Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR TOOELE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: NICOLE BROWN, Petitioner, and. KENNETH BROWN et al., Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264300152 Judge: Todd Hilbig Commissioner: Renee Blocher

The above-captioned matter came on regularly for consideration by the court without hearing. Pursuant to the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement ("the Stipulation") a judgment for a divorce can be entered. The court, having reviewed the pleadings on file herein, and having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, does now ORDER, ADJUDGE, and DECREE as follows:

1. The parties are awarded a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, the same to become final upon entry by the court clerk.

2. Residency: The Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Tooele County, State of Utah, and was for three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

3. Marriage Statistics: The parties were married on January 8, 2000 in Idaho Falls, Idaho, United States and are presently married.

4. Grounds: The parties are presently married and are obtaining a divorce. Irreconcilable differences have arisen between them, which differences have made the continuation of their marriage impossible.

5. Children: The parties have the following children: M.B., born August 2011 and B.B., born April 2009.

6. Custody/Parent-Time: The parties are awarded joint custody of their minor children. Parent-time with the children shall be at reasonable times and places as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, the parties' reasonable rights of parent-time shall be defined as follows:

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
Wk1:	Dad	Dad	Dad	Dad	Dad	Dad	Mom
Wk2:	Mom	Mom	Mom	Mom	Mom	Mom	Dad

a. The parties shall have 50/50 custody alternating a week on and a week off with the exchange on Sundays at 8:30 p.m.

b. Extended Summer-Time: Each party will have two weeks of uninterrupted parent-time in the summer.

7. Notification of Extended Time: Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time or vacation weeks with the children by May 1 each year for first option parent and May 15 for second option parent. Father shall have first choice of extended time in odd numbered years, and Mother shall have first choice of extended time in even numbered years. If notification is not provided timely, the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent-time for the non-complying parent.

8. Holidays: The holidays shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, the holidays will be according to Utah Code §81-9-302 as follows:

Even Years	Odd Years	Holiday and Time

Legal Custody: The parties shall have joint legal custody. Both parties will have access to the children's school, medical, church, and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, the parties will first seek the advice of an expert in the field. If they cannot come to an agreement, the parties will mediate before court intervention. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the children's day-to-day activities when the children are in his or her care .

a. Medical:

i. The parties will continue to use their current pediatrician as the pediatrician for the children and specialists that their pediatrician recommends, when needed. The parents shall make decisions mutually regarding the children's medical care. If the parties cannot come to an agreement, they shall abide by the recommendation of the attending doctor.

ii. Emergency and sick care shall be attended to by the parent who is exercising the parent-time. The parent shall notify the other parent within 30 minutes of scheduling for emergency or same-day care. The parent shall notify the other parent within 24 hours of scheduling for any regular medical or dental appointment so that each party may be able to attend the appointment if possible.

b. Separate Accounts: According to Utah Code §15-4-6.7 each party will elect for dental, medical, and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.

c. Educational Plan: The children shall continue to attend their current High School, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing. Both parties shall be listed on school records. Both parties shall be listed for any emails given by teachers or respective school administrators.

10. Relocation: If either party moves more than 40 miles from the high school, the parties will be bound by the 60-day notice requirements of Utah Code §81-9-209.

11. Communication: The parties will discuss all parenting concerns by text or e-mail at any time needed and will not use their children to deliver messages. Neither parent will block the other parent for contact prior to the graduation of the youngest child. The parties shall respond within 72 hours. The parties will use phone or text contact for emergencies or changes on the day of the exchange. The parents' communication with one another shall be civil, with no name calling or derogatory language in any way, and the communication shall not be excessive.

12. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Children: Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The children shall be able to contact the parents at any reasonable time.

13. Travel: When the children travel with either parent out of state, all of the following will be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure or 21 days for international travel:

a. An itinerary of travel dates;

b. Destination;

c. Places where the children or traveling parent can be reached;

d. And, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

e. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the children's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent-time or other mutually agreed upon times. All out of country travel shall be done through notarized documentation between the parties and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

14. Change of Information: Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

15. Notification of Children's Events: The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email and at least 30 days prior to the event, if possible. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities, and sporting events their children may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the calendar shall constitute notice.

16. Special Events: Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the lives of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

17. Mutual Restraining:

a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes their best interest.

b. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the children's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise “pumping” the children for information regarding what occurs when the children are with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

c. The parties will not use their children to deliver messages. Thus, the parents will not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the children or at any children’s activity.

d. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another or in the children’s presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking, or threatening the other party.

e. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image, or credit of the other party for any purpose.

f. If either parent is going to live or have a sleepover with a non-related person or have housing that shares any living space, they shall give the other parent the legal name and date of birth of the person so that a Background Check can be run if the other parent desires at their own cost. This shall be done 14 days prior to living together or the sleepover.

g. Notify Parent: Pursuant to U.C.A. § 81-9-202(18), a parent shall immediately notify the other parent if that parent resides with an individual or provides an individual access to the child or children if that parent knows that the individual is required to register as sex or kidnap offender or is required to register as a child abuse offender under U.C.A. § 81-9-202(18).

h. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor children from such circumstances.

18. Notification for Overnight: If either parent is going to be gone past 1 a.m. on their parent-time they shall notify the other parent to be "on call" for phone calls from the children that evening. This notification shall be done at least 24 hours in advance, when possible.

19. Dispute Resolution: If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their children generally or over the terms or implementation of this agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. The parties both agree, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical.

20. Activity Costs: Each party shall assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the children's extracurricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put the event on the Calendar within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change. The parents both agree to pay for one-half of soccer fees including soccer tournament fees, soccer camp, High School Soccer Fees, Uniforms, Indoor Soccer Fees and competition soccer team fees. The parent who has parent-time shall have the first option to provide transportation and lodging for the child during the soccer tournaments, if that parent will not provide the transportation, the other parent shall be given the first option to provide the transportation and lodging for the soccer tournament. A parent who provides the transportation and lodging for the soccer tournament shall do so at their own cost unless the parties mutually agree otherwise in writing.

21. School Fees: Each party shall assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, school lunch, driver's ed fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The parties agree that this does not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

22. Cell Phone Costs: The parties shall each pay for the minor children's cell phone plan with each paying one-half of the cost of the plan and any device purchased after October 12, 2026.

23. Class: Both parents shall attend Dr. Malovich's high conflict co-parenting class no later than January 31, 2027. The party shall give the other parent a copy of the certificate within 14 days of completion.

24. Transportation for the Children: The receiving parent will provide the transportation from the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.

25. Third-Party Transportation: A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the children if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent will be with the children by 7 p.m.

26. Exchange of Children's Items: In the event that the children need items exchanged and the children are not with the parent, the parent with the items shall be able to leave the item on the other parent's doorstep. The parent delivering the item shall text the other parent that the items were delivered and the parent receiving the items shall notify the other parent that they received them.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

27. Child Support: Child Support shall be calculated according to Utah Code §81-6-201 et seq. Mother's gross monthly imputed income is $4,253 per month. Father's gross monthly income is $11,560 per month. Mother has 183 overnights, and Father has 182 overnights for the purpose of child support calculation on the Joint Physical Custody Worksheet. Father's child support obligation shall be $533 per month. Child support shall commence November 1, 2026. When the oldest child graduates, the child support will reduce to $334 per month. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month.

28. Medical/Dental Expenses: Father will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children in accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208.

a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.

c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

e. Double coverage shall not be required. However, if the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium with no compensation from the other party.

f. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within 7 days of request. The parties shall notify the other in event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.

29. Childcare Expenses: The parties shall each pay their own respective childcare costs on their own time.

30. Separate Accounts: Mother shall obtain her own health insurance account, car insurance, phone plan, and any other joint plan by December 31, 2026.

31. Dependency Exemption: The parties will share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children as follows:

a. While there are two minor children, the parties will each receive one child as a dependency exemption/tax credit. Mother will claim the oldest child and Father will claim the youngest child.

b. When there is only one minor child, the parties will alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child. Mother will be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for odd-numbered tax years, and Father will claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for even-numbered tax years.

c. A parent is entitled to claim the dependency exemption/tax credits indicated herein as long as he or she is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of the applicable tax year.

32. Taxes: The parties will file joint tax returns for 2026. The parties will equally share in any cost of preparation of taxes. The parties will equally share any tax refund or tax liability.

33. Entry: Consistent with Utah Code §81-4-406(6), the Decree of Divorce shall not be considered absolute until January 2, 2027, so that the parties can elect the option to file joint taxes together for 2026 and Mother can maintain the medical insurance through Father's insurance through December 31, 2026.

34. Real Property: The marital property located at 406 Culross Circle, Stansbury Park, UT will be awarded to Mother with all debts and liabilities commencing on October 1, 2026. All of the equity therefrom is awarded to Mother. Mother shall hold the other party harmless on all debts, repairs, and liabilities associated with the home. Mother will get the utilities solely in her name by November 30, 2026. Mother will refinance or assume the home within 6 months of the entry of the Decree of Divorce. In the event that the refinance or assumption does not occur, the parties agree to immediately put the home for sale with a mutually agreed upon Real Estate Agent. Father shall give Mother three names for Real Estate Agents, and Mother shall choose one within 14 days of receipt. Thereafter, the parties will list with that agent within 7 days. The parties shall follow the advice of the Real Estate Agent. Mother shall be solely responsible for any renovation, maintenance, and emergency repair or construction on the home for any reason. Upon the sale of the home at a reasonable market value price, the proceeds of the home shall be distributed as follows:

a. First, the parties shall pay the cost of sale;

b. Second, the mortgage shall be paid;

c. Thereafter, the equity shall be awarded to Mother.

35. Personal Property: During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Said personal property of the parties shall be distributed such that the person receiving the item shall be responsible for any associated debt with the item and shall refinance or sell by December 31, 2026. The division shall be as follows:

Item Description	Awarded To
Hyundai Palisade	This shall be listed for sale for $24,900 by Mother. When it is sold at a reasonable price, both parties shall receive one-half of the remaining funds after payment in full of the loan within 5 days of receipt.
Hyundai Accent	Father
Accord	Mother
2001 Nissan Altima	Father
Rocking Chair given by Mother's Parent	Mother
Copper	Mother

a. Each party is awarded their own personal property and effects and that property which is now in their individual possession or under their individual control, except as indicated herein.

b. The dog Eugene will go back and forth with B.B., and each parent shall be responsible for the care and food when the dog is at their home. If there is any necessary and reasonable veterinary bills, the parties shall each pay one-half of the bill. When B.B. is an adult, the dog will be awarded to B.B.

36. Debts: The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party will assume, indemnify, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

Debt Description		Responsible Party
Capital One -4054	$10,129.00	These debts shall be paid in no more than the amount

Citi -8580	$23,058.00	listed in this table through the cashing of the TSP. The parties shall maintain these debts as they have historically done until the TSP pays in full. Father has historically paid Capital One and Chartway. Mother has historically paid City, Synchrony, and Discover. Any amounts charged by either party after October 11, 2026 shall be the responsibility of the party who made the charge. Father's name will be removed from any account upon being paid off, if applicable.
Synchrony Lowe's	$200.00
Chartway Credit -9633	$15,713.00
Discover -1920	$15,992.00
Other Debts in Mother's Name		Mother
Other Debts in Father's Name		Father

a. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.

b. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in this agreement and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt shall be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

c. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

37. Financial Accounts:

a. The following accounts are awarded to Mother:

Account	Approximate Balance
Chartway -3293	$888.00

c. The following accounts shall be equally divided on the date of division:

Account	Approximate Balance

d. Each party shall remove the name of the other party with respect to any joint accounts awarded to them individually. The Chartway 1176/8382 shall be divided and closed.

38. Retirement Accounts: The parties shall equally divide the marital portion of the following retirement accounts and will divide the amount with each receiving ½ of the marital portion with the division date as the entry of the Decree of Divorce and associated gains and losses, if allowed by the plan.

a. Fidelity Amentum 401k Retirement Plan Ending in 5971 as of the date of the entry of the Decree of Divorce and associated gains and losses, if allowed by the plan.

b. Mother shall be awarded the TSP account in Father's name as of the date of the entry of the Decree of Divorce and associated gains and losses, if allowed by the plan.

c. Mother shall receive $51,173 of the Empower Planned Systems International, Inc. 401k Plan (Plan ending in 4481-01ATL) account with the entry date the Decree of Divorce and associated gains and losses, if allowed by the plan.

d. The parties shall equally divide the marital portion of the FERS pension in Father's name, and will divide the amount with each receiving ½ of the marital portion as defined by the Woodward formula (Woodward Formula: Total Months Married During Employment/Service as numerator and Total Months of Employment/Service as denominator. This fraction is the marital portion in which each party is entitled to one-half.)

i. The parties shall equally split the cost associated with splitting the accounts or QDRO, if any.

ii. The parties shall use Fackrell & McLean to prepare their necessary documentation for division with each paying one-half of the cost.

iii. The parties will cooperate and give any information or signatures within five business days of request.

iv. The parties shall commence the QDRO's, pay for their portion, and fill out necessary paperwork within 14 days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce.

39. Separate Property: Mother is awarded her personal injury settlement of approximately $31,000 as separate property.

40. Life Insurance: The parties are each awarded their respective life insurance policies. The parties are able to change beneficiaries upon the signing of the stipulation.

41. Property Settlement: Mother shall pay for all of the debts as listed herein from the TSP. Their accountant Larry Rigby shall estimate the appropriate taxes, and each party shall receive one-half of the net monies remaining after the debt and appropriate taxes are deducted from the cashed out TSP funds.

42. Name: Mother will have the option of restoring her name to Nicole Mae Ford.

43. Alimony: Given all of the considerations herein, neither party shall be awarded alimony. Both parties waive and relinquish the right to receive alimony from the other, both now and in the future.

44. Deeds and Titles: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce. The parties will cooperate and give any information or signatures within five business days of request.

45. Drafting: Both parties attended mediation with their respective counsel and participated actively in the drafting and revising of the Stipulation. Both parties and their counsel had an opportunity to read the Stipulation and to make suggested changes to the draft and this is a complete understanding of all of issues negotiated and agreed to by the parties within the mediation session. Each of the parties understands, acknowledges, and agrees that each of the parties hereto has contributed to the drafting of the Stipulation, and no provision shall be construed against any party as being the draftsman thereof. The Stipulation shall therefore be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing the Stipulation to be drafted. The parties specifically, intentionally, and knowingly waive any right to allege, assert, or claim the benefit of any rule requiring construction against the drafting party.

46. Full Disclosure: The parties each indicate that there has been a complete, accurate, and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party, separately or by the parties jointly.

47. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Each party shall assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.

48. Final Stipulation: The Stipulation is entire and complete and embodies all understandings and agreements between the parties. No prior or contemporaneous oral or written agreements or matters outside of the Stipulation shall have any force or effect. The parties are aware that they have a right to proceed to trial in this matter to present all of their evidence and witnesses but waived this right. The parties are satisfied that the Stipulation is fair and reasonable. There are no questions the parties have to ask or unresolved issues that need to be addressed. All issues either party wishes to raise are incorporated in the Stipulation.

49. Waiver: The parties agree to waive any monies owing one from the other including but not limited to child support and alimony through October 12, 2026.
