Attorney for Respondent

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
450 South State Street, Salt Lake City, Utah 84114

In the matter of the marriage of RACHEL HORN, Petitioner, and CHRISTIAN HORN, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264902311 DA Judge Thaddeus May Commissioner Michelle Blomquist

This matter came before the Court pursuant to the Sworn Complaint for Divorce filed by Petitioner Rachel Horn ("Rachel") and the Answer and Counter Petition for Divorce filed by Respondent Christian Horn ("Christian"). The parties entered into a Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement ("Stipulation") filed September 23, 2026. The Court having reviewed these documents, as well as the other papers on file in this matter, having entered appropriate Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, otherwise being fully informed in the premises, and for good cause appearing, does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE, and DECREE as follows:

1. Marriage Information & Grounds for Divorce. The parties were married on the 4th of May, 2024 in La Quinta, California. The parties have experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled and that have prevented them from pursuing a viable marriage relationship. The Court here enters a final divorce decree between the parties on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

2. Jurisdiction. Rachel is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah and has been for all of the 90 days immediately preceding the commencement of this divorce action. There is no dispute that this Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this case, and that venue properly lies in this Court.

3. Children. The parties have no children. There are no children expected and Rachel is not currently pregnant.

4. Mutual Restraints. Each party shall respect and honor the other party's privacy and personal boundaries. Each party shall be prohibited from harassing, abusing, stalking, surveilling, threatening, or otherwise harming the other party. Each party shall be required to ensure that all of his/her communications between each other are entirely civil and professional, without any profanity, name-calling, or threats of harm. The parties are mutually restrained from disparaging one another to anyone under any circumstances at any time. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, neither party shall disparage the other or post about the other party on any social media platforms or internet websites. Neither party shall discuss this matter with co-workers of the other party and shall do nothing that would jeopardize the employment stability or reputation of the other party. Neither party shall disparage the other to the other's friends, family, or romantic partners. The parties shall not allow third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph. Parties have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations.

5. Taxes. Any tax refund or liability associated with the parties' 2025 state and federal tax filing shall be divided equally between the parties. For the 2026 tax year and all future tax years, the parties shall file taxes separately.

6. Debts. During the marriage, the parties acquired a Mountain America Car Loan in the amount of $27,692.22, for which Rachel shall be solely responsible. If there are any other debts, the debt shall be the responsibility of the party incurring the debt. Each party shall be responsible for the debt in his or her own name unless otherwise stated herein. The parties shall be mutually restrained from incurring any additional liability on any joint debts or joint credit lines. Any joint credit lines still existing shall be closed immediately after the entry of the final divorce decree. All debts and obligations incurred since the parties' separation shall be the responsibility of the party who incurred the particular debt. Both parties are entitled to provide notice to creditors respecting the division of debts between the parties, including a copy of this Decree and the final divorce decree. Each party shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from all debts and obligations he or she is awarded under the final divorce decree. This hold harmless clause shall apply to bankruptcy proceedings.

7. Personal Property. During the marriage the parties acquired personal property items which shall be divided as follows:

a. Vehicles. Rachel shall be awarded the 2023 Audi Q5. Christian shall be awarded the 2018 Nissan Murano. Each party shall be responsible for all remaining payments due on the vehicle in their possession. Each party shall remove the other party's name from the vehicle insurance policy as soon as practicable. Each party shall remove the other party's name from the vehicle's title as soon as practicable.

b. Household Items & Other Property Awarded to Christian. Christian shall be awarded, as his sole and separate property:

i. Espresso glasses;

ii. Breakfast jars;

iii. Ruffle bowl;

iv. Two baking sheets;

v. One television;

vi. MacBook; and

vii. Sherpa chairs (including insurance claim funds to repair/replace).

c. Other Household Items & Furniture. Except as otherwise specifically awarded herein, Rachel shall be awarded all remaining furniture, household furnishings, kitchen supplies, utensils, and household items.

d. Gifts. Each party shall be awarded any gifts given to him or her by members of his or her respective family or by the other party, including but not limited to gifted jewelry and wedding rings, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Decree. This does not include wedding gifts intended as gifts to both parties. Those items shall be subject to division as outlined in subsection (b) above.

e. Family Photos. The parties shall duplicate any desired family pictures and videos so each party has a copy. The parties shall equally share the costs of duplication.

f. Property Exchange. Rachel shall gather Christian's personal property items and set them aside for his step-father to pick them up within 30 days of the Decree of Divorce being entered. There shall be no interaction necessary between Rachel and Christian's step-father at the time of the property exchange.

8. Banking & Financial Accounts.

a. Rachel shall be awarded the Chase Bank Account.

b. The parties shall be awarded the remaining bank accounts in their own name.

9. Real Property. The Parties acquired no real property during the marriage.

10. Alimony. Neither party shall be awarded alimony.

11. Retirement/Investment Accounts. Each party shall be awarded his or her own retirement accounts free and clear of any claim from the other party.

12. Name Restoration. Rachel shall be restored to her maiden name of "Keiner" should she so choose.

13. Cooperation. The parties shall be obligated to cooperate with each other and to perform in good faith all acts necessary to carry out the terms hereof. Each party shall execute and deliver to the other, in a timely manner, any and all documents reasonably necessary to carry out the terms hereof.

14. Legal Fees. Each party shall pay his or her own attorney fees and legal costs incurred herein through the date of entry of this final divorce decree.

15. Default. In the event either party defaults in his/her obligations stated herein, the party in default shall be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney fees and court costs, incurred in the enforcement of the obligations created by this final divorce decree.

16. Mediation. In the event of any future dispute or disputes between the parties, such as a motion to enforce any orders or a petition to modify, the parties shall mediate in good faith with a mutually-agreed-upon neutral mediator. Mediation must occur prior to any court hearing. The parties shall equally share the mediator's fee. If the parties cannot agree on a mediator, the Court shall appoint a mediator. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached in mediation and provided to each party. If the Court finds that one party has used or frustrated the mediation process without good cause, the Court shall award attorney fees and costs to the other party.

17. Miscellany. This document shall be governed by Utah law in all respects, and any references to Utah statute herein shall mean the Utah Code in effect as of the date of entry of this final divorce decree. Both parties have contributed to the drafting of this document and therefore neither party may legitimately argue that any ambiguities are to be construed against a supposed drafter. Paragraph headings are for convenience only, and do not affect the substance of the terms hereof. This final decree of divorce shall be binding upon each of the parties and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns.

18. The parties are hereby divorced.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
