Attorney - Mediator
Filing on behalf of both parties as a Third-Party Neutral, pursuant to Rule 2.4 of the Utah Rules of Professional Conduct

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, SALT LAKE CITY DEPARTMENT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of RICHARD EISENMANN JR., Petitioner, and EMILY BETTS, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No: 264904982 Judge: Amber M Mettler Commissioner: Renee Blocher

The Petitioner, Richard Eisenmann Jr., and the Respondent, Emily Betts, have entered into a written Stipulation resolving all outstanding divorce issues, which has been filed with the court. The Court has received and accepted the parties' Agreement, reviewed the file, and being otherwise duly advised, having previously signed and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

The bonds of matrimony existing between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved. In addition, all other remaining issues in this matter, outlined below, are to become final and absolute upon entry by the court.

CHILD CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

1. There is one minor child born or adopted between the parties, to wit: P.C.E. (born October 2012).

2. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor child. The parties shall be governed by the Parenting Plan set forth herein.

3. The Respondent is awarded sole physical custody of the minor child. Parent-time with the minor child shall be as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree on a parent-time schedule, then they shall follow the parent time schedule as outlined in UCA §81-9-302. Petitioner shall be designated the non-custodial parent.

4. Summer Parent-Time - The following schedule shall apply each year when school is not in session for summer break:

a. Noncustodial Parent's Extended Summer Parent-Time

i. The noncustodial parent shall be entitled to up to four (4) weeks of extended summer parent-time. Extended parent-time shall begin at 8:00 a.m. on the first day and end at 8:30 p.m. on the last day.

ii. The four (4) weeks of extended parent-time shall be exercised as follows:

1. Two (2) weeks shall be exercised consecutively and without interruption.

2. The remaining two (2) weeks may also be exercised consecutively or, at the noncustodial parent's election, may be exercised as a separate consecutive fourteen (14) day period.

3. During the second two-week period only, the custodial parent may interrupt the noncustodial parent's parent-time for one weekday visit occurring on the same weekday the custodial parent would otherwise be entitled to weekday parent-time under this Parenting Plan.

4. Except as provided above, all extended summer parent-time shall be exercised consecutively.

b. Custodial Parent's Extended Summer Parent-Time

i. The custodial parent shall be entitled to one uninterrupted two (2) week period of summer parent-time. This period shall begin at 8:00 a.m. on the first day and conclude at 8:30 p.m. on the last day.

c. Selection of Summer Parent-Time - Each parent shall notify the other in writing of the dates selected for his or her extended summer parent-time.

i. Odd-numbered years:

1. The noncustodial parent shall provide written notice no later than May 1.

2. The custodial parent shall provide written notice no later than May 15.

d. Even-numbered years:

i. The custodial parent shall provide written notice no later than May 1.

ii. The noncustodial parent shall provide written notice no later than May 15.

e. If one parent fails to provide timely notice, the parent who timely complied with the notification requirements may designate the dates for both parents' extended summer parent-time.

f. If both parents fail to provide timely notice, the first parent to thereafter provide written notice shall have the right to designate the summer parent-time schedule for both parents.

g. If the custodial parent intends to interrupt the noncustodial parent's second two-week period for a weekday visit as permitted herein, the custodial parent shall notify the noncustodial parent of that intention within ten (10) days after receiving the noncustodial parent's written notice of summer parent-time dates.

5. In addition, holiday parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties do not agree, then they shall follow the holiday parent-time schedule set forth in UCA §81-9-302 and as follows with the Petitioner identified as the non-custodial parent for holiday purposes. Holiday parent-time takes precedence over the normal rotating parent-time schedule.

6. Respondent's residence shall be identified as the primary residence for education purposes. Both parties shall be listed in school records as a point of contact for school communications.

7. In the event either party moves 150 miles or more away from their current residence, the parties agree to follow the provisions of UCA §81-9-209, the Relocation Statute.

CHILD SUPPORT

8. Petitioner is currently employed and has a gross monthly income of $14,992.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

9. Respondent is currently employed and has a gross monthly income of $500.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

10. The sole custody worksheet shall be used with the Petitioner's income set at $14,992.00 and the Respondent's income set at $500.00.

11. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-101 et seq a child support order shall be entered pursuant to the statutory guidelines as follows:

a. Petitioner shall be ordered to pay Respondent the sum of $1,324.00 per month beginning the first of the month following the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce. The sum is known as the base child support award, for the minor child of the parties, pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines, until a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later. When a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

b. The base child support award should be reduced by 50% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the noncustodial parent by order for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days. If the dependent child is a recipient of Public Assistance from the State of Utah (T.A.N.F.), any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal parent time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

c. The mandatory income withholding relief provisions of the Utah Code Annotated may be instituted at this time. Said income withholding procedure should apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income should be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah 84145-0011 until such time as the obligor no longer owes child support to the obliged.

d. There are currently no child support arrearages.

e. Each of the parties should be under mutual obligation to notify the other if there is a change in income of more than 30% and the change is not temporary in nature.

f. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-212(5), the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines.

g. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-101 et seq, the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature.

INSURANCE, DAYCARE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

12. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-208 (2024) as amended:

a. Either Petitioner or Respondent should maintain insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor child where available at a reasonable cost. In determining which parent shall maintain insurance for medical expenses, the parties shall consider the reasonableness of the cost, the availability of a group policy and the coverage of the policy. If the parties cannot agree on who shall carry the insurance, then it shall be determined by the preference of the custodial parent. If insurance is being provided by a plan by both parents, the Petitioner's insurance shall be considered primary coverage and the Respondent's shall be considered secondary.

b. The parties shall be equally responsible for all out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of the insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid.

The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

c. Both parties shall share equally all medical expenses incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties. Medical expenses shall include, but not be limited to, the following: medical, dental, orthodontia, ophthalmological, psychological, or therapeutic, etc.

d. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

e. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

13. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-209 both parties shall share equally the reasonable work related child care expenses of the parents. Due to the age of the child, child care is not anticipated.

TAX EXEMPTION

14. The parties shall share equally in the child tax credit, exemption, or deduction for State and Federal income tax purposes with Petitioner claiming P.C.E. in odd years and Respondent claiming P.C.E. in even years

15. For the Petitioner to claim the minor child, he must be current on all his child support expenses prior to the end of the tax year.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

16. Prior to the marriage, the parties each had individually acquired certain separate property. Each party shall be awarded any property identified as premarital or separate property, including all gifts and inheritance.

17. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain items of personal property.

18. Petitioner shall be awarded the pool table and his personal belongings from the marital home.

19. Respondent shall be awarded all other personal property.

20. All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources shall be awarded solely to the party from whose family it came.

VEHICLES

21. Each party shall be responsible for the debts and liabilities related to their separate vehicles and shall hold the other party harmless from any liability associated therewith.

The parties shall take all necessary steps to transfer the vehicles into their own names within 30 days of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce.

REAL PROPERTY

22. The residence located at 6753 W. Oak Crossing Way, Herriman, Utah shall be awarded to Respondent, subject to the terms set forth herein.

23. Respondent shall have until September 1, 2029 to refinance, assume, or otherwise restructure the mortgage so that the residence and associated mortgage obligation are in Respondent's name alone and Petitioner is fully released from any liability on the mortgage.

24. Until Petitioner is fully released from the mortgage, Respondent shall be solely responsible for making all mortgage payments in a timely manner. There shall be no late, missed, or delinquent mortgage payments through September 1, 2029. Respondent shall also be responsible for all other costs associated with the residence, including property taxes, homeowners insurance, utilities, maintenance, and repairs, and shall indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless from such obligations.

25. If Respondent fails to timely make any required mortgage payment, resulting in a late, missed, or delinquent payment while Petitioner remains obligated on the mortgage, the residence shall be placed for sale with a licensed real estate agent within thirty (30) days of the late, missed, or delinquent payment. The parties shall cooperate in good faith with all actions reasonably necessary to list and sell the residence.

26. If Respondent sells the residence on or before September 1, 2032, whether voluntarily or pursuant to the late-payment provision above, the mortgage, valid liens and encumbrances, real estate commissions, closing costs, and other reasonable costs of sale shall first be paid from the sale proceeds. The remaining net equity shall be divided ninety percent (90%) to Respondent and ten percent (10%) to Petitioner.

27. If Respondent does not sell the residence on or before September 1, 2032, Respondent shall thereafter be entitled to one hundred percent (100%) of the residence and all equity therein, and Petitioner shall have no further ownership, equity, appreciation, or other financial interest in the property.

BANK ACCOUNTS, PROFIT SHARING, STOCK OPTIONS, BONUSES, INVESTMENT, RETIREMENT/PENSION ACCOUNTS AND OR/BUSINESS INTERESTS

28. The parties have acquired and continue to acquire bank, profit sharing, stock options, bonuses, investment, retirement and/or pension accounts and business interests during the course of the parties' marriage.

29. All of these accounts or assets shall be divided as follows as of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce unless specified otherwise:

Account Description	Petitioner will Receive	Respondent will Receive	Other
All bank accounts in Petitioner's name	100%
All bank accounts in Respondent's name		100%

Petitioner’s Principal Financial retirement account	50%	50%	This account shall be divided giving each party one-half of any account from the date of the parties’ marriage until the date of the Decree of Divorce.
All other retirement and investment accounts in Petitioner’s name	100%
All other retirement and investment accounts in Respondent’s name		100%

30. If necessary, a Qualified Domestic Relation Order (QDRO) or Domestic Relations Order (DRO) shall be prepared to divide these accounts. Any fees associated with the above orders shall be split evenly between the parties.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

31. Each party shall be responsible for the debts in their own names and shall hold the other party harmless for any liability associated therewith.

32. As part of the parties' overall division and equalization of the marital estate, Petitioner shall pay Respondent the sum of $20,000.00. The $20,000.00 payment shall be paid in full to Respondent within thirty (30) days of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce. This payment is intended to effectuate the parties' agreed division and equalization of the marital estate.

33. Pursuant to §81-4-204(1)(e) Utah Code Annotated, the parties shall notify respective creditors or obligors, regarding the court’s division of debts, obligations, or liabilities and regarding the parties separate, current addresses.

LIFE INSURANCE

34. Petitioner shall maintain Respondent as a beneficiary on Petitioner's existing life insurance policy through the final alimony payment due in July 2032.

35. Petitioner shall not remove Respondent as a beneficiary or otherwise terminate Respondent's beneficiary designation prior to satisfaction of Petitioner's alimony obligation.

36. Following payment of the final alimony payment in July 2032, Petitioner's obligation to maintain Respondent as a beneficiary shall terminate, and Petitioner may thereafter change the beneficiary designation at his discretion.

ALIMONY

37. Petitioner shall be ordered to pay alimony to Respondent as follows:

a. Petitioner shall pay alimony to Respondent pursuant to the stepped support schedule set forth below. The parties intend that, during each applicable period, Petitioner's combined monthly obligation for child support and alimony shall equal the total monthly support amount stated below.

b. The Petitioner's current child support obligation is $1,324.00 per month. Accordingly, the alimony portion shall be calculated by subtracting Petitioner's then-current monthly child support obligation from the applicable total monthly support amount.

c. July 1, 2026 through November 30, 2026: The total combined monthly support obligation shall be $7,000.00. Based upon the current child support obligation of $1,324.00 per month, the alimony portion shall be $5,676.00 per month.

d. December 1, 2026 through May 31, 2027: The total combined monthly support obligation shall be $6,000.00. Based upon the current child support obligation of $1,324.00 per month, the alimony portion would be $4,676.00 per month.

e. June 1, 2027 through December 31, 2030: The total combined monthly support obligation shall be $5,500.00. Based upon the current child support obligation of $1,324.00 per month, the alimony portion would be $4,176.00 per month.

f. January 1, 2031 through June 30, 2031: The total combined monthly support obligation shall be $4,500.00. Based upon the current child support obligation of $1,324.00 per month, the alimony portion would be $3,176.00 per month.

g. July 1, 2031 through July 31, 2032: The total combined monthly support obligation shall be $3,500.00. Based upon the current child support obligation ending due to the minor turning 18 and graduating in June of 2031, the alimony portion would be $3,500.00 per month.

h. Adjustment Based Upon Child Support: The parties expressly agree that the total combined monthly support obligation stated above is intended to remain fixed during each applicable period. If Petitioner's child support obligation is subsequently increased, decreased, modified, or terminated, the monthly alimony obligation shall correspondingly adjust so that the combined amount of child support and alimony continues to equal the applicable total monthly support amount set forth above.

i. For example, if the applicable total monthly support obligation is $4,500.00 and the child support obligation is $1,324.00, alimony shall be $3,176.00. If child support subsequently changes, alimony shall be recalculated by subtracting the new child support amount from $4,500.00.

j. 2027 Bonus: In addition to the monthly alimony obligation set forth above, Petitioner shall pay Respondent a one-time payment equal to twenty percent (20%) of Petitioner's net 2027 bonus. For purposes of this provision, the payment shall be calculated using the net amount actually received by Petitioner after applicable taxes and mandatory withholdings, rather than the gross bonus amount. The one-time bonus payment shall be paid to Respondent no later than January 31, 2027.

k. Alimony payments shall be paid by the fifth (5th) day of every month thereafter.

l. Alimony payments shall continue as outlined above or until Respondent cohabitates or remarries, whichever occurs sooner. Respondent has an obligation to notify Petitioner of her cohabitation or remarriage and alimony shall cease upon Respondent’s cohabitation or remarriage. Alimony shall end in the event of the death of either party.

TAX RETURN

38. The parties shall file taxes for the 2026 tax year as each deem appropriate.

ATTORNEY'S FEES

39. Each party shall be responsible for their own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the litigation of this matter.

MISCELLANEOUS

40. Both parties shall be mutually restraining from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, disparaging, or harming the other party at the other party's place of residence, employment or any other place.

41. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

42. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party separately or by the parties jointly.

43. This Decree of Divorce is the result of the Stipulated Settlement Agreement reached between the parties. The final documents were prepared as a service to both parties and shall not be interpreted against either as the "drafting party."

44. Each party should execute and cooperate in delivering to the other and to the court such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the divorce decree hereafter to be entered by the court. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of this divorce decree, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

45. Upon the filing of any Petition to change any provision of the final Decree of Divorce, the parties must first attempt to resolve the issue through mediation.

EISENMANN and BETTS

PARENTING PLAN

Each parent has a loving and valuable relationship with the child and shall work together cooperatively with regard to the child's physical care and financial and emotional support. The parents shall adhere to the following parenting plan provisions:

1. Co-Parenting Principles

   a. The Parties shall co-parent cooperatively, focusing on the physical, emotional, and financial well-being of the child.

   b. Each parent shall support and encourage the child's meaningful relationship with the other parent.

   c. Civil communication is required at all times. Name-calling or hostile communication is prohibited.

2. Communication Between Parents

a. Primary communication shall occur via text or email, except in emergencies or time-sensitive situations.

b. Parents shall timely share important information regarding the child's schooling, health, social activities, and other relevant matters.

c. If information is available through public sources (e.g., school portals), each parent shall access it directly.

3. Joint Legal Decision-Making

a. The Parties shall jointly decide major decisions affecting the child, including:

i. Education and daycare

ii. Medical, dental, counseling, and orthodontic care

iii. Religious upbringing

iv. Extracurricular activities

b. Decision-making process:

i. Identify the issue

ii. Develop possible solutions

iii. Select the most reasonable solution in the child's best interests

4. Dispute Resolution for Major Decisions - If the parties cannot reach agreement:

a. They may defer to the recommendations of an expert. If they still do not agree;

b. They shall attend mediation with a mutually agreed mediator (each party pays their own fees).

c. Agreements reached in mediation shall be reduced to writing and signed by both.

d. Only after a good-faith mediation attempt may a party seek Court involvement.

e. A party who frustrates this process may be ordered to pay the other's attorney's fees, court costs, and mediation costs.

5. Day-to-Day Responsibility

a. The parent exercising parent-time shall make routine daily decisions.

b. Either parent may make necessary emergency decisions regarding the child's health or safety and shall inform the other immediately.

6. Information Access

a. Both parents shall have direct access to all school, medical, dental, and mental health records.

b. Each parent shall notify the other of medical appointments and emergencies.

c. Both parties shall provide written authorization enabling the other to access information from all providers.

7. School Access

a. Both parents may visit the child at school, receive school communications, and check the child out when necessary.

b. Disputes regarding education shall first go to mediation.

8. Medical Treatment Restrictions

a. Non-emergency, uninsured, elective medical/dental/orthodontic or alternative treatments require prior written consent from both parties.

b. Costs must be agreed in writing before scheduling.

c. Violating parent may be denied reimbursement.

9. Travel Notice Requirements

a. Either parent may travel domestically with the minor child during their own parent-time without needing advance permission, provided they give standard notice.

b. Any international travel, or any travel that would interfere with the other parent's scheduled parent-time, must be mutually agreed to in advance and in writing.

c. When traveling with the child, the traveling parent shall provide the following, as required by Utah Code §81-9-202(19):

i. Itinerary with travel dates

ii. Destination(s)

iii. Contact information

iv. Name/phone of a third party aware of the child's location.

10. Child's Important Documents

a. The parties shall provide access to and exchange the minor child's important documents, including but not limited to passports, birth certificates, and Social Security cards, within forty-eight (48) hours of a request by the other parent.

b. If the requested documents are not reasonably available due to a party being out of town or otherwise away from the documents, the documents shall be provided immediately upon that party's return.

c. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to ensure timely access to such documents when needed for the benefit of the minor child.

11. Participation in Activities

a. Both parents may attend the child's school events, church functions, activities, recitals, and sports.

b. Parents shall cooperate to facilitate participation and family events (e.g., weddings, funerals, reunions, ceremonies).

12. Exchanges and Transportation

a. The receiving parent shall pick up the child at the designated start of their parent-time.

b. Child shall be ready on time for exchanges.

13. Contact Information

a. Each parent shall provide the other with current address, phone number, and email within 24 hours of any change.

14. Parent/Child Communication

a. Each parent shall encourage free and uncensored reasonable phone/virtual communication with the other parent.

b. The child may contact either parent at any time.

c. A parent shall reasonably facilitate calls when requested by the child.

15. Right of First Refusal

a. Parental care is preferred over surrogate care.

b. If overnight child care is needed, the other parent shall be offered the opportunity to provide care before third-party caregivers are used.

c. The parties shall create and maintain a mutually approved list of surrogate caregivers/babysitters who may be used by either parent without additional approval.

d. Any caregiver not on the approved list must be mutually agreed upon in advance and in writing before caring for the minor child.

e. Both parents shall provide names, addresses, and phone numbers of any caregivers used.

16. Conduct Around the Child

a. Neither party shall speak negatively about the other parent or allow third parties to do so in the child’s presence.

b. Neither party shall discuss court matters with or in front of the child.

c. Neither party shall disparage the other on social media or in public.

17. Introducing New Partners

a. Parents shall not introduce dating partners to the child until the relationship is committed and exclusive.

b. Notice shall be given to the other parent beforehand.

18. Shared Calendar

a. Parents shall maintain a shared calendar for school events, appointments, practices, exchanges, and other child-related activities.

19. Substance Use Restrictions

a. Neither party shall use illegal drugs or consume alcohol to excess while caring for the child or prior to transporting them.

b. Alcohol and medications shall be stored securely and out of the child's reach.

20. Enforcement and Non-Waiver

a. A party's failure to comply with any provision does not release the other party from their obligations.

b. All provisions remain enforceable unless modified by written agreement or court order.
