Attorneys for Respondent

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: JAMES REGGIE EWING, Petitioner, and LINDSEY EWING, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE AND JUDGMENT Case No: 254905749 Commissioner: Russell Minas Judge: Robert Faust

Pursuant to the default judgment that entered against Petitioner at the hearing before Commissioner Russell Minas on September 16, 2026, the Court having entered the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for other good cause showing, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

Respondent, Lindsey Ewing, is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce upon the grounds of cruel treatment by Reggie which has resulted in great mental distress to Lindsey, and the marriage between Petitioner and Respondent is hereby dissolved, and the parties are hereby free and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all the obligations thereof, with said Decree to become final upon signing and entry of this Decree of Divorce herein.

Provisions Relating to Jurisdiction

Both parties are bona fide residents of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and have been for three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

The parties were married on April 19, 2017 in Sandy, Salt Lake County, State of Utah and are presently married. The parties separated on or about October 16, 2025.

The parties resided in the marital relationship in the State of Utah or the acts complained of by Lindsey were committed by Petitioner ("Reggie") in the State of Utah and therefore this Court has long-arm jurisdiction over Reggie pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §78B-3-205(6) (2025).

Provisions Relating to the Children of the Parties

There have been two (2) children born as issue of this marriage to wit: Carol Ryan Ewing, born October 7, 2017, and Tristan Ryker Ewing, born October 6, 2021.

There are no proceedings for custody of the above-named minor children filed or pending in the Juvenile Court.

The Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act

Pursuant to the UCCJEA, Utah is the home State of said minor children in that:

Utah is the home state of the minor children at the time of commencement of this proceeding.

The children currently reside at Sandy, Utah with Lindsey.

The Non-Public Information for Minor Children filed herewith sets forth the residences of the children during the last five years.

Lindsey has not been a party, witness or participated in any other capacity in any other litigation concerning the custody of the subject minor children in this State or any other State other than that named above.

Child Custody and Parent-Time

Lindsey is a fit and proper person to be awarded the sole physical and legal custody of the minor children of the parties, subject to Reggie's right to parent-time with the children at reasonable times and places. Reggie's parent-time will be supervised until such time as he can address his domestic violence issues and be safely around the children alone.

Due to Reggie's history of domestic violence, child abuse, and drug use, until the Court grants Reggie unsupervised parent-time, Reggie's parent-time will remain supervised and be as follows:

Reggie shall have supervised parent-time for six (6) hours per week. The visits will continue to be supervised by mutually agreed-upon supervisors, or a professional agency at Reggie's expense. The Court may hold a review hearing for further determination on Reggie's parent-time based on the benchmarks below.

Parent-Time Benchmarks:

a. Therapist Letter: The Court requests a letter from the children's therapist with an update on how the children are doing and the children's thoughts and expressions regarding Reggie and parent-time with him. The letter is not to make any custody recommendations.

b. Domestic Violence Assessment: Reggie will complete a domestic violence assessment and provide the report with recommendations to the Court. Reggie will provide Lindsey with the name and contact information of the assessor so that Lindsey can provide collateral information to the assessor for their consideration.

c. Substance Abuse Evaluation: Due to noted concerns about potential substance abuse, Reggie will complete a substance abuse evaluation and provide the report with recommendations to the Court. Reggie will provide Lindsey with the name and contact information of the evaluator so that Lindsey can provide collateral information to the evaluator for their consideration.

Once the Court deems Reggie fit to have unsupervised parent-time, then parent-time should be as the parties agree. If they are unable to agree, Reggie's parent-time will be pursuant to U.C.A. §81-9-302.

If either party moves out of state or relocates 150 miles or more from the residence specified in the court's decree, the relocating parent shall provide 60 days advance written notice of the intended relocation to the other parent. The notice will include a parent-time schedule approved by both parties or the minimum requirements for parent-time contained in U.C.A. §81-9-209.

Provisions Relating to Support Payments

Incomes: Lindsey earns $25.00 an hour working at Only Crowns, and her gross monthly income is $2,496.00. Reggie worked full-time until the parties' separation, when he voluntarily stopped working. Before he stopped working, Reggie's monthly income was $11,667.00, and he is imputed that amount as his monthly income for child support purposes. However, he has a current child support order for other children. Therefore, for child support purposes, his monthly income is $10,722.00.

Monthly Award: Using the sole custody worksheet for two children, Reggie will pay Lindsey $1,630.00 per month in child support. This is the same amount he was ordered to pay by the Temporary Orders, and that amount remains.

The support obligation for both parents shall be effective retroactively to November 1, 2025 which was the first full month after Reggie filed for Divorce, and shall continue until the parties' youngest child becomes eighteen (18) years of age, or until the month after the child's normal and expected date of graduation from high school, whichever occurs later. Except during periods of Court-ordered visitation, the parent without physical custody is required to pay the amount of support set forth without the need to modify this order.

Lindsey is entitled to income withholding relief pursuant to U.C.A. §26B-9-301 et. seq., and §26B-9-401 et. seq. All child support payments will be made to the Office of Recovery Services. Reggie will be responsible for any and all costs or fees assessed by ORS.

The parties will share equally in any child care expenses that are work and/or occupational or career training related. The party incurring the child care expense will present the other party with the name of the day care provider and monthly receipts for payment. Payment from the responsible party will be due within 30 days of proof of expense.

Under Utah Code §81-6-212(5) (2024), the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines.

Under Utah Code §81-6-212(3) and (4), the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstance. For purposes of this Subsection (9), a substantial change in circumstances may include: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (I) through (vi) results in a difference of 15% or more between the payor's ordered support amount and the payor's support amount that would be required under the guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature.

Provisions Relating to Cash Medical Support and Health Insurance

Both parties shall be required to maintain a policy of medical and dental insurance for the benefit of the minor children where available through employment at reasonable cost.

If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Lindsey shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Reggie shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

The parties shall divide equally all out-of-pocket costs of all premiums actually paid by either party for the children's portion of insurance. The premium expense for the children shall be calculated by dividing the total premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy, and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case.

The parties shall be ordered to divide equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical expenses, including all deductibles and co-payments incurred for the dependant child and actually paid by a parent.

Either party actually carrying insurance will provide verification of coverage to the other party or to the Office of Recovery Services at 515 East 100 South, Salt Lake City, Utah 84102 upon initial enrollment of the dependant children, and thereafter before January 2 of each year. The party will notify the other parent or the Office of Recovery Services of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) calendar days of the date he/she first knew or should have known of the change.

A party who incurs medical expenses will provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other party within thirty (30) days of payment. The paying party will remit payment within thirty (30) days of receiving a request for payment.

If the children are double-insured by the parties, then each party will pay the premium of their respective plans and neither party will reimburse the other.

Provisions Relating to Life Insurance

Reggie is ordered to purchase life insurance on his life in a face amount of sufficient size to provide for a monthly income equal to child support and alimony payments hereunder and be ordered to maintain in full force and effect said life insurance until such time as the youngest of the parties' minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18) years. During such period, Reggie is ordered to irrevocably designate Lindsey, as trustee for the minor children, the beneficiaries on said life insurance policy.

The one (1) account Lindsey still had access to because it was in her name, Reggie drained the account and overdrafted it by approximately $1,300. As such, Lindsey has had to rely on loans from family to pay for the mortgage and all other expenses in order to preserve the marital estate. Reggie should repay half of the money loaned to Lindsey by her family.

Martial Bank Accounts: The parties had several marital bank accounts from which Reggie removed Lindsey's access prior to separation. Lindsey awarded half the balance of those accounts dating back to the time Reggie removed her access. It is believed Reggie may have depleted the accounts in anticipation of divorce. These accounts include, but are not limited, the following:

American First Credit Union (x4898 and x3491)

Balance as of Separation: $134.73

Division: Split Equally:

Lindsey is awarded one half of any other bank or retirement accounts in Reggie's name and that were acquired during the marriage. Lindsey will be responsible for the division orders, and the parties will share the costs equally.

Provisions Relating to Real Property

During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain real property to wit:

A home located at 9169 S. Jordan Oaks Drive, Sandy, Utah 84070, more particularly described as follows: LOT B141, RIVER OAKS VILLAS TOWNHOMES PUD PLAT B. 9152-0596 9396-3255 10344-1881 10784-2108. Parcel: 27-02-432-006-0000.

The property should be sold as soon as reasonably practicable and the proceeds of the sale applied as follows:

First, to pay expenses of sale;

Second, to retire any and all mortgages and liens;

Last, the balance remaining thereafter to be divided equally between the parties.

Lindsey shall have the sole and exclusive authority to make all decisions concerning the listing, marketing, negotiation, and sale of the home, including the final purchase price and terms. Lindsey is further granted full authority to execute, on behalf of both parties, any listing agreement, purchase contract, closing document, and any other documents or contracts necessary to list, market, sell, and close the sale of the home. This authority is intended to permit Lindsey to execute documents both individually and on behalf of James Reggie Ewing to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Business Interests

During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain business interests, to wit:

Expert Electric LLC (started during the marriage). Reggie should retain this business as his sole and separate property after paying Lindsey her half of the value of said business.

Provisions Relating to Alimony

During the parties' marriage, the parties agreed that Lindsey would not work so she could provide full-time care to the parties' minor children. As such, Lindsey has not worked for eight (8) years. Therefore it is reasonable that the Court should award Lindsey alimony in an amount determined equitably by the Court and sufficient to meet her financial needs.

Provisions Relating to Pension and Related Assets

The parties have each acquired an interest in pension or profit sharing plans during the course of the marriage. It is reasonable that all retirement accounts should be equally divided between the parties. Lindsey will be responsible for the division orders, and the parties will share the costs equally.

Provisions Relating to Income Taxes

Provided that Reggie is current in all child support payments required to be made by December 31 of a given year, and provided Reggie is current in all other obligations, the parties will each claim one (1) minor child on taxes each year.

Lindsey will claim T.R.E., and Reggie will claim C.R.E. When the older child turns 18 or is no longer eligible to be claimed on taxes, the parties should rotate claiming the younger child as dependent for income tax purposes. Lindsey will claim the child in even years and Reggie should claim the child in odd years.

Miscellaneous Provisions

Reggie is permanently restrained from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, or harming Lindsey at Lindsey's place of residence, employment or any other place.

Neither parent will do anything to diminish the love and affection of the children towards the other parent. This includes speaking negatively about the other parent to the children, or allowing the children to remain in the presence of any third party speaking negatively about the other parent. Neither party may use the children to convey messages back and forth to the other parent, and the parents will not talk to the children about the litigation in this matter.

When conducting parent-time exchanges, the receiving parent shall pick up the children. The parties may utilize third parties to transport the children so long as they have been disclosed to the other parent and the children know the third party.

Reggie will pay Lindsey’s attorney’s fees and court costs pursuant to his request.

Each party is ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

The Court should grant such other and further relief as it may deem just and appropriate in this matter.
