duty to inform each other if their incomes increase more than 10% of the amounts listed in number 14 so that child support may be recalculated without needing to file a petition to modify. If a party fails to inform the other party and the other party must ask the Court to modify the decree to take into account the increase, the party who failed to inform the other party shall pay attorney fees for the petition to modify if the Court finds there has been a 10% increase in income requiring a modification of child support.

16. Respondent shall pay child support directly to Petitioner twice a month with half of the monthly payment being made by the 5th of each month and the other half of the monthly payment being made by the 20th of each month.

HEALTH INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

17. Medical and Dental Insurance and Premiums. Petitioner currently holds health care coverage for the minor children and shall continue to do so with Respondent reimbursing Petitioner for half of the children's premium. In any event, one or both parents shall provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of their minor children if such coverage is available to a parent at a reasonable cost. The parent who can secure the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall do so. Each parent shall share equally the actual out-of-pocket costs of the premium paid by a parent who maintains the insurance for the children's portion of insurance, with the payor parent being reimbursed no less than once a month for their portion of the out-of-pocket costs of the children's premium.

18. Medical and Dental Out-of-Pocket Costs. Each parent shall equally share all other reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, mental health, and orthodontia expenses incurred for the children, including deductibles and copayments. A parent who incurs such medical expenses for the minor children, shall provide proof of the expense and proof of the payment to the other parent, and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days.

19. Past Medical Expenses. The parties shall provide proof of paid medical expenses for the last 12 months from the date of this agreement within 30 days of the date of this agreement. Each parent shall be responsible to reimburse 50% to the parent who paid, of any verified payments for medical expenses for the minor children for the past year, but not before that. Such reimbursement shall be made to the paying parent within 30 days of receiving proof from the paying parent.

CHILDCARE

20. Childcare Expenses. Work-related childcare expenses shall be paid equally by each party. A parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent, and shall be entitled to reimbursement of 50% by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days.

OTHER EXPENSES FOR CHILDREN

21. Extracurricular Activities. Each party shall pay fifty percent (50%) of any amounts for any extracurricular activities the children are already in. The parties shall pay fifty percent (50%) of any other extra-curricular activities if both parties agree in writing to the activity in advance. The party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. If an extracurricular activity is agreed upon, then both parents shall make reasonable efforts to have the children attend during his or her parent time. If an extracurricular activity is not agreed upon, then the parent who did not agree to the activity is not required to have the children attend during his or her parent time.

TAXES

22. The parties shall claim the minor children for federal and state income tax purposes as follows:

a. Petitioner shall be entitled to claim minor child S.S. as a dependent each tax year.

b. Respondent shall be entitled to claim minor child K.S. as a dependent each tax year.

c. The parties shall alternate claiming minor child Z.S. as a dependent each tax year. Petitioner shall claim Z.S. in odd-numbered tax years and Respondent shall claim Z.S. in even-numbered tax years, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties.

ALIMONY

23. Spousal Support. The parties are able bodied and shall not be awarded any spousal support.

ASSETS AND DEBTS

24. Real Property. The parties acknowledge that no real property was acquired during the marriage and therefore no division of real property is necessary.

25. Premarital Property. Each party shall be awarded and shall retain as his or her sole and separate property all property owned by that party prior to the marriage, including any appreciation or increase in value thereof, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

26. Personal Property. Each party shall retain the personal property currently in his or her possession unless otherwise agreed.

27. Vehicles. During the parties' marriage, the parties have acquired a van. Respondent shall be awarded the van and all associated debt and liability pertaining to the van and indemnify Petitioner for any failure to pay the associated debt. Petitioner shall sign over her ownership in the van within thirty days of the entry of this Settlement Agreement.

28. Business Interests. Petitioner shall retain all right, title, and interest in her business, Hair by Glorian, including any associated goodwill, business assets, accounts, and liabilities, free and clear of any claim by Respondent. Respondent waives any interest therein. Respondent has no business interests subject to division in this matter.

29. Financial Accounts. Each party shall retain all bank accounts, checking accounts, savings accounts, investment accounts, and any other financial accounts currently held in his or her individual name, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

30. Debts and Obligations. The parties acknowledge that they are unaware of any joint marital debt incurred during the marriage. Each party shall be responsible for any debts incurred in his or her name and hold the other party harmless therefrom. In the event any undisclosed or unknown joint debt is later discovered, the party who incurred or benefited from such debt shall solely be responsible for payment thereof and shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless.

31. Retirement. Each party shall retain all retirement accounts, including 401(k) accounts currently held in his or her individual name, free and clear of any claim by the other party. No Qualified Domestic Relations Order ("QDRO") is required.

32. Mutual Restraints: Both parties should be restrained from annoying, harassing, threatening or harming the other.

33. Attorney Fees: Each of the parties should assume and pay their own costs and attorney fees so long as the matter remains uncontested.

34. Execution of Documents: Both parties should be required to execute all title documents, deeds, and any and all other documents necessary to transfer ownership of the real or personal property set forth herein. The parties should waive and relinquish any interest in the property awarded herein to the other party, whether real or personal, and acknowledge that they shall hereafter have no interest in said property.

MISCELLANEOUS

35. Modification. The parties acknowledge that any modification of this Agreement, including custody, parent-time, or child support shall be based on a substantial change in circumstances as provided by law.

36. Complete Agreement. This Agreement and the proposed Decree of Divorce contain the entire agreement of the parties as to all matters set forth herein and not expressly reserved. All matters not contained herein are deemed resolved and waived.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

37. Mediation Required. Should any dispute arise concerning anything related to the parties' marriage and any resulting court orders, and the parties are unable to agree on a resolution, the parties shall attend mediation in good faith to attempt to resolve the dispute. If the dispute is not resolved by mediation, either party may apply to the Court for a determination. If, however, the dispute involves an obligation detailed in this agreement, and a party fails to fulfill his/her obligations under this agreement, either party may apply directly to the Court for determination of the other party's failure to fulfill his/her obligation, and shall be granted his/her attorney fees incurred for having to enforce the provision in this agreement upon substantially prevailing on such motion.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
