IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
In the matter of the marriage of: JULIE LE DIEP and MINH QUOC HUYNH	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No: 264904705 Judge: Todd M. Olsen Commissioner: Joanna Sagers

The above-captioned matter having come before the above-referenced court, the Court having reviewed the file and finding the necessary pleadings in the file, the Court having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and being otherwise fully advised, states:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

Provisions Relating to Termination of Marriage

1. Julie and Minh were married in Ho Chi Minh, Vietnam on December 2nd, 2014.
2. The parties are awarded a divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences and the marriage between the parties is hereby terminated.

Provisions Relating to Minor Children

3. The parties have one minor child: B.Y.H. (12/04/16).

Provisions Relating to Legal Custody

4. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor child subject to the parenting plan herein.

Parenting Plan

Decision Making

1. Each party may make day to day decisions while the children are in their care or custody.
2. Each party may make emergency decisions while the children are in their care or custody but must notify the other parent of the emergency as promptly as possible under the circumstances.
3. The parties will discuss all important or major decisions; including, but not limited to, non-emergency medical decisions, educational decisions, and religious decisions; regarding the minor children and make good faith efforts to come to an agreement. The parties will also:
    a. Notify each other of medical appointments
    b. Be granted access to medical records
    c. Exercise routine medical decisions that are non-emergency

Dispute Resolution

4. If the parties cannot agree on an important or major decision regarding the children, then the parties will:
    a. First, consult any professionals that may have relevant feedback for a particular issue regarding the minor children. (Such as doctors, counselors, teachers, coaches, etc.)
    b. Second, if the parties still cannot agree then Julie shall have final say.
    c. Third, if Minh requests mediation, the parties shall mutually agree upon the selection of the mediator, and the parties shall equally share the reasonable cost of mediation.
    d. Fourth, Minh may ask a court to review the decision by Julie.

Education Plan

5. The parties agree that the minor children will continue at their current schools and feeder schools unless the parties agree in writing to change their schools.
6. Both parties may have authority to check the children out of school but shall not do so without good reason nor should they do so in order to exercise parent-time.
7. Both parties shall have equal access to school records, right to attend school meetings, conferences and activities.

Holidays

8. The parties shall communicate in advance regarding holiday parent-time and make good-faith efforts to reach a mutually agreeable schedule. If the parties reach an agreement, holiday parent-time shall be exercised according to that agreement. If the parties are unable to reach agreement, holiday parent-time shall be governed by the applicable Utah statutory parent-time and holiday schedule under Utah Code §81-9-302 (or any successor statute). Currently the holiday schedule will be according to the existing calendar under Utah Code §81-9-302.

Statutory Changes to Holiday Schedule

9. If the holiday schedule in the previous section changes or is updated by the legislative body of Utah, the parties agree that they can update the holiday schedule according to the new active statute upon written agreement.

Uninterrupted/Extended Time

10. The parties shall each have extended summer parent-time as mutually agreed upon. Each party shall notify the other of their proposed parent-time by May 1 of each year. Julie shall have first choice in even-numbered years, and Minh shall have first choice in odd-numbered years.
11. There is no additional extended or interrupted time except by written agreement of the parties.

Notice for Travel

12. For emergency purposes, whenever the children travel with either parent (within the state of Utah), all of the following will be provided to the other parent:

(a)	an itinerary of travel dates;

(b)	destinations;

(c)	places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and

(d)	the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location. 13. If the parties travel with the minor child outside of the state of Utah or internationally, they will need the following: a. Written consent of the other parent. b. All of section 20 above. 14. The parties shall not unreasonably withhold travel outside of the state of Utah or internationally. 15. Both parties are required to provide safe and appropriate travel itinerary.

Relocation

16. If a party intends to move 150 miles or more from the residence of the other parent, they are required to provide 60 days advance written notice of their intent to relocate.
17. If the parties cannot agree as to how the relocation will affect parent-time, travel costs, or other aspects of the parenting plan or orders of the court, then they are required to follow the provisions of Utah Code Section 81-9-209 regarding the relocation.

Mutual Restraints

18. Each party is mutually restrained from:
    a. Saying anything demeaning or derogatory about the other party in the presence of the minor children and should remove the children from third parties engaged in such conduct;
    b. Discussing adult issues, including this action with the children and should remove the child from third parties engaged in such conduct;
    c. Using the children as messenger or courier between them;
    d. Questioning the children about their parent-time or relationship with the other parent, interrogating the children about their visitation with the other parent, discussing this case with the children, or bribing or coaching the child to make statements regarding custody or visitation;
    e. Communicating with each other in any manner that is unprofessional, uncivil, or derogatory; that uses name calling, vulgarity, or otherwise inhibits a healthy co-parenting relationship.

f. Saying anything demeaning or derogatory about the other party's religious beliefs or lack thereof in the presence of the minor children. Neither party should permit third parties to engage in such conduct.

19. Parties shall not allow or permit third parties to do anything that they themselves are restrained from doing under this Parenting Plan.

Virtual Parent-Time/Telephone Contact

20. As long as equipment and service are available, both parents are entitled to virtual parent-time, telephone calls, and texting with the minor children during the other parent's time, as long as it is at a reasonable hour, for a reasonable duration, and is not disruptive to the plans and activities of the parent who has physical custody of the child at the time.

End of parenting plan

Provisions Relating to Physical Custody

21. The parties agree Julie shall have primary physical custody of the minor children.
